PUBLIC BOUND TO PROTECTION FROM AUTOMOBILES.
 Automobiles are all right, but the public is bound to have protection from them, despite the fact that they are multiplying rapidly. No class of citizens is more determined that there shall be safety than the auto owners themselves. This was richly demonstrated in Chicago last week when a jury convicted an auto driver of murder in having run down and killed a pedestrian, and sentenced the driver to fourteen years in the penitentiary. Note that on that jury were four owners of automobiles. The circumstances of the killing were very aggravating. The fact that automobile owners did not hesitate to convict a reckless driver of murder, and sentence him to a long term in the penitentiary, is assurance that the danger from automobiles is from a very small proportion of their users. Most auto owners do not fear accidents for which they may be responsible, but every man that uses a machine with any sense does fear the recklessness of the few who are reckless.
 Philip Becker drove in Saturday from his home west of this city and looked after some trading for a few hours.

WHY NOT ONE FOR THE PLATTSMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL?
 One of the nicest and most highly appreciated gifts that has been made to the public schools in this section was that given by the graduating class of 1913 of the Glenwood High school, who presented a fine $50 Victrola to the High school of that city. The musical instruments are being placed in all the public schools in Omaha and have proven a most delightful addition and one that has pleased both the instructors and pupils. Such a gift as this is one that would be an enjoyment to everyone attending the school.
 Meet at Hansen Home.
 From Saturday's Daily.
 A large number of the members of the Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's church and their friends wended their way to the pleasant home of Mrs. P. Hansen, yesterday afternoon, this being the regular social meeting. The ladies had come prepared to have a genuine good time, and they sure did, as they always do whenever invited to the Hansen home. During the course of the afternoon delightful coffee and coffee cake were served.
