MRS. P. F. GOOS ENTERTAINS LADIES AT KENSINGTON

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. P. F. Goos was hostess at a most delightful Kensington given for the members of the Kensington club and an afternoon of much enjoyment was participated in by the members of the club in social conversation and the making of dainty needlework articles and the hours passed very rapidly and it was with a great deal of regret that the guests saw the home-coming hour draw near. One of the most delightful features of the afternoon was the luncheon served by the hostess and her charming daughters. The parlors of the hotel were very prettily decorated with flowers and made a most pleasing setting for the enjoyable occasion.

MR. THOMAS WALLING AND MISS KATIE M'HUGH MARRIED

Yesterday morning at 6:30 at the church of Saints Peter and Paul, in Falls City, occurred the marriage of Mr. Thomas Walling and Miss Katherine McHugh, of this city, the beautiful nuptial mass of the Roman Catholic church being celebrated by Rev. Father Hoffmann. Following the wedding ceremony the newly wedded couple drove to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Katherine McHugh, where they spent the day, returning home last evening on the 5 o'clock Missouri Pacific train. Since the death of her aunt, two years ago, Miss McHugh has been housekeeper for Mr. Walling and looked after the rearing of her little motherless cousins and has taken the place of the mother as no one else could, and now that she is to be with them as a mother the joy of the little ones is unbounded. Mr. Walling is one of our leading attorneys and abstractors, and in his securing such a charming and accomplished bride is receiving the congratulations of a host of friends throughout the city and county and the Journal desires to be numbered among them in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Walling a long and very happy married life.

CONTESTED WILL CASE ATTRACTS MUCH ATTENTION

The will contest case of David Christian Kunz, deceased, attracted a great deal of attention in county court today and a large number of witnesses and interested parties were present to hear the case. The contest was brought by John William Kunz, a son of the deceased, residing at Berlin, Otoe county. There was no evidence introduced by the contestant and the will was admitted to probate by Judge Beeson. The contestant will appeal the case to the district court, where it will be tried before a jury. The deceased gentleman was one of the wealthiest farmers in the western part of the county and left a large estate. Among those here on the case were: John William Kunz, Berlin; C. S. Aldrich, L. F. Langhorst, L. W. Roetger, Dr. J. M. Neeley, August Bast, David C. Kunz, jr., Ludwig Kunz, Mary Kunz, Emma Kunz, Mrs. Rosa Panska, Mrs. Martha Ruemlin.

A Careful Mother.

Mrs. Frances Lebeda of Holland, Mich., is certainly a very careful mother, judging from the following letter: "Please send me one-half dozen bottles of Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It is indeed a good medicine, which should be found in every household. Your advice and this remedy have cured me, for which please accept my heartfelt thanks. I have two little boys and as soon as I notice that their appetite is not as good as usual, I give them for a few days a teaspoonful before each meal and everything is all right again." Mothers can prevent many diseases or cure them quickly by following this advice. The remedy is good for both young and old. As soon as you notice any irregularity or any discomfort, use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. Remember Triner's Liniment in rheumatic and neuralgic pains. Your druggist will get it for you.

Undergoes Operation at Lincoln.

From Tuesday's Daily. Sunday Miss Nettie Moore departed for Lincoln, where she was called by the illness of her cousin, Mrs. William Christopherson, of Eagle, who was taken to the hospital at Lincoln and was operated on yesterday. Reports last evening from her bedside are to the effect that her condition was not very satisfactory, as she did not seem to rally from the operation as well as the attending physician had hoped for.

Goes to Visit With Sister.

From Tuesday's Daily. This morning J. A. Long departed on the early Burlington train for Omaha, where he will meet his sister, Mrs. Ella Powers, who is visiting here from Oklahoma, and in company with her will go to Kimball, Neb., where they will visit another sister, Mrs. Frank Edison, for a short time. This will be the first meeting of the brothers and sisters for some time, and it is needless to say that it will be a most joyous occasion for all of them.

Mrs. G. F. Touhy and two sons, George and Robert, of St. Vrain, Colorado, are guests at the J. R. Vallery home near Mynard.

SERIOUS CHARGES BEFORE JUSTICE ARCHER'S COURT

This morning William Bratton, who was taken up by the police in connection with the Baylor burglary, was arraigned in Justice Archer's court, charged with carrying concealed weapons. On being searched at the jail a large 38-calibre automatic revolver was discovered on his person, as well as several articles of cutlery, among them a large pruning knife. He entered a plea of guilty to the charge preferred against him and was bound over to the district court.

Another concealed weapon case to come before the justice today was that of Albert Stevens, and to this complaint quite a story is connected. It seems that Stevens and James Higley, a boy of some 17 years, were employed on the rip-rapping across the river and a few days ago C. L. Roll, one of the bosses of the men, discovered these two parties engaged in a very loathsome practice and promptly discharged them. Both of the parties departed, but last night Stevens returned to this city with a gun he had procured in Omaha, and greatly alarmed Roll, and a complaint was filed against him, and when arraigned this morning he entered a plea of guilty and will await his disposal by the district court.

MRS. E. W. COOK ENTERTAINS KENSINGTON

From Wednesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon at her handsome home on North Fourth street, Mrs. E. W. Cook entertained most charmingly at a Kensington, which was attended by some fifty ladies and an afternoon of great enjoyment had by the guests in the plying of the busy needle, interspersed with social conversation and musical numbers. For the delightful occasion the rooms of the home had been decorated with garden flowers in profusion and in a very artistic manner that made the rooms seem veritable joral bowers. At an appropriate hour a most delicious luncheon was served in a most charming manner by Misses Marie Donnelly, Catherine Dovey and Edith Dovey, which was very much enjoyed by the company of ladies who were present. Mrs. Cook was assisted in entertaining by Miss Nettie Hawksworth and Miss Anna Heisel, and the occasion will be long remembered by all attending for its pleasure and enjoyment.

A COUPLE OF FINE MULES SHIPPED TO OMAHA

A very fine span of mules was shipped out of this city yesterday for Omaha, where they will be used by the Standard Oil company in hauling their heavy oil wagons. The mules were purchased by F. W. Elliott, the local representative of the company, from C. H. Cobb, residing near this city, and are splendid specimens of the mule flesh, weighing some 2,000 pounds, and will be able to pull a mighty heavy load. The company is very desirous of securing several more teams like this, as it is hard to get hold of a team heavy enough to pull the big wagons used by the oil company.

Will Visit the Old Dominion.

George Porter of Lincoln arrived this afternoon to look after the interests of the Omaha Bee in this city. Mr. Porter expects to leave in about a week to join his wife and sister, Miss Ada Porter, in Ohio, where they are visiting, and they will then go to Virginia for a visit of a month or five weeks with relatives and friends in the Old Dominion. This will be Mr. Porter's first vacation in seventeen years, and that he will enjoy it goes without saying.

Fritz Fricke is the competent clerk who is filling out the place of Mr. Thygeson while the latter is off with his better half on a deserved vacation. Fritz is some nice fellow as well as a competent clerk and we're mighty glad to have his company. But for the life of us we can't understand how the girls in Plattsmouth can get along without him for a month.—Nebraska City Press.

Miss Clara Young of the vicinity of Murray, was a visitor in this city today.

BOOSTERS VS. ALHAMBRAS OF OMAHA, NEXT SUNDAY

From Wednesday's Daily. On next Sunday the Boosters will again take on the Alhambras of Omaha and endeavor to wrest from them the honors of the diamond. This team is the one that humiliated the locals by striking out fifteen of the heavy hitting batters and generally cleaned things up at their last appearance here, but Manager Johnson and his boys are determined that this time the bacon will repose safely in the Booster ranks, and a good fast game may be looked for, as the Alhambras are some ball team themselves and do not propose to lay down on the proposition in any manner. The game will start at 3 o'clock sharp and every fan who delights in a good game should be on hand and cheer the boys on to victory.

OPERATED ON FOR EYE TROUBLE IN OMAHA

From Wednesday's Daily. This morning at the Methodist hospital in Omaha Miss Marie Spies was operated upon by Dr. Gifford for an eye trouble, from which she has been bothered for the past several years. The young lady, when quite small, fell and in some manner injured the muscles and nerves of the eye, and as a result her sight has been somewhat afflicted since that time. The operation was commenced at 9:30 and it was nearly noon before the patient was brought out of the operating room. The doctor found it necessary, on examination, to operate on both eyes of the young lady. At last reports she was getting along as well as could be expected.
