

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
In the District Court in and for Cass County, Nebraska.

William L. Nickles, assignee of Gertrude M. Wiley and William Rainey, Plaintiff, vs.
Charles Edward Wiley, Defendant.
Notice to the Defendant, Charles Edward Wiley:
You will take notice that on the 30th day of April, A. D. 1913, William L. Nickles, Plaintiff herein, filed his petition and affidavit in the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska, against you, the object and prayer of which is to revive a certain judgment obtained against you by Gertrude M. Wiley and William Rainey on November 16, A. D. 1901, for the sum of $628.00 with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date and costs of suit taxed in the sum of $24.60, which said judgment on November 14, 1911, became dormant. That no part of said judgment has ever been paid, and alleging that during all of said period of time you have been insolvent, and praying that an order be entered reviving said judgment and awarding plaintiff execution thereon in the sum of $628.00 with interest at seven per cent per annum from November 16, 1901, and all accrued costs.

You are required to answer said petition and affidavit and show cause, if any, on or before the 13th day of June, A. D. 1913, why an order of the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska, should not be entered reviving said judgment in the said sum, and awarding plaintiff execution thereon.
If you fail to answer, appear or show cause before said date, your default will be duly entered therein, and said order of revival will be issued, of all of which you will take due notice.
Dated this 3rd day of May, A. D. 1913.
WILLIAM L. NICKLES,
Assignee of Gertrude M. Wiley,
and William Rainey, Plaintiff,
RAWLIS & RABERTSON,
Attorneys.

Capt. Morrison Unable to Go.
Capt. S. H. Morrison of Plattsmouth, formerly a resident of Nebraska City, was unable to be here on Friday to take part in the annual Decoration day parade. Mr. Morrison will not be able to attend the Gettysburg semi-centennial, either, according to his letter to a friend. His health is quite bad and he does not care to get far from home.—Nebraska City Press.

Some Fine Berries.

J. C. Peterson made this office a present of three boxes of his fine strawberries today, and when we say that they were fine, we are placing it very mild, indeed, for we believe they are the finest we have ever seen. Mr. Peterson says that this season's crop will make the best showing that he has had in all his berry experience. They are now ready for the market.

FORMER PLATTSMOUTH CITIZENS DOING WELL AT LONG BEACH

A letter has just been received by the Journal from our old friend, Walter L. Thomas, who is now located at Long Beach, California, where he is engaged in the automobile business with our former townsman, H. J. Helps. The firm is known as the Long Beach Auto Co., and are agents in that city for the Studebaker, "E. M. F." and Flanders cars and are having immense success at the business. Mr. Thomas reports having sold five carloads of Studebakers in two weeks and have been delayed on their other shipments by the demand in the east. Mr. Thomas also decided to be sure and keep informed on the old town and renewed his subscription to the Plattsmouth Journal for another year.

VERY QUIET AND SIMPLE WEDDING AT COURT HOUSE

This morning at 10 o'clock Judge Allen J. Beeson was called upon to unite in the holy bonds of wedlock Miss Pearl Schwenneker and Mr. William Evers, both of this city. The wedding was as simple as possible owing to the death of the groom's grandmother a few days ago, and the young people abandoned their plans of a large wedding and merely called on the judge to have the ceremony performed.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Schwenneker, and for the past year has acted as a nurse at the Masonic home in this city, and her departure from that institution was very much regretted. Her friends at the home presented her with a fine set of dishes, as well as numerous other gifts, on her departure. The groom is a worthy young man employed in the Burlington shops as a carpenter, and is a man well liked by all who know him and of a fine character in every respect.

The young folks will go to housekeeping in a cottage the groom has prepared on Washington avenue, and will be at home to their friends after the 14th of June.

Mrs. Nix Passes Away.

This morning Mrs. Gussie Nix, sister of Lig Brown, residing near Kenosha, passed away at the home of her brother after an illness of some time. Mrs. Nix was 75 years of age and leaves besides her brother two daughters, one of whom, Mrs. Kittie Tucker, of Fort Morgan, Colorado, was present at her mother's bedside. Mrs. Nix was also an aunt of Mrs. John Cory of this city. A more lengthy obituary will appear later.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.
