HARRY SPECK FALLS TWENTY FEET DISLOCATING SHOULDER

Harry Speck, a lad of some 12 years, met with quite a painful accident Saturday afternoon while out on a "hike" with the Boy Scouts, and as a result is nursing a dislocated shoulder. The party were on the Egenberger farm, south of this city, and the boys were engaged in swinging on a large grapevine that was growing over a large tree standing on the edge of a bank some twenty feet high. The vine had been tested by a number of the party and was supposed to be in good shape and solid, but as Harry swung out over the bank the vine gave way, with the result that he fell some twenty feet to the ground, dislocating his left shoulder and breaking one of the bones in it. The rest of the boys improvised a litter to carry him, but it was not large enough to hold him and he was carried back to town by Mr. McLafferty, who had charge of the party, and the injured member was dressed by a surgeon and Harry was made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

10,000 VOICES

And Many of Them Are the Voices of Plattsmouth People.

Thirty thousand voices—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Plattsmouth people are in this chorus. Here's a Plattsmouth case.

Mrs. Adam Kurtz, one mile west of Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills good for any trouble with the kidneys and back. I was suffering at the time I got them and I could not stoop or stand erect. There was a dull, nagging pain through my back that robbed me of energy. My sight became affected and dark spots appeared before me. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Gering & Co.'s Drug Store and in a short time they relieved all my troubles. Since then I have recommended this remedy to a number of friends."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
