CHURCHES CELEBRATE GOOD FRIDAY

Appropriate and Interesting Services at St. Luke's and Methodist Churches Yesterday.

From Saturday's Daily.
Services commemorating the crucifixion of Christ were held yesterday (Good Friday) in the Episcopal church in this city at 9 a. m., 10 a. m., 11:45 a. m. and penitential services at 2:45 and penitential litany at 7:30 p. m. The Catholic church was open during the day for those of the parish who desired to perform the stations of the cross. This is one of the most strict days in the calendar of these churches and is observed by almost every member of the Catholic or Episcopal church by attending one of the services.

The choir of the Methodist church in the evening, under the direction of their leader, Mrs. E. H. Wescott, presented the story of the crucifixion in song, it being Dubois' "The Seven Last Words of Christ," and the choir handled the beautiful sacred story in a splendid manner. The music to this is one of the most beautiful that has been heard in this city, and when the trained voices of the choir and soloists were lifted up to deliver the message from Calvary it was certainly an inspiring thought for those attending. The solo parts of the production were taken by Lucian Prior of Omaha, whose fine tenor voice carried that part of the story in a wonderful manner, as did Don G. York, whose bass solos are so familiar that it is unnecessary to speak of his ability in this line. Miss Ferris York and Mrs. Mae Morgan carried the soprano and alto solos in a wonderfully pleasing manner. Prof. Frank J. Kolbaba assisted the choir with violin accompaniment, in his usual masterly manner, and played the offering, that beautiful number, "There's a Green Hill Far Away," as no one else can possibly attempt to, and the solo was one of the musical treats of the evening. The story of the song was read by Rev. W. L. Austin, and each of the seven words was followed by the musical rendition by the choir. There were some forty voices in the choir, and the wonderful manner in which they rendered this difficult selection by DuBois speaks well for the training they have received at the hands of Mrs. Wescott. The Easter evening music will be "Life and Death," by Harry Rowe Shelly, and is considered one of the masterpieces of sacred song.

MR. AND MRS. C. C. PARMELE ENTERTAIN BUSINESS MEN

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Parmele entertained a number of the business men of the city at a 6 o'clock dinner party at their beautiful home on North Sixth street, in honor of C. C. Belden of Omaha, who lectured at the Presbyterian church last evening. The dinner was served in six courses and a most enjoyable time was had. The guests for the dinner were: Messrs. C. C. Baldwin, Rev. M. W. Lorimer, E. A. Wurl, G. E. Dovey, G. H. Falter, C. C. Wescott, L. B. Egenberger, H. M. Soennichsen, V. Zucker, E. P. Lutz and President H. A. Schneider of the Commercial club.

To Submit Briefs.
From Friday's Daily.
The case of the City of Plattsburgh vs. Wescott, et al., was heard yesterday by Judge Gorcoran, and after listening to the evidence and ex-Mayor Henry R. Gering, who was summoned as a witness, the judge ordered the attorneys to submit their argument in brief form to the court.

JAIL PROPOSITION AS VIEWED BY THE UNPREJUDICED

Nehawka News Editor States Facts on Jail Proposition, Notwithstanding the Knockers.

The Intellectual Giant on the Weeping Water Republican finds fault with us for supporting the jail proposition. He sneers at our logic and imputes to us no higher motive than "selfishness"—hastening to add, directly and by implication, that the removalists do not know the meaning of the word. Now, we are running a newspaper in Nehawka. This paper is supported by the business men of Nehawka, and circulates in and around the town. This being the case, we should be pardoned for reflecting the sentiment of the community in which we live. We have no quarrel with people of other communities for their position on this real live question, and gladly accord them the inalienable right to gather around the particular whistling post that marks their town and give their college yell. We took the stand we did on the jail question because we thought it would be for the best interests of our part of the county to vote for a jail—which no one denies is needed—and thus save the expense of several special elections later, on the county seat removal question. It has been gratifying to us to have the solid men of this community come in and tell us we were taking the right stand. It has been more gratifying to have them tell us that although they have voted against all former jail propositions they intend to support this one, in the hope of putting a quietus to this county seat removal agitation. It has been most gratifying to us to have a number of our subscribers, who live between here and Weeping Water, tell us that although they had signed the petition for a special election to re-locate the county seat, they intended to vote FOR the jail tax and would lend no more support to the other matter. Really, we were not trying to convert any of our large list of Weeping Water readers to our way of thinking. As a matter of fact we have been trying to convert no one. We have been simply stating our views on the question and in a manner reflecting the sentiment of the community in which we live. We have stated nothing but facts. Cass county NEEDS a new jail. Cass county has the best court house of ANY county joining it. We are still stating facts.—Nehawka News.

Is Getting Along Nicely.
From Saturday's Daily.
The condition of Karl Zavgren, the Burlington bridge foreman, who was operated upon at Immanuel hospital in Omaha a few days ago, is improving and he is getting along nicely at the hospital. Mr. Zavgren was in charge of the rip-rap work across the river when he was taken with the attack, and at once left for Omaha on advice of physicians, where he submitted to an operation.

HIGH SCHOOL TRACK TEAM MAKES A GOOD SHOWING

Yesterday afternoon Principal C. O. Larson of the High school and the members of the track team which is being organized at the High school were down at the ball park warming up in a relay race of one-eighth of a mile. The team is just getting in shape, and as this is the first season that the school has had a track team, the work of getting into form is rather difficult, but the boys made a very good showing. The time made by the different members was as follows: Harry Winscot, 13 seconds; Paul Handley, 12 1/2; Arthur White, 14; Philip Campbell, 17. The second team that ran got away on the following time: Major Hall, 15 seconds; Fred Dawson, 10; Emil Hill, 12; C. O. Larson, 14. The athletic department of the High school has been very fortunate in having Mr. Larson as principal, as he was quite prominent in athletic work at Bellevue, and takes a deep interest in the boys and their sports. The track team hopes to get in trim in time to get into some of the state meets, and if they get an opportunity will give a good account of themselves.

In District Court.
From Friday's Daily.
A petition was filed in district court today in the matter of the guardianship of J. Doane Harrison a minor, by Edith Clizbe, his guardian, asking permission to sell real estate in which said minor is interested. The property is valued at less than $500, and according to law the sale can be made privately, and as the boy's interest is so small; it is done in order to clear the matter up in proper form.

Have Fine New Son.
From Saturday's Daily.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Forbes, in the south part of the city was gladdened Thursday evening by a visit from the stork, who left with them a fine new son. The little man is considered by his parents as about the finest baby in the land and it is the universal wish of their many friends that he will live to be a joy and comfort to his parents in their old age.

Eastern Star Meets.

From Friday's Daily.
The Order of Eastern Star held a very interesting and pleasant session at their lodge room in the Masonic building Wednesday evening and two new members were taken into the order. Following the regular lodge and initiation, a most enjoyable banquet was partaken of by the members and one of the pleasant times for which this order is famous was enjoyed.

THE NEW YORK BAKERY BEING HANDSOMELY DECORATED

Frank Gobelman and his staff of painters are engaged in decorating the interior of the New York bakery on upper Main street and putting it in first-class shape for the changes which are contemplated by Mr. Wagner, who will conduct the retail department of the store. The ceiling has been painted a light shade of green and the sides have been gradually shaded off into a darker green, which makes a very handsome appearance. The room will be papered to harmonize with the color scheme, and when Mr. Gobelman gets through this will be one of the handsomest store rooms in the city. The work of Mr. Gobelman is of such a character that it always gives great satisfaction to those who employ him to do their work.

MISS BLANCHE MURRAY SAID TO BE IMPROVING

From Saturday's Daily.
Miss Blanche Murray, who has been in one of the Omaha hospitals for the past few weeks recovering from the effects of an operation, is reported as getting along nicely, and while the improvement has not been as rapid as her friends and relatives could wish for, she is in such a condition now that it is thought it will be possible to remove her from the hospital in a few days. She had a very severe operation and did not rally well from the effects, due to complications that set in, but now that she is getting along so nicely it will be a source of much pleasure to her many friends, who have anxiously been awaiting news from her bedside, as grave fears were entertained as to whether she could recover.

Election Supplies Ready.
County Clerk D. C. Morgan today received the supplies for the special election that will be held on Tuesday, April 8, at the various polling places throughout the county. The judges and clerks that served at the general election last fall will serve in the same capacity at the special election. The ballots have been printed and as soon as the weather permits Mr. Morgan will begin the task of distributing them among the different precincts in the county.
