

Murray Department

PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND SURROUNDING VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS

(If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.)

Murray State Bank

Our Deposits are guaranteed by the State Guarantee Fund

4 per cent interest paid on all Time
Deposits for one year.

Do your Banking Business with us.

Murray State Bank

W. G. BOEDEKER, Cashier

Mrs. Nims and children were visiting Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Tutt.

Mrs. T. B. Smith, who has been quite sick for the past few weeks, is improving.

Malvern, the little son of Chas. Read, has been quite sick for the past few days.

Rex Young is improving slowly from his injuries received in an auto accident.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kellison has been quite sick for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bruner of Nester, Neb., are visiting friends in and around Murray.

Mr. I. S. White is not so well this week, spending a very miserable day Wednesday.

Not so many attended the old settlers' reunion this year as usual, owing to the heat.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Todd and sons, Vance and Dwyer, departed for a three weeks' visit in Canada.

Charles Herren and Fred Lutz were looking after some business matters in the county seat Wednesday.

Lee Kniss and brother, Edmund, were in Plattsmouth Wednesday evening, making the trip in the automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hatt went down to Weeping Water Sunday for a week's visit with their daughter, Mrs. A. Cole.

Mrs. John Lloyd has returned home from her visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Standish, near Garnet, Kansas.

Mrs. Iver Standish and daughter, from Norton, Kansas, have been visiting for the past few days with friends and relatives at the old home. They have been guests at the home of Mrs. Standish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Roud.

George Jenkins met with quite a painful accident last week. He caught his foot in a hay-rack, spraining and crushing it quite badly.

Mrs. Bert Hansell, from Lundon, Missouri, was visiting a few days this week with friends and relatives at the old home near Murray.

Charles Herren, who was injured in the runaway about two weeks ago, is getting along nicely, being almost entirely recovered from the injuries.

Miss Clara Young was engaged by the entertaining committee at the old settlers' picnic to give four readings. Miss Young is a very pleasing entertainer.

Mrs. Willard Melenger and children left Wednesday for Des Moines, where Mr. Melenger has accepted a call as pastor of the First Christian church.

The busy Cass county threshing season is almost over for the present season, and the big wheat crop has almost all been delivered to the grain dealers.

Mrs. S. D. Smith of Havelock came down last Friday to attend the funeral of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Smith. She returned home Sunday.

John Lloyd has purchased a new Ford automobile from the agency of Becker & Willis of Union. He now sails along over the roads with ease.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carroll of Orchard left Thursday morning for their home, after a week's visit with Mr. Carroll's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll.

Rev. Dunkleberger will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening. Everybody cordially invited to come out and hear him. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

Anderson Davis is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Jake Smith has been quite sick for the past few days.

Rex Young who was quite seriously injured a few days ago, is getting along nicely, but not able to be out yet.

Carler Albin has been bothered with the sick for the past few days, but reported some better at this time.

Ben Land has been quite sick for the past few days, suffering with a severe cold. Pneumonia has been feared.

On Saturday evening, September 13, is the date arranged for an out-door social at the home of V. A. Kenneday. More extensive announcement will be made later.

Ray Wright, who has been working for Gus Hollenberg for the past few months, has resigned his position and leaves today for Minnesota, where he will make his future home.

Will Smith and John Farris departed Thursday evening for a visit in the northwest. They will spend some time in the state of Washington, where Mr. Farris thinks very seriously of locating in the near future.

Piomaine Poisoning.

Mr. Stoffer, our lumberman, has been in a very serious condition for a couple of days, suffering from piomaine poisoning, received from the eating of sardines. The old gentleman was in a very serious condition when taken to St. Joseph Thursday evening. He was placed in the hospital and a message was received here later that he had died. Up to Wednesday evening we have not received any further word from his condition, but hope that the report may not be true and that he will recover.

P. S.—Since the above was placed in type we learn that Mr. Stoffer died Wednesday at the hospital in St. Joseph. He was accompanied to St. Joseph by Mrs. Stoffer and Dr. Brendel. All of his relatives from the northern part of the state were at his bedside when death relieved his sufferings. We are also informed that he had been suffering for a few days with typhoid and malaria. We are also instructed by Mrs. Stoffer to express her thankfulness to the many friends who so kindly assisted her during the sickness of Mr. Stoffer while in Murray.

Little Child Dies.

Lillie, the little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Smith, died at their home Thursday morning at one-half miles south-west of Murray, last Friday morning about two o'clock, after a week's illness. The funeral services were held at the home Saturday morning at ten o'clock and the little one laid to rest at the Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Rev. Hedgcock of Nehawka, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have the deepest sympathy of the entire community in this their hour of deepest sorrow.

EAGLE.

Beacon.

Mrs. S. A. Vanlandingham, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the College View hospital recently, returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Fred Kent and Wm. Muenchan left Tuesday morning for the northeastern part of South Dakota where they will help thresh for the next thirty days.

Mrs. Agnes McDonald and Miss Ethel Scattergood returned home today, Friday, from Indiana, where they have been visiting relatives for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Wm. Christopherson returned home from Lincoln the fore part of the week where she has been confined in a hospital. We are glad to report that her condition is much improved.

Dewey Quinn, who recently underwent an operation at a Lincoln hospital and whose condition has been considered very dangerous for the past two months, was brought home Monday much improved, and bright hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Last Friday at noon T. R. Adams residence was discovered to be on fire, but prompt action by neighbors and passersby resulted in the flames being quenched before very much damage was done. Mr. Adams started a fire in the oil stove and then stepped out in the yard for a minute. When he returned flames were leaping from the stove and the room was filled with smoke, and the walls and furniture were found to be on fire. Mr. Adams says the damage done was slight with no insurance to cover the loss.

NEHAWKA.

News.

D. Herminson of the west quarry had a boy born Wednesday night.

Mrs. John Hall came over from Plattsmouth Tuesday and took Grandma Chapman home with her for a visit.

Tom Fulton set 680 tires during the recent dry spell, and admits that he did not have to extend himself.

Mrs. Cunningham and Fern returned last Friday from their visit to Oklahoma. They report a very pleasant time.

E. L. Maritz is rearranging the dining room at the Gruber house and is moving in there with his restaurant. This will give him a number of good rooms with which to accommodate the public.

Miss Beatrice Cook, who has been here for several weeks visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pollard, left Tuesday for the return journey to her home in Detroit, Michigan.

Henry Wessel will have a fine up-to-date hardware store when his addition is completed. The addition is 20 feet with an offset of 4 feet on the west side which will contain his bench. Frank Moore is doing the work.

Lee Carper came in Saturday from York, where he has spent the most of his vacation this summer, and from here he went to Union, where he will visit the W. H. Porter family a few days before going on to his home at Fairfax, Mo.

Miss Isadore Sheldon entertained the following young ladies at a house party over the week end: Miss Helen Pollock of Plattsmouth, Misses Lucy Hart, Ruth McDonald and Helen Sorenson of Omaha. They returned home on the evening train Monday.

LOUISVILLE.

Courier.

Mrs. John Group returned last Friday from Vienna, S. D., where she has been visiting her brother, Frank Heim.

The Courier neglected to announce the birth of a ten and one-half-pound baby boy on August 3 to Mr. and Mrs. James Masters.

G. S. Dorsey, wife and daughter of Linwood, Neb., and Mrs. E. J. Dorsey of Porterville, California, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dorsey this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Todd of Nehawka, and their guest, Mrs. Frank Ivers, of Colorado, spent Tuesday at the home of Amos Keiser in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kurfz and family of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Duerr and family of Alvo visited at the home of Mrs. Geo. Huber last Thursday.

Mrs. Gabe Pribble returned on Wednesday from Two Harbors, Minn., where she had been visiting her son, Geo. Waldron and family. Mrs. Pribble brought home with her some samples of grain and hay that is good for sore eyes. She reports all former Louisville people up there getting along nicely.

C. E. Urwin, who is at the M. E. hospital in Omaha, where he underwent an operation last week, is improving steadily. His family expect him to return home within the next two weeks. This is gratifying news to his many friends and relatives in this vicinity, as his condition was deemed serious.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

Alvo Notes

Albert Taylor was in Lincoln Saturday.

Miss Pearl Keefer was in Murdock Monday.

Del Tyson was doing business in Lincoln Monday.

A. J. Friend and wife were trading in Lincoln Tuesday.

Jacob Kamm was doing business in Lincoln Wednesday.

Morgan Curvey did business at Lincoln Friday of last week.

Will Lewis returned from the north part of the state Tuesday.

Mrs. W. E. Evans is in Red Oak visiting her folks this week. The drug store is the place to buy stock tonics and poultry supplies.

Harry Appleman came in Monday to look after his farm interests.

The Barnum & Bailey circus had a good attendance from Alvo last week.

Will Miller and brother started for Montana to look after land on Monday.

Charles Snavey and Herman Stroemer were doing business in Lincoln Monday.

Eli Coon, wife and children left for Bowie, Texas, to visit relatives Wednesday.

Mont Baldwin of University Place was calling on relatives and friends Monday.

Ivan Clites and Walter Skinner of Hooper were visiting with their folks Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snavey took in the chautauqua at Elmwood Thursday evening.

Miss Laura Hilderbrand of Penrose, Neb., is visiting Miss Mable Stout for a few weeks.

Allen Weaver of South Bend is staying with J. A. Shaffer while Mrs. Shaffer is in California.

J. Herman Stroemer and wife were attending the Elmwood chautauqua Thursday evening.

Bud and Jack Grove have gone to Minnesota to thresh and also visit a sister, Mrs. Jack Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas of Kansas were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Sunday.

L. B. Appleman, Sam Cashner, Commissioner Jordan and J. A. Shaffer were callers at Eagle Friday.

R. A. Stone and the Evans Mercantile company are having a clearance sale for the balance of August.

The district is painting the school house with Lincoln Climatic paint, furnished by the Alvo Drug Co.

Mr. Evans of Red Oak, Iowa, is in town this week attending to business for the Evans' Mercantile company.

To the readers of this paper: Why don't you 'phone your news to the drug store? We will be glad to receive it.

Mrs. Clarence Curvey and daughter, Lillian, visited Mrs. Curvey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Woods, last week.

Mrs. Thomas Stout and daughter, Mrs. Arthur Klyver, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Hart to Lincoln Saturday in the latter's car.

Dr. and Mrs. Muir and daughters and Mrs. Craig started for Des Moines, Iowa to visit relatives and take in Iowa's big state fair this week.

Mrs. Rosa Cooley of Lincoln, who has been visiting Mrs. Chas. Kinkpatrick since last Friday, left for Richfield Wednesday on No. 18 to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Breece of Dayton, Illinois, came Saturday to visit William Lewis and family. Mrs. Breece is a sister of Mr. Will Lewis.

Dale Boyles went to Murdock Saturday evening as a guest of H. A. Guthmann at the Murdock business men's fishing camp. He reported the best of luck and could prove it.

Mrs. Chris Keefer of Litchfield, who has been caring for her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Prouty, at University Place, is visiting with relatives in Alvo this week.

Rev. E. S. Uptegrove started Wednesday for West Grove, Iowa, to attend the Iowa Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, which meets Friday, August 22, at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Henry Suder of Clafonia, who was attending her grandson at South Bend, stopped here to visit her parents, H. Thomas and wife, Monday. She reported that Mr. and Mrs. Dan Williams took the boy to an Omaha hospital for treatment. We hope the little boy will have a speedy recovery.

Will Uptegrove returned from Brownville Tuesday, where he was doing business in the interest of the New York Life association.

Mrs. J. A. Shaffer accompanied her sister, Miss Violet Ough, to Ducor, California, where Miss Violet will make her home with her father, who is in the mercantile business. They left Wednesday on No. 5.

WEEDING WATER.

Republican.

Charlotte Hingate attended a tent party at David City last week and assisted in a 40-piece orchestra at the chautauqua.

William Peters left Tuesday morning for Sheridan, Wyo., for a three weeks' visit with his sons who are conducting a sheep ranch near Verona.

F. W. Clipping of Coleridge visited his old neighbor, Jack Philpot, last week. They were boys together and used to batch on the farm together.

Mrs. G. A. Baldwin of whom we spoke last week as being in a serious condition, is resting as easy as could be expected under the circumstances.

B. F. Ruby went to Eagle Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of his niece, Mrs. William Barr, who dropped dead at Lincoln Tuesday of heart failure.

Curd Cunningham of Elmwood was down Friday to see his mother, who is 82 years old and very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Gilmore.

Mrs. E. C. Giberson was an afternoon passenger to Omaha Saturday to visit her son, Roy, and wife, who leave soon for his school work in the agricultural college at Morris, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peterson came over from Plattsmouth Saturday to visit with Mrs. Peterson's mother, Mrs. E. J. DeWolf, as Mr. Peterson is nursing a mashed toe from being stepped on by a horse.

UNION.

Ledger.

Lester Clarence of Coleridge arrived Wednesday to visit with his grandparents and take in the reunion.

Mrs. Livingston Richey came in from Plattsmouth on Wednesday to make a few days' visit with her aunt, Mrs. Claudius Everett.

F. Primmer of Sloan, Iowa, a nephew of W. H. Mark, is here to make a visit with his relatives and attend the old settlers' reunion.

Mrs. E. A. Fletcher and daughter of Johnstown, Neb., arrived last Friday and have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Klarens and other relatives and friends in this town and vicinity.

Mont Robb and wife and Miss Gussie Robb departed Tuesday for Billings, Mont., where they expect to spend a month visiting Fleming Robb and wife and enjoying the scenery of that country.

Mrs. James T. Reynolds and son, Daniel, started last Saturday on a long journey, their destination being Cooperstown, N. Y., to make a few weeks' visit with Mrs. Reynolds' mother and other relatives.

Miss Dovie Barkhurst, who was operated upon in a hospital in Omaha a few weeks ago, was able to return home last Sunday. She is rapidly improving in health and her many friends are much pleased by her speedy recovery.

William Morley, the genial and popular postmaster at Avoca, was here Wednesday afternoon, starting on a long and sad journey to Upland, Cal., having received a telegram informing him of the impending death of his aged mother.

William Ost and wife arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, where they were visiting relatives. Mr. Ost consulted the most eminent specialists while there, hoping to find relief from his long-standing ailment, and we regret to say they gave very little encouragement.

MURDOCK.

(Special Correspondent.)

Nellie Rush is now home from summer school.

Harry Gillespie was in Omaha Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Verna Brittain has been visiting friends and relatives this week.

Mrs. Joe Hansen has been visiting relatives in Iowa the past two weeks.

Fishing wasn't very favorable for the fishermen that camped on Salt creek last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Towle of South Bend visited at the Gillespie home Sunday.

Earnest Stice, who works in the Rock Island ticket office in Omaha, visited I. G. Hornbeck Sunday.

A number of our young people attended the Elmwood chautauqua Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Angwert and daughter, of Bennett, Neb., were visiting friends and relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lawton of Davenport, Iowa, have been visiting at the Soric home the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Will Rush and daughter, Mary, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Westlake, near Deaton, this week.

Will McNamara and family autoed from Fairmont last Saturday morning and landed at the Gillespie home for a few days' visit.

From recent reports we hear that Clara Stroy is gradually improving from the serious accident that happened three weeks ago Monday night.

Emma Eisenhut of France is here on a short visit with friends and relatives. From here she will join her sister and brother in Los Angeles, California.

MYNARD.

(Special Correspondent.)

Mynard is very much in need of a blacksmith. A good opening for the right man.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter motored to Johnson county to visit relatives and friends for a few days.

Charles Valley motored from St. Joseph, Missouri, to visit at the home of his father-in-law, Henry Eikenberry.

A number of the Mynard people visited the band concert in Plattsmouth. They report a fine time and good music.

Some wells are reported as failing to give a sufficient supply of water and the anticipation of the well digger is great for work.

Wheat continues to be hauled to the elevators. And the elevators report some 60,000 bushels marketed this fall from this place.

Dr. Brown is sporting a new automobile. The doctor's business demanded more speed to attend to all the calls in his line of business.

Jacob Lohnes transacted business in town yesterday. Jake reports the condition of the corn fine, considering such dry weather.

The continuation of dry weather has not lessened the auto craze. We understand Uncle Bill will soon make demonstrations with a Ford.

Our congenial agent will take his vacation in the near future. And with his wife and baby will enjoy the scenery of Colorado for a fortnight.

S. O. Cole has gone to Canada to superintend the erection of a large granary to store the large amount of wheat raised on his farm this year.

A large number of people from this vicinity attended the reunion of old settlers held at Union.

Mrs. Henry Johnson visited friends in Plattsmouth for several days last week.

Bert Henton and family are visiting with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie. Bert at the present time is living in St. Joseph, Missouri, and is conductor on the St. Joseph & Grand Island railroad, running from Grand Island to St. Joseph.

If You Want

RESULTS

YOU can get them by advertising in this paper. It reaches the best class of people in this community.

Use this paper if you want some of their business.

Use This Paper

SPECIALS

At Our Store

A fine line of Parasols worth up to $1.50, all next week at.....98c

Celluloid Dressing Combs, regular 25c kind at 19c

Men's Work Shirts at .....39c

Little Boys' Cowboy Suits that sell everywhere for $1.00, our special price, per suit.....59c

Dresser and Table Scarf Embroidery Patterns at.....25c

(These are the best values you ever saw)

HIATT & TUTT

MURRAY

::

NEBR.