Neb State Historical Soc

The

Plattsmouth Journal.

VOL. XXXII.

THE LATE JAMES CRAW-FORD EIKENBARY

Hon, Edwin Jeary Presents Resolutions af Respect in House of Representatives.

house of representatives when, on most profound regret and symthe day following his death, Hon, pathy; and be it further follows:

a resolution this morning, but without a dissenting voice. before doing so I wish to make a few brief remarks. I was profoundly shocked this morning by GEORGE REYNOLDS WILL REreading in the daily State Journal of the sad accident that befell Mr. J. C. Eikenbary yesterday. I met him on the streets of Lincoln yesterday morning in the best of health. He greeted me cheerily a pit at the traction company's handled through the medium of to the Semi-Weekly. We were From Thursday's bally efficient, courageous and faithful sheriff of Cass county, Nebraska, and at the time of his taking off one of the deputy sheriffs of Lancaster county and the keeper of the Lancaster county jail, came to his death yesterday by a most deptorable accident; and,

"Whereas, This body, desiring to recognize the sterling worth and manly character of the departed officer and to express its profound sympathy with the friends and the family of the deceaser: therefore be it

"Resolved by the house of representatives of the state of Nebraska, recognize the splendid character and manly worth of the The high esteem and respect deceased, hereby expresses its in which the late James Crawford sincere sorrow at his untimely Rikenbary was held was demon- taking off, and hereby tender to strated in the hall of the state the family of the deceased its Edwin Jeary, a representative "Resolved, That the clerk of from Lancaster county, but for- the house be instructed to forward merly of this county, arose in his a copy of these resolutions to the place and asked recognition of family of the deceased, and to the the chair. His remarks were as press of the cities of Plattsmouth and Lincoln, Neb."

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of The resolutions were adopted the House: I desire to introduce by the house of representatives

The many friends of George in his old-time manner and in- Reynolds throughout the county troduced me to his grandson, a will be lpeased to learn that he youth from Memphis, Neb. He will again take up farming in this seemed pleased and proud of the county, having purchased the Ted fact that the boy was visiting him. Barrows farm, which adjoins the He said he was going to show the farm of W. D. Wheeler, south of lad over the city and in the aft- this city. The farm is just east ernoon he expected to go with his of Mr. Wheelr's farm and congrandson and visit the legislature, sists of 102 acres and is a very but before he reached this hall desirable piece of land and will Bend was here today and found death halted his footsteps and make Mr. Reynolds a most de- time to drop into the Journal he met his death by falling into sirable home. The deal was office and renew his subscriptions

DISPOSSESS NOTICE IS SERVED ON TURKEY.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1913.

Turkey: "I wonder where an borrow some money?" Gesare in New York Sun.

Most Pleasant Caller.

From Wednesday's Daily. George Wallinger of South

Painting Soennichsen Roof. painter, is engaged today in on the building is being pushed weather continues geed it will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks.

the ground for the trackage.

Broke First Ground Here.

Tom O'Connor, who was in the city this morning attending the funeral of his brother, John, enjoys the distinction of having broken the first sod for the construction of the Burlington & Mis-

COME FROM NEHAWKA TO GET MARRIED

From Wednesday's Dally.

Quite a large wedding party motored up from Nehawka this The hostesses on this occasion of Mr. Ralph Vaill and Miss Nellie berger, Allie Kennedy and I. M. Bates, which was performed by Cummings, and the large number County Judge A. J. Beeson at the court house. The rest of the party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. usual business session was held, Robert Vaill, George Bates, Miss after which the ladies participat-Lucy Kivert, Edwin Hadley, ed in a very pleasant social time. George Sheldon and Earl Vaill, re- Elegant refreshments turned to Nehawka, while the newly wedded couple proceeded to Omaha and Blair for a short wedding trip. These young people "OUILTING BEE" AT THE

RE-DECORATING INTERIOR OF M. E. CHURCH COMPLETED

NO. 13.

The work of re-decorating the souri River railroad at this place interior of the Methodist church on July 5, 1869. The site of the has been completed and Frank breaking of the ground was just Gobelman, the artist in charge of north of the Burlington station, the work, certainly has cause to and following this a public cere- feel proud of the beautiful appearmony was held, at which promin- ance that the interior of the ent persons of the state were church presents, as it is hard to present, Mr. O'Connor was at this describe in words the beauty of time in the employ of John Fitz- the decorations. The walls of the gerald, the contractor, who had main auditorium, as well as the charge of the work of breaking smaller room on the west which can be shut off from the main auditorium, are done in a light shade of gray that blends most James Hadraba, the veteran tastefully. The decorations on the ceiling are very artistic and painting the roof of the new speaks well for the artist, who has Soennichsen building. The work used such discriminating taste in the use of the decorations, as they along in fine shape, and if the certainly make the interior of this church one of the most handsome in the city. The church is being cleaned thoroughout and the woodwork will all be re-varnished in first-class condition.

Hold Delightful Meeting.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church held a most delightful meeting yesterday afternoon. This meeting was held in the church parlors and there were in attendance pronounced them were served:

OF KANSAS CITY, HELD TODAY

was highly esteemed by all who

Card of Thanks.

FUNERAL OF JOHN O'CONNER

power house, as he was showing A. J. Trilety, the real estate man, delighted to meet Mr. Wallinger, his grandson the ponderous en- and he feels that he has secured as he is a most pleasant gentle- O'Conner of Kansas City was held the world and trust that their gines of the plant. Mr. Speaker his patron a very fine farm. Mr. man. He was accompanied by this morning from St. John's wedded life may be as bright as a and Gentlemen, Mr. Eikenbary and Reynolds was engaged for several Fred Gunther of this city. myself have "drank from the same years in farming near Nehawka, canteen" of friendship for more where he was quite successful.

than forty years, and in all my acquaintance with him I never knew him to do an unmanly act. DISTRICT COURT IN SESings together times often, and he always was the gentleman, honorable during all of those gatherings. For some five terms he was the efficient and faithful sheriff of From Thursday's Dally

SION FOR A SHORT TIME

For Sale.

Edgar Steinhauer.

Cass county. At the time of his death he was one of the deputy evening held a short session of the people of this county and the Mike O'Connor of Missouri Valley. family, west of this city, when king had been prepared, and to say sheriffs of Lancaster county and district court to pass on several counties in the eastern part of Iowa, brothers of the deceased, the keeper of the Lancaster coun- cases on the equity docket, and in the state adjoining the Missouri and James Hunt of Lincoln were ty jail. Abhorrent as it was to the case of Louise Ray, et al., vs. river on the west. Mr. Wester- Bere to take charge of the funeral. Mr. Eikenbary to take the life of Nancy J. Dysart, et al., an order gard, the official trailmaker, has Father Shine also conducted the a fellow man, he did not shirk for publication and default of all made a thorough investigation as services at the grave. from that duty when he threw defendants was entered and de- to the most feasible route bethe level that throttled to his cree in partition granted. At- tween New York City and the Padeath Harry Hill for the murder torney A. L. Tidd was appointed cifle coast, and he recommends of Mr. and Mrs. Akeson near referee to report at a reasonable that tourists in automobile go of returning our heartfelt thanks rendered by August Keil, which beauty. The guests reluctantly it is the custom of this house for fendants. Nettie B. Reed and that all autoists making the trip kindly treatment in their hour of its members to answer the roll Harry D. Reed, entered. This case will pass through this city, pro- grief, call every day and responses to is from Weeping Water, while the vided the roads are put in good the roll call are made cheerfully first named case is from the vicin- shape and the road properly -vesterday J. C. Eikenbary ity of Union.

answered the roll call "up yonder" and from what I know of his life I am sure he answered with a ADMISTRATORS APglad voice, "Here!" Croft Eikenbary, as I understand it, was not a rich man, he has left no great wealth, but he has left his family something that money cannot buy -he has left them the priceless From Thursday's Daily legacy of an unsullied name. This this hour, Mr. Speaker, I do not Marcus M. Shipman, from Weeplook upon Groft Eikenbary as ing Water, Mrs. Mary E. Shipman, dead, for I believe there is no the widow, was named as the death in such a lifea s he lived, executrix of the will and the but rather I believe with the poet estate. This morning a petition who said:

There is no death: the stars go estate, from near Cedar Creek, down To shine upon some fairer pointed as the administrator of shore. And bright in Heaven's jeweled the judge.

Crown

They shine forever more."

Mr. Speaker, I desire to introduce this resolution and move its adoption:

"Whereas, J. Crawford Eiken- ticulars write or call. bary, for several years the very

"The question of good roads is of this city for many years. Con

District Judge H. D. Travis last one of paramount importance to and Tom O'Connor of Lincoln and marked."

The above is taken from the Nebraska City News, and we reprint it to warn our people who DEATH OF AN AGED are interested in the Omaha-POINTED IN ESTATES Plattsmouth-Nebraska City-Kansas City river route that the must get busy on the good roads question and see that they are placed in fine shape. The route from the marble slab of the under- the hearing of various estates we must convince the tourists is taken from the Ashland repainting are very evident. The to attend. The chief amusement taker, a bushel of golden nuggets which came up for hearing. In from the east that the route Gazette: are of no greater value to him the John R. Baird estate, from through Plattsmouth is in the among men is all in all to him at court, and in the estate of the late of the way. Get busy, gentlemen. suffered for years with chronic for bids for painting or not.

Married in Lincoln.

From Friday's Daily.

was filed in the Ulrich Inhelder asking that John P. Sattler be apsaid estate, which was done by Excelsior Motorcycle, 7 H .- P., double cylinder, magneto, with friends.

free engine. For further par-Journal office.

The funeral of the late John wish them all the happiness in Catholic church, mass being said summer's day. *by Rev. Father M. A. Shine of this city, and the interment was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery heside the father and mother of the DINNER PARTY AT THE HOME deceased. Quite a number of the OF MR. AND MRS. TRITSCH former friends of the family were present at the church to pay their last tribute to Mr. O'Connor, who knew him, and who was a resident from the Atlantic to Chicago, to the many kind friends who as- greatly pleased the jolly crowd, departed from the hospitable was as brave as a lion when duty In the case of David J. Mom- then to Omaha, and from there to sisted us so kindly during the ill- Mr. and Mrs. Tritsch are royal Wiles home, feeling that the occalled and demanded, but he was mert vs. Mary B. Gibson, et al., a Kansas City, taking what is ness, death and burial of our entertainers and their guests fell casion had been one filled with as tender as a child when in his suit in partition, the decree was known as the Sunset route. If brother, John O'Connor, and we that they had one of the times of much profit and pleasure to them. normal condition. Mr. Speaker, granted as prayed for and the de- this route is adopted it will mean hope they may receive the same their lives during the afternoon.

From Wednesday's Daily.

HOME OF MRS. THOS. WILES The Helpers of the Christian church, to the number of about fifteen, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiles Wednesday and proceeded to spend the day at a "quilting bee" and the ladies enjoyed themselves to the utmost at this useful occupation and in social conversation A very pleasant dinner party until the noon hour, when the occurred Sunday at the home of hostess invited them into the din-Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Tritsch and ing room, where a feast fit for a they entertained as their guests that hey enjoyed the delicious re-August Keil and famliy, William past is putting it mildly, as they Tritsch and family, O. P. Mouroe declared that never had such a and wife. The afternoon was delicious meal been partaken of most pleasantly spent in games before by them. The chief feature and some most delightful musical of the decorations was a large numbers by Miss Maude Tritsch bouquet of carnations, which ex-We desire to take this method and a most pleasing vocal number cited many of the guests by their

EPWORTH LEAGUE ENJOYS MOST INTERESTING TIME

Last evening the Epworth employed Walter Brittain to clean League society enjoyed one of the the walls of the commissioners' most enjoyable social meetings in room in the court bouse, in order the history of the society at the to see how badly the walls are in home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cobb, The following account of the need of repainting, and from the in the west part of the city, and commissioners expect to take up of the evening was a guessing > song, and in this contest Miss Ferris York and James Rishel carried off first prize, while the booby prize was secured by Mrs.

that as entertainers Mr. and Mrs. Cobb were certainly "on the job" Everything in paper at the widow has the sympathy of all in Sell your property through a and that to be their guests was a rare treat.

pancreatitis, also arterial serosis, cause of his death, as instead of From Friday's Dally.

Monday and the remains laid in this worthy lady. the cemetery here. The aged her bereavement.

Tom O'Connor.

The county commissioners have

The county judge's office was Omaha to Kansas City is the death of the late Josiah Cline, a work of cleaning done so far the the occasion will long be rememmorning as Mr. Eikenbary lies on quite busy yesterday and today in shortest by many miles, and in prominent citizen of Greenwood, needs of the walls and ceiling for bered by those fortunate enough

Died-At his home in Green- the painting question at their next contest, questions being placed than a bushel of sand or gravel, Elmwood, John Weichel was ap- best condition. Going any other wood, Neb., at 5:20 p. m., Josiah session (next Tuesday) and will around the walls of the room, the but that he has been a manly man pointed administrator by the route would be considerably out Cline, age 71 years. Mr. Cline had then decide whether to let the call answers being given by some old # the former being the immediate Sad News for Mrs. Hawksworth.

In the State Journal of today aiding, it retarded the action of Yesterday Mrs. David Hawks- E. C. Hill and Miss Grace York for we note that two of Cass county's the stomach so as to cause worth received the sad news of the getting the least correct answers. worthy people were granted a starvation, and nothing could be death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. The evening was enlivened by license to wed in Lincoln yester- done in the way of operations to A. F. Brown, at Templeton, Cali- music and other games, such as day. The parties are Mr. John H. relieve him. Mr. and Mrs. Cline fornia, of pneumonia. The de- the young people delight in, until Fitzpatrick, aged 63, and Martha were among the early settlers of ceased lady was a sister of Mr. the serving of a most delicious J. Drum, aged 59, both of Weeping the county and Mr. Cline was a Hawksworth and had resided in three-course luncheon by the hos-Water. The contracting parties hardworking, industrious man all California for a number of years tess, which came as the crowning are well known throughout the his life. The funeral services and the many friends of the feature of the evening of delight. western and central part of the were conducted by Rev. Light Hawksworth family will regret The meeting was attended by county, where they possess many from the Christian church on greatly to learn of the death of about fifty members and all felt little ad in the Journal.

WALTER BRITTAIN WILL Con O'Connor. M. O'Connor. CLEAN COURT HOUSE WALLS CASS COUNTY PIONEER