TWO GOOD BALL GAMES SUNDAY AND LABOR DAY

The Boosters Win Sunday's Game, but Lose to A. O. U. W.'s Monday Afternoon.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The Plattsmouth Boosters on the Sunday and Labor day ball games succeeded in securing an even break, defeating the Orkin Brothers team of Omaha Sunday by a score of 11 to 4, and being defeated by the A. O. U. W. team of Omaha Labor day by a score of 2 to 1, in what was the best game of the season, and the victory of the Quigley forces was due largely to several decisions of the umpire that were decidedly in favor of the visitors. Connor was on the mound in both games for the Boosters and pitched gilt-edged ball, and but for a decision of the umpire in yesterday's game they might have been playing yet, as in the seventh inning the "ump" passed Kennedy to first, forcing in a run.

The Sunday game was a ragged contest, full of errors, in which the Orkin's managed to get away with the big end and handed the local boys several runs as a result of their poor judgment and inability to get hold of the ball. In the first inning, Beal, the fast center fielder of the locals, was hit by a pitched ball from the wing of Knutson, the twirler for the department store lads, and he succeeded in stealing all the bases and home from the visitors and made the first run of the game through homebase work of the opposing team.

In the second inning the visitors secured one run, when Tripp reached first on an error by Louis Smith and was advanced on the single of Knutson, scoring on a single by Somers. The Boosters, peeved by the scoring of the Orkins, added two more in their half of the second. Salsburg singled to right field, stole second and scored on C. Smith's single, and Smith rang up another run on an error by Kanka at first base.

In the fourth spasm of the game the visitors annexed two more runs when Knutson secured a two-bagger to left field and was followed by Smith with a single, and both came home on an error by L. Smith at short. The Boosters began to pile on the scores in this inning, when Parriott, C. Smith and Beal secured first base on errors, and they scored on singles by Ossenkop and Carle, and Ossenkop scored on Louis Smith's three-bagger, which cinched the game for the locals.

The eighth inning saw another fall taken out of the visitors and the weary scorekeeper was forced to register four more runs for the locals, as well as several errors for the visitors. L. Smith and Ingraham both succeeded in getting singles on the delivery of young Mr. Knutson and scored when Parriott rapped a nice drive to left. Claude Smith, the first sacker for the Boosters, was passed by the pitcher and they scored when Connor lined out a clean little single. This ended the agony, as the visitors were unable to do anything further. The line-up of the game was as follows:

The base ball game yesterday afternoon was one that warmed the hearts of the fans, for it was surely as good a game as could be seen anywhere that the great national sport is played, and those who attended felt well repaid for their braving the wind and dust, as the Boosters and

Frank Quigley's pets certainly played a gilt-edged game, and until the close it was a question who would win.

For six innings the contest was without a score, with both Connor and Holland of the A. O. U. W.'s working well and with good support keeping the score down. The visitors broke the ice in their half of the seventh, when Saup capped out a two-bagger to left field and was sacrificed to third by Holland, and scored when Hall biffed the ball for a single. Daugherty, who followed Hall, was safe at first, and on the decision of the umpire giving Kennedy a base on balls, Hall was forced in, but the decision was very much disapproved of by all who saw the game, as Connor was clearly entitled to a strike on the man. This, combined with several other decisions against Beal while batting, aided materially in preventing the locals from taking the game.

Plattsmouth scored its one run in the ninth, when Connor was safe at first on an error by McAndrews, stole second and came in with a run on the two-bagger of Beal to center field, but this ended the suspense, as Parriott, who followed, struck out. The line-up of the opposing teams for the game was:

A. O. U. W.—Preeka, catcher; Holland, pitcher; Dougherty, first; McCreary, second; McAndrews, third; Steffin, short; Kennedy, right; Saup, center; Hall, left field.

DASTARDLY OUTRAGE THAT NEEDS ATTENTION OF THE POLICE

From Tuesday's Daily.

A dastardly outrage was perpetrated last evening on Washington avenue when some party or parties, without fear of the law or respect for themselves, deliberately "barked" about eight of the fine young trees that were recently set out along that thoroughfare. The trees were cut with a large knife or hatchet and the work was evidently not that of any child, as the branches of the trees were broken down in a manner that indicated that a person of height had done the mischief and the lacerations on the bark of the trees were of such a nature as to indicate that the work had been done with the purpose of killing them, and should the parties doing the work be found they should be made to suffer the severest penalty that the law can inflict, and a reward should be offered for their arrest and conviction. This is the second time the city authorities have planted trees along Washington avenue, and the first time a number of the trees were broken off by children going along the street, but this case is clearly one of pure unadulterated meanness and ought to be investigated and some action taken in the matter, as it has aroused considerable indignation among the residents in that part of the city.

TO REMAIN IN PLATTSMOUTH ANOTHER YEAR

Rev. Lorimer Receives Call for Another Year and Has Accepted the Same.

The congregational meeting of the members of the Presbyterian church, held last evening, extended to Rev. M. W. Lorimer, the present pastor of the church, a call for another year's service in the cause of the church in this city.

The fact that Rev. Lorimer has decided to accept the pastorate for another year will be most pleasing news to all who have had the pleasure of coming in contact with this pleasant and able church man, and during the time that he has served as the pastor of the church here he has made a host of friends by his open and genial manner of meeting everyone. During the time Rev. Lorimer has been in our midst he has assisted in making many improvements in the church building, as well as in the methods of handling the church work, and has brought the church organization up to a much higher standard and where greater good can be done than in former years.

Rev. Lorimer is a quiet, unassuming gentleman, and it is necessary to know him intimately to appreciate the real genial friend and counsellor that he is, and during his pastorate here he has won a host of friends by his courteous dealings with his fellow men, and his decision to remain with us, for at least another year, will be most pleasant news to everyone, regardless of creed.

Mr. Mann is at present connected with the Journal office being in charge of the job printing department and his reputation as to his ability is known all over the county as is also his sterling integrity. VERY CARELESS AUTO ACCIDENT

An Auto Driven by John Falter Strikes Buggy and Injures the Occupant.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Last evening a few minutes before 9 o'clock a collision occurred on North Sixth street between an automobile driven by John Falter and a buggy in which Max Pries was driving up the street. The accident occurred just opposite the Gering residence, and the automobile had just turned into Sixth street from Elm, and was running south, and was, according to the story told by Pries, without any lights on the front to guide its course. Pries saw the car coming onto him and turned out to permit the machine to pass, but the car came on and crashed into the horse and buggy, skinning the horse up and damaging the buggy to some extent, while Max was thrown clear out of the vehicle, and from the nature of his bruises it seems likely that he struck the fender of the car in falling, but there were no bones broken and the examination of the injured man failed to reveal any internal injuries. It was thought at first that the man had received injuries that might result very seriously, but this morning the patient seems to be getting along in first-class shape, and will probably escape serious injury.

The harness on the horse was torn up some as a result of the collision and the buggy will require some repairing before it can be used. It is most fortunate that the automobile was not running at a high rate of speed, as if it had been Mr. Pries would have undoubtedly been killed. After the accident the injured man was conveyed to his home on North Sixth street and medical assistance summoned to administer to his needs.

This accident brings forcibly to mind the fact that the regulation of the traffic in this city is becoming quite a problem and that some action in regard to making all vehicles, either automobiles or carriages and wagons, observe more strictly the law in regard to driving along the street, as in the present reckless manner it is certain, sooner or later, to result in the serious injury or death of someone, if the matter is not attended to. There are rules governing the sides of street on which ingoing and outgoing vehicles should travel, as well as one in regard to motor vehicles carrying lights to protect the public and other parties driving on the highway, and it is quite noticeable of evenings that this rule is not complied with by a large number of drivers.

THE FALL FESTIVAL LOOKS LIKE LOOSER

The Meeting Last Night Attended by Only a Few—Committee Makes Its Report.

The meeting which was called for last evening at the Commercial club rooms to discuss and take some action in regard to holding a fall festival was attended by only a few of those interested in the project and as a result of the discouragement given the project by the business men and citizens it is doubtful if it will materialize into a real celebration or not. The committee that spent several days last week in visiting the different business houses of the city succeeded in having something like $400 subscribed by different parties, but with the showing of attendance at the meeting the committee does not feel like taking further steps in the matter until a better expression can be secured from the citizens in general.

It seems a shame that the matter of the fall festival which had reached such a promising stage should be allowed to drop because of lack of interest on the part of those who should put forth every effort to give those who make this city their trading point some kind of a celebration at the close of a very successful year. The meeting last night should have been attended by those who could have expressed their desires in the matter, whether in favor or against, in order that those who have the matter in charge could get a line on what to do in the matter. If it is possible to do so another meeting of the citizens should be called and the matter settled once and for all time, and if there is to be no celebration then let the affair rest until some time next year, but with the amount raised and what could be secured later a very creditable two days' celebration could be given and there is no reason in the world why the matter should not be taken up. If the Commercial club or the citizens in general do not want to take the question up, let some of the lodges or societies take hold of the proposition and give them a free hand in the matter to make it a success.

AUGUST CLOIDT MAY LOSE SIGHT OF EYE

From Wednesday's Daily.

For the past few weeks August Cloldt has been troubled with an affliction with one of his eyes, and while at first it was thought to be only a slight irritation, it rapidly developed more alarming symptoms and the services of a physician was called in to look after the disease, and Mr. Cloldt was advised to consult a specialist in regard to the matter, which he did, with the result that the specialist does not hold out much hope of saving the eye, as the disease has progressed so far as to make the matter of saving the eye a grave problem. The affliction that has visited Mr. Cloldt will be learned with great regret by his many friends here, who will continue to hope that he may yet be able to recover the use of both of his eyes.

The remainder of the afternoon was whiled away in a most enjoyable social time.

FOUNDER OF CHIROPRACTIC TREATMENT

Dr. D. D. Palmer and Wife of Los Angeles Visits Sisters in Plattsmouth.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday morning Dr. D. D. Palmer and wife of Los Angeles, California, departed for the west, after a visit here of several days with relatives in this city. Dr. Palmer is a brother of Mrs. Thomas Wiles and Mrs. H. C. VanHorn and the meeting between the brother and sister was one much enjoyed by all, as it had been some seven years since he had met Mrs. Wiles and the first time in forty years that Mrs. VanHorn had met her brother.

Dr. Palmer is the originator or founder of the chiropractic treatment for the ills of the human race and he predicts that in a few years hence medicine will be sparingly, very little or not used at all; that the people ailing, no matter what the trouble or ailment may be, whether acute or chronic, will call on a chiropractic for quick and permanent cures—that the general public will have nothing but chiropractic.

Dr. and Mrs. Palmer left their California home in the spring, made a tour of the grand canyon of Colorado, going thence to various points in Iowa and Illinois, where they visited old friends and relatives and the graves of their father and brother. They spent a number of weeks at Davenport, Iowa, the city where the doctor founded and originated chiropractic, and visited with beating heart the rooms where the first spinal adjustments were given by him.

From these rooms he overlooked the city, the college of chiropractic, where four schools now exist, with thousands of students thronging through their doors daily. It was from the windows of these humble rooms where the greatest science, the science that cleaves closest to the heart of man, that the doctor predicted its wonderful progress and benefit to mankind. Though only a few months from his eightieth birthday he was induced to deliver twenty-two lectures to the student body of the Universal Chiropractic college, the institution teaching the science. Having completed his lecture course, being tired and worn out with the excitement of being among the throbbing, enthusiastic students and progressive instructor, he turned his face westward and is wending his way to the great Pacific, where his regular practice is awaiting him.

IVAN WHITE, PIONEER CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Death of Ivan White Removes One of the Best Citizens of Cass County.

From Tuesday's Daily.

"Death loves a shining mark," and yesterday morning the grim messenger took from our midst one of the foremost citizens of the eastern section of Cass county, Ivan S. White, who for many years was one of the prominent farmers of Rock Bluff precinct, but who for the last few years has resided in Murray.

Mr. White, on his retirement from the farm, at first removed to Plattsmouth, where he purchased property, but later decided to move to Murray, among more familiar scenes, and secured him a home there, and had resided in that place since that time. Mr. White for the past few years has been suffering greatly from cancer, and despite all that medical skill or loving hands could do, the disease continued its ravages until it made his recovery impossible and he suffered patiently until the end brought him relief.

The loss of Mr. White will be greatly felt throughout the county, where he was so well and favorably known, and where he had resided since 1856, and his passing will leave a place hard to fill, as he was one of those strong, sturdy men who have made the state of Nebraska all it is, and his advice and watchfulness in the early days of the young state and county contributed much to its material welfare.

Ivan S. White was born in Davis county, Missouri, May 19, 1835, and was reared on a farm in Livingston county, Missouri, growing to manhood in this section of the country, and he farmed there for himself for two years with much success, and secured the training that later proved of such untold value to his ventures further west. He later removed to Pottawattamie county, Iowa, but resided there only a few months, removing to Nebraska in August, 1856, and located in Rock Bluffs, then a flourishing little city, engaging in farming near that point, and as a result of his ability and watchfulness he was able to accumulate quite a neat fortune for his old age. During the last years of his life on the farm he was engaged quite extensively in the raising of stock.

During the civil war Mr. White enlisted in the Second Nebraska cavalry and served with much credit to himself in that regiment for eight months. While a resident of Livingston county, Missouri, he was married on February 28, 1854, to Miss Anna Smith, and as a result of that union two children, Mrs. David Hiatt of Sidney, Iowa, and Mark White, residing on the old home near Rock Bluffs, are left to mourn the loss of the father. Beside the widow and children, Mr. White leaves to mourn his loss two brothers, Mr. Dempsey White of Surprise, Neb., and Mr. Lankford White of Chillicothe, Missouri, and one sister, Mrs. N. C. Hobbs, of Los Angeles, California.

The funeral of this worthy citizen will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church in Murray, and will be conducted by Rev. D. L. Dunkleberger of this city. The interment will be made in the Rock Bluffs cemetery, near which place the deceased spent so many years of his long and useful life.

Fire Near Fifth Ward School.

This noon the fire alarm was turned in from the south part of the city, where burning grass and leaves threatened for a short time to spread to the Fifth ward school building, but the flames were checked in time to prevent the school building from being damaged.
