EASTER SACRED CONCERT AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The postponed Easter concert, which was postponed on account of the bad weather drew a large congregation last evening at the Presbyterian church to enjoy the beauty of the excellent selections rendered by the choir, under the direction of Miss Mathilde Vallery, and the different soloists of this splendid organization. The anthem by the choir, "Resurrection Te Deum," was most impressive and inspiring, as was the duet by Mrs. Edna Eaton and Miss Vallery entitled "Crucifix," which portrayed in a most solemn manner the lesson of the crucifixion. The solo by Miss Marguerite Potter Shull, "I Come to Thee," by Caro, was one of the finest musical numbers that has been heard in this city, and the beauty of Miss Shull's splendid voice carried the message of the song into the hearts of the audience. The closing number on the program, "Holy, Holy, Holy," a duet by Mrs. Eaton and Miss Vallery, closed what was undoubtedly one of the most impressive song services ever held in this church, and the large audience felt that they had an unusual opportunity in listening to the concert to appreciate more the lessons of the Christian life.

Another Daily Reader.

George A. Meisinger was a pleasant caller at the Journal office today, driving in from his home near Mynard, and had his name enrolled on the list of daily readers, which is growing larger each day among the farmers in this part of the county. Mr. Meisinger is a most pleasant gentleman and the Journal office is always glad to receive a visit from him.

The Chatham Mill.

John M. Meisinger, agent for the Chatham mill, grain grader, cleaner and separator, made at Detroit, Mich., sold one of the excellent pieces of farm machinery to the county a few days ago. Mr. Meisinger has sold several of them, and has been using one himself, and it is his honest opinion that the machine will pay for itself in the hands of every Cass county farmer. Mr. Meisinger will be pleased to show and explain the merits of the machine to anyone interested in it.

The Dance a Success.

The dance given Saturday evening by the Cosmopolitan club of this city was a splendid success from every standpoint and those who attended had an evening of unalloyed joy dancing away the passing hours to the tuneful music furnished by the Holly orchestra, and it was with regret that they saw the hour for departing roll around. The next dance, in April, to be given by this organization will be in the nature of a carnival ball.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

W. J. O'Brien Here.

Superintendent of the State Fisheries W. J. O'Brien, of South Bend, was in the city today, having come down with his fish car to have it repaired in the shops here. While in the city Mr. O'Brien was a pleasant caller at the Journal office and we greatly enjoyed a social visit with this most genial gentleman.

LAST SAD TRIBUTE TO MISS BLANCHE MURRAY

Funeral Occurred Yesterday and Remains Laid at Rest in Oak Hill Cemetery.

The funeral services of Miss Blanche Murray were held yesterday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. John A. Murray, and were attended by a large concourse of friends, who gathered to pay their last tribute to one who had been so dear to them and whose passing leaves such a void in the hearts of all who knew Miss Murray.

VICTOR SHERWOOD SERIOUSLY INJURED AT GRAND ISLAND

The sermon was preached by Rev. W. L. Austin of the First Methodist church, and was beautiful in its eloquence in speaking of the life of the departed, as well as full of hope to the sorrowing relatives and friends who are left behind. The Euterpean Glee club, of which Miss Murray had been a member while a resident here, sang several of the old, well-loved hymns which had been favorites of their friend while living, and the soft strains of the music brought tears to the eyes of those who are left to mourn the passing of this highly esteemed young lady.

The floral tributes were lavish and spoke stronger than words of the deep feeling of affection in which Miss Murray had been held both by her friends here and in Omaha. The pall-bearers were the following, selected from among the schoolmates and life-long friends: Frank A. Clويد, E. G. Doye, T. M. Geise, Wayne Dickson, Lynn Minor and Ed Roman. The interment was made in beautiful Oak Hill cemetery, where the father, J. A. Murray, is buried.

A short ritual funeral service by the Degree of Honor, of which the departed was a member, was held Thursday in Omaha before the casket was brought to this city for interment.

The following friends from Omaha were here to attend the funeral: George E. Murray, a brother; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Eck, uncle and aunt of the deceased; Ernest Murray, a cousin; Clarence Kirkpatrick, Harry and Hazel Green, Elizabeth Byrne, Lizzie Libbecka, Charles Rutherford and two daughters, Agnes and Janette; John Kropp, Mrs. Maude Wells.

Card of Thanks.

In time of grief like ours we find it hard to express in words our deep heartfelt appreciation of the acts of kindness shown us by our friends, both in Omaha and Plattsmouth, and can only hope and pray that they may receive the same sympathy in their hour of grief. May the blessings of heaven rest on them is our earnest wish.
Mrs. John A. Murray and Family.

Gives Journal Call.

Clarence Busche, who has been employed for the past few months in Omaha, came in today to visit his friends, en route to Cedar Creek, where he will assist his parents on the farm this summer. Clarence called at the Journal office and renewed the subscription of his father, John Busch, to the Evening Journal for another year, and ordered the Semi-Weekly sent to Anton Farnoff, Manito, Illinois.
