MR. AND MRS. AUGUST TARTSCH SURPRISED

The Old People Receive Several Handsome Presents in Honor of Their Golden Wedding.

From Saturday's Daily. Thursday afternoon the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Tartsch was the scene of a very happy gathering, when some twenty-five ladies of St. Paul's church met and marched in on their highly esteemed friend to remind her that fifty years ago she had been a blushing bride. The guests brought several fine presents for Mrs. Tartsch, and the company spent the time most delightfully in social conversation until an appropriate hour, when the hostess served some very delicious refreshments.

Quite a surprise was given Mr. Tartsch also, by the trustees of St. Paul's church, who decided that they would put one over on this worthy citizen, and called unexpectedly, bringing with them a fine present, which was very much appreciated by Mr. Tartsch and will be cherished by him as a token of the high esteem in which he is held by all who know him.

At the celebration on Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Tartsch were united for the second time by Rev. J. H. Steger, and although it had been fifty years since they were united before they carried their part of the ceremony out in proper manner. One of the pleasant features of the family reunion was the presence of the only grandchild, Miss Alice Thornburg of Sioux City, Iowa, who accompanied her mother here to be present on the joyful occasion.

Mr. Long done valiant work for the jail, and his valuable paper had much to do in the good majority Nehawka precinct rolled up for a most worthy proposition. Come again, John.

DONATIONS FOR THE BERLIN TORNADO SUFFERERS WANTED

Secretary E. H. Wescott of the Commercial club, who has been looking after the relief committee of the club, has received from W. H. Hackman of Berlin, Neb., in response to an inquiry concerning the condition of the sufferers from the tornado in that village, a communication in which he states that a great many of those rendered homeless by the storm were being cared for in the different farm homes near that place and that very soon they would be compelled to face the future under very poor circumstances. Mr. Hackman stated that any donations of good clothing, bedding or furniture would be thankfully received in that village and could be used to great advantage by the unfortunates. The relief committee will receive donations next week at the room in the Sherwood building for the Berlin sufferers, and anyone having articles of clothing, bedding or furniture can leave the same there to be shipped to the storm-swept village.

THE FARMER AND AGRICULTURE

Address of Dean Burnett at the Presbyterian Church Last Night.

From Saturday's Daily. The address of Dean E. A. Burnett of the state agricultural college at the Presbyterian church last evening on "The Farmer and Agriculture," drew out a good crowd, as many farmers and business men were present, in addition to the members of the young men's class, to hear this most interesting number of the series of "Occupation" addresses.

The young ladies served a most delicious luncheon to the large number of visitors, which included a large part of the class in agriculture from the High school, who occupied a table to themselves. The gathering was also favored by a most pleasing vocal number by Miss Bertha Jackson.

The dean spoke of agriculture as the chief source of the wealth of the state of Nebraska, and of the results of the study of the scientific rotation of crops, of the maintenance of the fertility of the soil and the selection of seed. He stated that he believed that the valley of the Missouri river, with all its rough land along it, is the best used by setting it out in orchards, and that it can be made the best apple-producing section and quantity. One point on which he devoted some time was the development of the country social life, and said that the country school should be more fully developed and made a social center for the community.

He also stated that he believed in the best things in the way of culture for the farmer and his family, and his work should be more appreciated as a part of the industrial life of the country. This is without doubt one of the ablest addresses along the lines of special work that has been delivered in this city, and everyone felt well repaid for attending, as the dean is considered one of the leading men of his line in the west. The next number in the series of the course will be given in two weeks, on Friday evening, May 2.

MYSTIC ENCAMPMENT I. O. O. F. ENJOY VERY FINE BANQUET

The members of Mystic Encampment No. 31, I. O. O. F., and their families last evening gathered at the Odd Fellows' hall, where the committee, composed of Messrs. J. P. Sattler, F. H. Steimker and William Holly, had prepared a most sumptuous and delightful banquet, and everyone present did ample justice to the five-course dinner. The banquet hall was decorated in a most beautiful manner with green, and with the tables with their spotless white linen and sparkling silver made a scene of beauty, and the occasion will be long remembered by those attending for the delightful social time enjoyed. This banquet is an annual affair with the Encampment and each succeeding banquet seems to be just a little bit better than the previous one. Following the banquet the company proceeded to enjoy several hours playing high five and in social conversation, and it was with great regret that they saw the home-going hour draw near.

"KONGO," LARGEST ELEPHANT KNOWN

This Big Elephant, Captured Last Season, Now Exhibited With Yankee Robinson.

The scenes attending the arrival of the largest elephant ever known, "Kongo," were most remarkable. From the time the people of this country, some twelve months ago, read of the capture of Kongo, there has been a curiosity to see this huge beast. At the "round-up" of elephants in Siam last spring there were 23 captured—this being the entire haul for the season. Among the few held was the real monarch of the jungle—an elephant that had been the goal of every hunter to the forest for years. This big beast was Kongo. Immediately the concessionaries of the San Francisco exposition cabled to secure this big beast for the wonderful trained animal exhibit they will have there during the fair. The promoters of the Yankee Robinson shows happened to have Harvey Hale, their European representative in Siam at the time of this offer. Without any conferring with the owners of the big circus, he secured this big beast (for an enormous rental) for the coming season. It is expected that the principal cities of the country will be visited by the show during that time.

The arrival of Kongo in New York, as stated above, was witnessed by tens of thousands of people. He was lowered from the vessel by means of a large car, heavily ironed and secured with enormous chains. As the big steam derrick hoisted Kongo in the air, to be lowered to the harbor, he emitted a terrific "howl" of the desert. This is a noise peculiar to this species of animals in extreme fright. He was immediately taken to the yards of the Pennsylvania, where, in a specially constructed car, he was brought to the Yankee Robinson shows. The unloading from the cars of this enormous beast is well worth your time. Kongo is unloaded usually about 6 in the morning and taken to the lot immediately. At Plattsmouth Monday, May 5.

COUNTY ASSESSOR BRYAN RETURNS FROM THE COUNTRY

From Saturday's Daily. County Assessor W. R. Bryan returned this morning from a trip of several days' duration through the different precincts of the county, visiting with the assessors and getting acquainted with the conditions existing through the county. He states that he never met a more capable or genial set of gentlemen than the official assessors of the county. The condition of the crops and pastures in the sections visited by Mr. Bryan were excellent and he believes that there is not a finer agriculture county in the state than old Cass, and that to be a resident of this county is something everyone should be proud of.

FIGURING ON HEATING PLANT FOR UNION'S NEW SCHOOL BUILDING

From Saturday's Daily. This morning R. D. Stein came up from Union to attend to some business matters at the court house, as well as to get figures on a new heating plant for the school building that is about to be erected by the village of Union to replace the one destroyed by fire a few months ago. The school board of Union, of which Mr. Stein is a member, has had its hands full since the fire keeping the school going, as it was necessary to hold the sessions in several different buildings, but they have carried the work along in fine shape and will soon be able to push the new building to completion. While in the city Mr. Stein called at the Journal office for a short visit.

Notice to Hunters!

Notice is hereby given that all parties caught trespassing on my farm, north and east of the automobile road and north of the Burlington track, near Oreapolis, will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Some of my cattle have been killed by the careless hunters, and no trespassing without permission will be allowed in the future. A word to the wise should be sufficient, for I will surely exercise the law on all violators.

Your Chance Now!

Government land that will increase in value, is yours—if you want it. A start in life, a prosperous future!

The U. S. Government is offering 80 acre irrigated farms, and 320 acre farms without irrigation, on the same kind of land that is raising the crops which are making Wyoming prominent. The new homestead laws make it easy to get one of these farms.

I will send you maps and printed matter and answer your questions—then you can join one of the homeseekers' excursions which I will tell you about, and at small expense you can see exactly what you can have. For anyone who has a wish to better himself and family this is the chance of a lifetime.

Write me a postal and state whether you are interested in irrigated land or non-irrigated land.
