REQUEST OF MAYOR SATTLER TO THE BUSINESS MEN OF THE CITY

As tomorrow will see the commencing of the tournament of the western division of the T. J. Sokol society and our city will be visited by several hundred visitors, it is desired that the city present as hospitable a front as possible, and it is earnestly requested that the different business houses of the city be decorated in a manner that will convey to the visitors the appreciation of our people of the honor conferred upon them by the selecting of this city for holding the tournament.

John P. Sattler, Mayor.

Where Is Your Stomach?

A celebrated physician said, that after a meal, we should not know where our stomach is, that is, that we should not feel the slightest pain or indigestion. A perfectly healthy man should not feel where his heart is, or his kidney or liver. As soon as the stomach will let you know where it is, by pain, nausea, vomiting or any discomfort, you should rely on Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It will strengthen the stomach, regulate the digestion, relieve constipation, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is a good household remedy which is a great help in sudden indigestion, nervous shock, vomiting, cramps, loss of appetite, constipation. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. Pain in the muscles, sprains, swellings, will be quickly relieved by Triner's Liniment.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hadraba and daughter, Helen, and Albert Scuttler returned from their eastern trip, covering some three weeks. Mr. Hadraba and Mr. Scuttler were at Baltimore in attendance at the grand convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Mr. Hadraba being the delegate from the area in this city, and they return feeling very enthusiastic over the meeting and stronger than ever for the splendid order. Mrs. Hadraba and daughter spent the time during their absence at Cleveland, Ohio, where they visited with relatives and were joined in that city by Mr. Hadraba and Albert Scuttler on their return from the convention.

TOURNAMENT OF THE T. J. SOKOL SOCIETIES

Those Who Comprise the Contestants Will Come From Cities and Towns of Nebraska.

Tomorrow will see the starting of the tournament of the western division of the T. J. Sokol society, and the visitors and participants in the athletic events will begin to arrive this evening on No. 2 over the Burlington. The delegations will be met at the Burlington station by the members of the local society and the Burlington band and will be escorted to the hall on West Pearl street, where the tournament will be formally opened by an address of welcome to the visitors.

The advent of these visitors to the city should be given notice by the different business houses by decorating with flags in honor of the visiting delegations who will be here from all parts of the state. There is nothing that impresses a stranger on an occasion of this kind as much as that of a fine display of decorations, and all the business houses should make it a point to see that they have out some decoration in honor of the strangers, who for three days are to be our guests.

Saturday will see the real starting of the tournament, as the different turner teams will contest in the exercises at the Sokol park all day and in the evening a social dance will be given at the hall for the visitors. Sunday the largest crowd of the tournament will be present, as there will be a large delegation from Omaha here, headed by Mayor James C. Dahlman of that city, who is to address the assembly at the hall in the afternoon. The Burlington band will also be heard in concert at the Sokol park during the afternoon, making a very pleasing feature of the day, and the dramatic production by the Omaha Dramatic company, under the direction of Joseph Mik, will bring to a close the tournament, which is expected to be one of the most successful the society has held as yet.

Let us show the proper spirit in the matter and decorate up the business houses along Main street in the proper manner, so as to impress the visitors to the city with our appreciation of their having chosen this city as their meeting place and give them a hearty invitation to return here in the future with their gathering.

Buys a New Hart-Parr Engine.

R. L. Propst, the pioneer thresherman of Cass county, has purchased a 45 horse power oil tractor to pull one of his threshing machines. In connection with the threshing he will do his plowing with a 10-gauge automatic lift plow. This certainly will do the plowing in a hurry, and no danger of overheating the horses.

WILL ERECT NEW POOR HOUSE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

The county commissioners at their session this week decided to issue a call for bids for the erection of a new building at the county farm to replace the one recently destroyed by fire, and the action of the commissioners is such that it will meet with the approval of every citizen in deciding to go ahead and have the building put up and save the county the unnecessary expense of a special election. The plans for the new building have been prepared by the firm of Fisher & Lawrie of Omaha and the building will be erected on modern lines and in a style similar to the old building, as the commissioners and architect found that most of the old foundation of the building could be used in the reconstruction of the structure and would save quite a little money to the taxpayers, and accordingly it was decided to build the new building along similar lines to that of the one that was burned. The work will be pushed as soon as the contract is let in order to have a place fixed up before winter if possible to house the old people who are staying there, as they get along much better there than if they were brought to town for the winter, as the quiet of the farm is much more beneficial to them than it would be in town.

MRS. CARRIE EKBOH AN AGED LADY PASSES AWAY

This morning at 4:30 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Berggren, in this city, Mrs. Carrie Ekboh, an aged lady, who has resided here for some years, passed away, after a long illness, due to old age and a general breakdown. Mrs. Ekboh was born in Sweden some eighty-six years ago and came to this country with her husband in 1882 and for twelve years was a resident of Omaha. The family came to Plattsmouth in 1864 and has resided here since that time. The husband and father passed away here in 1899 and the body of his helpmate will be laid to rest beside him in Oak Hill cemetery here tomorrow. The funeral will be held from the Berggren home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, being conducted by Rev. W. L. Austin of the Methodist church. The deceased lady leaves only one child, her daughter, Mrs. Berggren, to mourn her loss. The passing of this worthy lady will be the occasion of much regret among the many friends who have known her during her residence here.

COMMISSIONERS MAKE THEIR ANNUAL LEVY FOR TAXES FOR 1913

The board of county commissioners, at their session this week, made their annual levy for the taxes for the ensuing year on an assessed valuation of $8,430,797. The levy is as follows: County general fund, five and two-tenths mills; bridge fund, four mills; road fund, three mills; state, seven and three-tenths mills; jail, one and five-tenths. The increase in the state levy has been quite large, the state board having raised the levy for this year to the limit set by law. The county commissioners also decided to divide the road levy into two funds, that of general road work, which will receive two and a half mills, and that of the road dragging, which will receive one-half mill. This is the first time a road dragging fund has been available and it will greatly aid in the work of keeping the county roads in good shape.

F. J. Hennings, wife and daughter came in this morning from their home near Cedar Creek to attend to some trading.
