Jess Godwin has been suffering from a very sore hand for the past few days. Some time ago he believed that it would prove nothing serious, paid no attention to it, until a few days ago, when a catarrhal infection developed, since which time he has suffered a great deal.

Arthur, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Amick, cut his foot quite severely with a sickle a few days ago, and while the injury will not prove serious in any way, the lad has suffered with it a great deal. Sunday morning he slipped away from home, saddling his pony, he came to the doctor to have it dressed, and his parents were somewhat worried before they located him.

David Murray, residing five and one-quarter miles southeast of Murray, is another one of our excellent young farmers that come to the front with a bumper wheat crop. He had in thirty-nine acres that made an average of forty bushels to the acre, which makes a much better showing than anything in that neighborhood. This is the second 40-bushel field that we have learned of in eastern Cass county.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER IN HONOR OF BRIDE-ELECT

Scene of the Shower at Home of
Mrs. Guy Kiser, in Honor of Miss Manola Perry.

The pretty country home of Mrs. Guy Kiser was the scene of a large gathering of ladies Thursday afternoon, there being some seventy present, the occasion being in the nature of a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Manola Perry, whose marriage to Mr. Albert Lang of Douglas, Wyoming, occurred this week.

During the afternoon paper and pencils were passed and each guest was requested to write some bit of advice for the bride-to-be. The slips were collected, sealed and given to Miss Perry, with the instructions that she should not open them until she had arrived at her new home. The guests also enjoyed several very pleasing musical numbers, Mrs. Charles Barnard, Misses Elsie Gopen and Oglia Minford furnishing piano numbers and Misses Pheme Richardson and Edyth Perry vocal selections, which were greatly enjoyed by the company. Another feature that was highly entertaining was the mock wedding, and as the wedding march, played by Miss Oglia Minford, was started, the bridal party came down the stairs into the parlors. The "minister," Miss Mildred Snyder, came first, and was followed by the "groom," Miss Pheme Richardson, and the "best man," Miss Mae Barker, came next and awaited with the minister the coming of the bride, Emma Richardson, the ring-bearer, preceded the bride, Miss Manola Perry, and her maid-of-honor, Miss Fannie Will, who were dressed in white. A veil adorned the head of the bride; Edith Perry came last carrying the bride's train. The minister gave a mirth-provoking address devoid of the solemnity of the traditional ring ceremony.

Later the bride-to-be was invited to unwrap her gifts, which she found to be both useful and beautiful, and each gift was an evidence of the esteem in which her friends held her and of the regret that she should leave their midst. Before the departing of the guests' dainty refreshments were served. Those present at the shower were: Mesdames Peter Perry, Charles Mutz, Ida Cole, C. H. Vallery, G. H. Gilmore, Earl Cole, John Meisinger, B. W. Livingston, G. M. Minford, Carl Cole, C. D. Spangler, R. L. Probst, O. A. Davis, Will Carey, Grover Will, Louie Meisinger, Watson Long, S. A. Barker, Philip Horn, Charles Barnard, Glenn Perry, William Sporer, Ben Land, Adam Kraeger, J. E. Wiles, C. L. Wiles, George A. Meisinger, Sherman Cole, W. T. Richardson, John Vallery, Guy Kiser, Misses Pearl Benton, Fannie Will, Pheme Richardson, Opal Cole, Villa Gopen, Elizabeth Spangler, Virginia Will, Pauline Rose, Lois

Earline Cole, Edyth Perry, Muriel Benton, Ellen Nora Meisinger, Emma Richardson, Mae Barker, Mildred Snyder, Nettie Kiser, Marie Horn, Elsie Gopen, Florence Richardson, Oglia Minford, Beulah Parker, Jennie Livingston, Florence Rummell, Zelta Rose, Robin Richardson, Roberta Probst, Glenna Barker, Anna Snyder, Miss Land, Mary Ellen Vallery, Helen and Manota Perry, Masters Nobel Kiser, Charles Sporer, Bernard Meisinger and Hillard Land.

Murray on the Map.

Miss Pauline Oldham has received an invitation to speak on "How to Make a Small Town Library Worth While," from the Biennial State Federation of Woman's Clubs, that meet at York October 7, 8 and 9. The letter reads that "We hear that you have a remarkable institution in your little town in the way of a public library, and that this has given you a state-wide reputation among organizations that is making our state. You have the distinction of being the smallest town in Nebraska that has a library. It certainly means that you have a class of people worth while in your community."

Musical at Minford's.

The workers on the musical Saturday evening were badly disappointed when the clouds appeared and only frightened people out of coming. Had it rained all would have been well, but it was remarkable how well the people attend, especially the people who live out of Murray. Over $12 was realized and it was easy to see that the crowd would have been very large had it been a pleasant evening. A good many on the program were unable to get there, Misses Pheme Richardson, Valentine Minford and Harriet Adams gave the vocal selections and were very finished singers. Oglia Minford, Robert Reed and little Grace Long the instrumental, Oglia Minford and Mr. Reed graduated at Weeping Water this spring. Grace Long has only studied one year and her ability was much complimented. Clara Young read "Courtship Under Difficulties," and she was at her best and received a hearty encore. The lawn was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns, and the porch was decorated with vines and flowers, and the piano was on the porch. Had the evening been good this would have been one of the most successful events given for some time.

For Sale.

Making Good Finds.

The Harvard researching party that have been down near old King Hill for the past few weeks have been making some very valuable and interesting finds. The party is composed of Prof. Stearns, Harold Hecht and Clarence Stearns, assisted by Dr. G. H. Gilmore, who has been working on the discovery which was made by him several months ago. During the past few days they have found several buildings that have no doubt been covered with earth that has fallen from the hills several years ago. The buildings have been erected from logs and it is the opinion of the party that they were inhabited by white people. One of the buildings is the crematory, for they have located a mass of human bones. They have found bushels of pottery of various kinds, and arrow heads. Some are of the opinion that an old fort was located at this point possibly four hundred years ago. In this early day these buildings were erected in a circular shape and are about 26 feet square across, tapering, and at the top an opening for ventilation and smoke from the fires. The party will remain in that vicinity for several weeks yet.

Breaks Arm.

Earl, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Troop, fell from an apple tree Tuesday evening and broke his right arm in two places. Basil Rice, who met with a similar accident a few days ago, was out playing with Arthur. Arthur was in the tree and he called down to Basil, telling him to look out, he was going to fall down and break his arm like he (Basil) had done a few days before. No sooner was the remark made than the lad lost his balance and fell, with the above results. He is getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Gilmore.

FOREST ROSE—The best flour on the market. Give it a trial.

The Best Flour on the Market

John Farris, who has been suffering with his injured hand for the past few weeks, is improving quite rapidly and is able to assist in delivering the big wheat crop.

Wm. LaRue has resigned his position as section foreman for the M. P. at this station. He has not fully made up his mind just what he will do in the future, but thinks of taking up his old line of work, that of farming.

Dr. J. F. Brendel went over to Avoca Wednesday morning, where he will look after his brother, Dr. J. W. Brendel's practice for a few days. Dr. J. W. will make a trip to South Dakota, where he has some land interests to look after.

William Split was a county seat visitor Monday of this week, and while there called at the Journal office to renew his subscription for another year. He tells us that he has just finished threshing his wheat crop, and it will run 37 bushels to the acre. A good yield, thank you!

John Doughty, from near Nehawka, was in Murray Wednesday to see Dr. Brendel in regard to his stomach trouble, from which he has been suffering for the past few months. He is improving some under the doctor's care, but is a long way from feeling as good as new.

Our excellent young friend, "Billie" Troop, over west of Murray, seems to hold the record for a big wheat yield this summer. He cut a forty-acre field that made an average of 40 bushels to the acre. We have heard of none quite so good. The grain was grown on the Charley Troop place.

Charley Troop was down from Plattsmouth this week assisting his son, Will, in the harvest. He returned home Wednesday evening and was accompanied by Tom Smith and Ed Kruger. Passing through Murray the Journal man was picked up and favored with an auto ride to the county seat.

We are informed upon good authority that our excellent friend, M. C. (Clenn) Whitehead and family, will soon return to Cass county. They have been living in southern Missouri for the past few years, just recently selling their interests there, and will return to Nebraska. We hope they will decide to make Cass county their future home.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.

Colonel Frank Young of Broken Bow, of the Masonic Home board, is in the city today looking after matters at the Home.

A Want Ad in the Journal will bring what you want.

The beauty and virtue of women are superior to the virtue and beauty of men, but no one can be beautiful when in the throes of a deep-seated hacking cough or cold. Nothing will bring greater relief than Allen's Cough Balsam. Sold for over half a century. Endorsed by those who use it. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 bottles.
