CASS COUNTY TEACHERS TO BE HERE MONDAY

Preparations Made to Entertain the Visitors Most Royally During the Week.

Next week will see this city invaded by the fair army of school teachers, who will assemble here from all over the county to attend the regular county institute, as under the law all teachers holding a county certificate are required to attend the institute, as well as those holding state elementary certificates. Attendance at other summer schools will not let out the teachers from attending the county institute, as the special work can be looked after better here than at the summer schools.

The county superintendent will be expected to provide places for the teachers to board during the time they are in the city and every possible aid should be given her to have suitable rooms for the visitors ready, and anyone who can accommodate one or two of the teachers at their homes should notify Miss Foster as soon as possible in order that the proper arrangements can be made for their care.

The entertainment program, as outlined for the week, consists of the following: Monday at 8:30 p. m., reception to teachers and their friends by Plattsmouth Commercial club at the High school building.

Tuesday evening at 8:30, moving pictures at the Gem theater by courtesy of the Commercial club.

Wednesday an evening of music will be given at the High school building, at which the leading talent of the city will give numbers for the entertainment of the visiting teachers, and this event will be followed on Thursday evening by the concert given by the Burlington band.

Let everyone join in making the institute a splendid success this year, as the one last year was without doubt one of the most pleasant and profitable that had ever been given in the county.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS CONCERT LAST NIGHT

The usual large crowd visited the High school grounds last evening to enjoy the weekly concert given by the Burlington band, and all seemed greatly pleased with the delightful program given. The program had been very carefully chosen and consisted of some of the highest class of standard music and there was no one present who did not feel well paid for attending the concert. The selection of the Toreador's song from "Carmen" was one of the most pleasing on the program for the evening and was received with much pleasure by the large crowd, but the music that aroused the greatest enthusiasm among the listeners was that of "The American Patrol," a medley of our national airs, and the band was compelled to play the number the second time, so great was the applause. The overture, "Past and Present," was given in a very pleasing manner, as was also the number, "Under the Rose," a very catchy waltz selection. These weekly concerts have been so popular that they are looked forward to with great pleasure by the general public and no more pleasing form of amusement could have been devised for the summer evenings, and given as they are in different sections of the city they afford everyone an opportunity to attend and enjoy them.

Representing Pratt Food Co. H. Howard German of Lincoln, Neb., representing the Pratt Food Co. of Chicago, was in the city a few hours yesterday in the interests of that company. Mr. German is one of those jovial, whole-souled fellows, always well met, and as he represents one of the best stock food companies in the world, he has no trouble in doing business wherever he goes. The firm of J. V. Egenberger handle the Pratt foods and have placed in a good supply for the present season.

R. M. Shlaes was a passenger this morning on the early Burlington train for Omaha, where he will look after some matters of business for the day.

WORK ON THE MERCERVILLE SCHOOL HOUSE COMPLETED

The work on the Mercerville school has been completed, and the building placed in proper shape for the opening of school in September. During the last few years this building has been allowed to run down considerably until it became unsafe for the pupils to attend and for some time it was contemplated to have the building abandoned and sold to the city for a house for the sexton of the cemetery, but as there are quite a number of families living in that locality it was decided to fix it up. A new foundation was placed under the building and the floor replaced, as well as numerous small repairs, and now the building is in good shape. The carpenter work on the building was done by J. E. Mason and C. A. Welsh, who are experts in their line, and a good job was turned over to the city as the result of their labors.

BROUGHT UP AND MADE TO PAY FOR AN OLD OFFENCE

This morning Robert Black was brought into the presence of Judge Archer, charged with being in a state of intoxication on last Saturday. The defendant had promised to appear Monday for trial, but failed to show up, and the police instituted a search, but without success until yesterday, when he was discovered by some parties peacefully sleeping beneath the shade of a large tree on South Fifth street. It was thought by the parties finding him that he was dead, but upon investigation he was found very much alive and was forced to appear in the court to face his charge. The judge, after taking in the testimony, decided that a fine of $2 and costs, amounting to $5, would about fit his case, and it was "hung" on him by the court and he was allowed his liberty for a short time to procure the amount.

CROP CONDITIONS IN THE WESTERN PART OF THE STATE

R. L. Propst has just returned from an extensive trip through the western part of the state along the Burlington south of the Platte river, and finds the crop conditions there very bad as far as corn is concerned. From here west to Red Cloud, where he visited, he found that the corn had gotten up from two to four feet, but had been blasted by the hot winds and dry weather until there was nothing left of it. These conditions also prevailed near Hastings and Holdrege, where he was for a short time, and along the railroads where there were no fire guards the railroad company had men stationed to prevent the hay fields and pastures from catching fire, so dry was the general condition of things. Mr. Propst reports that most of the threshing in that locality had been finished, with the wheat running from 25 to 40 bushels per acre and of excellent quality, which will aid largely in offsetting the loss caused by the shortage in corn this year. From general reports all over the state and from personal observation of parties who have visited the different sections, Cass county seems to be among the best counties in the state as far as condition of crops; their corn seems to be less badly burned than in other sections, while the wheat yield is enormous.

ANOTHER CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION CALLED

Another civil service examination for substitute clerk in the postoffice in this city will be held here on Saturday, September 13. All applications should be filed before September 9. This position pays 39 cents an hour when on duty. At the previous examination there were three girls and one man who took the examination, and the department would like to have three on the list for service when necessary. The position of substitute clerk is at present held by Mrs. Mimmie Pickard. All information in regard to the examination can be secured from Frank A. Clodd at the local postoffice.

CHARLEY COOK AND FAMILY RETURN FROM SOUTHWEST NEBRASKA

Chas. Cook and son, Frank and wife, who have been out in the western part of the state for the past few days, returned home this morning. Mr. Cook has some land near Imperial that needed a little vacation, and the trip was made for combined business and pleasure. While in that locality they visited one day and took dinner with our old Cass county citizen, Mr. Herman Detmann, a former merchant of Elmwood. Mr. Cook says that Mr. Detmann has sure struck it lucky in Chase county this year. He has 170 acres in corn this year that will average 35 bushels to the acre; also 14 acres in Blue Squaw corn that is good. Mr. Cook left a sample of this corn in the Journal office window, and if you do not think it is good take a look at it. Charley was not so jubilant over the crop conditions as he was over the dinner he was treated to at the Detmann home. He even made us very hungry telling about it.

VERY NEAT SHOW WINDOW AT THE E. A. WURL STORE

One of the neatest show windows displayed for some time by any of the merchants is that of E. A. Wurl, who has placed in his Main street windows a fine showing of the latest things in curtain goods, and the artistic blending of the colors and the arrangements of the goods make one long to go in and lay in their curtain material for the fall season. Mr. Wurl has made a study of the art of window dressing and has produced some very fine effects in different lines, but none more handsome than that which they have at the present.

Runs Splinter Into Foot.

Yesterday while playing around home little Helen Wescott had the misfortune to step on a piece of board, and as a result ran a large splinter into the heel of her foot, which became quite painful and it was necessary to call a physician to remove the troublesome piece of wood, which he did, and the little lady was made as comfortable as possible and is not seriously affected by the accident.

Goes to See Montana.

A party of gentlemen departed from this city Tuesday for the famous Judith Basin of Montana, consisting of George Snyder, C. H. Vallery, Henry Kaufman and Grant Hawkenbery. The party will be looked after by W. E. Rosencrans, and it is needless to say they will have "some time." While in Montana Mr. Vallery will visit his daughter, Mrs. W. K. Shepherdson and family.

Funeral of O. P. Monroe Today.

The funeral of the late O. P. Monroe was held this afternoon from their late home on lower Main street and was attended by a large number of friends of the deceased as well as the members of the Eagles' lodge of which Mr. Monroe had been a member during his lifetime. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. L. Austin of the First Methodist church who spoke briefly of the life of the departed as well as comforting words to the sorrowing wife and friends. The floral tributes were numerous and attested the high esteem in which the departed had been held throughout the community where he has resided for the past thirty years.

WATER COMPANY TO EXTEND MAINS SOUTH ON EIGHTH STREET

The water company expects in a few days to be able to start work on the extension of the water mains some 500 feet on South Eighth street for the purpose of placing a fire hydrant in the vicinity of the Columbian school. For years this building has been without the proper fire protection and the new extension of the water service will be a great benefit, not only to the school building, but all those residing in that locality, as it affords them a much-needed safeguard against being wiped out by fire. During the past year the city has had the fire limits extended in the south part of town and that section is now well equipped with protection from fire.

Here From California.

Last evening Earnest E. Wurl and wife of Long Beach, California, arrived in this city on No. 2 to make a visit here with Mr. Wurl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Wurl, and other relatives. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wurl are looking fine and are enthusiastic boomers for California, believing that there is no country like that, but they are enjoying greatly their visit at the old home, where they both resided for so many years. They expect to visit here and with their relatives in this section until about the first of October.

Mrs. Frank Steppat was in the metropolis today for a few hours, being a passenger for that city this morning.

WILL MAUPIN'S MIDWEST MAGAZINE FOR AUGUST A GOOD ONE

The August number of the Midwest, published at Lincoln by Will M. Maupin, is replete with good things—and as usual boasts for Nebraska. A Nebraska farmer pays his respects to the "Modern Absaloms," and the editor shows wherein the new insurance code works an injustice to home institutions. Ada Caroline Wortman's "Opinions of Cousin Caroline" make spicy reading for those who keep abreast of the times, and Nat M. Ayers contributes another interesting historical sketch in which he tells of a famous hold-up on the Union Pacific in the early days. A brief history of the Nebraska state fair is given, and in this connection Will Maupin contributes his report of another "Memory Excursion" wherein he takes you on a visit with him to the little old county fair of your childhood days. Why not a semi-centennial exposition celebrating Nebraska's half century as a state? Midwest tells you about it in the August number. There are a lot of spicy anecdotes, personal and otherwise, and you will be interested in the department of "Snap Shots at Men in the Public Eye." They are all Nebraskans that you will like to read about.

Midwest's every issue is a liberal education in the greatness of Nebraska, and every Nebraskan interested in his state's development ought to be a regular subscriber. The magazine deserves a place in every Nebraska home, and should be in every Nebraska public school. If your news-dealer does not handle it, send direct to Midwest Magazine, 436 Bankers Life Building, Lincoln, Neb. Subscription $1.50 per year.

People of Plattsmouth Honest.

That the citizens of Plattsmouth are very honest is evidenced by the fact that night before last one of the merchants here left a large number of books and magazines lying on the outside of his place of business during the night and in the morning they were all there and not one had been disturbed. There are few places where this could be done without the owner of the store suffering the loss of several, if not all of his magazines, and it speaks well for our people and their honesty.
