ACCIDENT RESULTS IN THE DEATH OF
WALTER J. WHITE

People of the City Greatly Shocked
When the Sad News Was Heralded Over Town.

Yesterday morning at 4:20, at his home in this city, Walter J. White succumbed to the shock received in the accident that happened to him last Thursday, when a large section of the excavation on the Chicago avenue sewer caved in on him, and in spite of all the skill and loving hands could do for him he continued to grow worse until the end finally came early Sunday morning. Mr. White was also very badly bruised and shocked as a result of the accident, and being quite advanced in years was unable to rally from the shock.

In the death of Mr. White the city of Plattsmouth has lost one of its most public-spirited men and one that will be sadly missed, as there was never a person whom Mr. White knew that he did not have a kindly greeting for, and during his long residence here he occupied a place in the life of the community that will be hard indeed to fill.

Walter J. White was born in England July 10, 1844, and came to America in the year 1855 with his parents, Hon. F. S. White and wife, going direct to Utah with a number of other English emigrants, but not finding the conditions there all that they expected the family came back east and located at Plattsmouth in 1857, and has since resided in this city. Mr. White in his youthful days was engaged in the freighting business and has followed this line of work since that time principally along the line of road and bridge contracts. Mr. White was street commissioner of the city a number of times and represented his ward in the city council for several years, covering different terms, and in whatever position he was called upon to fill he was equal to the emergency and was always a loyal guardian of the welfare of the public. He was a lifelong member of the Masonic order and for the last few years had been one of the members of the board of control of the Masonic Home in this city. Mr. White was married in this city October 24, 1866, to Miss Anna Betts, who, with one daughter, Miss Mable Frances White, are left to mourn the passing of this worthy citizen and kind husband and father, as well as the following brothers and sisters: Alfred W. White, Plattsmouth; Hon. Francis E. White, Omaha; Mrs. V. V. Leonard, Plattsmouth.

During his lifetime Mr. White was a devote member of the Protestant Episcopal church and served as the senior warden of the vestery of St. Luke's church here for many years, and there never was a task too difficult for him to undertake for the betterment of the church and its condition and his aid and counsel will be greatly missed in the church organization.

The funeral of Mr. White will be held tomorrow afternoon from St. Luke's parish church at 2:30 and interment made in Oak Hill cemetery. The services will be simply the ceremony of the church and will be in keeping with the quiet, simple life of the deceased, who had labored so faithfully for his church when in life.

TOO WET TO PLAY BALL YESTERDAY

Rain Put "Fixins" to Base Ball
Boys, and Circus People Put in a Strenuous Day.

The rainy weather yesterday put the "fixins" to the prospects of the ball game that was scheduled to take place between the Boosters and the Brodegaard Crowns of Omaha, and the fans were compelled to fight the situation over sitting under cover, as the game was postponed until a later date.

The bad weather also made the life of the employees of the circus anything but pleasant, as they were compelled to unload their train in the mud and take their wagons out on Lincoln avenue through the deep mud, and it was all eight horses could do to pull the wagons through, and several of them were mired on the way to the grounds and it was necessary to call on the elephants to assist in the work of getting them out and they were generally successful. In spite of the condition of the roads quite a large portion of the population of the city walked out to the grounds yesterday and inspected the circus tents, which completely cover the O'Neil pasture.

OPPOSED TO SUNDAY BASE BALL PLAYING

The Journal some time ago received a communication from Union in regard to the question of Sunday ball playing, and while we have no interest in the matter and the statements are merely the expression of one person and not that of the paper. The letter is as follows:

Editor Plattsmouth Journal:
From time to time I have noticed in your paper articles favoring base ball on the Sabbath, so I hope you will grant space for the other side of the question. In your paper of the 17th we read, "The county commissioners have passed a resolution permitting the playing of base ball on Sunday in the villages of the county, as the law just passed by the legislature and signed by Governor Morehead makes this legal." You pronounce this "a good move, as it permits the lovers of a good, clean game to attend on Sunday without having to violate the law," acknowledging aforesaid lovers are not law-abiding citizens, but will violate both God's and man's law to attend a Sabbath ball game. Before Governor Morehead was elected he was placed before the people as a model, one who would carry out the laws for the best good of the people, but if this is a fair sample I am sure no Christian or even right-thinking person will vote for him again for a second term. Had James Dahlgren been elected we could have hoped for nothing better. One thing I would like to have explained is how a governor, legislature or commissioner can legalize a law which is in direct violation of the divine law, on which all law is supposed to be based? God's command is, "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy." This law has never been amended nor becomes void and a blessing is pronounced on those who follow this. "If thou wilt turn away thy foot from the Sabbath from doing thy pleasure on holiday and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, and shalt honor Him not doing thine own ways nor finding thine own pleasure," etc. Isa. 58-13-14. Why not pass a law making Saturday a holiday, then have ball games and other right amusements for those who cannot attend through the week? Nothing would be lost by that in the end, and much would be gained from a moral stand or viewpoint.

ELMER HALSTROM OPERATED UPON FOR APPENDICITIS

This morning Elmer Halstrom was operated upon at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha for appendicitis, from which he has been suffering for some time, but the case had not reached an acute stage and it was thought best to operate now while he was in good shape to stand it. Elmer has been employed in the bank at Murray and the attack has caused him considerable trouble and the loss of much time from his position and he decided that it would be best to undergo the operation at once. His mother, Mrs. John Halstrom, was a passenger this morning for Omaha to be present when the operation was performed.

A LITTLE DAUGHTER AT THE HOME OF MRS. JOS. HAVIR

This morning a little daughter arrived at the home of Mrs. Joseph Havir, in the west part of the city. The pathetic part is that the father was fatally injured on Wednesday evening and was buried Saturday afternoon, and the little one will never have an opportunity of seeing her father. The mother and little daughter are getting along nicely. That the little girl will live to be a joy and comfort to her mother in her hour of affliction is the wish of everyone in the community.

IS THERE ANOTHER "JACK THE HUGGER" IN TOWN?

There was considerable excitement created in the northwest portion of the city last evening by a mysterious stranger who was roaming through that section of the city. The man accosted several ladies who were on their way home and followed them to their residences and was later seen around the different homes there, but did not attempt to do anything serious, but the ladies residing in that section were greatly alarmed in - the thought that he was another "Jack the Hugger," and doors and windows were barred to prevent his breaking in any of the homes, and the police were notified. On reaching the neighborhood they found a man walking along the street, but he failed to answer the description of the one who had stopped the women and he was released. The best method for the women to employ would be a little English suffragette handling of the man if he shows up around their residences again, and he would probably go on his way and not bother them in the future.

E. G. DOYER & SON HAVE SECURED NEW MANAGER

The firm of E. G. Doyer & Son has secured a new manager for their dry goods department in the person of Mr. E. R. Irie, who has been located near Des Moines, Iowa, for the past few years, and he comes very highly recommended by all with whom he has been employed and is a first-class dry goods salesman, as well as a manager. The new manager will doubtless make a valuable addition to the force employed at the Doyer store, and they feel very much gratified at securing his services.

THE NEW ADVERTISING LAW ADOPTED BY THE NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE

Nebraska now has a new advertising law, the model statute of the Printer's Ink magazine having been passed by the recent legislature and signed by the governor on April 12. Following is the full text of the law:

Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of Nebraska:

1. Any person, firm, corporation or association who, with intent to sell or in any wise dispose of merchandise, securities, service, or anything offered by such person, firm, corporation or association, directly or indirectly, to the public for sale or distribution, or with intent to increase the consumption thereof, or to induce the public in any manner to enter into any obligation relating thereto, or to acquire title thereto, or an interest therein, makes, publishes, disseminates, circulates, or places before the public, or causes, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public, in this state, in a newspaper or other publication, or in the form of a book, notice, handbill, poster, bill, circular, pamphlet, or letter, or any other way, an advertisement of any sort regarding merchandise, securities, service, or anything so offered to the public, which advertisement contains any assertion, representation or statement of fact which is untrue, deceptive or misleading, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

2. This act shall take effect immediately.

LOSSES FROM THEFT ON THE BURLINGTON LINES NOT SO GREAT

The Missouri Pacific will place a long stretch of track north of Atchison with ninety-pound rails. Railroad freight men expect the new Webb law prohibiting liquor shipments to cause much trouble and expense.

A marked improvement in train service on the Rock Island is reported since the recent official shakeup. Trains are now running regularly on time.

Losses by theft from shipments in transit on Burlington lines west have been reduced materially during the past few months by the prosecution of offenders.

The Burlington has a steam shovel at work widening the big cut between Milford and Pleasantdale. Dirt taken out is being used to widen the fills to double track width.

"Col. Todhunter of Missouri."

Wednesday the Journal will begin the publication of "Col. Todhunter of Missouri," by Ripley D. Saunders, and the story is a most romantic one of love and politics and is typical American in every way, appealing to the readers as few stories of late years have. The story has had an enormous sale and it is a great opportunity that the Journal readers have of getting this great American novel.

Fred Engelkemeier of Mt. Pleasant precinct drove in this morning to take in the sights at the circus.

Telephone Reception.

On account of the many requests to inspect our new exchange which we are receiving daily from our subscribers who were unable to accept our invitation of last Friday, we have decided to again invite the public to call at our office next Wednesday, May 7th, between 1:30 and 8:30 p. m.

The traveling chief operator will be on hand to explain the details of the new switchboard and other equipment, and the public generally, whether subscribers or not, are cordially invited to call. Light refreshments will be served.

T. H. Pollock,
District Coml. Mgr. Lincoln Telephone and Telephone Co.

FORWARD STEP FOR A COUNTRY NEWSPAPER

As a forecast of the pure advertising law that has just been passed by the legislature of Nebraska the Valparaiso Visitor comes out with the following statement to its readers:

"We positively guarantee that every advertiser in this issue is reliable and deal honestly with every subscriber. Our aim is to accept advertisements only from firms which we believe to be reliable and from this time on we shall pledge our best efforts to keep out of the columns of this paper advertisements from any person or persons who refuse to do a square and honorable business with those who deal with them. When dealing with those who advertise in the Visitor be sure to mention the fact that you read their advertisement and that you have the sanction of this paper in asking for a square deal in any and all purchases. Let us know if you have been defrauded in any manner and the complaint will have attention and investigation. We have a right to expect our readers to receive fair treatment from the local business men and we guarantee you will get it, but if you get stung when buying of mail order concerns of the Shears & Sawbuck stripe with their cheap sweat shop merchandise then we have no defense to offer in your behalf."

That is taking a position not uncommon with some of the best of the big magazines of national circulation, and even some of the big dailies in the cities, but decidedly uncommon for the newspapers in the smaller country towns. There are many big city dailies that would not care to publish a statement like that, and if they did would have a good many complaints to investigate. All that tends to give more confidence in the advertisements, and of course works to the mutual advantage of the advertiser and the newspaper.—Omaha Trade Exhibit.

Dance a Success.

Despite the heavy rain Saturday afternoon and the threatening weather in the evening, the Carnation ball given by the Cosmopolitan club was attended by a crowd that filled Coates' hall to the limit and one of the best dances of the season was enjoyed by the jolly crowd. There were a large number present from Nebraska City and Omaha, but the bad condition of the roads kept many of the young people from the country from attending. The next dance given by this club will be on Saturday, May 24, and will be in the nature of a "Poverty ball," and those attending are expected to leave their glad rags at home.

Robert Eaton of Union came up this morning to attend the circus and take in the sights.

CASS COUNTY ITEMS,
PERU, NEB.

Cass County Items.
Earl Meyer and Guy Williams of the state university will play the Peru champions, Mr. Christensen and Mr. Kennedy, in a few games of tennis Saturday at 2 p. m. This will be the first game of a series of tournament which Peru expects to schedule for this spring.

Pearl Betts will be out of school for a few days on account of illness. Her mother arrived Tuesday and returned to her home Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Pearl.

Dr. Thomas Bithell of the Trinity Methodist church in Omaha gave a splendid talk in chapel on Tuesday morning. Tuesday evening he gave a lecture at the Methodist church of Peru on "The Story of the Immigrant." He also showed a series of moving pictures representing the cyclonic destructions in Omaha. The proceeds of the lecture go to help rebuild the Trinity church of Omaha, which was partly destroyed by the cyclone.

Rev. Eugene Maxey, a graduate of Peru in 1900, was with us Tuesday. He has just returned from a visit to Palestine.

Friday evening the Kearney debaters will be met at Peru by the Peru Debating team, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Wear. On Monday afternoon the Kearney baseball boys will be met by the Peru team at Peru.

The seniors are hard at work on the senior play, which will be given Wednesday, May 21st, in the chapel. This, no doubt, will be a great success with Miss Ferguson as coach.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of Mrs. Rachel Adams will be held tomorrow. The body will arrive from Fremont over the Missouri Pacific at 12:11 a. m. and will be taken to the U. B. church south of this city. Interment will be made in the Eikenbary cemetery.

Funeral of Andrew Kern.

The funeral of the late Andrew Kern was held Saturday afternoon from the county farm, west of the city, and the service at the farm was conducted by Rev. J. H. Steger of St. Paul's church and the casket conveyed to Eight Mile Grove cemetery, where the interment was made beside that of the wife of the deceased, who passed away many years ago.

As Miss Frank Starr, trimmer at Fanger's Department store expects to leave soon for her home at Maryville, Mo., she wishes to thank the people of Plattsmouth and surrounding community for their liberal patronage and courtesy shown her while here.
