The farmers are pretty generally agreed that a little more moisture would be a good thing, even if it came in the form of snow. The fall plowing is blowing badly and if the present conditions continue there will be a good deal of growling about the wheat.

Fanger's Department Store

is still looking after the Clothing for the entire family, and are still extending you a most cordial invitation to call and see us before you make your purchases. Here we want to remind you that we are selling goods cheaper than anywhere else, and if you will call at the store we can show you that we speak the truth, so try and make us a visit before making your selections—either in Omaha or elsewhere.

Pay-Day Specials!

As the winter season is drawing to a close and we are being left with a few heavy garments in various lines, we want to close them out at a price that will be almost your own price. The profit has been forgotten and the cost mark has been lost on all winter goods. So don't fail to see us this pay-day for bargains. Every article bears our former iron clad guarantee—satisfaction or your money refunded."
