HAWAIIAN BALL TEAM TO PLAY THE PLATTSMOUTH BOOSTERS

The management of the Boosters base ball team has secured a game with the Hawaiian ball team that is touring this state, playing in the different towns. This team is one of the fastest that has made its appearance in the state and has proven a good attraction wherever they have appeared and will give the fans here an opportunity to witness a red-hot game on Saturday next, and it is hoped to have them play here on Sunday, June 29. The Boosters have been greatly improved in the past few weeks and are playing good, fast ball and will give a good account of themselves in their contest with the Hawaiians.

MISS FITZGERALD ENTERTAIN FOR MISS GRACE THOMPSON

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening Misses Marie and Opal Fitzgerald entertained in a most charming manner at their beautiful home in the west part of the city for Miss Grace Thompson of Marshalltown, Iowa, who has been here visiting for several weeks with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Thrall. The evening was most enjoyably spent by the young ladies in playing progressive high five, in which contest Miss Helen Spies captured the king prize, while Miss Thompson received the consolation prize. Several very delightful musical numbers were enjoyed during the evening by the jolly crowd of young ladies and the occasion was filled with much pleasure for all attending. During the evening some very delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, which further augmented the pleasures of the young people, if such were possible. The invited guests were: Misses Helen Spies, Teresa Droege, Helen Egenberger, Zora Smith, Madeline Minor, Christine and Mathilde Soennichsen, Florence White, Clara Mockenhaupt, Margaret Scotten, Esther Larson, Gretchen and Marie Donnelly, Golda Noble and the guest of honor, Miss Thompson.

New Fountain Arrives.
From Saturday's Daily.

The firm of Wurga & Cecil have just received one of the new drinking fountains for use on the street, and as soon as possible the two remaining ones will be shipped and installed in the sites picked by the committee of the council. The fountain is a very handsome one and will make a splendid addition to the appearance of the street, as well as a convenience to the public. They stand about three and a half feet high and are equipped with a marble basin in the top, where the bubbling fountain will furnish water to the thirsty public whenever they desire to slack their thirst.

MORE CHANGES IN RESIDENCE PROPERTY

From Saturday's Daily.
More transfers of property in this city have been carried out, all of which indicates a good, healthy growth of the city and the confidence of the residents here in the future of the city. The George Sayles property on South Tenth street has been purchased by George Born and he expects to make his home here again in a short time. Mr. Born formerly owned this place, but disposed of it to Mr. Sayles a few years back and returned to the farm, but has concluded to return here to live. Mrs. Harriett A. Cole has sold the house and lot next to her home to L. W. Lorenz and it is expected that the new owner will place the property in first-class shape for occupancy at once.

FEARFUL OF THE INTERESTS OF TAXPAYERS OF CASS COUNTY

Mr. Pollock seems to be very uneasy for fear that our board of county commissioners have burdened the people by taking the telephones out of the court house, but we heard no protest when the monopoly raised the rates one-third on the people who pay taxes. If any of our county officials want a telephone in their office I don't think the board of commissioners will object if they pay for it themselves. They are as able to do it as the ones who work to make a living at other business.
