CATHOLIC WORKMEN CLOSE THEIR LABORS

Delegates to Grand Lodge Well
Pleased With the Hospitality
Received in Plattsburgh.

From Saturday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon marked the closing of the grand lodge of the Katolicky Delnik or Catholic Workmen, who did a very high honor to our city by re-electing to offices of supreme president and supreme chaplain our worthy citizens, J. M. Jerousek and Father John Vleck. Both of these gentlemen have done great work for this order and under the able administration of President Jerousek the lodge has advanced greatly, both in the membership and the financial condition of the order. The other officers re-elected for the next two years were: Vice president, Joseph A. Drozda, Phenlope, Texas; secretary, Thomas G. Hovorka, New Prague, Minn.; treasurer, Frank J. Pojak, Schuyler, Neb.

The delegates in attendance at the grand lodge were delighted with the treatment accorded them by the citizens of Plattsburgh and the hospitable manner in which the local lodge provided for their comfort and they formed many pleasant acquaintances while here, and we can state they were some of the finest gentlemen that ever visited our city, and we ask them to come again in the future with their meeting and they will be royally received. The membership of this lodge is largely in the mid-west states and the grand lodge will hold their next session, two years hence, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Motorcycle Bargain.

Double cylinder 5 H.-P. Indian motorcycle, recently overhauled and in good running order. Price, $85.00 cash.

Edgar Steinhauer,

Will Open New Store.

Paul Stadelman will open a new store in the Bookmeyer building the first of February and will carry a complete line of cigars, candies, magazines and daily papers, and would appreciate the trade of the public in general. Paul has worked up quite a trade in selling the Saturday Evening Post in this city and hopes to be able to enlarge his business by carrying a line of monthly periodicals and papers, and anyone desiring anything in that line should call on him after the first of the month. Adolph Wesch, the shoemaker, expects to occupy part of the room with his shop.

CHANGE IN RUNNING TIME OF NO. 23, IS ASSURED

From Saturday's Daily.

The proposed change of the running time of No. 23 has been practically assured now, and the change will probably go into effect on Sunday, February 2. This will give us an excellent train to Omaha, especially to those who desire to attend to business matter and return on No. 2 at 5 o'clock, as under the new schedule No. 23 will leave here at 1:58 and arrive in Omaha at 2:45, and it is to be hoped the railroad company can see their way clear to make No. 14 a strictly passenger train and schedule it to leave Omaha at 8:10 instead of 8:45, as at present, as there are a great many visitors in Omaha who would prefer to remain until the Missouri Pacific at 11:45 rather than ride down on N. 44 the way it runs at present.

Placed Under Bonds.

Yesterday afternoon Justice M. Archer placed Albert Fidler, living near Mynard, under $100 bonds to keep the peace. The complaint against Fidler was filed by Robert Propst, who claims that Fidler threatened him several times and that he wanted him placed under bonds to keep the peace, which the judge did.

GIVE MONEY TO PUBLIC LIBRARY

Why Not Give Amounts Donated to Public Library Fund, Where Badly Needed.

From Saturday's Daily.

The funds that were raised to aid the establishing of a Y. M. C. A. are to be returned to the donors, and at this time why not let the public-spirited citizens donate the amounts they subscribed to the Plattsburgh public library. Some of the amounts were given to the Y. M. C. A. fund with the understanding if it was not used for that purpose it was to be turned over to the public library. The Plattsburgh Players' club was among this number, giving $400, and now this will probably be transferred over to the library board, and if the other lodges and societies which made contributions at the time will add their sums to the library there will be a nice little fund created that can be used in mighty good shape right now by the library board.

The work of cataloging the library, while Miss Waugh is doing the work without cost to the city, has entailed several small items of expense, such as new shelving and other necessary work, and this could be handled most acceptably by the money that was in the Y. M. C. A. fund. Another great need of funds is for new books, as the books in the library have been literally read to pieces, and many of the volumes need to be replaced with new ones, as well as a number of reference works that are badly needed to aid the students in the schools in their studies, both in the High school and the Catholic academy.

It is a fact little known to the general public that the library here has a greater circulation, based on population, than the Omaha public library, and there is hardly a home in the city where the books of the public library do not reach, and the best thing that has occurred here in years would be the contribution of $300 or $400 to the library, and the value of good done in the community would be untold. Let us keep the good work of the library going on, giving it a chance to develop, and the money will never be missed by the contributors.

"THE DIVORCE QUESTION" AT THE PARMELE JANUARY 29

One of the widest discussions ever made in an American play is considered by William Anthony McGuire in his latest dramatic effort, "The Divorce Question," which will be seen at the Parmele theater Wednesday night, January 29. The author contends that a child has a hereditary right to its parents—the obligation of the parents to the child they are responsible for creating—the maintenance of a high standard of morality is of far greater importance than the individual interest involved when unfortunate alliances seem to render divorce necessary. Mr. McGuire has studiously avoided sensationalism but has a strong sense of situation and his climaxes are stirring, but everywhere the atmosphere is surcharged with intensity and the truth is brought home to the spectator in an effective, convincing manner.

Appointed as Clerk.

According to dispatches appearing in the state papers, Miss Verna Leonard of this city has received an appointment as an engrossing clerk in the state senate at Lincoln. Miss Leonard served in a similar capacity in one of the previous sessions of the legislature, and is well qualified for the position she has been appointed to.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to take this means of returning our heartfelt thanks to the many friends who assisted us during the sickness and death of our little son and grandson. We trust that they may receive the same sympathy in their hour of trouble.

Fined in Police Court.

From Saturday's Daily.
This morning C. H. Weidemeyer of Adair, Iowa, was brought before Judge M. Archer, charged with having partaken too freely of the flowing bowl, and he did not deny the facts in the case, and in view of his frankness about the matter the judge gave him the usual bunch reserved for such occasions, that of $5 and costs, amounting to $8, which Mr. Weidemeyer gladly paid and went on his way, feeling that it was worth the price, as the Nebraska brand of corn juice is much superior to the Iowa product.

AUBURN BASKET BALL TEAM DEFEATS OUR BOYS

From Saturday's Daily.

Auburn has come and gone, and as a result of their visit to this city last evening the local High school basket ball team suffered another defeat at their hands, but the defeat was not due so much to the good playing of the Auburn boys as the mistakes that the local team made, as well as the lifeless game that was put up against the Auburnites. The change that was made in the line-up of the local team did not apparently strengthen the team, as the new players used were plainly nervous and showed lack of experience and had it not been for the work of Don Arries the score would have been much heavier against Plattsburgh, but as it was they were defeated by a score of 54 to 44. The Auburn team is composed of some very clever players and they are about as classy a bunch as has played in this city, but if the home team had been up to their usual form they could have had an easy victory. But as the poet says, "The saddest words of tongue or pen is 'it might have been.'"

MRS. GEORGE E. DOVEY RECEIVES A FINE PRESENT

From Saturday's Daily.

Mrs. George E. Dovey is rejoicing over a most handsome present that was received here yesterday. The present consists of a 44 horse power Abbott-Detroit automobile and it is certainly a beauty and will be a source of much pleasure to Mr. and Mrs. Dovey during the coming summer. New Year's day Mrs. Dovey received as a gift from her daughter, Miss Alice Dovey, of the "Pink Lady" company, a check, with the request that she purchase an automobile with it. Later Miss Alice had her father and brother, Charles, go to Chicago and select a machine that would be satisfactory. The car selected is one of this year's models and is the last word in the automobile line.

VERDICT FOR MATTHEW GER- ING FOR A HUNDRED DOLLARS

The jury in the case of Matthew Gering vs. Paul Steight, in which Mr. Gering was suing for $300 attorney's fees, brought in a verdict yesterday afternoon for the plaintiff in the sum of $100. The case occupied the attention of the county court for the biggest part of the day before it was given to the jury, who only had it under advisement a short time. A. L. Tidd appeared for Mr. Gering, while Mr. Brown of Lincoln represented Mr. Steight's interests.

To Re-Decorate Church.

Frank Gobelman, the painter, has secured the contract for re-decorating the interior of the First Methodist church in this city and will start the work the first of next week. Mr. Gobelman's reputation for artistic work is well known throughout this section and his services are constantly in demand by those desiring first-class decorative work. He will be assisted in the work on the church by H. H. Goton, who is also "some painter" himself.

Money for Big Equipment.

It is figured that the Burlington alone has spent six and a third millions in providing motive power sufficient to haul eighty-car trains over its main lines. In addition to this the cost of track betterment, bridge reconstruction, yard enlargement and passing tracks, has brought the total up to a very large figure.

COMMITTEE OF FIVE TO TRAVEL

Entire Public Lands and Buildings
Committee Had Arranged Tour in Pullman Car—Potts Would Probe
Finances of State.

Lincoln, Jan. 25.—The committee on public lands and buildings got a stroke in the house when it was decided the committee should not take any junket trips to state institutions, and reservations made on a private Pullman car for the entire committee had to be cancelled.

Mathers introduced a resolution with some whereas that the taxpayers' money was hard money and should be carefully spent, if spent at all, providing a committee of five be selected from other committees to do the traveling. The resolution was adopted after it had been amended to include three Democrats and two Republicans selected, one each from the following committees: Public lands and buildings, finance, university and normal schools, insane hospitals and other asylums. This committee is to go out with a senate committee.

To Probe Finances.

Potts introduced a resolution for a joint committee to be appointed to investigate the finances of the state for the last ten years, his idea being to discover why it required so much money to run the business and to see if the state was getting value received.

Reynolds had a resolution providing that the state superintendent and a committee study the school system of Nebraska and recommend some new laws which would better conditions. The last two resolutions went over under the rules for a day.

Reuter's request to congress that it buy up the telephone lines of the country was unanimously adopted by the house with no debate.

Stebbins Retains Seat.

Stebbins was notified by the committee on privileges and elections that he was to retain his seat. Stebbins, on motion of Norton of Polk, thanked the house and the committee for finding in his favor and made several promises of the work he would do in this session.

SENATE CONSIDERS BILLS

Several Bills Passed and More Are Introduced.

Lincoln, Jan. 25.—A few new bills were introduced, several went to second reading and three reached final passage in the senate.

Senate file No. 12, by Bushee, was passed without a vote against it. The bill provides that taxable property of joint school districts shall be assessed between districts according to proportionate amount of property.

Senate file No. 13, by Bushee, although bearing the hoodoo number, went through without a kick. This bill provides that in counties having an assessed valuation of less than $700,000, compensation of the county assessor shall not be more than $5 per day for time actually employed, and deputy assessors shall be allowed but $2 per day for the time they actually work.

Senate file No. 20, by Klein, provides that in counties of between 30,000 and 50,000 the inheritance tax shall be given to the road fund, to be used in keeping the roads in good condition. This bill also passed without opposition.

Shunway's rural agricultural high school bill came up before the committee of the whole. The bill provides for an agricultural department for rural high schools, which shall be under the supervision of the state superintendent, and provides for instruction in agriculture, manual training and natural science for the boys and domestic science and manual training for the girls. The school taking on this department must be provided with suitable rooms and a tract of land of not less than five acres, which must be furnished by the school providing the training.

Dillon Appointed on Grand Army Staff

Tecumseh, Neb., Jan. 25.—J. A. Dillon of Tecumseh has been appointed a member of the staff of Commander in Chief Alfred B. Beers of the national guard, Grand Army of the Republic. Mr. Dillon has received his commission as aide-de-camp, the document coming from the adjutant general, Henry J. Seeley of Bridgeport, Conn. The rank is that of colonel.

Call Is Out for Colonels.

Lincoln, Jan. 25.—Governor Morehead has announced that he will appoint a staff of colonels to accompany him to the inauguration of President elect Wilson. The governor has also decided to consolidate the oil inspector's office and the pure food department. He will make each deputy oil inspector also a food inspector.

Gredler Sales Barn Burns at Kearney.

Kearney, Neb., Jan. 25.—Fire in the Albert Gredler sales and feed barn consumed the structure, at a loss of $9,000, of which $4,000 is covered by insurance. Fourteen head of horses and all of the vehicles were burned.

DAMAGE CASE TO HIGH COURT

Burlington Appeals From Judgment
Awarded Mrs. Deering.

Lincoln, Jan. 25.—The Burlington railroad has appealed to the supreme court from a judgment secured in the Grant county district court by Mary A. Deering for injuries received in March, 1912. Mrs. Deering started to the town of Hyantals to take a train on the Burlington road, but upon nearing the depot found a train standing on the crossing. After it had stood there for twenty minutes, according to the evidence, and she had become tired of waiting, the agent ordered the train crew to open up the crossing. They broke the train and opened up a space about twenty feet wide, and when she had gone partly through the horse started to back up, and becoming alarmed she jumped from the wagon and broke two bones in her left limb. She sued the company for damages in the sum of $2,999, and the jury awarded her full damages sued for. The company asks a new trial, claiming negligence on the part of the plaintiff.

WOULD MOBILIZE NATIONAL GUARD

Adjutant General Hall Plans
Maneuvers Near Gretna.

Lincoln, Jan. 25.—Adjutant General Hall is working up a proposition for the national guard this summer to mobilize several companies of each regiment at a point near Gretna and the balance of the guard near Fremont. They will then be required to move forward by company formation until they are joined later by the battalion commanders. They will then move by battalions until they are joined by the regimental commanders, who will take charge of the companies and move them forward to intercept each other at some point, presumably Waterloo, where there is plenty of room for the battle which will take place.

In the meantime, details from each regiment will have secured a camp ground, where tents will be pitched and everything made ready for the annual encampment. While the movements of the different armies are going on the Fremont signal corps will have their wireless at work and will endeavor to keep in communication with the different commands.

When the encampment is over the companies will be sent to their several stations via Lincoln or Fremont, as the case may require.
