ANOTHER CASS COUNTY BOY COMES TO THE FRONT

Arthur L. Palmer, a Young Man Born and Reared at Louisville, Makes a Mark.

From Tuesday's Daily. Another native Cass county boy who is coming to the front is Arthur L. Palmer, who was born and reared at Louisville, in this county, and has made a great success at Harvard, where he was one of the leading members of his class at the law school. The Omaha Bee gives the following account of Mr. Palmer, which will be of much interest to his former friends in this county:

Arthur L. Palmer, a brother of Harry O. Palmer, the lawyer, was in Omaha yesterday visiting friends. Mr. Palmer is passing through Omaha on his way to visit his mother in California before he sails for a nine months' trip to Europe in November. Mr. Palmer was born at Louisville, and is a graduate of the class of 1910 of the state university. He took a three-year law course at Harvard, graduating this spring. He was president of the Harvard-Nebraska club at Harvard and also president of the Harvard Masonic club. This summer he was commandant of Camp Hale, Squam lake, New Hampshire, a summer camp for Jewish tenement boys. Mr. Palmer will sail for Europe in November as a member of a party who are guests of Horatio Hathaway, an eastern capitalist, and will tutor his son, Lovering, preparatory to entering Harvard. The party will visit England, Germany, France, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland and Mr. Palmer will visit Denmark, Sweden and Norway. Mr. Palmer will move to Omaha one year from this fall to practice law with his brother, Harry O. Palmer.

Returns From Missouri. Ed Lewis and family, who have been making their home down near Mound City, Mo., for the past few months, returned to Plattsburgh a few days ago, and Mr. Lewis will for the present be with the McMaken & Son concrete crew. Ed says things are looking pretty blue in that part of Missouri, as most everything in the crop line is a total failure.

Pleasant Picnic Dinner.

A very pleasant picnic dinner was enjoyed this noon at the home of Judge and Mrs. M. Archer, as a number of the friends of the hostess from Omaha came down to spend the day with her at her home. The occasion was a very pleasant one to all in the party and the guests were delighted with the splendid dinner set before them. Those in the party were: Mrs. D. R. Corley and daughter, Charlotte, Mrs. M. Kennedy, Mrs. E. Barrowman, Mrs. W. H. Walker, Mrs. Barney McCauley, all of Omaha, and Mrs. Charles Postle of Council Bluffs. Mrs. Corley is a daughter of Mrs. Archer, while the other ladies are old friends and neighbors. After an afternoon of much enjoyment the party returned home over the Missouri Pacific this evening.

BURLINGTON DEPOT AN OBJECT OF BEAUTY

From Wednesday's Daily. The remodeled Burlington station in this city is about to be turned over, completely finished as far as the building itself is concerned, and it is a welcome change from the old, cramped structure that was in use for many years. Two very commodious waiting rooms have been provided for the traveling public that are fixed up in very comfortable manner and will make it very convenient for the travelers waiting at the station for trains. The waiting rooms have been painted in shades of light brown and cream and present a very neat appearance, while the radiators and steam pipes that will be used to heat the building have been silvered, which serves to set off very handsomely the rooms. Both the ladies' room on the south side of the depot and the gents' on the north have been provided with all modern conveniences, and the arrangements for the cashier to handle the ticket sales is one that cannot fail to appeal to those who travel over this road, as with only one window for the sale of tickets they can be handled much faster and save the cashier many weary steps. The office has also been remodeled and while not much larger than formerly, is arranged much handier for the station agent and his force of employees. The Burlington is to be praised for the nice, neat depot they have given us and there is little doubt it will be amply big enough to handle the amount of travel that passes through there at present.

JOHNNIE HATT JR., HAS HIS HAND BADLY CUT

Yesterday Johnnie, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hatt, met with a very serious accident while playing around home. The little boy was playing with a glass bottle in which he had placed some water, and was engaged in shaking it when in some manner the bottle broke, with the result that the little fellow had his right hand quite badly cut and injured. He was at once conveyed to the office of a surgeon, where the injury was dressed, and it required several stitches to close the wound. The little boy was made as easy as possible, although the injury was very painful, and it is thought that he will not suffer any serious results from the accident.

KENSINGTON CLUB ENTERTAINED AT THE GEO. THOMAS HOME

The Kensington club held a most delightful meeting yesterday afternoon at the cosy home of Mrs. George Thomas on Vine street, and the members present were enchanted with the charming entertainment afforded them by their hostess. The ladies, who have been taking a vacation during the hot summer months, were greatly pleased with the outlook for the social activities of the winter and several hours were spent most pleasantly in discussing the plans for the coming season, as well as in plying the busy needle on the dainty fancy work that the different members had brought with them. At an appropriate hour the guests were ushered into the dining room, where a most delicious and tempting three-course luncheon was served by the hostess, and words fail when it comes to describing it, as there was nothing omitted that was needed to make the event one of the most successful ever given by the club.

LESLIE L. VROMAN MARRIED TODAY

From Wednesday's Daily. This afternoon at the home of the parents of the groom in this city occurred the marriage of Leslie L. Vroman of Havelock and Miss Clara J. Schultz of Lincoln. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. D. L. Dunkleberger of the Christian church, who pronounced the words that made these young people one, in a manner that was very impressive. The wedding was attended by only the immediate family, as the young people desired to avoid all display. The bride is a very charming young lady, who is much loved and respected in her home town, while the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Vroman of this city and is a young man who was reared to manhood here, but is at present employed at Havelock, where he is highly respected and esteemed. The young people will make their home in that city in the future.

The Junior Guild Meets.
From Tuesday's Daily. The Junior Guild of St. Luke's church held their first meeting of the season last evening at the home of Misses Gretchen and Marie Donnelly. Plans for the coming year were discussed with much enthusiasm and several social attractions decided upon, to be given in the near future. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, and besides a profitable business meeting a most enjoyable social evening was enjoyed. Success to the Junior Guild for 1913-14!

Has His Toe Mashed.
This morning John Grebe, employed in the steel car department at the Burlington shops, received an injury to his foot by having a rivet buffer drop upon it. "THE LIFE OF CHRIST" TO BE PICTURED AT THE PARMELE THEATRE SOON

Manager R. M. Shlaes of the Parmele theater yesterday closed a contract for the appearance at that theater in the near future of the great religious picture play, "From the Manager to the Cross." This is a portrayal of the life of Christ and is placed on six reels of moving picture films that will require over two hours to show. It has been pronounced by critics all over the country as easily the greatest religious feature film ever produced and has done a great work in the teaching of the lessons of Christianity. The date for the appearance of the pictures will be announced shortly and everyone who can should make it a point to take in this pleasing feature. The picture costs $100 to secure for the one night's production, but the exceptional opportunity offered Mr. Shlaes to secure it for his patrons here induced him to disregard the price in order to bring it to this city.
