

Keep Your Eye
on that Can

When Buying
Baking Powder

For this is the baking powder that makes the baking better.

It leavens the food evenly throughout; puts
it up to airy lightness, makes it delightfully appetizing and wholesome.

Remember, Calumet is moderate in price—highest in quality.

Ask your grocer for Calumet. Don't take a substitute.

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARDS,
World's Fair, Food Exposition,
Chicago, Illinois, Paris Exposition,
France, March, 1910.

You don't save money when you buy cheap or big-can baking powder. Don't be misled. Buy Calumet. It's more economical—more wholesome—gives best results. Calumet is far superior to sour milk and soda.

Operation Very Successful.

Little Carl Wurl, who was operated on yesterday morning in Omaha for appendicitis, at last reports this morning was resting easily and was apparently getting along nicely and all indication pointed to the recovery of the boy in a very short time. The friends here of the young man and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Wurl, will be greatly pleased to learn that the operation was apparently so successful and trust that Carl will soon be up and around again.

HARD COAL!

We Sure Have It
Both Large and Small

And hope to have enough to supply you all. But to make sure you're not too late call Independent phone 128, and order your coal—either large or small.

Also a Good Line of Soft Coal

WATERMAN
Lumber and Coal Company

MANLEY.

D. D. Braun was a passenger to Omaha Monday.

Dr. Fordyce was a passenger to Omaha Tuesday.

James Carper and wife were shopping in Omaha Tuesday.

Miss Lucy Boom visited with Mrs. Ed Fleischmann Tuesday afternoon.

John Murphy, wife and two daughters were trading in Omaha Thursday.

Clyde Jenkins made the usual Sunday trip to Weeping Water Sunday evening.

Rev. W. L. D. Higgins and mother, and Mrs. John Murphy spent Monday in Omaha.

Johnnie Born went to Louisville last Thursday, where he is working in the stone quarry.

Mrs. Jennett Hayes of Montana is spending the week with her niece, Mrs. Herman Brunkow.

The Misses Daisy Jewell and Carrie Schaffer spent Sunday in Weeping Water with Miss Jewell's folks.

Howard Johnson and family and Dan Rockwell spent Sunday in the country with Mr. and Mrs. Eli Keckler.

Ed Kelly, Eli Keckler, Floyd Rockwell and James Murphy were passengers to Louisville this week one day.

Mrs. May Taylor of Louisville visited with her sisters, Messdames Fred and John Fleischmann, over Sunday.

Eddie Murphy and family of Archer, Neb., are visiting with Mrs. Murphy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carper, this week.

The farmers say they will have some fine gasoline engines and the best washing machines on the market to sell this week.

Jake Hennings' little daughter came home from Louisville Monday, where she visited with her grandparents in the country.

O. A. Coon and Mr. O'Brien were among the passengers on the Missouri Pacific for Omaha on business the latter part of the week.

Hugh O'Brien and wife moved their household goods Tuesday to the farm formerly occupied by Mr. Baber, where Hugh will farm this year.

Anton Hayden shelled corn last Saturday and hauled it to the Farmers' elevator, where they always pay the highest price for grain.

The Misses Katie and Maggie Walphert and Mrs. Charles Gerlac attended the funeral of Mrs. Williams at Louisville last Wednesday.

Leonard Schaffer returned home from Plattsmouth Saturday evening, where he had been working in the Burlington shops for some time.

Mrs. Schaffer and two daughters of east of Manley were passengers to Omaha Monday, where they spent the day, returning on the evening train.

Mr. O'Brien is moving his family to the Easterday farm, formerly occupied by Andrew Krecklow, this week, where he will farm the ensuing year.

Mrs. Herman Stohlmann and sister, Louise, went to Sioux City, Iowa, last Monday evening to attend the funeral of Louis Steelmacher, who died last Wednesday morning of rheumatism of the heart. Mr. Steelmacher was an

John Tigh unloaded a carload of alfalfa Monday.

Miss Sunny Ash went to York, where she will go to school.

Jake Miller has increased his livery stock with a young driving team.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Coon took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Essick Sunday.

Mr. Yates of Lincoln was in town Saturday looking after his lumber yard.

Mrs. Dick Boom and daughter, Lucy, were passengers to Louisville Saturday.

The Farmers' Co-operative Grain association held a business meeting Tuesday.

O. A. Coon is transacting business in the western part of the state this week.

Grandpa Wright and Miss Edith Strough took dinner at the Jake Miller home Saturday.

The farmers are busy hauling their grain to the elevators while we have such good roads.

Mrs. Jake Hennings had the misfortune to have her knee dislocated one day this week.

Mrs. Jake Miller and children attended Sunday school and church at Sunnyside Sunday.

There will be Sunday school at the usual hour next Sunday at Union church. All are cordially invited.

Miss Anna Kraft entertained a crowd of young people last Friday evening and everyone reported a good time.

The Reiter Brothers are in this vicinity shelling corn with their new Cylinder sheller, and they are the boss shellers.

The claim agent for the Columbia Fire Insurance company was here Tuesday and settled up the Mr. Gregory loss.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. George Stohlmann's baby has been sick and hope the little one has fully recovered.

Tom Tighe and wife and Mrs. Smith are here visiting relatives.

William Gerlac is the proud possessor of a new bicycle.

Ed Ruby was hauling wheat this week and expects to buy a corn sheller from the Manley Co-operative Grain association.

Joe Portis of Fairfax, Mo., was in town this week and purchased a horse of Jake Miller and rode back to Missouri horseback.

Ed Fleischmann built himself a dandy little chicken coop this week back of the store building and expects to raise some chickens this year.

Andrew Krecklow and family moved to Falls City Wednesday, where Andrew will work in an elevator. We wish them success in their new home.

Johnnie Boom and cousin, Albert Boom, of Colorado came home from Louisville Saturday evening and returned to work at the stone quarry Sunday evening.

Andrew Krecklow had his sale last week and there was a good crowd present and his property sold reasonably well. He will work for a Mr. Maust at Falls City.

Mrs. William Stohlmann's brother, Walter Thingahn, and sister, Pauline, of South Bend, came over and helped the former do their summer's butchering last week.

Miss Lily Steincamp, who was taken to the St. Joseph's hospital at Omaha last week to be operated on for appendicitis, is getting along nicely and her friends are glad to hear of her speedy recovery.

adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stohlmann and leaves a wife and three small children to mourn his loss. The community extends their sympathy to Mrs. Stohlmann and family and the wife and children.

Herman Kupka came over from Murdock Saturday and stopped at the Farmers' elevator to see about his corn that was in the elevator, and Mr. K. said it was rough motoring.

Fleischmann Brothers have the agency for the Wisconsin gasoline engines, and anyone wishing a good engine will find that they have it. A sample engine is in the building occupied by Ed Fleischmann.

There was a delightful surprise party given by Miss Mulda Grafe in honor of her cousin, Miss Hedwig Hartmann, on Sunday evening, January 26, 1913, it being her sixteenth birthday anniversary. Those present were: Misses Hulda Grafe, Mary and Lena Lau, Henrietta Gaebel, Martha Stohlmann, Clara and Mollie Kraft, Bertha Sabs, Mabel Wendt, Hedwig and Elsie Hartmann, Messrs. Fred and Louis Gaebel, Charles Lau, Walter Stohlmann, Louis and Lorence

$5 WORTH
FOR $4

DOVEY'S

$5 WORTH
FOR $4

SEMI-ANNUAL

Clearance - Sale!

February 1st to February 8th

Anything you want in this Great Big Stock of Dry Goods at

- 80c on the Dollar - or in other words any $1.00 worth of merchandise you buy only costs you 80c. There will be nothing held back—the entire stock with the few exceptions below will be out for you to select from.

Groceries, Carpets, Rugs, Linoleums, Cotton Thread, Carpet Warp and Paper Patterns will not be included in this sale.

Saturday, February 1st to Saturday, February 8th, 1913

E.G. Dovey & Son

Krecklow, Will and George Kraft, and John Sabs. The evening was spent in music and various kinds of games. At the usual hour a sumptuous supper was served, which was furnished by Mrs. Hartmann and guests. At a late hour all departed for their homes, wishing Miss Hedwig many more happy birthdays.

The miscellaneous shower that was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murray at the home of Troy Wiles, was a great success, Tuesday February 4. All were invited to take picnic dinner at the dinner hour, and all present were formed in line and marched around the table, filling their plates with the good things to eat. Those present were: Messdames Frank McNurlin, Anna Puits, Charles Beverage, Bert Saichel, Miss Rosa Schaffer, Mrs. Fred Schaffer, L. C. Walker, Frank Johnson, Ed Ruby, P. L. Strough and children, Benson; Anna Johnson, Frank Rooney and children, Spence, John Gregory and daughter, Dolly; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murray, Frank Spangler, Phil

Spangler, Charles Spangler, Harry Green, Frank Woods, Jake Miller and daughter, Mary; Earl Wiles and son, Englekemier, George Wiles, Emberry and baby and Mrs. Gregory's niece from Nehawka. There were many useful presents given by those present, and lots unable to come remembered them. Mr. and Mrs. Murray were soon convinced that they were among friends and plenty of them, and gave many thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Troy Wiles for their hospitality and also to the good ladies of the neighborhood.

THIRD ANNUAL

Grand Mask Ball

GIVEN BY

PLATTSMOUTH AERIE NO. 565,

F. O. E.

AT COATES HALL

- Saturday Night, February 15th -

4 BIG PRIZES 4

One for Best Gent's Costume, Representative of Character
One for Best Lady's Costume, Representative of Character
One for Most Comical Gent's Costume
One for Most Comical Lady's Costume

Music by the M. W. A. Orchestra

Admission Gents, 50c
Spectators, 25c
Ladies in Costume Admitted Free

No dancers without full costume admitted to the dance floor until after the Grand March and the Awarding of Prizes.

A costumer from Omaha will be here, and may be found on the second floor of the Coates Block on February 15th, during the afternoon and evening.