

Murray Department

PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND SURROUNDING VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS

(If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest—Editor Journal.)

Murray State Bank

Our Deposits are guaranteed by the State Guarantee Fund

4 per cent interest paid on all Time Deposits for one year.

Do your Banking Business with us.

Murray State Bank

W. G. BOEDEKER, Cashier

Minford's,
Saturday Evening, July 26,
Lawn Musical,
Everyone Invited,
Benefit Library.

Come to Mrs. Tutt's Thursday afternoon and have a good visit.
Mrs. Jennie Rhoden was a Plattsmouth visitor Wednesday evening.
Peaches, cream and cake will be served at Minford's Saturday evening.

Miss Hattie Adams of Plattsmouth is visiting at the home of O. H. Davis.
Mrs. Emma Mims and daughter, Helen, visited at her sister's, Mrs. Tutt's, Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. William Sporer visited at Valpraso and at Denver the past week.

John Beckman was looking after some business matters in the county seat Tuesday.
W. W. Hamilton was attending the Woodman meeting in Plattsmouth Wednesday evening.
George Rhoden came down from Plattsmouth Wednesday morning to assist the boys in threshing.

Major Hall of Plattsmouth and Harve Manners of Omaha were here Tuesday in the interest of the Interstate car.
Miss Oglia Minford spent a few days in Lincoln this week, Serle Davis bringing her home in the car Wednesday.
Mrs. A. L. Baker and daughter, Opha, departed last Friday evening for a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives in various points in Indiana, the old home of Mrs. Baker.

Jack Chalfant made a trip to Louisville Sunday.
Ed Lewis has a fish story to tell. Call him up.
Born—To Creed Harris and wife, a son, on July 18.
Robert Good and wife were in Plattsmouth Monday afternoon.

Miss Etta Nickels was looking after business in Union Thursday.
Mrs. R. R. Nickels and daughter, Bertha, were Plattsmouth visitors Friday.
E. G. Lewis and family spent Sunday with Robert Fitch and family.
Miss Etta Nickels was transacting business in Nehawka Wednesday.

G. S. Ray and family spent Sunday with Major Hall at Plattsmouth.
J. D. Lewis and wife spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. R. H. Fitch.
Mrs. J. D. Lewis and son, Wayne, were Plattsmouth visitors Wednesday.
Frank Dugay of Nehawka was visiting his mother, Mrs. E. R. Queen, Sunday.

The Lewiston Glee club gave a social picnic Sunday at the "Jump Off Place" park.
Silas Long and wife of Lincoln, Mrs. Mary Johnson and Mrs. Addie Stokes were guests of Mrs. Arthur Copenhagen Tuesday.
What's the matter with having some new hitching racks at Murray? The farmers are compelled to form a regular line-up to get a place to tie. The hitching facilities are about the poorest in any village around.

George Oldham came down from Plattsmouth Wednesday morning to look after some of his farm work.

Minford's,
Saturday Evening, July 26,
Lawn Musical,
Everyone Invited,
Benefit Library.

Mrs. M. Hiatt, who has been so seriously ill for the past few weeks, is some better at this time.

Some of the best talent in and around Murray will appear on the program at Minford's Saturday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Jameson of Weeping Water is in Murray this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Brendel.

Charles Carroll was taken ill Tuesday morning and has since been confined to his bed. He was working in the harvest field at the time.

Mrs. Guy Burton and little son passed through Murray from Plattsmouth, en route to Nebraska City, where she will visit for a few days with relatives and friends.

The ball game on the Murray diamond last Sunday between Murray and the Becker teams resulted in a decided victory for Murray. The score was 18 to 4 in favor of the home team.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tilson entertained at a family dinner Sunday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tilson and Mr. and Mrs. John Durman.

Mrs. F. M. Young, jr., departed Wednesday for Murdock, Minnesota, where she will visit her son for a few weeks. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by Mrs. Joseph Cook and little son, J. W. Holmes, was a Plattsmouth visitor Wednesday evening, driving up in the Auburn car that he traded from Charles Spangler. The Journal publisher made the return trip to the county seat with him.

Walter Sans made a trip to Omaha Tuesday in his new Ford car. He was accompanied by W. G. Boedecker, Ed Tutt and Joe Creamer. They sure made a flying return trip, leaving Omaha at 7 o'clock and arriving in Murray at 8:10.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Harris, on July 18, a bouncing baby boy. Crede is just about one thousand times happier than if he had just closed the deal for the sale of several sections of Cass county land. The mother and little one are doing nicely.

Mrs. E. R. Queen and Mrs. W. F. Moore chaperoned a company of young ladies to Lake Manawa Saturday. Those in the party were: Misses Pearl Dugay, Esther Ray, Elizabeth Campbell, Vera Moore, Winnie Hutcheson, Margaret Moore, Bulah Sans and Francis Moore.

Charles Spangler will soon be the owner of one of those excellent large Berg cars, the first one of the new 1913 model. It is of the six-cylinder type, and will possess every feature of the high grade Berg quality. The car was bought through the agency of J. W. Holmes, and will be here in a few days.

Little Harold Puls, who was so seriously injured last week in the pulleys of a hay fork, is getting along as well as could be expected. The injury was very severe and the little fellow has been a great sufferer. The physician may be compelled to employ the skin grafting process to heal the wounds.

Mrs. E. S. Tutt, assisted by Mesdames B. F. Brendel, D. C. Rholden, Frank Marler, William Seybolt and Miss Etta Nickels, will give a Kensington Thursday afternoon, July 31, at the home of Mrs. Tutt. You are invited to come and bring your fancy work. 10 cents will be charged for refreshments, the proceeds to go toward buying the new books for next winter's reading at the library.

James Brown was quite seriously injured this week when he was thrown from his saddle pony. He was thrown against the steel horn on the saddle, striking his abdomen, cutting a very serious and ugly wound several inches in length, which required several stitches to close up. He is getting along nicely and will soon be restored to his former self.

Grandma Midkiff is slowly improving in health.
J. D. Shrader was a Plattsmouth visitor Thursday.

Miss Beulah Sans was visiting in Union Wednesday.
D. L. Amick was a South Omaha visitor Tuesday of this week.

Charles Countryman shipped cattle to South Omaha Tuesday evening.

Frances Moore has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Henrietta Creamer has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Murray has been sick for the past few days.

A new baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Doly this week. All are doing nicely.

Mrs. L. D. Hiatt went to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening for a few days' visit with her parents.

W. R. Good was looking after some business matters in the county seat Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiles are rejoicing this week over the arrival of a fine new baby boy at their home.

Miss Fern Shrader and Mrs. George Ford were visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shrader.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. John Habel, on July 16, a bouncing baby boy. Both mother and little one are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack White were looking after some business matters in the county seat Wednesday afternoon. I. T. Royer was a county seat visitor last Saturday.

For Sale.
Good heating stove, $10.00, and Majestic Steel Range at $40.00. Both almost new. Can be seen at the telephone central office.
Mrs. Vina Dooley.

Big Wheat Crop.
The big wheat crop in and around Murray is rapidly being taken care of, and already the Farmers' Elevator Co. have contracted for nearly 50,000 bushels, about 47,000 of which has already been delivered. Figuring the other Murray elevator receiving as much, the crop here will run considerably over 100,000 bushels that will be marketed within the next few weeks.

WILLIAM WETTENKAMP SPORTS A NEW INTERSTATE MACHINE

From Wednesday's Daily.
A fine new 40 horse power Interstate automobile has just been sold by Messrs. Warga & Cecil and Major Hall to William Wetenkamp, one of the energetic young farmers of the county, and the machine is one that Mr. Wetenkamp may feel very proud of, as it is one of the latest improved "40" style turned out by the Interstate company, and is electric lighted, making a great improvement over the old model machines. The car was brought down from Omaha Monday evening and the trip was made in excellent time, attesting the ability of the Interstate machine to keep up its reputation as a traveler.

A Want Ad in the Journal will bring what you want.

Prepare for Your Spring Work Now!

YOUR plows need sharpening, and other machinery may need repairing. Line them up now and bring them in, and let me put them in good condition for you by the time the Spring rush arrives. You will be busy then and so will I.

COME IN NOW!
Walter Green,
Blacksmithing and Horseshoeing
Murray, Nebraska

Alvo Notes

Bert Kitzel has an auto to drive nowadays.
Ed Parsell of Lincoln was in town Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stone autoed to Lincoln Monday.
A. D. Dick of Lincoln visited friends in town Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Coon was at Murdock Saturday of last week.
Orion Baldwin returned from Lincoln Sunday on No. 14.
Fred Prouty returned from University Place Tuesday.
Fay Parsell of Lincoln visited friends in town Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Bucknell visited in Lincoln a few days last week.
Mrs. Strong is visiting her mother at Crab Orchard, Neb.
Mrs. Orville Quellhorst and son were Lincoln visitors Tuesday.
Dr. Muir and F. H. Caudy were in Lincoln on business Tuesday.

Miss Laura Jewell of Lincoln visited Sunday with her friend, Mrs. A. I. Bird and family.
Mrs. John Murty went to Clay Center, Neb., to visit her folks this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barrett attended a ball game at Greenwood Sunday.

Ray Lynch of Omaha was in town on business Wednesday morning.
Mr. Clyde of Iowa City is in town this week visiting Miss Pearl Keefer.
Mr. and Mrs. George Leibhart returned from a visit in Lincoln Sunday on No. 14.
George Curyea and brother, Morgan Curyea, were in Lincoln on business Tuesday.

L. B. Appleman and J. H. Foreman autoed to Lincoln in the former's car Tuesday.
Mrs. Minnie Craft returned to Lincoln Monday, after visiting her sisters here for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. William Casey went to Lincoln Sunday to visit relatives until Monday evening.

William Uptergrove returned Friday from a several days' business trip to Ashland and Louisville.
Rev. Alfred V. Hunter and Miss Flay Binson of University Place were married at that place July 22, 1913.
Henry Towle got his limb hurt with a pitchfork last week, and being unable to work, returned to his home at Wabash.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Manners and children of Havelock visited Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Manners' mother, Mrs. Nerva Knott.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cashner of University Place spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cashner, of this place.
Born—July 21, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Curtice Hartzell Ogle, of Beaver Crossing, a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Ogle formerly resided here.

Miss Grayce Foreman returned from Lincoln Tuesday, accompanied by Miss Anna Thurason and brother, Fuller, who will visit a few days with them.
G. P. Foreman, sr., shipped three carloads of fat cattle to the South Omaha market Tuesday. This was the best bunch of cattle out of this place in 1913.
William Sutton autoed to Lincoln Wednesday evening, taking with him Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barrett and Mrs. F. M. Grove to attend Buffalo Bill's show.

Mrs. Mary Vickers had the misfortune to get her arm broken above the elbow Sunday evening. The horse she was driving turned too short, upsetting the buggy.
Alvo Drug Co. has a complete line of "Hess" and "Clark's" Poultry Remedies. They also handle Standard Stock Food and Dips. These goods are all fresh.
Miss Violet Ough and cousin, Miss Eula Weaver, came up from South Bend Wednesday evening to spend a few days with Mrs. J. A. Shaffer. They visited in Lincoln a couple of days, returning to South Bend Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Caudy and children returned Saturday from New Bedford, Ill., where they have been visiting Mrs. Caudy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen. They will move from this place the first of August to make their home in Minnesota.

MURDOCK.
Mrs. Albert Wetenkamp visited in Omaha for a few days last week.
Gillespie shipped a nice bunch of fat hogs to the South Omaha market Tuesday.
C. L. Jean has charge of Gillespie's elevator while Gillespie transacts business in Omaha.

Why is Teddy Roosevelt like Mynard? Because you have not heard much about him lately.
Mynard is on the map, and since threshing has been in season our

To admire, to love, to regret, is to live, said a great writer. Do not let the regret be brought on by a cough or cold, which if treated when it first appeared would have easily been controlled. Allen's Cough Balsam brings welcomed relief in such cases. Contains no harmful ingredients. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 bottles at all dealers.

elevators are doing a lively business.

The dry weather has somewhat shortened the crop of blackberries. However, plums are making a good showing.

Scarcity of cars are compelling farmers to hold their corn, as all elevator bins are full of wheat—no room for corn.

Wm. Wetenkamp has just purchased one of those high powered Interstate automobiles, and a fine-looking car it is.

Mrs. Frank Batman was called to Glenwood on account of the sickness of Mrs. Batman's mother, who is in very poor health.

The funeral of Mrs. Bengier was largely attended from the family residence, southwest of town. The condition of the roads were very bad on account of so much dust.

Mrs. William Wetenkamp has gone to Idaho to spend the summer with her brother, Lewis Barker, a former resident of this place, but for a number of years has made his home in Idaho.

Charles Lovell in some manner had a fall from a hay rack, sustaining injuries confining him to his bed for a number of days. We are pleased to note that he is improving and hope he will be his former self in a few days.

Ed Slocum lost a valuable horse from heat during the extremely hot weather of last week.

The second cutting of alfalfa is being harvested, and weather conditions are favorable for curing, so that No. 4 hay may be expected from it.

The ladies of Mynard are planning for a time Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guy Kiser, where a miscellaneous shower will be given in honor of the coming marriage of Miss Menota Perry, sister of Mrs. Kiser.

Edgar Barker has sold his interest in the farm and moved to Oklahoma. We are sorry to lose Mr. Barker from among us. He has always conducted himself in a manner that has won the esteem and friendship of all with whom he dealt, and we can recommend him to the citizens of Oklahoma as one that they may be pleased to meet. Our loss is their gain.

Farmers that are threshing this week are: Wm. Ficht, with Rummell's Fight machine; Oscar Gappen, company machine "16 to 1;" Myron Wiles, Propst machine; Earl Cole, Cole's machine; Luke Wiles, Burby & Propst machine; A. S. Wills, Snyder machine; Verner Perry, Cottonwood Threshing Co. machine; Philip Hertz, Hertz machine. And all the farmers are anxious to have their threshing done.

MURDOCK.

Etta Sorick was home over Sunday.
Ida Wieshiet was in Elmwood Saturday.

Milt Moore was seen on our streets Thursday.
Jessie Skiles is visiting her sister, near Syracuse, this week.

Mable Rush was visiting her sister, Verna, at Lincoln Thursday.

Vera Eisenhut was visiting at the Wieshiet home Saturday and Sunday.

A number of men went fishing Saturday to their shack, Burry on the Marsh.

Mrs. Grayce Ryner of Lincoln was visiting with friends Saturday and Sunday.

Quite a number of young folks were entertained at the Gustin home Sunday for dinner.

The Basack sisters, Opal and Wanda, were visiting friends and relatives Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elie Stinson and daughter, Ruth, of Havelock, were visiting W. O. Gillespie and family Sunday.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Hathaway