PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IS BEING RENOVATED

Several Hundred Dollars Being Expended in Improvements and in Renovation in General.

From Saturday's Daily.

The Presbyterian church in this city is being renovated and remodeled in several ways in order to more fully carry out the plans made for handling the increasing membership of the church and the new departments that have been created. A stairway has been constructed in the church leading from the basement to the auditorium that will be used by the different classes of the Sunday school, which will meet in the main body of the church.

The pastor, Rev. M. W. Lorimer, has perfected the plans for the organization of a Men's Brotherhood in the church that will take in all the adult male members of the congregation, and this department will hold their meetings in the main room of the church, as will the adult ladies' class. The board of the church has had new platform built leading to the west doors of the basement room which will be used by the children attending the Sunday school, while the old entrance to the basement will be used by the adult classes.

The church has recently had two new furnaces installed to furnish heat for the building, and this outfit has cost them in the neighborhood of $600, and the other improvements contemplated will bring the cost up to quite an amount of money. The members of the church expect to have the auditorium of the building re-decorated in the spring and the church will present a very handsome appearance when the entire program of improvements has been carried out.

The pastor of the church, Rev. Lorimer, has done a great deal for the upbuilding of the church during the time he has been in charge of the congregation, and he has been greeted by a large attendance at most of the church services, and he is one of the most talented ministers that has had charge of the church here and a much larger membership may be looked forward to under the plans he has outlined for the year's work, especially as he has placed the Sunday school on a graded basis, which will aid greatly in stimulating the interest of the scholars in the church work and as the Sunday school is the future of the church a very bright outlook for the growth of the society is evident.

The lodge at its session yesterday voted $5,000 to be distributed by the courts of the different counties in the state to the orphans of the deceased members of the order, and this one act is worthy of this great fraternal order, showing the true spirit of brotherly love and Christian charity. The new Grand Sachem also honored the lodge in this city by selecting John Cory of this city to be grand keeper of the wigwam, which is a deserved recognition, as Mr. Cory has been one of the wheel horses in the order in this city since the lodge was instituted. From Saturday's Daily.

The pleasant home of Mrs. Antonia Ptak was the scene of another delightful occasion yesterday afternoon, at which time Mrs. C. There was a very large number in attendance and the hours were whiled away in social conversation, games and other amusements. During the course of the afternoon excellent refreshments were served by the hostess, after which the guests dispersed, voting this occasion a most successful one, and the hostesses splendid entertainers.

BASKET BALL TEAM GOES TO GLENWOOD

Plattsmouth Tries Their Skill With Glenwood and Wins by a Score of 28 to 19.

From Saturday's Daily.

The Plattsmouth basket ball team last evening journeyed over to our neighboring city of Glenwood and proceeded to take the basket ball team down the line to the tune of 28 to 19. The Glenwood team was clearly outclassed by the whirlwind performance of our boys, as they started right after the Iowa team and the score at the end of the first half stood 16 to 5, and in the second they added to the score already piled up.

Don Arries, captain of the local team, was the chief scorer for Plattsmouth, and the Glenwood boys were simply unable to stop his throwing baskets whenever the opportunity presented itself. The whole team was in good form, there never being a minute when the game seemed in doubt and the boys deserve great credit for the splendid manner in which they represented the city school. The boys returned home this morning on No. 15, feeling very much elated over the result of the game, and they have good cause to, as the Glenwood team is a good, fast one and it was only the superior playing of the local boys and their hard work that won them the contest.

The basket ball team this year is one of the best that has represented the school in late years, and they have made a great showing, having played some of the strongest teams in this part of the country, and their record is one that they may be proud of and the citizens should take great pride in their basket ball team and whenever the opportunity is offered give it their heartiest support.

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL AFTER CHOIR REHEARSAL AT METHODIST CHURCH

Last evening after the rehearsal of the senior choir of the Methodist church the members enjoyed a most delightful social evening, given in honor of some of the members of the choir who have recently returned to this city to make their home, and the occasion will be one long remembered for the delightful time enjoyed by all the merry party. The guests of honor for the event were: W. G. Brooks and wife, W. D. Gluck and wife, Henry Howiter and wife, E. J. Tuoy and wife and R. E. Andrews and wife. The company spent the time in music and social conversation and the members, having come well prepared with popcorn and candy, they added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening and at a late hour departed for their homes, feeling that this was one of the most pleasant occasions they have had the pleasure of attending.

Has He Bought Violin?

From Friday's Daily.

It is reported on the street today that while in Omaha yesterday F. G. Egenberger purchased a fine violin and expects to get into the Fiddlers' contest to be given next Tuesday. If this is true the other contestants had better begin to get a move on themselves if they expect to finish in the same class.

HELD PRETTY WIFE PRISONER

She Says Husband Cut Her Gowns to Keep Her In.

"You are so pretty I shall keep you at home,"

This was the compliment her husband paid her, Mrs. Ella T. Fryer told the court of chancery in Jersey City recently. But, she added, to keep her at home Fryer—
Slashed her best gowns so that she could not look even prettier.
Slashed her old dresses so her friends might see how shabby she was.
Smashed the furniture so she could not receive visitors.
Cut her corset laces—that is, spoiled her figure.
Cut her shoestrings so that they could not be used as corset laces.
Mrs. Fryer is the mother of six children. She was suing for divorce. She borrowed some clothes from the butcher's wife some time ago and went before the first criminal court. Judge Butler ordered Fryer to pay her $10 a week. He is worth $50,000 and earns from $5,000 to $7,000 a year, the wife alleges.

DICTOGRAPH USED IN COURT.

Judge Admits Evidence After Test Is Made.

The reliability of a dictograph was tested before Judge Malone in a New York court recently. The invention was tried out in the trial of Mrs. Fannie Dio, a chairvoyant, who is accused of having attempted to extort $1,000 from Dr. Samuel Tandlick of East Fifty-third street.
An important feature of the trial is a conversation which an alleged agent of Mrs. Dio is said to have had with Dr. Tandlick when the agent attempted to get the money from the physician and which was recorded on a dictograph. The instrument was installed in the courtroom, and after it was tested Judge Malone admitted the evidence.

CANNON FEARS HE WILL NOT BE AN IMMORTAL

Former Speaker Says Posterity Will Not Cherish His Name.

Appealing to the house recently to pass the senate bill for a $2,000,000 Lincoln memorial structure in Washington, former Speaker Cannon declared that it was a profanation of Lincoln's name to use it in connection with the promotion of a road project.

"There are certain great characters that will dwell in the history of the country," said Mr. Cannon. "Washington, Lincoln, Lee—a great general who did his duty from his patriotic standpoint, and Jefferson Davis, a great man performing a great service for the republic as he saw his duty."

"A hundred years from now the ordinary reader will recall this period, and these names will be in the mouths of the school children. But you will have to search the encyclopedias to find out about the balance of us. Take Mr. Cannon for instance."

"I have been speaker for eight years. They will say, 'It does appear there was a man from Illinois named Cannon, but I don't know much about him; there was another Cannon in congress from Utah, and it was said he had seventeen wives.'"

"TEA DANCE" NOW THE RAGE.

Smart New York Women Taking Up Original New Fad.

The "tea dance" is here. It is not like the turkey trot and tango; not at all. It's a dance at tea time, and Reisenweber's is the first of New York restaurants to introduce this innovation from abroad.
The "four to six," as they call it in Paris, is the sensation of the hour at the beautiful Salle Washington, in Rue Washington in the French capital.

So the big room used for the cabaret evening dances on the second floor at Reisenweber's was utilized recently for the initial "tea dance." It was an exclusive function, only society folk known to the management being present.

Fashionable women who are learning the tango and the one step (a new dance that is taking the place of the turkey trot) in the hall on the third floor came down and enjoyed the new feature after a cup of tea.

Mrs. Louis Craig Havemeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bingham, Mrs. Truxton Beale and Frederick Townsend Martin are among those who approve of the new "tea dance."
