ADDED INTEREST IN TENT MEETINGS

The Usual Large Attendance and Great Interest Manifested Throughout Meeting.

From Friday's Daily.

With a trifle better weather and an increased interest in the meetings, the service last evening was more interesting than those which have preceded, although the crowd in attendance was not larger than what have attended before. The subject which Rev. Smith took for his discourse was "The Foolish Man, Who Counted Not God." The scripture reading was a narrative of the man who had prospered in the accumulation of this world's goods and had not where to bestow his goods, and he said unto himself, "Tear down your barns and store houses and build greater, and then say unto your soul, eat, drink and be merry." The rendering of the text as explained by Rev. Smith, was this night, this soul (life) shall be required of thee. Not that his life would be taken away, but that his life would be required, as a life of service for the good things which had come to him, and that to be fair, as between man and man, and man and God, he would be entitled to furnish some service for the blessings which had come to him by the grace of his maker. This brought up the matter of what we are owing God, for even this life and that life to come.

If we were working for a friend and he was paying best of wages we would feel if we did not do a good day's work we were robbing that friend, and in this case we are or should be working for the best friend we ever had, and when He has paid us the highest wages, besides everything else, we should feel that we owe all we can do to pay in service the priceless gift—eternal life—and when we did not do all we could to pay the debt we are surely robbing God and ourselves and friends as well.

Arrangements were completed for the united meetings of all the Sunday schools of those engaged in this campaign at the tent Sunday morning at 9:30. This is half an hour earlier than the regular Sunday school hour of most of the schools, but not so early that most all can be in attendance. This will be followed by the union morning service at 11 o'clock.

This evening, just after the close of the meeting a meeting of the superintendents, officers and teachers of all the Sunday schools will be held at the tent to perfect the arrangements regarding the union session of the Sunday schools.

It has been arranged that the Presbyterian school will meet in the east end of the tent, the Methodist in the center, and the Christian on the west, while the primary division of each school will meet on the platform.

ANOTHER PLATTSMOUTH BOY CAUGHT IN CUPID'S NET

From Friday's Daily.

On Wednesday, June 11, at the home of the bride's parents, in Northboro, Iowa, occurred the marriage of Mr. Walter Haynie of this city and Miss Ethel Rorebeck. The wedding was a very quiet one and was attended by only a few relatives and friends. The young people have returned to this city to make their future home. Miss Rorebeck was one of the most popular young ladies in her home town and it is with great pleasure that we welcome her to this city. The groom is a very worthy young man, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haynie, and during the time he has lived here has made many friends, who will be pleased to learn of his marriage and wish him and his bride a long and happy married life.

LINEN SHOWER IN HONOR OF MISS HENRIETTA CHALOUKKA

From Friday's Daily.

Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Janda a linen shower was given in honor of Miss Henrietta Chaloupka, whose marriage to Joseph M. Hiber will take place June 24. The parlors, as well as the dining room, were attractively decorated in a color scheme of pink and white; pink and white ribbon streamers hung from chandeliers to corners of the rooms, white bunches of margerites and pink ramblers were very tastily arranged here and there. The table in the dining room was very pretty with a mound of flowers formed the center. A laughable feature of the evening was a mock wedding, Miss Sophia Jirousek acting as minister, while Miss Marie Yelinek was groom and Miss Henrietta Chaloupka was the bride. This proved very amusing and merriment reigned supreme for awhile. Several contests took place, one being a dish towel hemming contest, for which prizes were awarded. A very dainty luncheon was served. The place cards were small Cupid's hearts—the prophesies and wishes written on each heart being very interesting. Everyone was surprised when a strange negro wash-woman entered the room carrying a large basket which she presented to Miss Chaloupka, and when opened was found to contain many very beautiful pieces of linen. Those present to enjoy this occasion were: Misses Mary and Mathilde Donat, Anna Rys, Tony Janda, Marie Yelinek, Golda Noble, Marie Hiber, Anna Jirousek, Celia Taylor, Lillian Thompson, Sophia and Henrietta Chaloupka and Cophia Jirousek; Messdames Jesse Brady, James Novacek, F. M. Bestor, N. W. Christinger, John Hiber, Charles Vetousek, A. Nesladek and T. J. Janda.

Bad Breath.

Persons suffering from malodorous breath, often feel unhappy. If poor teeth or gums are not the cause of it you will have to look for it deeper—in the stomach or the intestines. It shows that somewhere in the body is some putrefaction, which must be quickly removed. The whole system must be thoroughly cleaned out and strengthened. For this we wish to recommend Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It acts promptly in many diseases in which are found, as leading symptoms, constipation, fetid breath, headache, indigestion from the stomach or the intestines, poor appetite, distress after meals, eructations, nausea, vomiting, flatulence. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. If you need a liniment, use Triner's Liniment. It is very strong and goes farther than any other.

Insurance Company Meets.

The Platte Mutual Insurance company last evening held a meeting at the office of D. O. Dwyer, and a large amount of routine business was transacted. The office of the company was moved from the residence of J. C. Peterson to the office of Mr. Dwyer, and all business matters will be transacted there, as it is more convenient to the secretary, J. C. Peterson.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENJOYS OUTING AT SWALLOW HILL

From Friday's Daily.

Swallow Hill was the scene of almost delightful picnic yesterday. Early in the morning the members of the Sunday school of the First Church of Christ chartered carryalls and carriages, and, accompanied by their parents and friends, drove out to Swallow Hill and spent the entire day picnicking, returning to their homes at dusk. Games, fishing, swimming and many other amusements calculated to make the occasion one long to be remembered by the participants, were indulged in, which made the hours just simply fly. At the noon hour and in the evening before their return home sumptuous picnic luncheons were spread on the green beneath the spread oak trees and around which the jolly company of picnickers gathered, and which was thoroughly relished by all. There were about thirty in attendance and the report is that they had lots of fun.

There was a large attendance of the membership present last evening at the session of Missouri Tribe No. 69, Improved Order of Red Men, to take part in the semi-annual election of officers, as well as to enjoy the social features of the evening. The officers who have held office during the past six months have given such excellent service that they were all re-elected to their respective offices, as follows:

- Sachem—R. D. Dalton.
- Senior Sagamore—Henry Lakhoda.
- Junior Sagamore—Frank Hawkenbery.
- Prophet—J. C. York.
- Guard of Forest—H. T. Batton.
- First Sennap—Gus Carlson.

The offices of chief of records and keeper of waupum, held by Emil Walters and John Cory, are for a term of one year and these gentlemen were not affected by the election. After the business session of the lodge the members adjourned to the banquet hall, where the chiefs gathered for a feast of the most elegant style and a general good time was enjoyed until a late hour. The Red Men have the reputation of furnishing some fine banquets and the one last evening was one of the most enjoyable they have had for some time.

ANOTHER NEW LANDLORD FOR THE UNION HOTEL

From Friday's Daily.

The management of the hotel took another change this week, the new proprietor being C. Wes Clark, who was "inaugurated" Wednesday, and the first meal under the new administration was served that evening. The sudden change in management came as a surprise to many of the citizens, while others were aware of the fact that it was to be made. The hotel has been run by J. M. Morton the past seven months, but on last Friday the agent, J. M. Leyda, of Plattsmouth, came down and served notice upon Mr. Morton to vacate within three days, alleging that the tenant was in arrears for rent to the amount of about $350. The Mortons moved their goods into the upper rooms of the telephone office building, and Tuesday Mr. Morton departed on a business trip to Texas, where he has some land interests to look after.

There is no doubt as to the success of the hotel business under the new management, and Mr. and Mrs. Clark have had enough experience in the line of work to enable them to conduct it as it should be. One of the changes they will make is in the name of the hotel, the new name to be "The Merchants"—Union Ledger.

J. H. Gray, a former resident of this city, came in last evening from Lincoln and visited over night with his daughter, Mrs. Fred Egenberger and family.

THE DAUGHTERS OF REBEKAH HAVE SOCIAL TIME AT HOLLY HOME

From Friday's Daily.

The Daughters of Rebekah held a most enjoyable social yesterday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. William Holly on West Main street, and the ladies who braved the heat of the day were treated to a most delightful time which will be long remembered for its pleasant features. The rooms of the Holly home were decorated in a very tasty manner with flowers and the fine lawn made an ideal place to pass the afternoon. The ladies spent the time in social conversation and were treated to several pleasing violin selections by Miss Agnes Holly, who is a very gifted student of the violin, and her numbers were received with much pleasure by the company. During the afternoon some very tempting refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, which served to heighten the pleasures of the occasion and it was voted one of the most pleasant that the lodge has held, and only those who have visited at the Holly home can appreciate the hospitality afforded there.
