

Efficiency!

That's the cry of the hour. That's what you demand of us or any other public servant, whether he be doctor, lawyer or merchant. You expect us to lay our goods down at your door as low as you can send away or go away and get them. That's correct. We don't ask any favors. You pay no middleman's margin here. We bring the goods direct from the maker to you and buy them in such quantities that he can quote us a very much lower price than he could possibly quote you in single articles. We are necessary to your welfare. You could not live in Plattsmouth without stores. You are necessary to our business. We could not live here without you. Let's get together. We will prove to you that our prices not only meet but discount outside competition. Witness a few items: Men's fleece lined shirts and drawers 39c; Men's socks with genuine elastic toe and knit-on ribbed tops 8c. They cannot be produced for less. Men's and boys' Jersey sweaters 39c—where can you beat that? Boys' aviation caps 25c; boys' Knickerbocker suits as low as $1.70—just think of it. Men's odd pants as low as $1.95; men's wool suits and overcoats as low as $7.50, and remember they are not shabby trash, but good reliable goods that we stand back of until you are satisfied. "You canna beat it" anywhere. Let's keep the money at home and See Plattsmouth Succeed.

STOLE A MARCH ON THEIR FRIENDS

Mr. Everett M. Wiles and Miss Henrietta Kopischka Married in Omaha Thursday.

From Saturday's Daily.
The season for the wedding of the young people seems to be starting out in good shape, and the latest to bow their necks to the yoke of the irresistible god of love, Cupid, has been one of Plattsmouth's charming young women, and one of the worthy young farmers residing near this city. The parties are Everett M. Wiles and Miss Henrietta Kopischka of this city, who departed for Omaha on Thursday morning, and they asked Mrs. Kopischka, the mother of the bride, to accompany them in order to take in the sights in the metropolis, and after lunch there, her surprise can be imagined when they asked her to accompany them to the court house, where the ceremony was performed and the happy couple returned to this city, where they expect to reside.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kopischka and was born and reared to womanhood here, where her friends are legion; and the groom is a young man well known here, as he has resided near this city for years with his parents, and is a young man well liked by all who knew him. The friends of the newly wedded couple will extend to them their best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Hold Meeting at Vallery Home.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Vallery, on North Sixth street. The ladies held a short business session, at which time they decided to disband as a society. The remainder of the afternoon was very pleasantly whiled away in a delightful social time. An enjoyable feature, and which the large number in attendance appreciated, was a program of music, which greatly added to the afternoon's pleasures. Delicious refreshments were served.

Doings in District Court.

In the district court this afternoon Fred Ohm was arraigned before Judge Travis and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of burglary. Ohm several weeks ago broke open a box of carpenter tools belonging to R. Herrington, and stole from there certain tools, which he disposed of to different parties.

The judge also had a hearing in the case of William A. Lloyd, et al., vs. Bertha M. Reynolds, and J. M. Leyda was appointed referee to conduct the sale of the property and his bond fixed at $2,000. The property involved in the case is the old Lloyd homestead in this city.

"CLINT" LEACH OF UNION DIES FROM EFFECT OF INJURIES

From Saturday's Daily.
The death of "Clint" Leach, as he was familiarly called, was one of the saddest it has ever been our lot to record—a healthy, vigorous young man whom Union citizens had known from childhood, suddenly called away by a very distressing accident which occurred near town on January 22. On that day Clint was thrown from a wagon and his right leg was mangled, and after the physicians had exhausted their skill to save the limb they found that his only chance for life was to amputate the limb, and even that was evidently a small chance that he could survive. The operation was performed Thursday evening of last week, and for a short time he appeared to be getting along very well, but on Friday his condition was not so favorable, and at 8:15 last evening he quietly sank into a slumber that freed him from suffering. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Baptist church, Rev. W. A. Taylor officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery west of town. The pall-bearers were: Earl Upton, Sherman Austin, Ray Frans, Ray Bramblet, Harry McCarroll and Ren Frans.—Union Ledger.

QUICK WORK IN REMOVING THE RESIDENCE OF T. H. POLLOCK

From Saturday's Daily.
The residence which was recently purchased by T. H. Pollock from Mrs. A. E. Quinn, and which was known as the Ambrose Patterson home, has been placed on the lots owned by Mr. Pollock, near the Methodist church. The moving was done by W. H. Barnum and a force of men and the work was accomplished without any damage being done to the house in any way, no paper or plastering being jarred loose in the job of moving, which is quite a feat, as the house was moved down the steep incline from the top of High School Hill to its present location and the work only required one day to accomplish it. The house makes quite an improvement in the appearance of the street from the town, and when fully renovated will make a most pleasant home for Mr. Pollock and family.

FUNNY END MEN AND COMEDIANS WITH THE MINSTRELS

Lowrey's Dixie Fashion Plate Minstrels are billed to appear at the Parmele for one night only, Monday, February 17. They carry 25 people, all funny colored folks, six jolly end men, ten high-class ballad singers and a ten-piece orchestra. Their big band, under the personal direction of the world's famous colored cornet player, Prof. P. G. Lowrey, will give their grand free street parade Monday at noon and a big free concert in front of the theater at 7:30 p. m. The company travels in its own private Pullman sleeping cars, and never fails to please and draw a full house. The seats are now on sale and the prices are 25c, 35c and 50c.

MAKES TOO HOT A FIRE IN HIS FURNACE, AND HAS A NARROW ESCAPE

Charley Chriswisher came near having a disastrous fire about noon Monday. In an effort to make things comfortable in the house Charley stoked his furnace a little too much and one of the pipes set fire to a partition. Help was summoned by telephone, but by the time they got there Charles had found the right spot with several buckets of water and the danger was over. The house was badly smoked up and some damage done to the partition. They were fortunate in discovering it when they did, as a few moments' start would have put the fire beyond reach.—Hawka News.

"MADE IN NEBRASKA" SHOW IN OMAHA

Widespread Interest Taken in the Affair in Every Quarter of the State.

The executive board of the Federation of Nebraska Retailers, comprising the following merchants of the state: C. E. Beiner, Wymore; G. W. Darnier, Bethany; M. A. Hostetler, Shelton; L. F. Langhorst, Elmwood; Fred Diers, Madison; F. H. Barclay, Pawnee; J. H. Knowles, Fremont; J. W. Schweer, Greeley; A. D. Rodgers, Alliance, met in Lincoln Tuesday, February 4, for the purpose of finishing the detail arrangement for the putting on of the first state home products show ever given in Nebraska. This has been technically termed the "Made in Nebraska" show, and starts March 5, continuing for twelve days, in the Auditorium in Omaha.

Widespread interest taken in this affair is shown through the acceptances of scores of Commercial clubs of the state for a "State Commercial Club day." The Lincoln Commercial club, however, will have a day to itself, which will be March 12, and it will be known as "Lincoln-Made" day. This day will be under the auspices and handled by the Commercial club of Lincoln. The Hastings Commercial club and Manufacturers' association will have March 14 for the same laudible purpose.

The opening night, March 5, will be known as "Commercial Club of Omaha" night, together with "Tri-City" night. The program for that occasion is quite an elaborate one and consists of addresses by prominent men, such as Governor Morehead, Mayor Dahlman, etc., the formal opening of the show by President Woodrow Wilson, appropriate music, etc.

The feature of special days and events will be an important one and efforts to promote the general boosting campaign for manufactured goods of Nebraska will be marked. The University of Omaha, Creighton college and the Nebraska State university will each have special nights.

Saturday afternoon, March 8, has been set aside for the Boy Scouts, as well as for the pupils of the Omaha and South Omaha public and high schools, when the younger generation will be effectively drilled into a knowledge of things that are done in the manufacturing lines in Nebraska.

The Ad club of Omaha decided to participate in the general program by selecting Wednesday, March 12, for their night. The Federation of Nebraska Retailers will have a four days' session, starting Tuesday, March 11, and the evenings will be given over to entertainment of the visiting retailers and their families at the show.

The show management has sent out a letter to the various firms that will make exhibits to ascertain the character of displays to be made by them, and the result of this letter shows that every form of manufacturing done in the state will have at least one or more representative exhibits present. Wood turning and carving, cracker and biscuit making demonstrations, manufacturing of hats and caps, of ice machine plants, tile and brick making, stone cutting, jewelry manufacturing, printing and book binding; in fact, there will be so many and varied industries illustrated that the education of the visitors towards "Nebraska-made" goods is expected to be a complete revelation.

The "Made in Nebraska" show will be open daily from 10:30 a. m. to 11 p. m., with appropriate music concerts, industrial moving picture shows, talks on industrial matters, with many other features that will both amuse, entertain and educate the people. The management proposes to have the interior of the Auditorium most beautifully decorated and adorned for the occasion.

Returns From Funeral.

D. J. Lair returned this morning from Hamburg, Iowa, where he was called to attend the funeral of a cousin, Miss Leona Lair, who died at that place Wednesday evening. The young lady was just 24 years old and was among the most popular young ladies in that locality and her death was the source of much grief to her legion of friends. The funeral was held yesterday from the Methodist church in that place.

Wrestling Match Stopped.

The wrestling match at Missouri Valley, Iowa, last evening between A. W. Vallery of this city and Ed Rowe of that city, resulted in the match being stopped at the end of thirty minutes. Rowe refused to wrestle unless Vallery would agree to throw him twice in thirty minutes, and he agreed to this and had him down twice, but the referee called it a strangle hold and at the end of the thirty minutes refused to allow the contest to continue longer. Rowe weighed in at 135, while Vallery weighed 143, and it was on account of the difference in weight that the handicap was given.

JUDGE TRAVIS GRANTS DECREE TO SELL PROPERTY

From Saturday's Daily.
Judge Travis of the district court has given a decree in the case of Nettie J. Holmes vs. W. S. Shera, Joseph H. Keenan, Augusta Keenan, Helen M. Alwine, George H. Alwine, Herbert J. Keenan, Annetta Keenan, John Randolph Keenan, James Keenan and James W. Holmes, ordering the property belonging to the estate of the late Mrs. Anetta Shera be sold at the south door of the court house and the proceeds divided among the different heirs. The referee in the case to conduct the sale is Attorney C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water. The sale of the land belonging to Mrs. Shera recalls the tragic story of her death, she being murdered at her home in Rock Bluffs and the identity of the murderer was never discovered, or at least not brought to trial in the courts for the heinous crime.

REVIVAL AT THE CHURCH SOUTH OF PLATTSMOUTH

The revival services that are being conducted at the United Brethren church, south of this city, by Rev. Eads of Lincoln, are attracting considerable attention and good crowds have been present to greet the minister each evening. Rev. Eads went to Lincoln yesterday to secure the services of a singer, which will add much to the interest of these meetings. Rev. Eads was ordained in this church in 1877 by Bishop Wright, the father of Wilbur and Orville Wright, the inventors of the aeroplane, and he feels much attached to the church on this account and is devoting much time and energy to these meetings.

THE LOCAL LODGE OF RED MEN ENJOYED A PLEASANT EVENING

From Saturday's Daily.
The local lodge of the Improved Order of Red Men Thursday evening held a largely attended council fire, at which two palefaces were adopted into the tribe with appropriate ceremonies, and following the initiation the members enjoyed a most pleasant social time among themselves until a late hour. Lunch fit for a king was served to the warriors and everyone departed for their homes feeling that they had spent a most pleasant and instructive evening. These social evenings add greatly to the enjoyment of the lodge meetings and Missouri Tribe has a bunch of live ones in their membership who know how to arrange most interesting meetings.

DECORATING THE INTERIOR OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

From Saturday's Daily.
The work of decorating the interior of the Methodist church is getting along nicely and the church will present a very handsome appearance when completed, and as it is one of the largest church auditoriums in the city and the artistic work of Mr. Gobelman and his assistants will make the interior of this church one of the most attractive in the city. It was necessary today to remove the scaffolding from the church, as the funeral of the late James Crawford Eikenbary will be held there tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and it will be necessary to use the main auditorium to accommodate the large concourse of sorrowing friends.

PLATTSMOUTH WAS ALMOST IN TOTAL DARKNESS LAST NIGHT

From Friday's Daily.
The users of the electric lights and current in this city last evening suffered a great deal of inconvenience over an accident that occurred to the engine at the light plant. The company had one of their machines taken to Council Bluffs Thursday evening to have some necessary repairs made on it, which caused them to use the remaining engine to carry the entire load of the service. About 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon the packing in the monkey-box of the engine blew out and put the plant out of commission. In the ordinary run of engines this box can be detached, repacked and put back in half an hour, but on the engine in use at the light plant it was necessary to take the entire engine to pieces in order to repair the damage, and it was hurried through, but it required until almost 10 o'clock to get the current on again. The light company was besieged by inquiries from many patrons who were caught without any other means of lighting other than the electric lights, and as a result coal-oil lamps were at a premium in most of the homes throughout the city.

INSPECTING BUILDINGS FOR FIRE PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

From Friday's Daily.
Yesterday C. E. Babcock, representing the Nebraska State Fire Protection association, was in the city inspecting the different buildings of the city, and after an examination of most of the buildings he found that the conditions were none of the best and that some of the buildings were found in a very unsatisfactory state as regards wiring and other dangerous conditions that were liable to cause fire. One of the buildings he found that there was several feet of electric light wires that had the insulation worn off and it was in close quarters to light, inflammable decorations and the inspector was very much displeased that such a condition of affairs was allowed to exist, and the owners of the different buildings in the city should see that the means of causing fires are looked after at once and all defective wiring or flues be repaired before a serious fire results from the neglect and carelessness in these matters.
