One Who Was There.

A Pleasant Evening.

One last Saturday evening a number of friends and neighbors gathered at the Irvin Low home, south of Plattsmouth, in response to an invitation to spend the evening. The hours up to midnight were spent in dancing, at which time a delicious lunch was served. After lunch the dancing program was continued until the hour of departure, when the visitors were given an invitation to soon return, and Mr. and Mrs. Low were unanimously voted royal entertainers. Those to enjoy the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ranard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheldon, brother and wife; Mrs. S. D. Fitchorn and daughters, Virgie and Katie; Mrs. Bishop, Miss Gladys Low, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Low, Walter Goucheour, John Goucheour, Frank Rice, George Green, Glen Fitchorn, Charley and Albert Low, Ralph Ranard, Charley Lambert, Bert Swinneger, James and B. Ferguson, George Berger, George Poissall, Wilbur Baldwin, Edda Ranard, Edgar Morton, Harry McConnell and John Thomas. The music was furnished by Mr. Keppert of Iowa, Charley line and Bert Swinneger of Plattsmouth.

Quite a Loss by Fire.

J. R. C. Gregory, from west of Murray, was in the city Tuesday of this week looking after some business matters, and in conversation with him in regard to his loss by fire on the McNurlin place a few days ago, he informed us that his loss was partially covered by insurance. He held $1,200 insurance on the house, but the furniture and contents of the house, belonging to Mr. Murray, were a total loss. While Mr. and Mrs. Murray were almost homeless the morning of the fire, they were soon convinced of the fact that they were among friends and plenty of them. A movement was soon on foot to assist the unfortunate friends in more ways than one, and several hundred dollars will be contributed to replace their furniture, and the good women of the neighborhood were not long in arranging for a quilting and sewing party to assist them in whatever might be needed along this line. Mr. Gregory has the material on the ground for the new house, and soon Mr. and Mrs. Murray will be as comfortably situated as they were before the fire.

Obituary.

John S. Irwin—Born December 24, 1865, in Pennsylvania. Died at 7:20 p. m. on Monday, January 20, 1913, at his home, 7 miles northeast of Union, Neb., at the age of 47 years and 29 days.

The death of Mr. Irwin came as a great shock, not only to the family, but to the many friends, a very few of whom had learned of his illness, which was of only a week's duration. He suffered a severe attack of grippe and grew worse so rapidly that medical skill could not avert the death summons that came so speedily. The funeral services were held at the noon hour on Wednesday in Lewiston church, conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor of this village, and interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church. The pall-bearers were: Emery Hathaway, Isaac Dye, William Rakes, Frank Rhoden, Levi Slagle and Robert Good.

Deceased spent his boyhood days in his native state of Pennsylvania, coming to this county about thirty years ago, and ever since then he has made his home in Rock Bluffs precinct. November 27, 1889, he was married to Miss Laura Midkiff, and they were the parents of eight children, of whom three sons are deceased. Those surviving are: Mrs. Pearl Murray, residing near here; Bertha, aged 15; Vernie, 13; Hazel, 9, and Jessie 4.

The writer became acquainted with John Irwin soon after he came to this county, and we know of his excellent reputation when a young man and his honorable life thereafter, his industry and determination to accumulate sufficient property to provide for his family in later years. He and his wife and children had many friends in this part of the county, and all extend sincere sympathy to the sorrowing family.—Union Ledger.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our appreciation of the many acts of kindness and the sympathy shown us in our bereavement by the death of our husband and father, and we are very grateful to all the many friends who so kindly honored him at the close of his life here.
