

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO

Items of Interest to Old and New Residents of City Which Were New Forty Years Ago.

Perry Gass, esq., from "Piety Hill," was in town Tuesday and called on the Herald.

Streight & Dilley, new firm down the street. Uncle Jason Streight has sold out a half interest in his grocery to a Mr. Dilley of Iowa, and henceforth the firm will be as above, and we hope to see them do a slashing business.

Dr. Livingston's office got a gale (the gale went under, you know) last week and upset itself, breaking all his little glasses, medicine chest and such. It took a huge glass of soda water from a young Babcock, the next morning after the dance, and righted up again.

It is understood that our old and highly respected friend Deacon Mickelwait, put up his ferry boat and fixings against Russell's house and lot on the late election. Of course Russell won, and a reporter from the Herald learned late last evening that Russell says "Mick" can run the boat for a few days, and if he manages things well he will let him keep it on shares next summer.

Not long since a curious case of affairs turned up in this county. A couple were divorced, two weeks afterward they were re-married. Less than a month after the new marriage, the husband came home and thought somebody was there while he was gone. So he gave madam a trouncing and went for the somebody with a butcher-knife and the result was, husband was arrested for attempt at assassination. He is now out of jail and says he's done marrying anybody or anything.

Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. J. McMurphy, Miss Gertie Johnson. Instrumental music by Prof. L. F. Johnson's String Band.

The Plattsmouth fire department gave their engine a trial on Saturday last. A large fire of boxes, old lumber, etc., was made and the boys turned out; in four minutes they were on the ground and in a shorter time the flames were nowhere. Bully boys, bully engine. Frank Stadter did it.

On Monday evening as some railroad men were coming from their work, down near Rocky Point, on a hand car, an engine backed suddenly down on them, striking the rear of the car and killing two men instantly. Eight more were injured and bruised in various parts—one ugly scalp wound—but no bones were broken and no dislocations. The two men killed were named Daly and Consadine. We understand Consadine has a large family at Friendville, near Dorchester.

The report of the Rock Bluff school for the month ending October 6, shows that in the higher department there were enrolled: Males 13, females 19, making a total of 32. The average attendance was, males 9.9, females 14.7, or a total of 24.6. The number in the different branches was as follows: Spelling, 32; reading, 19; arithmetic, 32; writing, 30; grammar, 12; geography, 12; history, 8; algebra, 7; composition, 12. The following named scholars were not absent during the month: Marcus White, James Patterson, Emma Bridenstine, Jennie Patterson, Olie Jones and Anna Mann. The following were not tardy: Jennie Patterson, Bella Ramsey, Ada Lacy, Olie Jones, Ada Shera, Alice Lambert, James Patterson, Charley Graves, S. E. Farthing, Ellen Graves, Laura Chalfant, Anna Fitch. The following named persons have visited the department during the month: Miss Myra Patterson, William Hobbs, Dr. F. B. Reed and C. H. Pinham, the two latter gentlemen being patrons of the school. These visitors occupied 240 minutes or four hours. The enrollment in the primary department was as follows: Males, 34; females, 29; total, 69. The total average attendance was 38.6. Patrons of the school and friends of education generally are cordially invited to visit the school.

Col. E. V. McMaken of Toledo, Ohio, his brother, Andy McMaken, and Geo. W. Fairfield, all called on the editor "Lew once" Saturday, and like to overwhelmed a little man.

Plattsmouth, Neb., December 9, 1873.

Mr. Editor.—Can you tell us what is the price of bonds in the city of New York? Is it true the bonds of our city were sold for 80 cents? Is the crisis over? Curious.

The fire Tuesday evening proved to be in the house of Mr. Roxby on Sixth street. Although it had made considerable progress in the roof, by the prompt action of the fire company and of some private citizens the fire was extinguished, the Babcock engine doing brave and effective service.

D. H. Wheeler, W. J. Hesser, Azro Smith, J. Vallery, sr., a good many sweet potatoes and some cabbage-heads, all went up to Omaha Wednesday to attend the great agricultural and horticultural meeting, which is transpiring at the Grand Central about now.

Somebody wants us to say something about Mrs. O'Connor, and how she went for Judge Ellison, and pitched bricks into the saloons. We shan't do it—we don't want her to go for us, and the Herald does not need any bricks—the boys bring enough here in their hats, now and then, to do us.

Mr. Eaton's well known jewelry store on Main street was broken into on Friday evening last, about 6 o'clock, during his absence in Omaha, and over 20 watches, 100 rings, some chains and other valuable jewelry were just coolly pocketed and walked off with. No trace of the thief as yet has been discovered.

Plattsmouth Lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M., held their annual election for officers of this ensuing Masonic year on Monday evening. The officers elected are: Frank E. White—W. M., L. F. Johnson—S. W., C. W. King—J. W., E. T. Duke—Treas., A. d'Allemand—Secy., J. Pepperburg—S. D., J. N. Black—J. D., Isaac Wiles—Chap'n., Jas. Paling—Tyler.

Our new principal of the High school is Professor Ross, a graduate of Aberdeen university, Scotland, and a thorough scholar. He has taught nine years, and was principal of the Normal school at Fond-du-Lac, Wisconsin, previous to his acceptance of the offer made him here. Mr. Ross takes hold like a worker, and we are very much pleased with his appearance, and the ideas he expresses on educational matters.

Teachers—Miss Morse, assistant teacher, is from Cleveland, Ohio; has been a teacher for some time, understands her work and will carry out the plans and methods of instruction decided upon with energy and a skill and knowledge only gained by practical observation in conducting schools.

Miss Johnson, another assistant, and Mr. Martindale, are both well known to our people already and need no introduction at this time.

The school opened on Monday in Spiers' hall, for the present. The new building will be finished by October 1st.

Hon. T. M. Marquette, who has been quite sick, is once more on his pins, and right glad are we to see him up again.

Isaac Pollard of Weeping Water, the man with the big barn and fourteen miles of stone fence, on one of the finest farms in Cass county, called on the Herald last week and found us—out. Sorry, call again.

A bloody affray took place in the saloon of Wm. Yarrow last night about 8 o'clock. One Patsy Sullivan stabbed Tom Connor under the fifth rib, inflicting a dangerous wound. Dr. Livingston attended Connor, who is lying very low at present writing. Sullivan has run away.

ing, going, going, going, gone," two boys ringing bells to keep up the music and two more shouting Fannie Kellogg as they bore a banner with this strange device "Concert to Night," sixteen drunken men fighting, Joe Conner hollering to a haymaker on a load of grain and 95 other men are jabbering about the auction, the grain market, the Granges, the people's party, or the hot weather in 40 different languages and all "Lew once."

FRED OHM GOES TO THE PENITENTIARY FOR ONE YEAR

In the district court yesterday morning the case of William A. Cleghorn vs. Charles T. Tozier, et al., a suit to quiet title, was heard and the judge granted a decree quieting the title to the property held by Mr. Cleghorn.

This morning Fred Ohm was brought before the court and received a sentence to the penitentiary for a term of from one to three years for burglary. He was convicted some months ago of breaking into a tool chest in the house of John Kinser and stealing several tools, which he sold at different places around town, and since that time has been in the county jail, as he would not keep his parole.

Without Pleasure.

At times some people feel disgusted. Nothing suits them. They have no appetite, they hate society, they find no pleasure in anything. They are not sick, neither are they well. It is evident that their blood is poor, their digestion not regular, their nerve power weakened on account of lack of food. You will have to select a remedy which will thoroughly clean out your body, give you a good appetite and strengthen your digestive organs. Such a remedy is, as you well know, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It is composed of wine and laxative and tonic herbs. It will expel from the intestines undigested remnants of food and will enable the body to accept and digest enough nutritious food to supply all organs with pure and rich blood. You will receive new energy. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. Muscular rheumatism will usually yield quickly to Triner's Liniment.

Surprise on Boetel Family.

Saturday evening, as John Boetel reached his home he was greatly surprised to find the house brightly illuminated, and on entering found that some twenty couples of his friends had dropped in to give the Boetel family a surprise and were enjoying themselves in a social dance. Mr. Boetel at once entered into the spirit of the occasion, and a jolly time was had until the wee small hours, when the company dispersed, feeling that they had had a most delightful time.

Have you tried the Forest Rose flour? If not, why not? It is the best flour on the market and is sold by all dealers.

The cattle were fed on what is known as the Porter place, near Mynard, but were driven to this city Tuesday evening and shipped to the market over the Burlington railroad, and were on the market Wednesday morning. Mr. Parmele and Mr. Jean are contemplating feeding considerable stuff this season.

BOYS WILL BE BOYS

AT ANY OLD TIME

The boys of Plattsmouth who have not taken their oath as Boy Scouts, but will in the near future, did not go on their "hike" to Mynard this morning on account of the rain. They may have a little bit noisy at the building, but no damage was done to the building outside of a little dirt on the walk, as they are simply empty rooms. Troop Master Wilson's hair almost turned gray, but the boys cleaned up the dirt in nice shape. He will have the next play spell in the base ball park. This crowd of boys are not yet scouts until they have taken the oath, which will be in the near future.

Opening Union Meeting.

The opening union tent service will be held this evening. Evangelist Charles Cullen Smith and his helpers are here. At this meeting Mr. Smith will speak upon a most important subject, as it has a bearing on the future of the campaign. No lines will be drawn between saints and sinners. The music will be a great feature, consisting of a trio by the evangelist party, a solo by Mr. Walter Klinger, and two duets by Messrs. Smith and Gilmore. The Smith party are famous for their music. At this service Mr. Smith is anxious to meet all the Christian people especially, though all are invited, and Prof. Gilmore is just as anxious to meet all the singers 15 years of age and older. In the event of another deluge of rain the meeting will be held at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Friedrich Better.

Mrs. M. L. Friedrich was reported this morning as being in better shape than for several weeks and her family and friends were delighted with the apparent change for the better in her condition. She has been very sick for the past few weeks.

"Generally debilitated for years. Had sick headache, lacked ambition, was worn out and all run down. Burdock Blood Bitters made me a well woman."—Mrs. Chas. Freitoy, Moosup, Conn.

THE MEETING OPENED IN THE BIG TENT

Last evening at the big tent, at the north court house lawn, where the evangelistic campaign is to be conducted during this month, notwithstanding the severe rainstorm, the grounds were in excellent condition, but few people were out for the initial service. The evangelist, Rev. Charles Cullen Smith, with his singers, were there, and a prayer service was held, which marked the opening of the campaign. With the clearing of the weather there promises to be large crowds in attendance and much interest manifested.

The grounds are nicely equipped, the big tent has been well seated and lighted and provided with a large rostrum for the speakers and singers, where the music will be dispensed. Those in charge of the matter are encouraged with the outlook for the meetings and a very successful campaign is expected. Some 300 new song books are on hand, with the latest and most inspiring songs, so that everybody will be provided with means of assisting in the song service. The public is invited to come and enjoy the good music and singing, as well as the eloquent speaking, which Rev. Smith, who is an especially gifted speaker, will deliver.

THE FUNERAL OF MRS. EVA MARGERETHA OHLNHAUSER

The funeral of Mrs. Eva Margeretha Ohlnhausen was held yesterday afternoon from St. Paul's church at 2 o'clock and was attended by a vast crowd of old friends, who gathered for the last time to pay tribute to this worthy lady, who for so many years had been a resident of this city and county. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. H. Steger, pastor of the church, who took for his text the words, "It is enough, take my soul from me," and spoke of the forbearance with which the aged lady had borne her months of suffering when she knew that recovery was impossible, and the Christian fortitude displayed during her long and useful life in both joy and sorrow. The choir of the church sang several of the favorite hymns of the departed, which had been so well loved in her lifetime, and there was no one present at the church that did not feel that surely hers had been a peaceful, upright Christian life in the fullest sense of the term.

The body was borne to its last resting place by the following old friends and neighbors: Jacob Tritsch, Leonard Born, Theodore Starkjohn, John Bauer, sr., Jacob Meisinger and Conrad Meisinger. The floral tributes were magnificent and lavished and attested the deep feeling of the loss to her friends throughout the county. At the grave the pastor spoke a few words on the work of the deceased as a member of the Ladies' Aid society of the church, which attend the funeral in a body at the church, and a great many accompanied the casket to the cemetery.
