Tornado Insurance.

Wouldn't it be better to receive a check from an insurance company after a tornado or cyclone takes away your home than to be compelled to use your own hard cash to rebuild? I represent Standard Old Line Companies, and can write you insurance at a low rate. Better look up your policies and if you have no tornado insurance call at the bank and let me fix you out.

W. G. Boedecker.

Pasture for Horses.

One dollar per month per head. Call or write Churchill & Wilson, Murray, Neb. 5-22-2twkly

Returns From Springfield.

Arthur L. Baker, representing the local camp of the M. W. A. at the national insurgent convention at Springfield, Illinois, last week, returned home Saturday. The meeting was a large one, over 600 delegates being in attendance, and was most enthusiastic throughout, which denoted that the insurgents meant business, and also was the fore-runner of a new order of things in the future conduct of the M. W. A. There were eighteen states represented, and Nebraska was on hand with a full representation. Mr. Baker says that Springfield treated the boys magnificently, and he returns home well pleased with the trip, and also with the good work accomplished by the convention.

That Saturday Picnic.

Wenies, sauerkraut, potatoes, eggs, coffee, etc., etc., was the menu at the picnic Saturday evening. Word came to pack your baskets and be on the warm side of the hill by 6 o'clock. Dr. Gilmore gave the orders and Will Smith did the cooking. Albert Young furnished the wood, Sam and Dick Pitman baked the cakes, Glen Boedecker and Philip Shaffer ran the grocery delivery, and James Loughridge and Walker Gilmore were dining room girls. The women would occasionally add a suggestion, but these were not well taken. Mrs. Mont Robb of Stanton was the guest of honor, and so pleased was she with the excellent supper that each one of these men are recommended to the Stanton hotel as cooks.

Donations to the Library.

Mrs. Finley of Omaha made a donation of books to the library, and among the number is "The Ne'er Do Well," by Rex Beach, and a number of Alger books. One of the books Mrs. Finley gave she found in the wreckage of the Easter storm and sent it to this library as a souvenir. This makes the second collection of books Mrs. Finley has given, and the people here certainly appreciate the interest she has in us.

Miss Dora Moore gave two year's subscription to the Munsey Magazine, which will be very interesting reading and much appreciated.
