WELCOME TO THE NEW PASTOR

Rev. F. M. Drulinger Preaches
First Sermon and Is Heartily
Welcomed by Congregation.

The new pastor of the First Methodist church of this city made his first appearance in his new charge last evening, when he assumed charge of the evening services and delivered his first sermon to the members of the congregation. Rev. F. M. Drulinger was a surprise and delight to the members of the church, who attended the services last evening, as he possesses a splendid and powerful voice that filled the church with its rich, full tones and his sermon was a strong and able one on the subject of "Encouragement," the text being "there shall no man be able to stand before Thee all the days of thy life," and it was a sermon of more than usual ability and made a very favorable impression upon the large number that braved the disagreeable weather to be in attendance.

The new pastor made a few remarks to the members of the church preceding the sermon, expressing his pleasure at coming to the city and of his endeavor during his charge here to maintain the pleasant relations between the pastor and members that has prevailed here for the past several years. The new rector is one that makes a very favorable impression upon the members of his flock and much pleasure was expressed at having such an able gentleman to fill the pulpit here during the coming church year.

The Euterpean Glee club during the evening service furnished some very delightful numbers, the trio by Misses Ellen Windham, Leona Brady and Bertha Jackson being especially pleasing to the audience, and the sweet voices of the singers mingled in perfect harmony and attested the wonderful talent possessed by these ladies.

MASTER FRANCIS TAYLOR CELEBRATES SIXTH BIRTHDAY

A very pleasant gathering of little folks occurred Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Taylor, two and a half miles west of town, in honor of the sixth birthday anniversary of Master Warren Francis Taylor. The afternoon was most delightfully spent by the little tots in playing games until the main treat of the afternoon, some very delicious ice cream and cake, was served by Mrs. Taylor, assisted by Mrs. O. K. Parmele, and which were delightfully relished by the guests. The company late in the afternoon departed for their homes, wishing their little friend many happy returns of the day. The guests present for the event were: Alfarella, Chester and Marion Taylor, Charles Taylor, Fred Warren, James Warren, Roy Tulene, Gladys Tulene, Mildred Stoehr, Clara Mae Morgan, Alice Louise Wescott, Helen Wescott, Norris Arthur Smith, Earl Warren, Ethel Warren, Warren Francis Taylor and Robert Sackett of Omaha.

BE SURE OF HAVING PLENTY OF GASOLINE BEFORE STARTING OUT

A very thrilling escapade was experienced by one of our leading business men Saturday afternoon while out in the vicinity of Mynard with his automobile. The machine was rushing along, bearing the owner back to this city, and when about two miles east of Mynard the machine stopped and refused to go farther, and with a few hoarse chugs "gave up the ghost," and the owner promptly alighted to investigate and locate the cause of trouble, and after a search of the machine found that the gasoline supply was all out and not a drop remained to run on into town with. There being nothing else to do, the auto owner promptly started out to try and locate a farm house where some of the joy rider's friend could be secured, and walked some two miles east of the scene of the breakdown, only to find that the farmer residing there was just out himself; then he was directed to a farm house about a mile south, where he was lucky enough to find a small supply of gasoline, and he was able, after the walk of three miles to get the auto under way, arriving here in good shape, but well tired out by his strenuous walk over the countryside.

WELL KNOWN PARTIES IN PLATTSMOUTH ARE MARRIED IN LINCOLN

The following, taken from the Havelock Times of this week, will be of much interest to the friends of the contracting parties, as the groom in the wedding is a former resident of this city, where his parents resided for many years, and the bride is also well known here, where she has visited and where a number of relatives reside:

"Miss Marie Janda and Mr. James Fogerty, both of Havelock, were united in marriage on Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the German Catholic church in Lincoln, Rev. Father Casimir performing the ceremony. After the ceremony the newly married couple came to Havelock, where the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's brother, K. E. Fogerty, 309 South Twelfth street. In the afternoon they left Lincoln over the Burlington for St. Louis, and on their return will make their home for a time with Thomas Janda, the bride's brother, on Touzalin avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Fogerty are well known in Havelock, where Mr. Fogerty is an employe in the shops."

Some Good Apples.
Our excellent old friend, Uncle Ben Beckman, was in the city last Saturday, spending the day with his many county seat friends. When starting from home he sure had the Journal man in his mind, for he loaded in a fine supply of good eating apples that were brought to this office. Uncle Ben is a mighty good friend of the Journal people.

Our Old Friend Calls.

Our old friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker, were in the city Saturday for a few hours, driving up with Dr. G. H. Gilmore, and while here Mr. Walker made the editorial sanctum of this paper a call and we were delighted to see how well this worthy gentleman looked and his health appeared better than for several years. Come again, old friend, the latch-string is always hanging on the outside.

E. L. FINCH GOES TO DES MOINES TO SEE DAUGHTER WHO IS ILL

This morning E. L. Finch departed for Des Moines, Iowa, where he was called by a message announcing the serious condition of his daughter in that city. The lady was operated on a few weeks ago and was apparently getting along nicely and the family were in hopes of having her out of the hospital in a few days, when an attack of pneumonia was visited upon the lady and her condition has become so critical that the father was summoned to her bedside, as it was not expected that she could recover from the attack.

FORMER PLATTSMOUTH GIRL MARRIED IN KANSAS CITY SEPTEMBER 4

The announcement cards of the wedding of Miss Nell Catherine Schmidt of Kansas City and Mr. Charles Frederick Speck of Rockland, Colorado, have been received in this city by the friends of the contracting parties. Miss Schmidt is well known in this city, where she was reared to womanhood and where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schmidt, were prominent residents for several years, Mr. Schmidt being a civil engineer, and the many old friends of the family will be greatly pleased to learn of the happy event, which occurred at the home of the bride's parents, in Kansas City, on Thursday, September 4. The young people will make their future home at Rockland, where they will be at home to their friends after the first of October.

THE DRAMATIC PRODUCTION AT THE T. J. SOKOL HALL

The dramatic production offered at the T. J. Sokol hall Saturday evening by the Bohemian dramatic club was one of the best of its kind that has been presented here by that club and the large audience was well pleased with the play which was given in the Bohemian language and the different roles were carried out most excellently by the young actors and actresses. The name of the play was "Svalojanaska Pout" and it dealt with life in the old country and was throughout a very clever piece of work and very capably handled by the young people composing the company. Following the play a most delightful social dance was given by the T. J. Sokol society that proved one of the most delightful features of the evening and the dancers spent several hours most pleasantly in dancing to the pleasing strains of music played by the Holly orchestra. There was a very large attendance both at the play and dance and everyone felt that they had had a most delightful time in their being present at the occasion and the next event of the kind will be looked forward to with much interest by the Bohemian citizens.

Death of Mrs. Anna Miller.
The death of Mrs. Anna Miller, wife of John Miller of Omaha, occurred Saturday at her home in Omaha, after a long suffering from paralysis, and the funeral was held there this afternoon and was attended by a number of relatives from this city. Mrs. Miller was a niece of Mrs. Peter Mumm of this city and a sister-in-law of Charles Miller, the farmer residing south of this city, both of whom attended the funeral in the metropolis this afternoon.

AMERICA'S GREAT WORLD'S WORK

Interesting Address Delivered Before Brotherhood by Mr. Briggs at Presbyterian Church.

Yesterday before the Brotherhood at the Presbyterian Sunday school, M. S. Briggs spoke on the general subject of "Missions," and in substance had to say, that as a factor in the promulgation of the gospel, the United States, collectively, the citizens, individually, and the churches were doing a great work for the spreading of the gospel of Christ. In many times and places the acts which have as much to do for the advancement of the cause of the Master, were acts which the strict adherent of some particular creed would not have pronounced missionary work.

While Moses was a great missionary, one need not be as meek as a Moses to do missionary work, for sometimes it requires more forcible things than the preaching to effect cures to aggravated cases. Like when it was necessary for this country to intervene in the case of Spain and Cuba, we had offered our peaceful mediation, which was rejected, and with the conditions which prevailed in 1898, the world looked upon us to right the then existing wrongs under which the inhabitants of Cuba were suffering. When the peaceful mediation was rejected sterner measures had to be resorted to, and the men of war and the soldiers who were marching under the banners of the United States and who carried freedom from the galling bonds under which they labored in the subservience to Spain, also carried the gospel, as the humanity which the armies brought to the oppressed Cubans, was the kind which the Master came to teach nearly 2,000 years ago in Palestine.

The opening of Japan some fifty years ago, and the subsequent enlightenment and the progress, with the spread of Christianity in that country, was an instance of the influence of a nation like the United States, when it takes a stand for the betterment of the world.

Another matter which is nearer at home, and which he urged the adoption of, was the working together of the three adult or young men's classes in the different schools, namely, the Brotherhood, to whom he was speaking, the Young Men's Bible class of the Methodist church, and the Loyal Sons of the Christian church, taking up the idea, which has been in successful operation for some time, or the "Big Brother Idea," that some member shall stand sponsor for the youth who is arrested for the first time, and become in reality to him a big brother, and by the influence which he is able to exert on him, to assist in making good. This plan is in successful operation in New York City especially, and has been the means of saving many a boy to a good and successful life. This could be done here, and there exists a need of such work, for but a short time since two of the young men of this city were sent to the reform school and, as we believe, is a reform school in name only, for the one who is taken to such a place is thrown into company which has a tendency to make him worse, rather than better. The boys who recently were sent to serve terms in the state's reformatory could have been saved to make good citizens of Plattsmouth. While many influences exist in Plattsmouth which are not ideal, if we live here, it is up to us to try and make those conditions as good as possible. The question now for solution—will we do it?

Mrs. Virginia Allen of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, who has been here for a few weeks visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDaniel, departed yesterday afternoon for Denver, where she will join her husband, and from there continue on to California, where they will spend the winter.

John Bergman of near Mynard was in the city Saturday doing some shopping and found time during the day to drop into the Journal office to renew his subscription to the Semi-Weekly, as well as that of Frank J. Bergman of Wabash, for which he has our sincere thanks.
