

NOTICE OF PROPOSITION TO VOTE SPECIAL TAX.

The electors of the County of Cass, Nebraska, will take notice that a special election to be held on the 18th day of April, A. D. 1913, at the regular voting places in all the precincts and wards throughout said county, the following question and proposition will be submitted to a vote of the people.

Shall the Board of County Commissioners of Cass County, Nebraska, or other person or persons charged by law with the appropriation of money and levying of taxes for said county for the time being, appropriate the sum of $12,000 and, in addition to the regular annual tax, cause to be levied on all taxable property of said county, a special tax sufficient to raise said amount for the purpose of building a County Jail on the Court House grounds in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, taking such action as the requirements of the law and the interests of the public may demand; provided that said special tax be levied at the time of making the regular levy of the general taxes for the year 1913, and be entered upon the tax list for that year and collected in the same manner as other taxes, and that proceedings shall be commenced for the erection of said jail as soon as the authority is obtained from the electors as far possible under the law, and be continued without unnecessary delay until the same shall have been completed and provided that said special tax be levied and collected one year and one year only.

That the said question and proposition above set forth shall be submitted to the legal voters of said county in the following form and manner: that in to say the form of the ballot to be used at said election in favor of said question and proposition shall be as follows: "I vote for the appropriation of $12,000 and for the levy and collection of a special tax sufficient to raise said amount for the purpose of building a County Jail."

And the form of the ballot to be used at said election against said question and proposition shall be as follows: "I vote against the appropriation of the sum of $12,000 and against the levy and collection of a special tax for the purpose of building a County Jail."

Dated this 1st day of March, A. D. 1913.
C. R. JORDAN,
Chairman Board of County Commissioners.
C. E. HEEBNER,
JULIUS A. PITZ,
Commissioners.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the District Court in and for Cass County, Nebraska.

In the Matter of the Estate of Nicholas Halme, Deceased.

This cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Nicholas C. Halme, executor of the will and estate of Nicholas Halme, deceased, for construction of paragraph nine of the will of said deceased and for order and license to sell the real estate as required by law, and the will of said deceased, which real estate is more particularly described as follows:

N 26, SE 1/4, Sec. 25, Twp. 12, Range 9, SW 1/4 and NW 1/4 of SW 1/4 of Sec. 8-12-13, E 1/2 of SE 1/4 and SW 1/4 of Sec. 7-12-13, NE 1/4 of NW 1/4 of Sec. 5-12-13, all in Cass County, Nebraska, Lots 10, 11 and 12 in Block 2 of the City of Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me on the 18th day of March, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any they have, why said will should not be interpreted and construed by the Court and show cause why order of Court, directing and guiding the executor in making a sale of the said real estate belonging to the will of said deceased, and why a license should not be granted to said executor to sell the above described real estate of said deceased.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order to show cause be published for our successive weeks papers, the time of hearing in the Plattsmouth Journal, a newspaper published twice a week at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, and of general circulation throughout said County.

Dated this 30th day of January, 1913.
HARVEY D. TRACY,
Judge of the District Court.
D. O. DWYER,
Attorney for Executor.

Comfort Your Stomach
We pay for this treatment if it fails to promptly relieve indigestion and dyspepsia.
Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets remedy stomach troubles because they contain the proper proportion of Pepsin and Bismuth and the necessary carminatives that help nature to supply the elements the absence of which in the gastric juices causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They aid the stomach to digest food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood and material necessary for overcoming natural body waste.

Carry a package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket, or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal and prove our assertion that they will keep indigestion from bothering you.
We know what Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, or to refund your money, if they fail to do so. Doesn't it stand to reason that we wouldn't assume this money risk were we not certain Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will satisfy you? Three sizes: 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00.
You can buy Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in this community only at our store.

Miss Violet Ough was the happily surprised recipient of a beautiful bouquet of carnations and ferns, presented by the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church.

C. R. Jordan, John Murty and R. W. Stewart returned Tuesday evening on No. 17 from their trip to Washington, D. C., where they attended the inauguration of President Wilson.

Mrs. George McFarland and son returned to their home at Clarida, Iowa, Saturday, and Mrs. Fred Felrow and son left Monday for their new home at Gordon, Neb., after several days' visit with their sister, Mrs. Harry Parsell and family.

A caucus was held in the town hall Monday evening for the purpose of nominating candidates to fill vacancies on the town board. Those nominated were: Dr. L. Muir, C. C. Bucknell, Charles H. Kirkpatrick and P. J. Lynch. The election will be held on Tuesday, April 8.

Monday morning Mrs. Belle Bennett slipped on the linoleum as she started out of doors and fell to the floor, injuring herself quite severely, although no bones were broken. She will be confined to her bed for several days. Her daughter, Mrs. George Foreman, Jr., will stay with her until she is able to be around again.

The first number on the spring lecture course will be given at the hall Friday, March 15, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. This number will be a musical, given by the Nebraska Wesleyan orchestra. This body of musicians are extra good this year and a very rare entertainment is promised. Season tickets and reservation of seats may be secured at R. A. Stone's store. The following number will be given March 21 by the Nebraska Wesleyan quartet, which also represents some very rare talent. Everybody should plan to attend these splendid entertainments.
