TOM JETT LANDS A REGULAR JACK JOHNSON BLOW

Oscar Eledge and Chas. Warren
Jump on Tom Jett and Got the Worst of It.

Last evening quite a lively altercation occurred on Main street between Charles Warren and Oscar Eledge on the one side and Thomas Jett on the other and as a result of the meeting the Fanger Department store is shy a pane of glass in the west side of one of the show windows where Mr. Jett hurled the form of Mr. Eledge with great force. As far as can be learned Tom, who is a very peaceable colored gentleman, was coming up Main street and when in front of the Fanger store was stopped by Warren and Eledge, whom he claimed applied several insulting names to him and then proceeded to make a demonstration that seemed an invitation to Tom to make war and he struck Eledge in the nose with a blow that would have made Sam Langford look cheap and Oscar fell against the window breaking it in several places, and causing much alarm on the street where it was supposed some of the business houses were being forced open by robbers. The warriors were gathered in by the police and this morning faced Judge Archer who inflicted a fine of $2 and costs on Tom and one of $5 and costs on the men who started the trouble. Jett paid his fine and the judge after considering the matter decided to allow Warren to return to his home at Council Bluffs and advised Eledge to hunt another stopping place on the penalty of having to lay out his fine in jail and upon the agreement of these parties to rid the town of their presence the judge suspended sentence. Eledge is a familiar figure in the police court of this city where he has been on numerous charges in the past and the town is lucky to be rid of him while Warren appears to be one of the same kind of characters who should be driven from the city.

Returns for Short Visit Here.
From Wednesday's Daily.

Albert Clabaugh and bride returned last evening on the 7:45 Missouri Pacific train from Kansas City, where they have been visiting for a few days en route from Colorado, where they have been spending a short honeymoon. Mr. Clabaugh and wife will visit here for a few days with the parents of Mrs. Clabaugh, Colonel and Mrs. M. A. Bates, and then leave for the east, where they will reside at Fairmont, West Virginia, in the future, where Mr. Clabaugh takes up his work as manager of the plant of the Municipal Utilities company in that city.

DETAINED ON ACCOUNT OF FLOODS IN THE SOUTH

A message has just been received in this city by the parents of George Schantz, jr., announcing that he had expected to reach this state in time to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben in Omaha, but the floods in the neighborhood of his home town, Jennings, Louisiana, would make it impossible for him to reach here until some time later, as he would be compelled to go clear to Houston, Texas, before being able to start north and would not reach here until toward the middle of the month. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Schantz, sr., were greatly disappointed, but are looking forward to the meeting with their son and family in the near future. The floods in the vicinity of Jennings, where Mr. Schantz lives, have been most severe and a wide tract of country there has been under water for several days.

RECEPTION TENDERED MR. AND MRS. SEIVERS

Tuesday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Seivers was filled with a large crowd of friends in honor of Mr. Jennings Seivers and bride, who had arrived home Monday evening. The guests numbered members of the morning choir of the Methodist church and a number of the neighbors and old Virginia friends of the Seivers family. A most delightful informal program was given by the different guests present, which served to make the evening very enjoyable to all. Two very much appreciated readings were given by Mrs. Allen J. Beeson and Miss Ellen Windham; as well as several instrumental selections by Misses Myra Stenner, Hazel Tuoy, Fannie Willis, Mrs. Jennings Seivers and Mrs. Jesse Brady, and vocal numbers by Messdames E. H. Wescott and Mae Morgan in solos, and a most pleasing duet served to make the evening's musical program very pleasing indeed, and the vocal numbers by Messrs. Jesse Perry and Jesse Brady and Jennings Seivers were much enjoyed by the large crowd to the utmost. The musical program of the evening came near being put out of business when Judge A. J. Beeson arose and stated he was too hoarse to sing for the company, and to their relief asked to be excused. During the evening some very tempting refreshments were served, which completed the evening of enjoyment and the guests departed for their homes, wishing the newly wedded couple much happiness and joy in their future life and that they might continue to make their home here in this city.

Oysters Now on Hand.

The lunch room in the rear of the Geise saloon will be found in the future well supplied with all kinds of oysters in any style you may desire, and all parties desiring anything in this line will do well to drop in there.

ANOTHER PLATTSMOUTH BOY THAT HAS ADVANCED RAPIDLY TO THE FRONT

Yesterday afternoon David Hawthorth of Detroit, Mich., who has been here visiting with his mother, Mrs. D. Hawthorth, and other relatives for several days, departed for his home. Mr. Hawthorth is one of the Plattsmouth young men who has advanced to the front very rapidly and now holds the position of vice president of the Hutchins Car Roofing company of Detroit, one of the leading companies of its kind in the country, and he has been more than successful in his work. The advancement of Mr. Hawthorth will be a source of much gratification to his old friends here, who have watched his career with much interest, and now that he is forging rapidly to the front they can feel a pardonable pride in this worthy son of Plattsmouth. Mr. Hawthorth is a mechanical engineer by profession and devoted several years of study to this after his graduation from the University of Nebraska, going to the east, where he entered the Westinghouse company's employ for several years and was one of their best men at the time he decided to enter other fields, and since his location at Detroit has come right to the front. The visit of Mr. Hawthorth here was much enjoyed by his old friends and their pleasure was enhanced by his wonderful advancement.

DR. J. S. LIVINGSTON NOW DISTRICT DEPUTY FOR THE ELKS LODGE

The information has been received here of the appointment of Dr. J. S. Livingston of this city as district deputy grand exalted ruler for the B. P. O. E., with the jurisdiction of the south Platte territory. This appointment from the grand lodge is very pleasing to the members of the lodge here, as the doctor has been a live wire in the organization ever since the lodge was organized, and there has never been a time he was not working for the advancement of the order, and his appointment is a most worthy bestowal of the honor upon one of the "five ones" in the order. Dr. Livingston is also vice president of the state association of the Elks and this new appointment comes from the grand lodge of the order and is bestowed in the proper place, as the members of the order here will vouch for.

SUMMONED TO COLORADO ON ACCOUNT OF SICKNESS

Arthur C. White arrived in this city yesterday, from his home in Florida, en route to Scotts Bluffs to look after some business matters, and while on the road decided to stop off here to visit his relatives in this city, whom he had not seen for some time. While here he received a message from Fort Morgan, Colorado, announcing the critical illness of his daughter in that city and at once left for that place to be at her bedside. Mr. White was greatly shocked, as was also the other relatives in this city, to learn of the illness of the daughter, as it was not known that she was seriously sick. The many friends here of Mr. White will trust that he may find his daughter improved upon reaching Fort Morgan. Mr. White is a brother of A. W. White and Mrs. V. V. Leonard of this city, with whom he had hoped to enjoy a short visit, until summoned away by the message.

Stuart Janda of Havelock came down last evening on No. 2 and will look after some business matters here for a few days.

Joy and Happiness.

It should be our endeavor to extract as much joy and happiness from life as possible. Be happy and make other happy. The first condition of happiness is health and the first condition of health is a perfect digestion of food. If this digestion becomes poor, from whatever cause, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine will again bring it to regular activity. It will drive out of the body all matter not belonging there and make the body clean and able to accept enough food. It will aid digestion. Use it in loss of appetite, constipation, internal pains and cramps, in nervousness and weakness. In diseases of the stomach and the intestines it is a very valuable medicine, working promptly and safely. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Illinois. Whenever you should need a liniment for driving away pains, use Triner's Liniment. It is the best.

THE PLATTSMOUTH AUTO CLUB MEETS NEXT SATURDAY

The Plattsmouth Auto club will hold another one of their meetings at the Commercial club rooms in the Coates' block in this city on Saturday afternoon and every member of the club or who is interested in the question of good roads should be on hand, as the subject will be taken up, as well as an effort made by the organization to secure the assistance of all the members in an effort to get out and assist in the work on the days set aside for that purpose by Governor Morehead. The good roads problem is one in which every automobile owner of the county is vitally interested, and it behooves them to turn out and attend the meeting of the auto club, where a system of work along this line can be figured out. The automobile club will do a great work for the betterment, not only of the roads, but also of the general conditions of the automobile owners of the county if they will only take the proper interest in the matters brought up and see that the officers of the club are assisted in their efforts to advance the interests of the auto men of the whole county. If the weather is good there is no reason for not having a big attendance at the meeting, and all who can should be in attendance to assist in making it a glorious success and in pushing the good roads question along.

MOST DISCOURAGING REPORTS COME FROM BEDSIDE OF JUDGE TRAVIS

The reports this morning from the bedside of District Judge H. D. Travis are most discouraging to his family and friends and but little hope of his being with them long is held out. It was almost impossible to rouse him last evening at all, and he seems to be gradually sinking into unconsciousness. For the past several days he has not been able to take nourishment of any kind, and as a result has gradually grown weaker, and if it had not been for his wonderful vitality would have been unable to live through the long suffering he has undergone. The low condition of the judge will be keenly felt by everyone in this city and county, as his friends are without number throughout his judicial district, and they have been hoping that perhaps he would be able to regain his health and recover from the malady that has stricken him, but his condition at present bids them to despair of his recovery.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic. Price, $1.00.

EVERYBODY IS FOR THE SALES DAY PROPOSITION

Now that the matter of holding the sales day in this city has been gotten under such satisfactory headway, every citizen in Plattsmouth should get in line and begin to boost the proposition, as it will make one of the best methods of attracting the farmers and persons residing near this city into town. Wherever the idea has been put into practice it has resulted in drawing large crowds and contributed greatly to the building up of the places by getting the people in a habit of trading in the towns where these sales have been held. The advantage to the farmer who has anything to sell is easy to see, as he can bring it in and the auctioneer hired for the occasion will auction it off for him without cost, and in addition to that the exceptional bargain that will be offered at the stores will prove to be money-saving opportunities for the farmers. The entertainment question will be looked after by having a concert given by the Burlington band, which alone is worth the time of anyone to hear. Get in line and let us all work to make this sales day one big, howling success in every way, and when Saturday, October 11, comes around there is no doubt the city will be well filled by visitors from the neighboring towns and country.

The latest hits in the music world will be given at the Cosmo-politan club dance on Saturday evening at Coates' hall, including: "That International Rag," "They've Got Me Doin' It Now," "We Have Much to Be Thankful For," "I Love Her, Oh! Oh! Oh!" "When It's Apple Blossom Time in Normandy." A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

SPECIAL ON THE BURLINGTON WAS WELL PATRONIZED

The special train last evening that conveyed the crowd to the Omaha electric parade was crowded with the remainder of the population who were unable to get away on the earlier trains, and on the return trip the train was packed and jammed, as it seemed almost everyone had decided to wait to make the last train, and a great many of those who were passengers to Omaha on the Burlington returned home on the Missouri Pacific, which left a few minutes after the special did. There were the usual number who figured on the train being late and they were compelled to spend the night in the metropolis, returning home this morning, satisfied that they had seen the whole show. Quite a great deal of dissatisfaction was expressed over the way the train left last night without warning, and many were left standing on the platform, while others were just buying their tickets when the train pulled out and left.

Dance on October 11.

There will be another pleasant social dance given at the K. S. hall on West Locust street on Saturday evening, October 11, and the general public is cordially invited to attend and have a good time. The best of music will be furnished and anyone failing to attend will miss one of the best times of their lives.

H. C. Long of Murray was in the city today for a few hours looking after some items of business with the merchants.
