

PROTECT YOUR CATTLE

AGAINST BLACKLEG BY USING BLACKLEGOIDS.

Simplest, safest, surest way to vaccinate cattle against Blackleg.
 No Dose to Measure. No Liquid to Spill. No String to Ret.
 ASK FOR FREE BOOKLETS.
 FOR SALE BY

F. G. FRICKE & CO.

The REXALL Store

UNION.

John Klausens went to Lincoln on the Monday morning train to attend to some business affairs.

Mrs. C. E. Witherow visited last Sunday with Mrs. T. I. Murphy and Miss Mae Murphy in Plattsmouth.

Fred W. Young went to South Omaha yesterday afternoon, taking a carload of his fat porkers to the market.

Cashier J. M. Patterson returned yesterday from Lincoln, where he had been attending a convention of Nebraska bankers.

Mrs. John McClaffin of Cole-ridge made several days' visit with relatives and friends in this village and vicinity, departing for home Monday morning.

Editor C. E. Witherow returned Monday to his newspaper work at Thurman, Iowa, after making a short visit with his family on the farm southeast of town.

Misses Ora Clark, Frances Bauer and Mildred Clark spent Wednesday in Nehawka, the guests of Miss Rose O'Donnell, who is teaching at that place.

Will C. Hopkins, who has been operating a restaurant and barber shop here, has closed his business and will locate somewhere in the west, place not yet decided upon.

Joseph Dare and Charles Pickering returned Tuesday from their trip to Montana, where they spent several days looking at some of the country. They are not yet ready to say farewell to Nebraska.

Prof. A. P. Stockdale, who was principal of schools here the past two years, closed up his work last week and departed Monday morning for his former home at Chadron. Prof. Stockdale was a faithful and efficient instructor, and his many friends here hope and predict that he will meet with great success in his chosen profession wherever he may locate.

LOUISVILLE.

Mrs. Rhoda Pettit has been very ill with heart trouble, but is recovering.

William Lehnhoff came down from Lincoln Saturday for an over Sunday visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. D. Stevenson returned Tuesday from Scotts Bluff, where she made an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. H. E. Brown.

Edward Taylor of Louisville and Miss Lola Utt of Murdock were married in Omaha Wednesday, May 21, and returned the same day.

James Stander went to Omaha Friday morning to meet his cousin, Miss Della Seiverling, of Glenville, Minn., who will visit relatives here for some time.

Will Krecklow, station agent at Chalco, is spending ten days with his father, recovering from the effects of an operation on his neck. This is the second operation he has undergone for the same trouble.

The friends and acquaintances of Frank Ross and Miss Myrtle Alloway were surprised to learn of their marriage, which occurred at Omaha on Wednesday, May 14. After a week's visit with relatives in Iowa the happy couple returned Monday and at present are staying with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Alloway. These estimable young people are well known in this vicinity, and their many friends join in extending sincere wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

E. O. Mayfield and family and Miss Marie Beattie of South Omaha passed through town Sunday, stopping for a few hours' visit with relatives on their way home from Greenwood, where they visited relatives.

Miss Lena Barnes of Weeping Water, formerly of this vicinity, was married last week at Elmwood to Alva L. Littel of Tekamah. After an extensive wedding trip to California and other western points, they will reside in Tekamah.

Best Medicine for Colds.

When a druggist recommends a remedy for colds, throat and lung troubles, you can feel sure that he knows what he is talking about. C. Lower, Druggist, of Marion, Ohio, writes of Dr. King's New Discovery: "I know Dr. King's New Discovery is the best throat and lung medicine I sell. It cured my wife of a severe bronchial cold after all other remedies failed." It will do the same for you if you are suffering with a cold or any bronchial, throat or lung cough. Keep a bottle on hand all the time for everyone in the family to use. It is a home doctor. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co.

WEEPING WATER.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bigford, Thursday, May 15, 1913, a girl.

Dave Foltz of South Omaha was in town Friday looking after business matters.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Roberts, Monday, May 19, 1913, a girl, standard weight.

Harry Poissal, who has been doing the good road work on the road south of town, left this morning for Cedar Creek with his outfit.

G. H. Sweaney of Kidder, Mo., came up Friday morning for a week's visit with his daughter, Mrs. Henry Somers and family, just east of town.

Grandma Campton is enjoying a visit from her only brother, Robert Jenkins, of Clifton, Kas. There were six children in the family and they are the only two left, so the visit will be greatly enjoyed.

John Kruger of Kansas City, who formerly lived west of town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kruger, was in town Tuesday. He stopped off here to see his old friends and look after his father's grave at the cemetery. John is railroading and runs out of St. Joe on the Burlington. He hadn't been in Weeping Water for twenty years.

Jim Eaman, editor of the Vidette-Herald at Crete, spent a few hours between trains Monday morning with his college friend, Martin Johnson. He was on his way home from a Sunday visit at Avoca. Mr. Eaman is the son of Jim Eaman, who was among the early settlers of this community in the '60's and owned a farm just northeast of town.

The mother-heart of Mrs. F. W. Walker was made glad Sunday by a visit from her two sons and two daughters and a son-in-law and daughter-in-law. The visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Link Long of Havelock, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walker, Mrs. Edna Keefer and Harvey Walker of Lincoln. Harvey made the trip on his motorcycle and the others came in Mr. Long's auto.

NEHAWKA.

Born—On Friday, May 16, a son to R. Kettlehut and wife.

A fact we failed to get last week was that John Wunderlich was one of the boosters that attended the convention in Hastings.

Frank Boedecker attended the banquet and annual meeting of Group 4 of the State Bankers' association Wednesday night in Lincoln.

E. M. Pollard and F. P. Sheldon motored to Omaha Monday in the former's car, and got hung up in Plattsmouth on their way home, where they spent the night.

The 2-year-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sammons, who has been so sick the past week with bronchial pneumonia, is reported as improving and likely to get well.

The Nehawka Milling Co. has been shipping out a lot of their products lately. The company is enjoying the best business they ever had because they are making the best flour.

George McFarland lost a valuable horse in the lower quarry last week. He was plowing and got too near the face of the stripping, with the result that the team fell over the bank about thirty feet. One of the horses choked to death before they could be extricated.

E. E. Bennett and wife were here last Friday from Panama looking over the hotel situation with a view to locating here again. We understanding they did not come to any agreement as to renting and will probably not come back.

E. M. Pollard says they have never had a better prospect in their big orchard for a crop of apples. He says the frost evidently caught a few of the early pears and some of the plums, as they are falling, but the apples are set on well and the only complaint he has to make is that some of the trees are too full.

HAPPY WOMEN!

Plenty of Them in Plattsmouth and Good Reasons for It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering.

Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles.

When she finds freedom? Many readers will profit by the following:

Mrs. F. S. Brinkman, Eleventh and Pearl streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "For several years I was bothered by my kidneys. My back would often pain me intensely and I was inclined to think my trouble was in the form of diabetes. Headache and dizzy spells bothered me and my sight became so badly affected that I could not read. I also had trouble with my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended that I decided to try them, and I got a box at Rynott's Drug Store. In a short time they helped me in every way. I am never without a supply of this remedy on hand."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ELMWOOD.

Miss Daisy Langhorst went to Lincoln yesterday to be at the bedside of her father.

Grandma Mullen went to Butler, Mo., last week for an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler and children of Manley came over Monday evening to see Mrs. Keckler's mother, Mrs. Harnsberger, who is quite ill.

Mrs. Ed Brittell and Miss Gladys Turner of Lincoln came down Saturday for a visit with relatives. Mr. Brittell was down over Sunday to join in the visit with his mother.

John Kunz lost six head of valuable feeder cattle during the thunder storm Tuesday morning, and Isaac Hollenbeck lost two valuable milk cows. It is said the animals were all struck by lightning. Mr. Kunz carried a small amount of insurance.

Mrs. C. D. Brittell, formerly of this place, but now of San Jose, California, and who is now paying a visit to Nebraska relatives, was here for a few days the fore part of the week visiting relatives and her numerous friends, being a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brittell. Mrs. Brittell has improved in health wonderfully, we are glad to note.

Mrs. L. W. Roettger and Mrs.

The Best Flour on the Market

L. A. Tyson went to Peru Wednesday morning to be in attendance at the graduating exercises at the state normal. William Roettger and Noel Tyson are graduates from the normal this year, and the fruitage of their efforts already appears in their appointments to principalships of large schools out in the state. William will head Hooper schools and Noel will head the Stanton schools next year.

MURRAY.

(Too Late for Last Week.)

Robert Good and wife were Plattsmouth visitors Saturday.

Charles Tigner was attending to business in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Homer Shrader and family spent Sunday with G. S. Ray and family.

Mrs. E. R. Queen was taking examinations at Plattsmouth Saturday.

Fred Campbell and sister, Miss Elizabeth, were Plattsmouth visitors Saturday.

L. W. Ingwerson of Nehawka is putting down a well for William Nickels this week.

Miss Mae Lewis was shopping and visiting friends in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Miss Mae Lewis spent Wednesday in Omaha visiting Miss Rose Creamer at the hospital.

Mrs. Hattie Allison is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Ed Leach, at Sciota.

A. F. Nickels and wife were transacting business in Plattsmouth Saturday afternoon.

Miss Mary Moore, who has been teaching at Cedar Creek, is home for the summer vacation.

Mrs. Charles Creamer and Mrs. Walt Sans were calling on Plattsmouth merchants Saturday.

Miss Etta Nickels was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday looking after the interests of the Sprilla business.

Mrs. W. P. Hutcheson and daughter, Winnie, were shopping in Plattsmouth Saturday afternoon.

Robert Nickels was a Plattsmouth visitor Thursday, where he had a fine load of apples on the market.

The Sunday school at Lewiston was largely attended Sunday. The ladies are preparing a program for Children's day.

The ladies of the K. N. K. will meet with Mrs. Wm. Wiley on Thursday June 5, all day, for a picnic. Neighbors, friends and the entire public are cordially invited.

Miss Rose Mae Creamer was taken to the St. Joseph hospital Monday, where she was operated upon for appendicitis, from which she has been suffering the past three weeks. Miss Creamer's many friends will be glad to hear of her speedy recovery.

Alf Nickels, the Rock Bluffs precinct assessor, has finished his work of assessing for the year of 1913, and his books were turned in last Saturday. The precinct will show the usual increase, and everything will be found in good shape in Old Rock Bluffs, for they are always all right.

The Lewiston Cemetery committee wish to announce that they will meet on Thursday, May 29, at the cemetery, for the purpose of cleaning up the grounds. The Ladies' Aid will be present with dinner free. Every man who is interested try and be present, and every lady will be gladly welcomed. Each lady bring dinner. Committee.

Sweet Potatoe Plants.

I have excellent sweet potatoe plants for sale at 25c per 100. Phone 340-W, or call on Fred Hesse.

Sanford's Place at Cedar Creek.

We are now prepared to serve our customers with ice cream on every Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday. Come in and see me while in town. S. J. Reames, Proprietor, Cedar Creek, Neb.

Delegates to National Meeting.

From Saturday's Daily. At the meeting of the State Woman's Relief Corps, held at Fremont yesterday, Mrs. Jennie Dodge of this city was honored by being named as one of the delegates to the national convention of the order. Mrs. Dodge has been a very active member of the order in this city and her friends here will be greatly pleased over the well deserved recognition of her efforts in behalf of the order.

S. Priesman and wife of Omaha came down yesterday to make a short visit with their daughter, Mrs. R. M. Shlaes and family. Mr. Priesman returned to the metropolis this morning, while Mrs. Priesman will remain for a more extended visit.

Local News

From Saturday's Daily. P. H. Meisinger was in the city yesterday for a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.

C. A. Johnson of Louisville came down this morning on No. 4 to look after some business matters at the court house.

Adam Hild of Mynard was in the city today for a few hours looking after some matters of business with the merchants.

Dave Amick drove up yesterday from his farm near Mynard to attend to some trading, as well as to visit with his friends here.

Mrs. J. H. Becker and Miss Lizzie Heil returned this morning from Pekin, Illinois, where they had been attending the funeral of a relative.

D. J. Pitman came up this morning from his home at Murray to spend a few hours here looking after business matters at the court house.

J. W. Henegar, one of the assessors of the county, came in this morning from his home in Mt. Pleasant precinct to interview County Assessor W. R. Bryan.

Mrs. Joseph Tubbs of near Mynard came up this morning and departed for Tecumseh, Neb., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Jones, for a short time.

John Wunderlich, one of the prominent citizens of Nehawka, and the assessor of that precinct, came up last evening and looked after some business matters at the assessor's office.

E. M. Godwin of near Murray came up this morning to look after some trading, and while in the city called at the Journal headquarters and renewed his subscription to the Semi-Weekly.

Miss Buelah Sans departed this morning on the Missouri Pacific for Murray, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. W. G. Boedecker, and cousin, Mrs. W. S. Smith, for a short time.

Mrs. P. A. Horn and daughters, Grace, Bernice, Marie and Lucille, came up this morning from their home, west of Mynard, and were passengers on the early Burlington train for the metropolis.

W. M. Langhorst went to Lincoln Wednesday with his brother, Lou, of Elmwood, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Elizabeth hospital. At last reports he was getting along fine.—Weeping Water Republican.

Thomas Ruby and little son were passengers this morning for Omaha, where they will bring Mrs. Ruby home from St. Catherine's hospital, where she has been for the past few weeks recovering from the effects of an operation.

Mrs. J. Asch of Murray, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Beeson, of Kansas City, who is her guest, came up this morning from the farm and were passengers on No. 15 for Omaha to spend the day.

F. J. Bartonek and wife and little son, who have been here for a few days visiting at the home of John Kopia and family, departed this morning for Omaha for a short visit with friends, and they will then continue on to their home at Ogden, Utah.

C. A. Gauer of Cedar Creek was in the city yesterday afternoon for a few hours attending to business matters. His son, John, is among the graduates at the eighth grade graduation at Weeping Water today.

Mrs. Mary Comstock of Sac City, Iowa, and sister, Mrs. S. M. Thompson, of Omaha, came in this morning to make a short visit with John Cory and family in this city. These ladies were acquainted with Mr. Cory years ago in Iowa, where their parents were among the pioneers in that section.

ROBERT WILKINSON L. J. HALL
DUNBAR UNION

Wilkinson & Hall - AUCTIONEERS -

The holding of successful sales is our line. Our interests are with the seller when it comes to getting every dollar your property is worth. For open dates address or call either of us at our expenses by phone. Dates can be made at the Journal office.

WILKINSON & HALL.

Going to Build?

Here is a money-saving proposition for prospective home builders. Read this wonderful building offer.

$667.⁶⁵

Buy All the Materials to Build this 6 Room House

Price includes all lumber, mill work, lath, shingles, siding, flooring, ceiling, finishing lumber, building paper, pipe, gutter, sash weights and hardware. Price is at mill or factory. Ask us for freight-paid price

This is Our House Design No. 2362

Economy of floor space and low cost of construction are the conspicuous features of this house, and these are items that appeal to a very large number of people. It is also neat and roomy and has an attractive appearance from the outside.

Free Book of Plans.

The handsomest book ever published of its kind. Shows the latest of modern, up-to-date designs of houses, bungalows and barns. Free to all prospective builders. Contains a world of valuable information. If you intend to build don't delay sending for this valuable book.

Consult Us.

If you wish any information on the building subject we are here to give it to you free of charge. Our vast experience enables us to show you the "short-cuts" of building operations, as well as selections of materials. Don't hesitate to ask us for any information needed.

We Save You Money.

No other concern can make you such low prices on building material for a house design such as we show above. Buying direct from mill and factories in enormous quantities for spot cash enables us to undersell all competition.

We are satisfied with one small profit which means an immense saving to you.

Plans Free.

We make no charge for the plans for the house design illustrated above. Others would ask from $2 to $35 and not be in a position to give you the personal attention necessary.

Call and See Us Before Buying

Before building a home you should call at our office and let us figure on the materials, and offer you some suggestions from our extended experience. We can save you money and help you to build the most attractive and comfortable home possible for the money you have to spend.

10c lb is our established price for this season for first quality standard binder twine made 1913. This twine has not been stored in some warehouse for several years, but will be shipped direct from the factory from this year's stock, assuring you of perfect binder twine that is so good that we have had our name printed on the tag, which indicates that we personally guarantee every pound of the twine that leaves our yard. This price is spot cash, 1/2c per pound higher for credit—10c lb.

Cedar Creek Lumber Company