

(Continued From Page 7.)

women wish the right of the ballot, but the plan is so ridiculous. Intrusting in their hands for a few minutes we would say so precious or so deadly an instrument, much like you would give a child something to hold for a few minutes and say, "Now be careful, don't break it." The right of the ballot will not compel women to vote, but those that wish to certainly should have the privilege. It is said that they neglect the home. It will not take a woman any longer to vote than a man. Voting and entering politics are very different. Neither a man or a woman should enter any kind of business that will take them away or cause them to neglect their home, especially if they have children. It is very true that in a great many cases the women have all the care and responsibility of the children, but the man has shifted a responsibility that he had no business to. A man's presence and influence is just as essential as the woman's in a home where there are children. Whenever you find that a boy's ideal is other than his father there is something radically wrong with the father; either he is not at home long enough to get acquainted or there isn't enough in him to bring out the child's admiration. No genuine, true woman will neglect her home to any great extent for any cause, much less politics, and she asks for the ballot that she may help settle the question that so seriously affects her home. And then, who is it that says we cannot vote? In the great Declaration of Independence is written, "All men are created equal." Men means mankind, when used in the above term, and don't you think it is just a little beneath the dignity of our fathers, husbands and brothers to want to hold back that right. Taxation without representation was once considered a just cause for war, so can you blame us if we feel some indignation when we hear a man say he is against women voting? ...

The Sunshine Band will present a comedy of today, in three acts, entitled "Next Door," by Eleanor Maud Crane, author of "When a Man's Single," "Just for Fun," etc., at Jenkins' hall Saturday evening, March 1. Following is the cast of characters:

Prof. Courtney Martin, a woman hater Will Seybolt
George Chester, an artist Rex Young
Will Webster, a lawyer Errat Thomason
Fred Harper, a Harvard graduate Gussie Good
Orange, from the sunny south Omar Yardley
Mrs. Joseph Thornton, from South Carolina, Besse Seybolt
Miss Betty Armistead, Mrs. Thornton's niece, Vera Yardley
Miss Alice Armistead, Mrs. Thornton's niece Clara Copenhaver
Miss Kathleen Covington, a Baltimore Belle Clara Young Bobs, a puppy.

Time—The present. Locality—Acts 1 and 2, suburban cottage on Long Island. Act 3, library in Mrs. Thornton's home in Washington Square, New York.

Public Sale!

TUESDAY, MARCH 4, 1913,
Commencing at 1 O'clock P. M.
On the above date, at the farm of the late John S. Irwin, six miles southeast of Murray and six miles northeast of Union, the Administrator of the estate of John S.
Irwin, deceased, will sell at Public Sale the following property belonging to the said estate:

- 1 roan mare, 3 years old, in foal.
- 1 gray mare, smooth mouth.
- 1 milk cows, 2 fresh soon.
- 1 milk cow with calf at side.
- 7 heifers.
- 5 steers.
- 1 bull.
- 1 barrow, nearly new.
- 17 head of hogs.
- 1 farm wagon.
- 1 bobsled.
- 1 disc.
- 1 hay rake.
- 1 corn drill.

TERMS—Sums of $10 or less, cash. Over $10, six months' time on approved notes at 8 per cent interest. No property removed until settled for.

ADMINISTRATOR
Estate of John S. Irwin, Deceased
Wilkinson & Hall, Auctioneers.
J. M. Patterson, Clerk.

J. H. Foreman was a capital city visitor Tuesday.

C. R. Jordan returned from Plattsmouth Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Appleman were Lincoln visitors Tuesday.

Sam B. Jams of Lincoln transacted business in town Tuesday.

Mrs. E. M. Stone and son, LaVerne, were in Lincoln Saturday.

William Uptegrove returned from Louisville, Neb., Thursday evening.

George Hall and John Murley shipped hogs to South Omaha Tuesday.

The Misses Grayce and Ruth Bailey were shopping in Lincoln Saturday.

Mrs. S. C. Boyles and niece, Miss Pearl Keefer, were in Lincoln Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Casey returned Friday from a few days' visit at Lincoln.

Mrs. William Powell of Lincoln visited Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. J. A. Shaffer.

If you don't find in our stock what you want, tell us and we will see that you get it. Patterson.

Clifford Appleman returned Wednesday from a several days' visit with relatives at Valparaiso, Neb.

Mrs. Dewey and son, Vern, of Lincoln spent Tuesday with Mrs. Dewey's sister, Mrs. Dr. Muir and family.

Friends of Mrs. Flora B. Keefer at Los Angeles, California, are pleased to hear of her steady improvement.

The big clearing sale at Patterson's will soon close. Don't fail to avail yourself of the bargains offered.

Porter Appleman, wife and daughter, of Atlantic, Iowa, came in Tuesday to visit L. B. Appleman and family.

T. E. Patterson returned Wednesday from Lincoln, where he has been preparing to move his household goods to Alvo.

Charles R. Jordan and John Murley expect to leave Friday for Washington, D. C., to witness the inauguration of President Wilson.

A party of wolf hunters took in a six-mile radius west and northwest of Alvo Monday, but no catch was made, as the northwest parties did not show up.

A satisfied customer is our aim. Our grocery department is well supplied with nice fresh goods, shoes, dry goods and notions will be in later. Patterson.

A. N. Ingwerson came in from Chicago Monday to visit his brother, Charles and family. He came west to visit his mother, who is seriously ill at Nehawka, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Appleman and daughter, Marie, returned to their home in Lincoln Sunday evening, after visiting a few days with Mrs. Appleman's parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Uptegrove.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Glen Armstrong, Sunday, February 23, 1913, a son. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dolbow, February 16, 1913, a daughter; and to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Marshall, on February 21, 1913, a son.

MURDOCK.

Hurrah for the snow!
Ida Thieshiet was in Omaha Tuesday.

Harken to the ringing of the sleigh bells!
Milt Moore was seen on our streets Sunday.

Lyda Sorick visited friends in Lincoln Thursday.

Belle Davison has been visiting friends and relatives in Weeping Water the past week.

Orval Beall was a business visitor in Omaha Wednesday.

George Hubble has been visiting friends here the past week.

Ed Taylor of Louisville was visiting a friend here Saturday and Sunday.

Our new butcher arrived Tuesday and will take possession of the city meat market.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson of Omaha were visiting W. O. Gillespie and family Wednesday.

The wife and baby of our new creamery man, Mr. Hughes, came Sunday for a short visit with him.

Nellie Rush returned Monday evening from Lincoln, where she had been visiting her sister Verna Brittain.

Betty Eisenhut, who has been in California for the past year, has returned home on a short visit with relatives.

Frank Eveland and his sister, Mrs. King, have been spending the winter with a brother in Iowa, but returned home last Thursday.

The Misses Thorpe and Gieseler went to Omaha Friday to take in Shakespeare's plays, "Macbeth" and "The Twelve Knights." Knights."

A. J. Tool is stepping around as lively as can be, wearing a smile that won't rub off, since the arrival of a bouncing boy at his home Friday, February 24.

Mrs. Edna Westlake and son and daughter left Sunday morning for Lincoln, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. James Brittain. From there they will go to their future home at Rockby, Neb.

MAX DUSTERHOFF,
Murdock, Neb.,
Painter and Decorator,
Paper Hanger,
Wall Paper.

MURDOCK.

Albert Boom is visiting with the Dick Boom family.

Jake Miller made a drive to Weeping Water Wednesday.

Mr. O'Brien is enjoying a visit from his brother from Ohio.

Omar Coon was transacting business in Omaha Saturday.

Ed Fleischmann made a drive to Louisville for J. Miller Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Snively left for their home at Lincoln Sunday evening.

The funeral of Mr. Lester Stander occurred at Louisville Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Voegler were passengers on the morning train Tuesday.

The Misses Lily and Agnes Tighe were shopping in Omaha Saturday.

John Tighe and James Murphy were passengers on the freight Wednesday noon.

There was quite a number of people passengers for Omaha Wednesday morning.

The elevator of Keckler & Schaffer at Louisville burned down some time about midnight Tuesday evening.

Rev. W. L. D. Higgins left for the western part of the state Tuesday morning to be present at the funeral of an old friend.

Peter Johnsen, from east of Weeping Water, brought a lot of corn to the Farmers' elevator and sold it at 40 cents per bushel.

The Weeping Water mill sent up a load of their excellent flour to the Farmers' elevator and bought a load of oats from them.

Quite a number of our Manley young folks took advantage of the nice snow we have been having and went sleigh riding Sunday evening.

Miss Celia Breckenfeldt of Elmwood is visiting with Mrs. Ralph Keckler this week. Miss Breckenfeldt has just returned from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stohlman were in town Monday and bought a gasoline engine and a washing machine from the Manley Co. Operative Grain association.

There will be preaching at the Union church Sunday morning by Rev. Lambert of Weeping Water. Prayer meeting in the evening at 7:30. All are cordially invited to attend.

There was a large delegation came up from Weeping Water Monday and met our Manley people to talk over and formulate plans for the removal of the county seat to a more centrally located place than the present location.

John Kochtitzky of Cap Girardeau, Mo., was visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Essick, over Sunday. He is in the dredging and damming business in southeast Missouri, and was at Auburn to buy a dredging machine that was for sale at the place.

MISS RUTH THOMASON ENTERTAINS U. B. SUNDAY SCHOOL

Miss Ruth Thomason entertained the members of the U. B. Sunday school at dinner last Sunday at the home of her uncle, B. F. Wiles, south of this city. The day was spent in rendering beautiful music, both vocal and instrumental, which was enjoyed very much by the young folks. Those present were: Misses Harriet, Mable and Lillian Adams, Nellie Cook, Mildred Johnson, Elsie Gopen, Mildred Burke, Ruth and Carrie Thomason, Messrs. Everett Thomason, Prof. William Taylor, Rev. A. C. Eads, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wiles and family.

Just

A car of America

Poultry netting

Rabbit and po

strap him

-G. P.

SEWING MACHINE

MANAGER ARRESTED

ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Charge is Embezzlement and He Is Now in Jail Awaiting Friends to Come to His Relief.

For some time there has been rumors in the city that there were to be some exposures in the conduct of the Singer Sewing Machine company's business in this city, and it culminated yesterday afternoon when, on the arrival of the state manager of the company from Omaha, William Jonas Brown, the gentleman who acted as agent here, was placed under arrest, charged with a shortage of $350 in his dealings with the company.

There are, of course, two sides to the story, the company claiming that Brown collected money that was never turned in and selling machines for the full price and then failing to remit, while on the other hand, Brown believes he has been made the "goat" by the state management in Omaha in order to furnish an example to the other agents throughout the state, and that while he may be short a small amount, it is nothing like the sum represented by the company.

Mr. Brown has resided here about a year and a half, and during that time has always conducted himself in a law-abiding manner toward his fellow-man, and his actions at times have caused his friends to worry as to his mental condition, as he did many things that would not have been done by a person possessing strong mental faculties, particularly in the line of trading horses, in which he always got the worst of it, and it is to this weakness that much of his trouble can be traced.

The family of the unfortunate man will receive the deepest sympathy of everyone in their misfortune, as they will be forced to bear the greater burden, and for their sake it is to be hoped the matter can be settled without reaching the courts. It is understood that Brown is making an effort to secure the support of relatives to assist him in his misfortune, and it is to be hoped that his efforts may meet with success.

ELEVATOR AT LOUISVILLE DESTROYED BY FIRE WEDNESDAY

Yesterday the town of Louisville was visited by a very destructive fire, which destroyed the grain elevator owned by Keckler & Shaffer, grain buyers of the city. The loss will total about $6,000, a little more than half of which is covered by insurance. How the fire started is unknown. The elevator was a mass of flame when the alarm was sounded. This fire was the first since the installation of the new water-works system, and it is due to the efficiency of the water service that the flames were prevented from spreading to the adjoining buildings and the people of Louisville can be truly thankful that the fire was wise enough to have the water-works system put in, as otherwise the loss would have been very heavy, as there would have been no checking the flames.

Recei

merican Field Fence and all meshes g, all heights, d and square mesh oultry fence, ba nges, builders' h

Prices right

EASTV

(Successor to John Baue

Case Compromised.

The wife desertion case of Zach Alden has been settled by Zach giving a bond to furnish $10 per month for a period of two years towards the maintenance of his wife and minor child. This settlement is agreeable to all the parties concerned and will undoubtedly be the best way of settling the difficulty.

"THE CITY" ONE OF THE GREATEST AMERICAN PLAYS

No play produced on the American stage in the last quarter of a century has stirred up such a wonderful amount of controversy and discussion as Clyde Fitch's greatest and last play, "The City," which is to be presented here at the Parmele theater Saturday night, March 1, exactly as produced for its long run in New York and Chicago. It is a rare find among dramatic pieces—a play which is not only entertaining and gripping because of its sheer dramatic strength and intensity, but which drives home a number of great moral truths with sledge hammer blows. It is a play that appeals to the average man and the highly educated man alike. The company sent here by the United Play company is an exceedingly strong one. It is headed by Hugo B. Koch, Res- member and be at the Parmele theater Saturday night.

W. A. Cline in Town.

The genial W. A. Cline, traveling representative of the Carpenter Paper company at Omaha was in the city today, and found time to come upstairs and interview the "Old Man" for a brief time. Mr. Cline is very popular with the newspaper men in his territory, and they are always glad to meet him. He is a dandy, full-around gentleman, and there seems to be an entire different atmosphere prevade our sanctum when friend Cline's good-natured countenance beams in upon us.

Red Men Have Dance.

The old-fashioned dance given last evening at the Red Men's hall was attended by quite a large crowd of lovers of the old-fashioned square dance, and they spent several hours tripping to the tune of the fiddles and piano and having one of the times of their lives. The Red Men expect to hold these dances more frequently in the future, as they have been the source of much pleasure to the members and their friends.

Little Boy Is Hurt.

John Philip, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Falter met with a very painful accident Tuesday evening. While engaged in playing around the house he fell, and in doing so bit his tongue so severely that it requires several stitches to close up the wound, but the little fellow stood the pain in good shape and is now getting along nicely.

Sold at Sheriff's Sale.

Sheriff Quinton this morning sold at sheriff's sale the Sias Breckenridge property in the south part of the city for $600. The property was bid in by the Livingston Loan & Building association, which held the mortgage on the place.

Lived!

ce, all heights

diamond mesh rbwire, nails,

hardware

WOOD-

SOME OF THE ATTRAC-

TIONS TO BE AT THE

PARMELE NEXT SEASON

Manager Schlaes of the Parmele theater, while in Chicago last week secured a large number of first-class attractions which he will have appear at the local theater next season. All of these shows are presented by first-class city companies and are splendid attractions and are worthy of the patronage of the amusement-loving public of this city. The list includes such well known plays as "The Modern Eve," "Kindling," with Sarah Padden in the title role; "That Printer of Udell's," "The Divorce Question," which made such a deep impression here this season; "The Lion and the Mouse," "The Third Degree," "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," "The Harvester," "Truxton King," "Graustark," "Mutt and Jeff in Panama," "Shepherd of the Hills," "The Virginian," "The Goose Girl," and Henry B. Koch, who appears here Saturday in "The City" will be seen in a new play that is being prepared for appearance on the stage next season.

COMPLETES BIG JOB AT

GOVERNMENT RIFLE RANGE

J. H. McMaken has just completed a large job for the government at the range north of this city, where he has constructed a culvert and road over the dry slough on the west of the rifle range that will give the soldiers a means of getting to and from the range from the camp on the west side of the track. This work required several teams to complete and was the first of the series of improvements contemplated by the government at the range, and which involves the expenditure of a large sum of money. The removal of the Fourth Infantry to the Mexican border will probably delay somewhat the practice of the soldiers as they may remain there for some time, or in the event of war they can practice on the blood-thirsty adherents of Huertata and Diaz.

VERDICT IN THE MARY MILLER CASE REACHED TODAY

The jury in the matter of the estate of Mary Miller, deceased, which has been out deliberating on the matter since 5 o'clock last evening, brought in a verdict this afternoon admitting the revocation of the will offered for probate. The verdict was as follows:

"We, the jury in this case, being duly impaneled and sworn to try the issues in this case, do find that and say that the paper writing offered in evidence is not the last will and testament of Mary Miller, deceased, but that the paper made on February 27, 1909, revoking said will, is the last will and testament of said Mary Miller, deceased."

For Sale.

Two good milk cows and two yearling calves. T. S. Barrows, 6 miles south of Plattsmouth. 2-20-2t-w

(Successor to John Bauer)

For some time there has been rumors in the city that there were to be some exposures in the conduct of the Singer Sewing Machine company's business in this city, and it culminated yesterday afternoon when, on the arrival of the state manager of the company from Omaha, William Jonas Brown, the gentleman who acted as agent here, was placed under arrest, charged with a shortage of $350 in his dealings with the company.

There are, of course, two sides to the story, the company claiming that Brown collected money that was never turned in and selling machines for the full price and then failing to remit, while on the other hand, Brown believes he has been made the "goat" by the state management in Omaha in order to furnish an example to the other agents throughout the state, and that while he may be short a small amount, it is nothing like the sum represented by the company.

Mr. Brown has resided here about a year and a half, and during that time has always conducted himself in a law-abiding manner toward his fellow-man, and his actions at times have caused his friends to worry as to his mental condition, as he did many things that would not have been done by a person possessing strong mental faculties, particularly in the line of trading horses, in which he always got the worst of it, and it is to this weakness that much of his trouble can be traced.

The family of the unfortunate man will receive the deepest sympathy of everyone in their misfortune, as they will be forced to bear the greater burden, and for their sake it is to be hoped the matter can be settled without reaching the courts. It is understood that Brown is making an effort to secure the support of relatives to assist him in his misfortune, and it is to be hoped that his efforts may meet with success.

ELEVATOR AT LOUISVILLE DESTROYED BY FIRE WEDNESDAY

Yesterday the town of Louisville was visited by a very destructive fire, which destroyed the grain elevator owned by Keckler & Shaffer, grain buyers of the city. The loss will total about $6,000, a little more than half of which is covered by insurance. How the fire started is unknown. The elevator was a mass of flame when the alarm was sounded. This fire was the first since the installation of the new water-works system, and it is due to the efficiency of the water service that the flames were prevented from spreading to the adjoining buildings and the people of Louisville can be truly thankful that they were wise enough to have the water-works system put in, and otherwise the loss would have been very heavy, as there would have been no checking the flames.

No play produced on the American stage in the last quarter of a century has stirred up such a wonderful amount of controversy and discussion as Clyde Fitch's greatest and last play, "The City," which is to be presented here at the Parmele theater Saturday night, March 1, exactly as produced for its long run in New York and Chicago. It is a rare find among dramatic pieces—a play which is not only entertaining and gripping because of its sheer dramatic strength and intensity, but which drives home a number of great moral truths with sledge hammer blows. It is a play that appeals to the average man and the highly educated man alike. The company sent here by the United Play company is an exceedingly strong one. It is headed by Hugo B. Koch, Remember and be at the Parmele theater Saturday night.

Manager Schlaes of the Parmelee theater, while in Chicago last week secured a large number of first-class attractions which he will have appear at the local theater next season. All of these shows are presented by first-class city companies and are splendid attractions and are worthy of the patronage of the amusement-loving public of this city. The list includes such well known plays as "The Modern Eve," "Kindling," with Sarah Padden in the title role; "That Printer of Udell's," "The Divorce Question," which made such a deep impression here this season; "The Lion and the Mouse," "The Third Degree," "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," "The Harvester," "Truxton King," "Graumark," "Mutt and Jeff in Panama," "Shepherd of the Hills," "The Virginian," "The Goose Girl," and Henry B. Koch, who appears here Saturday in "The City" will be seen in a new play that is being prepared for appearance on the stage next season.

J. H. McMaken has just completed a large job for the government at the range north of this city, where he has constructed a culvert and road over the dry dry gulch on the west of the rifle range that will give the soldiers a means of getting to and from the range from the camp on the west side of the track. This work required several teams to complete and was the first of the series of improvements contemplated by the government at the range, and which involves the expenditure of a large sum of money. The removal of the Fourth infantry to the Mexican border will probably delay somewhat the practice of the soldiers as they may remain there for some time, or in the event of war they can practice on the bloodthirsty adherents of Huera! and Diaz.

The jury in the matter of the estate of Mary Miller, deceased, which has been out deliberating on the matter since 5 o'clock last evening, brought in a verdict this afternoon admitting the revocation of the will offered for probate. The verdict was as follows:

"We, the jury in this case, being duly impaneled and sworn to try the issues in this case, do find that and say that the paper writing offered in evidence is not the last will and testament of Mary Miller, deceased, but that the paper made on February 27, 1906, revoking said will, is the last will and testament of said Mary Miller, deceased."

Two good milk cows and two yearling calves. T. S. Barrows, 6 miles south of Plattsmouth. 2-20-21-wk