PLATTSMOUTH EAGLES ENJOY A BIG TIME

Large Number of Visiting Members From South Omaha Present to Enliven the Occasion.

Saturday, June 21, 1913, will go down in the annals of Platts-mouth Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles as one of the red letter days of that organization, as on that date one of the largest classes of candidates that has been adopted by the order here was initiated by the degree team from the South Omaha aerie, who had charge of the work of conducting the lodge on that evening.

The degree team, accompanied by a large number of the South Omaha lodge, arrived on No. 2 at 5 o'clock, and were met at the station by the Burlington band and the members of the Platts-mouth lodge, and were escorted to the club rooms, where the freedom of the rooms and city were tendered to the visitors and a general social time enjoyed among the members of the South Omaha and Platts-mouth lodges until the adjournment for supper. About 7:30 several auto loads of visitors arrived from South Omaha, and a large auto truck about 11 o'clock brought some twenty more of the jolly South Omahans here and the number of visitors present in the city was considerably over 100 and was headed by H. Rotholz of South Omaha, state president of the order, who witnessed the initiation of the class of fifteen members who were made into Eagles in the most approved style by the crack drill team of the South Omaha lodge.

The lodge rooms were crowded by the members of the order until a late hour and the occasion will be one that will be long remembered by all who attended as one of the most interesting and profitable that the lodge here has enjoyed. The aerie here has been organized for a number of years and has had a healthy growth since its foundation and the new members taken in Saturday evening will greatly aid in making it one of the largest orders in the city, as it is one of the best fraternal orders in the business. Its membership embraces some of our most prominent and leading citizens and is rapidly becoming one of the liveliest organizations in the city.

There were thirteen men in the degree team and they were accompanied by a splendid quartet, as well as the twelve officers of the lodge and the president of the state organization. The officers here were: C. R. Waters, president; Doctor Warner, vice president; P. T. Paves, conductor; C. G. Riley, inside guard; J. N. Williams, past president; H. Rotholz, state president; Fred Parks, past president; J. B. Ferguson, trustee; J. B. Kendrick, treasurer. The degree team and the South Omaha lodge put on the work of the order in a very impressive manner, portraying the beauties of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and the candidates were very fortunate in having such able instruction on their uniting with this excellent order.

PRETTY AND UNIQUE PRESENT FROM GRANT BLOUNT

Today a very handsome and unique present was received by Deputy Sheriff M. E. Manspecker for his wife, who is at Jacksonville, Florida, attending a convention of the Woodman Circle. The present was a very handsome hair bridle, and was the work of Grant Blunt, who was sent up from this county to the penitentiary for robbing a car on the Missouri Pacific tracks, and he is serving a seven-year sentence. The bridle is a handsome piece of work and is on exhibition in the Journal office and will be very much prized by both Mr. and Mrs. Manspecker.

SUNDAY MEETINGS AT THE TENT AND CHURCH

Immense Audiences in Attendance at the Meetings During the Day and Night.

At the close of a day, "as rare as a day in June," in fact that very thing, last evening the people came from all directions, in autos, buggies, wagons, on foot, in great troops, sometimes filling the entire pavements, all going toward the big tent, where the union services were being held, until the canvas was nearly crowded full, and there were those sitting in vehicles of all kinds in the streets, and standing on the walks listening to the superb music, for it was fine; the singing of the chorus, the special numbers and the little girls' choir making in all a most enjoyable time with the singing alone, and one which all could well enjoy, well paying all who came.

Besides the musical features of the meetings, the address which Rev. Smith made was one which appealed to all his listeners. His subject was "The Greatest Question in the World," and his text was the words of Pontius Pilate, which was "What will you do with Jesus—which is called the Christ?" This question was propounded to all present and elicited a response in a goodly number of decisions for the Master.

Nearly 800 were gathered in and about the tent at the evening meeting, and the interest seems to have gained much during the meetings. Rev. Smith announced that he will be compelled to close the meetings at this place at the end of this month—though he would like to remain longer—but having an engagement elsewhere which begins with the first day of July, he will be compelled to close with that date.

In the morning the union Sunday school comfortably filled the seating capacity of the tent in the auditorium department, and was a meeting of much good. This was followed by the meeting of the morning, which was well attended. The men's meeting in the afternoon was attended by an interested audience, but by not so large a number as on the previous Sunday. Much interest was manifested and a number of decisions were made.

At the Presbyterian church at the same hour as the men's meeting, a woman's meeting was conducted by Mrs. Briggs, at which there was a goodly crowd and much interest in the services, which consisted of much musical service, in charge of Miss Mathilda Vallery, which goes without saying that it was good. Besides the scripture lesson and the discussion there was one by Mrs. G. P. Eastwood on bible characters, Mrs. M. A. Dickson on the life of Canon H. B. Burgess, giving somewhat of his history and work in this city. Mrs. A. E. Gass also gave an excellent paper on the life of the late Rev. J. T. Beard, which was replete with incidents of his life and work for the spreading of the gospel of Christ. Misses Olive Gass, Fannie Crosby and Estelle Baird also gave splendid papers on some of the women workers who had dedicated their lives to the service and some of the things which they had accomplished.

For this week preparations have been made for cottage prayer meetings, which will be held at the different residences of the city, notice of which will be published, and conducted by the evangelists and the ministers of the city.

Some Fine Boy.

The Omaha Bee of yesterday, among the pictures of the babies of the metropolis, had one on its page of William Cook Ramsey, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ramsey, and the friends here of the little lad's father could easily trace out a striking resemblance between the young man and his sire. The little man, from the picture, appears as a very lively little tot, and well worthy of the pride taken in him by his parents, as well as the grandparents, Judge and Mrs. B. S. Ramsey, of this city.

Ferry Running.

I have taken charge of the Missouri River Ferry, erected new pole and cable, and the same is now in perfect running condition and ready to accommodate all passengers. Will operate at all hours, either day or night.

Former Residents Here.

Among the party of visiting Eagles here Saturday night from South Omaha was a well known former Platts-mouth man and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Koch, both of whom were well and favorably known when residents of this city. Mr. Koch while here was employed as a cigar-maker for Julius Pepperberg and was well known in musical circles, being a most talented vocalist, and appeared at many entertainments here. Mrs. Koch was formerly Miss Sarah Ramsey of this city, and was a very popular and charming young lady, and both of these people have a host of friends who were delighted to see their friends again.

A MATTER BROUGHT FORCIBLY TO MIND

The Big Crowd in Town Saturday Demonstrated That More Hitch Racks Were Badly Needed.

Saturday afternoon the streets of the city presented a very lively appearance, as the city was crowded with shoppers from the country and out of town and the business men enjoyed one of the best days they have had for several months. The streets were filled with teams and automobiles and the lack of suitable places to hitch teams was brought very forcibly to mind, as there was not nearly enough places for the farmers to tie their teams while attending to their shopping.

The farmers of the county all like to come to this city to do their trading, as better stores or larger stocks of goods to select from cannot be found anywhere outside of the larger cities, and it is a great pleasure for the older farmers to gather together and talk over the conditions of the crops and visit as well, and the wives and daughters can find a splendid opportunity to attend to their week-end shopping. Several of the stores have been progressive enough to provide rest rooms for their customers and visitors and this is a feature that should receive the attention of every merchant and they should see that every effort is made to provide for the comfort of those who come here to trade and they should be made to feel that Platts-mouth is glad to have them come here and hopes to have more in the future make this their trading headquarters.

WARNING TO PARENTS OF YOUNG GIRLS

This afternoon County Attorney Taylor filed a complaint in the county court against two young girls of this city, charging them with being incorrigible and with conducting themselves in a manner that warranted their being sent to the state industrial school for girls at Geneva, Neb. Last night an automobile party was observed near the court house, and it being near the midnight hour, the police investigated and found several young men and the girls in the car and made them get out and depart for the places where they were staying, with the threat of placing them in jail, and this morning a formal complaint was lodged with the county attorney and the case was set for 2 o'clock this afternoon. The automobile party is supposed to be from Louisville, and the girls, on being questioned, denied that the men had made any suggestions or remarks in any way offensive to them, but the circumstances in which they were found was not of the best.

This case is but another where girls from 13 to 18 years of age are allowed to roam the streets unchecked and become associated with those who have not the best of character, and as a consequence, an inexperienced girl drifts into the ways of these people and there is much grief for both parents and children.

WILL NO DOUBT BE CAREFUL IN SELECTING EGGS HEREAFTER

There is quite a good story told on one of our prominent business men that illustrates the truth of the proverb that "honesty is the best policy." The merchant in question was preparing to entertain a number of his friends a few nights ago and thought that he would add to the refreshments served by using an egg, and accordingly visited one of the grocery stores, and seeing a few eggs lying in the rear of the store room, picked one up and hastened back to where his friends were awaiting him, and procuring a glass gently broke the egg into it, and then a general stampede was started for the door and the aforesaid merchant carried the glass to the rear door and flung the fragrant mess as far as possible and in the future will avoid all drinks made with eggs.

Entertains for Miss Thompson.

A most charming afternoon was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. William Hinrichsen Friday when she entertained a few friends in honor of Miss Grace Thompson of Sabula, Iowa, who is visiting here with her aunt, Mrs. E. B. Thrall, and who leaves tomorrow for her home. The afternoon was very enjoyably spent by the ladies at cards and social conversation until an appropriate hour, when some very tempting refreshments were served by the hostess, which greatly added to the pleasures of the afternoon.

Rev. George Huebner of the Eight Mile Grove church was in the city today for a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.
