SUDDEN DEATH OF EAGLE LADY ON ROAD HOME FROM LINCOLN

Wm. Bahr and family were returning home from the circus at Lincoln Monday evening about 6 o'clock, and when they passed the home of Chas. Burnes, just out of Lincoln, Mrs. Bahr became suddenly faint and asked Mr. Bahr to stop the car and get her some hot water. As she kept growing worse they brought out a cot and laid her on it and in just a very few minutes she was dead. Her body was brought home Wednesday morning and funeral services were held from the M. E. church at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. McDonald. Interment was made in the Eagle cemetery.—Eagle Beacon.

CHAS. S. SHERMAN GOES TO MONTANA TO ENTER NEWSPAPER BUSINESS

Charles S. Sherman, for the past sixteen years a member of the Journal and News staff and well known as a sports writer, left Lincoln last night for Red Lodge, Mont., where he has an interest in a weekly newspaper of which he will become the editor. A banquet at the Elks' club was tendered him last evening by newspaper men of Lincoln and others of his most intimate friends. Dr. A. L. Bixby presided as toastmaster, and after telling Mr. Sherman about his disposition and praising him as a newspaper man and sports writer, each speaker expressed regret at his departure and wished him well in his new field. Mr. Sherman will return to Lincoln during the winter, at which time Mrs. Sherman will accompany him to their new home.—Lincoln Journal.

SOMETHING DOING IN JUSTICE ARCHER'S COURT THIS MORNING

In the court of Justice M. Archer today the forcible detainer case of J. P. Falter against Mrs. S. Worden, alias S. Williams, was up for hearing and the court ordered a judgment issued against the defendant. The case grew out of the renting of a house of the plaintiff's by the defendant and later when the owner of the house was notified of the usages that the property was being put to he notified the woman that she could not occupy it after her month's rent was up, and at once took steps to have her removed, as the neighbors had been complaining of the fact that there were too many visitors at the place and several of the callers had made the mistake of calling at the different houses in the neighborhood. The woman will be put out of the house at once. Judge Archer also had Jesse York before him this morning on a charge of fighting, and on the plea of guilty by the defendant the court assessed a fine of $2 and costs, amounting to $5, upon him, which he arranged to settle to the satisfaction of the court, and was allowed his liberty. Beautiful Shetland Ponies for sale at all times, for the next 100 years, unless I die in the meantime. I have now an extra fine stallion, the best in the state, for sale. Well broke for both harness and saddle. Wm. Gilmour, Plattsouth, Neb. R. F. D. No. 1. The Mistake Not the Journal's. In the church notices of the Christian church, which appeared in this paper Saturday evening, the statement appeared that it would be Rev. D. L. Dunkleberger's last Sunday in this city. This was evidently an error on the part of the person getting up the church notices and was made without any idea of reflecting in any manner of our friend, Rev. Dunkleberger. All the church notices published in the Journal are prepared by either the ministers of the different churches or some member of their congregations and the editors or publishers of the paper have nothing to do with them in the way of writing. We trust this will be satisfactory to the gentleman, who mentioned the mistake in the pulp magazine. Good Surrey for Sale Cheap. A light two-seated surry, nearly new, will sell. Call on me at Mynard. THE ESTATE OF NICHOLAS HALMES STILL IN DISPUTE

From Wednesday's Daily. The transcript of pleadings and judgment made upon the claim of Joseph Halmes against the estate of his father Nicholas Halmes has just been filed in the office of the district clerk. In the original claim the sum of $16,800 was asked, but in the amended petition it was changed to $16,300. The claimant alleges that during the month of February, 1903, several times a verbal agreement was made between the claimant and his father that if he would improve and cultivate the quarry section of land, near Greenwood, the father would deed or leave the same to him in his will. Later in July, 1912, the land was sold by Mr. Halmes, sr., for the sum of $20,000, and the agreement was made, so it is alleged, between the father and son that Joe was to receive the sum of $16,800, and later a codicil was made to the will which cut him off with a much less sum. The answer of the state to the claim was that the claimant was left the sum of $6,000 by the codicil, together with $1,000 which the father as security had paid for Joseph and that the claimant had been present at sale of the land and offered no protest to the sale and the matter was not in any manner opposed by the said claimant at the time and that the present action had no ground. The county court denied the claim for $16,300 but allowed Joseph the sum of $6,000 for improvements he had made on the farm. The matter will be brought up at the next term of the district court.

GETS 1,350 BUSHELS OF OATS ON 25 ACRES

From Wednesday's Daily. The fine small grain crop that was harvested in this county this year makes the farmers feel mighty good and the report of the crop on the farm of our old friend, Mr. J. M. Meisinger, looks mighty good. On a tract of some twenty-five acres of oats the yield was 1,350 bushels, which is certainly a dandy showing and will go a long way to make up the shortage in the corn crop. The wheat on the farm of Mr. Meisinger made an average of 28 bushels to the acre, which is also a very flattering average. These figures are about the average returns for this section of the county and should make the Cass county farmers smile when they realize how well they have been treated in the way of crops.

Takes Sam Back to Ft. Collins.

From Wednesday's Daily. This morning Sheriff Cook, of Larimer county, Colorado, departed for his home at Fort Collins, Colorado, taking with him Sam Billings, who is wanted at that place on a charge of grand larceny. It seems that Sam had gotten into trouble before in Fort Collins, and was out of jail on parole when he became implicated in the taking of some hides from the home of a rancher, near that place. The sheriff also stated that the younger brother of Sam, named "Chub," was in jail there, having been implicated with his brother in the trouble that resulted in their getting into the hands of the law.

MRS. F. L. CUMMINS ENTERTAINED IN HONOR MRS. SUSAN PICKETT

From Tuesday's Daily. A very charming social gathering occurred at the home of Mrs. F. L. Cummins Saturday afternoon, when she entertained at auction bridge in honor of Mrs. Susan Pickett of Evansville, Indiana. The ladies spent a most delightful time in playing their favorite game, at which Miss Barbara Gering captured the prize for honors, while in the contest for points Miss Gering and Mrs. Pickett tied for the prize, and in the cut Miss Gering received the prize. After several hours spent at playing bridge a delicious and tempting two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Kittie Cummins and Mrs. G. C. Westcott, which proved one of the most delightful features of the afternoon. The invited guests for this pleasant occasion were: Mesdames C. G. Fricke, Annie Britz, G. E. Doyce, Russell Harris of Omaha, Harry Chapman of Omaha, T. P. Livingston, W. J. Stremel, J. A. Donegan, R. W. Clement, A. E. Gass, Misses Mia Gering, Dora Fricke, Maude Mason of Boise, Idaho; Barbara Gering and the guest of honor, Mrs. Susan Pickett.
