REV. ALLAN G. WILSON ST. LUKE'S RECTOR RESIGNS

At the morning service at St. Luke's church yesterday, the rector, Rev. Allan G. Wilson, tendered to the members of the parish his resignation, as during the last few months his health has been quite poor, and having suffered from a nervous breakdown he felt that it would be necessary for him to take a longer period for rest and recuperation and he did not feel like asking the parish to wait on his return. Rev. Wilson delivered a very pleasing and impressive sermon on "Patience," to the members of the church present at the service, and expressed his regret at leaving this city, where he has been located for the past year. The vacancy in the charge at the church will be filled as soon as possible by Rt. Rev. Arthur L. Williams, Bishop of Nebraska. The departure of Rev. and Mrs. Williams will be regretted by many who have had the pleasure of meeting them during their residence here and they will take with them the best wishes of many friends in their future home.
