

SPECIAL SALE!

Thursday and Friday
June 12th and 13th

All Over Embroideries

We have a nice variety of pleasing patterns on sale at this time. $1.00 and $1.25 values now

79c per yd

See our Window Display

Cotton Voile Flouncing

One of the sensations of the day. Just think of it! Now is the chance to get that hot weather dress. $1.00 value now

69c per yd.

A choice lot of patterns to choose from. See our window.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

A VERY RANK AMATEUR CRACKSMAN

Make an Unsuccessful Attempt to Rob the Safe of C. W. Baylor & Co., Coal Dealers.

This city experienced a visit last evening from "cracksman," who entered the office of C. W. Baylor & Co., the coal and ice dealers, near the Burlington freight house, and made an unsuccessful attempt to break open the safe and get away with the contents. The work was evidently that of very rank amateurs, as a real good safe-blower would have had the safe open in a very few minutes. The parties knocked the dial off the safe door with a hammer or some heavy instrument and apparently tried to force the combination by drilling into the safe with a file or some sharp instrument, as the steel in the place where the dial was knocked off is badly chipped. Entrance to the office, it is thought, was secured by picking the lock on the rear door of the building and locking it again as they departed.

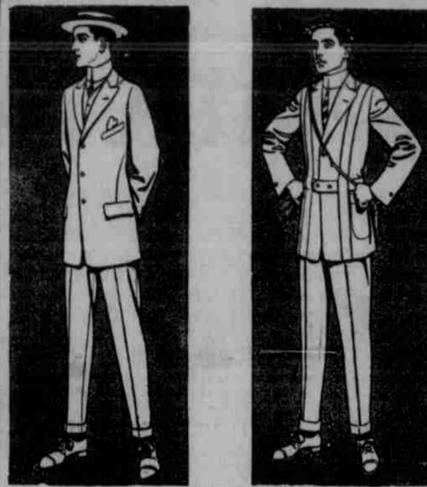

The attempted safe robbery was discovered this morning when the office was opened up, and the sheriff and chief of police at once notified and they at once started out to try and locate the would-be robbers. Several parties were rounded up in the Burlington yards and near the Burlington bridge and lodged in jail to await examination. The men rounded up by the police had a number of knives and guns on them and were apparently not very desirable to have around, even if they should not prove to be the safe robbers.

Mr. Baylor states that there was only about $20 in the safe last night, and had they succeeded in breaking in would not have reaped a very large reward, but they put the owner of the safe to a great deal of inconvenience, as he was unable to open the safe, as the drilling of the burglars had put the lock out of commission, and the services of John Claus were secured from the shops to attempt to open the safe, but he was unsuccessful and an expert from Omaha was telephoned for to come down, arriving at 1:12.

Has Number of Dates.

The Holly orchestra departs this evening for Louisville, where they will play for a social dance to be given in that city this evening, and tomorrow they go to Weeping Water for a dance, returning home to play for the dance at the German Home. These dates will keep them on the go for the rest of the week and speaks well for the excellence of their music.

Remember the Regalia Habana Cigar. Always the best. Robert Richter, manufacturer.

Copyright 1912, Alfred Decker & Co.

PLAIN SACKS in stiff front and the English soft roll and Norfolk models in different styles, you will find here in great variety.

Grays, Black and White effects, Browns, and Blues, ranging in price from $10 to $30, but especially strong from $15 to $25.

New Collars---The La Salle, long point, suitable for bow of 4-in-hand. The Norfolk, a new space collar for summer, suitable for a bow or 4-in-hand.

Faller & Thieroff
 FINE FINING CLOTHIERS

Manhattan Shirts Stelson Hats

LOSES TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS BY A FIRE

Fine Barn of W. H. Betts, Together With Contents, Goes Up in Smoke.

The fine barn and silo on the farm of William Betts, one of the prominent farmers of southern Cass county, was destroyed yesterday morning at about 10 o'clock, together with fifty tons of hay, fifteen head of hogs and about 2,000 bushels of corn. The Betts farm is about four miles west of Nehawka, on the "O" street road, and northeast of Avoca. Mr. and Mrs. Betts were not at home at the time of the fire, having taken the early morning train at Avoca for Omaha, and were not expected home until late last night.

The fire was first discovered by one of the neighbors, who was passing by, but it had gained such headway that it was impossible to save any of the contents of the barn and the structure and all in it were reduced to ruins in a short time. The barn was one of the finest in Cass county and the loss to the owner of the barn and contents will be at least $10,000.

Barr Lands Are Sold.

The sale of the lands in the partition suit of John W. Barr vs. Edie J. Barr, et al., was held yesterday at the south door of the court house and was bought in, after spirited bidding, by John W. Barr for himself and brothers and sisters. The lands consisted of 320 acres of farming land near Greenwood, a house and two lots in Greenwood village and a house and lot in Lincoln. The total receipts of the sale amounted to $34,680, which will be divided among the different heirs of the estate.

The Journal for Calling Cards.

Returns From Hospital.

Mrs. Arthur Eastwood, who has been in Omaha for some weeks recovering at one of the hospitals from the effects of an operation, has so far recovered that she was brought home this afternoon, feeling greatly improved in health. This will be most pleasing news to the many friends of Mrs. Eastwood, who have anxiously awaited the time when she would be able to return to her home here.

BASKET SHOWER AND LUNCHEON IN HONOR MRS. NELSON JEAN

This afternoon Mrs. Eva Reese and Mrs. C. W. Baylor entertained at a most delightful 4 o'clock luncheon and basket shower in honor of Mrs. Nelson Jean, at their handsome home in the west part of the city. The parlor and dining room of the home were very handsomely decorated with roses and white syringa and the same decorations were used most tastefully in the table decorations, the centerpiece being a large basket of blush roses and ferns, while rose petals scattered over the table made the finishing touches to the exquisite setting for the luncheon. There were twelve guests present and each one brought a basket, which was presented to the guest of honor, and the company was then invited to the dining room, where their places at the table were marked by tiny baskets emblematic of the occasion. The luncheon was in five courses and very temptingly prepared and the young ladies spent a most enjoyable afternoon at this most hospitable home.

When baby suffers with croup, apply and give Dr. Thomas' Eucletic Oil at once. Safe for children. A little goes a long way. 25c and 50c. At all drug stores.

DOUBLE WEDDING AT WEEPING WATER LAST EVENING

Last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jewell, at Weeping Water, occurred the wedding of two of their daughters, who are among the most charming and talented young ladies in that city. Miss Stella L. Jewell was married to Mr. Edward E. Lorenson of Weeping Water, while Miss Daisy Jewell was united for life to Mr. Parr Young of Nehawka, a son of L. H. Young, one of the prominent citizens of that place, and the groom is a young man highly respected and esteemed by all who know him. All four of these young people are well known and very popular in their home towns, and their many friends in that section of the county will extend to them their heartiest congratulations on their wedding and wish them a pleasant voyage down the stream of life together.

George Everett of near Union came up this morning to look after some business matters with the county commissioners in regard to some tiling that the county commissioners of Olce county recently placed near his farm, and which has caused considerable trouble to farmers in that locality.

The Best Flour on the Market

MEETING GROWS IN ENTHUSIASM

Larger Attendance Last Evening Than Usual and Much Interest Manifested.

There was a good attendance at the tabernacle last night, the weather having settled so as to permit men and women occupying seats under the canvas with comfort. A chorus of from fifty to sixty voices adds materially to the interest which seems to be growing with each successive assemblage at the tent. While there is room for many more than have been in attendance at any one meeting, the congregation is growing as the interest in the services increases.

A male quartet, composed of Evangelist Smith, Mr. Gilmore, Mr. Klinger and B. A. McElwain, rendered two selections last night that were well received by the large congregation, and much appreciated by the lovers of vocal music. At the request of Rev. Smith, the evangelist, the chorus joined with the congregation in singing "That Little Brown Church in the Vale," Rev. Smith stating that this song had been selected as the rallying song for the "Men's Forward Religion" movement, and that the church in the vale was not a myth, he having had the pleasure of preaching in it at one time, the church of the song being located in northern Iowa. The author of the song, now an old man of 80, still lived.

Rev. Smith's message last night, as usual, was short, sharp and earnestly delivered, his theme being, "Why Be a Christian?" The speaker talked rapidly and addressed his remarks more to the members of the churches than to the unbelieving. He spoke in no uncertain terms of those who have their names on the church books and stand aloof when a campaign like the present is being waged against the wicked. He condemned the narrow church member who used the excuse that he did not believe some steps necessary for perfect Christian living. The speaker was not himself a stickler for method, any method that would convert the sinner from the error of his way and make him a new creature, was good enough for him.

At the close of his remarks Rev. Smith announced a meeting for men only Sunday afternoon in the big tent, and a meeting for women in the Christian church at the same hour.

DELIGHTFUL TIME AT THE THRALL HOME

Yesterday afternoon the Altar society of St. John's Catholic church enjoyed a most delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. E. B. Thrall, on East Vine street, and the meeting was one of the most largely attended that has been given by the society and the occasion one that will long be remembered for the delightful hospitality afforded the guests by the hostess. The Thrall home was very handsomely decorated with roses and other summer flowers in profusion and presented a very charming scene with the large number of handsomely gowned ladies present.

The afternoon was most delightfully spent in playing high five, at which contest Mrs. George Dodge proved the most successful and was awarded the prize, a handsome linen handkerchief, while the consolation prize, a miniature deck of cards, was secured by Mrs. W. T. Scotten. Later in the afternoon some very tempting and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Opal Fitzgerald, Margaret Scotten, Margaret Hallahan, Grace Thompson and Minnie Guthman, which came as the crowning feature of an afternoon of much pleasure, and the ladies of the Altar society will realize over $12 as a result of the delightful afternoon coffee. There were about one hundred present at the Thrall home, and all were delighted with the splendid entertainment afforded them and were loud in their praise of the hospitality of the hostess and the Altar society.

Beautiful Flowers.

The Journal this morning received two exquisite bouquets of roses from Father John Vleck, which are the most beautiful we have ever seen, and the size of the roses, as well as the deep, rich coloring, speaks well for the care and cultivation that has been given them. The roses are taken from the beautiful garden of Father Vleck, which we mentioned some days ago, and it is hard to believe that they were raised outside a conservatory, so lovely are they, and we feel very much indebted to the reverend gentleman for his handsome present.

Farm for Sale.

Anyone wanting to buy a farm would do well to see W. B. Bryan, county assessor.

MILADY'S SUMMER DRESSES FOR PAY-DAY WEEK!

You will surely be pleased with the distinctive charm and individuality of the new summer models. We have many exquisite designs that will appeal strongly to the good taste of every woman. And their fair and reasonable prices give them an added interest.

NEAT, STYLISH DRESSES FOR YOUR CHILDREN

You mothers who desire to have your children present a nice appearance, and yet want them to enjoy the out-door fun, will appreciate these pretty Gingham Dresses. Even under the hardest usage of play-time frolics they retain their trim daintiness. We have them in many styles, and are truly unusual values at our pleasingly low prices. Call in and let us show them to you.

FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE
 V. ZUCKER, Manager The Home of Guaranteed Values