

LINEN SHOWER IN HONOR OF THE BRIDE-ELECT

Given at the Home of Judge and Mrs. Allen J. Beeson in Honor of Miss Ethel Leyda.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening at the beautiful home of Judge and Mrs. Allen J. Beeson was given a most charming linen shower, in honor of Miss Ethel Leyda whose wedding to Mr. Andrew O. Moore is to occur next Monday evening, and the event proved most delightful to all those in attendance. The rooms of the Beeson home presented a scene of great beauty with the decorations of hearts, cupids and wedding bells, all emblematic of the approaching happy event, and they were distributed with artistic effect throughout the room adding much to the charm of the occasion. One of the most pleasing musical programs that has been given in this city had been arranged and embraced the most talented musicians in the city. The vocal selections given during the evening were by Mrs. E. H. Westcott, Miss Opal Fitzgerald, and Miss Della Moore, all of which were given in a manner that brought out to its fullest the great talent possessed by these ladies, and the guests were delighted with the treat that had been offered them of hearing these delightful numbers. Miss Ethel Leyda gave a very pleasing piano number as did Miss Christine Soennischen, both of which were highly appreciated. The different selections on the violin by Prof. F. J. Kolbaba won for this talented gentleman new laurels as the exquisite notes of the violin stole softly through the rooms, and the accompaniment played for the first number by Miss Elizabeth Beeson displayed much ability on the part of this talented young pianist. The numbers on the violin and piano by Prof. Kolbaba and Miss Kittie Cummins was one of the finest ever heard in the city, and the guests were loth to let these two artists retire, so entranced were they by the music. Another very pleasing feature of the evening was the violin duet by Prof. Kolbaba and Miss Grace Beeson, one of his pupils, and the little lady demonstrated that she was a worthy student of this master of the violin.

During the course of the evening Miss Virginia Beeson served delicious fruit punch to the guests in the dining room in a manner that was most charming. After the enjoyment of the delightful musical program a very tempting luncheon was served by Mrs. Beeson, assisted by her daughters, Misses Elizabeth, Grace and Virginia, that served to add greatly to the pleasure of the evening. After the showering of the bride-to-be, the company departed, leaving with her advice as to her future married life, but the best advice received was that she leave the "advice" given alone.

possession of the street. It was finally agreed that the surveyor survey the street and report to the city attorney, who could then give the council an idea of how to proceed in the matter.

Councilman Buttery called the attention of the council to the fact that there was considerable complaint in regard to the bad condition of the old wooden sidewalks on North Sixth street, but Councilman Patterson informed the council that one walk had been taken up and that the others would be removed as soon as possible.

Mr. Buttery, in speaking of the regulating of the automobile drivers in the city, thought the police should be provided with a stop watch in order that they could be better fixed to time the speeders on the streets of the city, and was also in favor of the enactment of an ordinance to regulate the speed of automobiles, as at present all the fines and costs in such cases goes to the county, as the complaints are filed under the state law. Mayor Sattler also favored an ordinance of this kind and recommended that the city attorney be requested to draft such a measure for consideration at the next meeting of the council. Councilman Streight wanted to know how long it would take to get such an ordinance through the council and believed that a special meeting should be held to pass it, as he thought enough fines could be secured to pay off the indebtedness of the city. Councilman Richey was also very strongly in favor of getting a stop watch for the police, as many auto owners had stated they would fight any arrest made, as the police had no accurate way of timing them, and he made a motion that the watch be purchased, and that the city attorney prepare an ordinance to regulate the speed limit in the city, which was passed by a unanimous vote of the council.

The ordinance defining the curb line in curbing and guttering district No. 5 was read for the second and third time and placed on its passage and carried with only one dissenting vote. Councilman Patterson made a motion that the plans and specifications for the work in district No. 5 be amended so as to define the guttering to be four feet wide from the curb. Councilman Streight wanted to know if at the time the petition had been circulated the signers had been told that any particular width would be used or set a definite cost on the work. Attorney W. A. Robertson, who assisted in circulating the petition, stated to the council that they had made an estimate, but had told the signers the cost might be more or less. The motion of Patterson was passed unanimously.

Motion by Patterson that the plans and specifications as amended be accepted and that bids for the work be advertised for were passed by the council.

The occupation tax ordinance was placed on its second reading, and Chairman Streight of the judiciary committee added to the list of occupation taxed by the ordinance that of wall paper, paint and oil dealers for $2.50 per year and shoe shining parlors at $2 per year. Councilman Halstrom thought the ordinance was unfair to some of the merchants, as the small stores were taxed as heavily as the larger stores, which he did not think was fair. Mr. Streight stated that if there was any changes that could be suggested the committee would be glad to consider them, but that the ordinance was cut down as low as possible to make the necessary revenue. On motion to put the ordinance on its third reading and final passage the vote was as follows: Yeas, Patterson, Streight, Bajock, Richey, Shea, Nays, Hallstrom, Johnson, Passed, Buttery. Not having the necessary two-thirds, the ordinance was laid over until the next meeting.

On motion of Buttery the street commissioner was instructed to see that the avenues of the city were sprinkled to lay the dust, which has become something fierce along these thoroughfares.

Col. J. H. Thrasher, who has been keeping "batch" for several days, got tired of the job today and departed this afternoon for Persia, Iowa, where he will join his wife, who is visiting there.

"Clean Up the Bowels and Keep Them Clean"

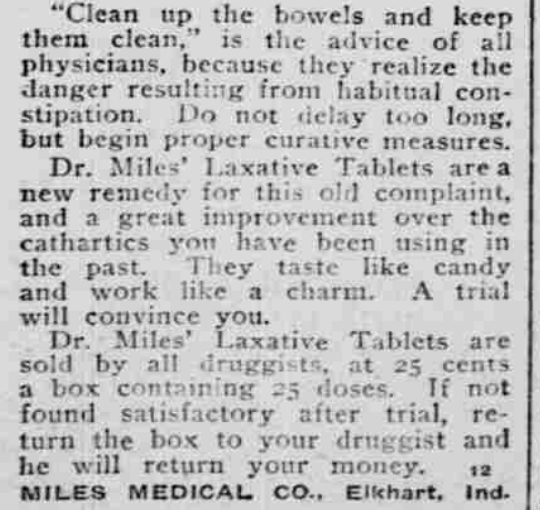

There are many remedies to be had for constipation, but the difficulty is to procure one that acts without violence. A remedy that does not perform by force what should be accomplished by persuasion is Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets. After using them, Mr. N. A. Waddell, 315 Washington St., Waco, Tex., says:

"Almost all my life I have been troubled with constipation, and have tried many remedies, all of which seemed to cause pain without giving much relief. I finally tried Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and found them excellent. Their action is pleasant and mild, and their chocolate taste makes them easy to take. I am more than glad to recommend them."

"Clean up the bowels and keep them clean," is the advice of all physicians, because they realize the danger resulting from habitual constipation. Do not delay too long, but begin proper curative measures.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are a new remedy for this old complaint, and a great improvement over the cathartics you have been using in the past. They taste like candy and work like a charm. A trial will convince you.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory after trial, return the box to your druggist and he will return your money. 12 MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

The Call of Hunger.

The people would be better off eating only when hunger calls for food and then eating the right kind of food and in the proper quantity. It seems impossible under the present conditions of life and it becomes therefore necessary to have at hand a remedy which would quickly restore the damaged digestive organs. Such a remedy is Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, which has a most excellent effect in many diseases of those organs. It makes the intestines clean, strong and willing to work. It should be given to those suffering from constipation, some forms of headache and backache, rheumatism, nervousness and abdominal pains. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, Chemical Laboratory, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. Triner's Ciniment is very strong and a small quantity usually suffices to drive away pains.

THE BRODEGAARD CROWNS TO TACKLE THE BOOSTERS SUNDAY

On next Sunday, September 14, the Boosters of this city will buck up against the Brodegaard Crowns of Omaha on the local base ball lot for a game, and the fans are looking forward to a most interesting game. The Crowns were here earlier in the season and received a trimming at the hands of the locals, but are returning with the determination of securing revenge for their previous defeat, but will find they have run against the swiftest bunch of ball players they have found so far this season. The Boosters have been playing a high class article of base ball during the last few weeks and are able to give any amateur team a run for their money, as was shown by the games with the A. O. U. W. team of Omaha, which is about the fastest aggregation of players in the metropolis, and the splendid efforts of the locals is appreciated by the fans, as is shown by the regular attendance each Sunday at the games. The base ball season will soon be drawing to a close and the fans will be compelled to gather around the stove during the long winter evenings to dope out a winning team for next year, and if the present line-up of the Boosters can be maintained they will sure have it.

THE LONG LOOKED FOR RAIN CAME YESTERDAY

Yesterday afternoon the long-standing drouth that has held sway over this section since June was broken and the generous rain drops began to fall about 2:30 and everyone gathered on the walks to witness the unusual sight of the rainfall, which continued in showers all the afternoon, and raincoats and umbrellas that had grown dusty with disuse were brought forth to shed the rain, and the spirits of the residents of this city rose about 50 per cent as the result of the downpour. The rain again started in about 9:30 in the evening and continued off and on all night, the total rainfall being one-fifth of an inch at the Burlington depot, and slight though it may be it was appreciated, as it will result in laying the dust, as well as freshening up all vegetation and pastures and marks the end of the real heated period that has held us in its grasp for so many weeks. Now that the spell is broken we may expect to receive the usual fall rains that are a prelude to the beautiful Indian summer weather which can be found nowhere but in this state, and which is the most beautiful and enjoyable time of year in this climate.

SOME BAD LUCK!

For the past few days we have been having some bad luck with our new press in the way of getting it to do the work properly, and are compelled to resort to the old press to print this issue, and also to reduce the paper to the old size in order to print it on the old press. This is the reason for our being one day late this week, and we ask our readers to bear with us in this, our hour of misfortune. We will have all defects remedied in a few days, when we will return to the larger size again.

FRED WAGNER TO OPEN A CAFETERIA

This city is to have a new innovation in the line of a restaurant, as Fred Wagner, the up-to-date owner of the delicatessen store, on upper Main street, has decided to open to the public a cafeteria, such as have become so popular in the larger cities of the country. Mr. Wagner is having a large steam table made where all kinds of food can be kept warm and ready to eat and with the cafeteria system there will be no long wait and parties desiring to have a lunch served quickly can find this after next Monday at Mr. Wagner's place, and with the policy that he has carried out so successfully in the delicatessen store, of giving the public just what they want, he will make the proposition a go. There will be no expense spared by Mr. Wagner to give his customers the best on the market, and it is unnecessary to state that it will be prepared in a manner that will please all who desire a nice, clean well prepared lunch, and you can come in and pick out just what you want and have it dished up before your eyes and be assured you are getting just what you ordered. This style of eating house is something new in a town of this size and with the careful management of Mr. Wagner, will prove as great a success as has the delicatessen. Mr. Wagner will also continue to operate his bakery and good things-to-eat department of the store.

NOVEL AND UNIQUE WINDOW DISPLAY AT WESCOTT'S STORE

One of the most novel and elaborate window displays shown here for a long time is that in the west window of C. E. Wescott's Sons' clothing store in advertising the celebrated Headlight "overalls." A locomotive of some four feet high has been constructed by Mr. C. C. Wescott assisted by his son Mason and the machine is made after the model of one of the new engines used by the Pennsylvania railroad and it presents a very life like appearance, especially at night when the headlight is lit, showing the way to this store where the Headlight overalls are sold and the exhibition attracted much attention last evening among the shoppers on the street as the window is one of the largest in the city and can be seen for several blocks. To add to the realism of the scene a semaphore with the words "STOP and buy Headlight overalls" has been placed near the track which gives the scene the appearance of a real railroad yard as the locomotive is placed on a regular track and being of a good size, attracts the attention of the eye at once. On the pilot of the locomotive appears the signal flags with the words "Buy Headlight overalls" and the general attractive appearance of the window will be the means of advancing the sale of these excellent overalls.

Another very attractive feature of the window is a large doll dressed in the celebrated "Headlight" overalls which makes a fine finishing touch to the elegant window display. A small fence has been placed along the "right of way" with the sign "Take the Headlight route to overall satisfaction" which impresses on the parties viewing the window the splendid qualities of these overalls and the background of the window is completed by several pairs of these overalls.

C. A. GAUER CELEBRATES 40TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

From Tuesday's Daily.

A very pleasant event occurred last Friday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gauer, near Cedar Creek, the occasion being the fortieth birthday anniversary of Mr. Gauer, and, unknown to him, his wife and daughters planned a surprise in honor of the event and invited some forty of the friends of this worthy gentleman to assist him in celebration his natal day. One of the chief features of the joyous occasion was a sumptuous 6 o'clock dinner, which had been prepared by the hostess, and to this the company did ample justice and expressed great pleasure at the dainties that were fit for a king and which fully attested the ability of Mrs. Gauer and her charming daughters in the line of preparing good things to eat. After the delicious dinner had been disposed of the company was entertained with vocal and instrumental music, as well as a genuine good time in visiting among themselves until near the home-going hour, when dainty ice cream and cake was served to the guests. Mrs. Gauer was assisted in serving by Misses Emma Meisinger, Anna and Emma Gauer, who carried out their duties in a very charming manner. The guest of honor at the surprise party was the recipient of a large number of very handsome gifts as remembrances of the happy event and the occasion will long be cherished by Mr. Gauer as a pleasant recollection of the kindly feeling entertained for him by his friends. The invited guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames J. Lillie, H. J. Schlutz and family of Plattsburgh, G. G. Meisinger and daughter, Edna; John Gauer and family, H. Inhelder, L. Myers, Mrs. Kaufmann and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gauer and family.

BOY THROWN FROM HORSE NEAR ELMWOOD AND IS BADLY HURT

Leland Hayes is in a critical condition at his home east of town as the result of an accident which happened him while riding to town horseback yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. He was accompanied by a boy companion, Simon Brandt, and the two are supposed to have been riding their horses at a fast rate of speed. Leland's horse stumbled and fell on the bridge just east of the Ed Gustin farm residence, precipitating the rider to the ground beyond and causing injuries which are severe in character to say the least. One of his ankles was severely mangled, undoubtedly having been trampled upon by the horse in getting up; his face had been rammed in the dust and his eyes were filled with dirt, and he received numerous other injuries here and there over his limbs and abdomen. He was picked up unconscious and taken to his home, where medical assistance was immediately given.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes were at Lincoln attending the fair and knew nothing of their son's mishap until Ed Gustin went after and notified them, having them home in his touring car by 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Leland is still unconscious at this writing, but is giving signs of regaining consciousness, and we sincerely hope that a condition not so bad as appearances now indicate will be proved by his ultimate and complete recovery. The attending physician informs us that concussion of the brain is one of the worst things to contend with, while hemorrhage is also a bad thing with which he has to deal.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.
