GOOD ROADS DAYS NEXT THURSDAY AND FRIDAY OCT. 9 AND 10

Cass County Should Not Be Behind Other Counties in This Move to Better the Roads.

What are the citizens here going to do to aid in the good roads day on next Thursday and Friday, October 9 and 10? This is the time when every believer in the good roads movement should get out and join in the procession of "live ones" that will on those days be busy throughout the state in working the public highways. The residents of the town can spare a short time to fix up the road or street adjoining their homes and thereby contribute their share to the general program of improvement that will be placed upon the roads of Nebraska.

Every farmer should find time during these days to get out and drag the roads, as well as fill up any holes that may be dangerous on the highway near their premises or farm and make it possible for themselves, as well as their neighbors, to drive through the country with comfort and safety. There is no question so vital in these days as that of good roads, and it is one that concerns both the townsman as well as the farmer, for without good roads it is impossible for the farmer to come to town to trade, and with the farmer a good road is necessary that he may haul his produce to the market in the larger towns, and by working together great good can be accomplished by both in making the country roads and city streets passable and in good shape for travel.

This is the very time of the year when the roads should be dragged and graded and placed in condition for the winter season, when they will be filled with snow, and if allowed to start in the winter season filled with holes and gullies, will, in the spring, make travel a matter of impossibility. Let everybody that possibly can lay aside their other duties on these days and get out and assist in the good work of putting the roads in shape for winter, and let them look at the splendid example set by the citizens of Missouri, when bankers and merchants worked side by side with the farmers in putting the roads in good shape.

MISS EDITH BURDICK CELEBRATES HER EIGHTH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

There was a very pleasant gathering of little folks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burdick Saturday afternoon on the occasion of the eighth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Edith. The young folks spent the afternoon in playing games of various kinds, and the occasion was one filled with much pleasure to the guests present. One of the main features of the afternoon of enjoyment was an elegant three-course luncheon and the large birthday cake which, with its twelve candles, served as a very handsome centerpiece for the handsomely decorated table. In the cutting of the cake Helen Farley secured the dime, while Mary Margaret Walling was fortunate enough to secure the ring, Gretchen Pein drew the penny and Edith Farley the thimble, which feature of the afternoon furnished much pleasure to the little folks. Mrs. Burdick was assisted in entertaining by Misses Blanch Robertson and Pearl Mumm. At a late hour in the afternoon the little folks wended their way homeward, wishing Edith many more happy birthdays in the future. The guests for the afternoon were: Helen Wescott, Edith and Helen Farley, Kathryn Waddick, Gretchen Pein, Wilhemina Henrichsen, Ursula Herold, Mary Margaret Walling, Emma Wohlfarth, Elizabeth Waddick, Fern Thompson, Mary and Ruth Parmele.

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED AT THE BRIGGS HOME

From Friday's Daily.

The Helpers of the Christian church were entertained last evening at the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Briggs on South Sixth street and a most delightful social meeting was enjoyed by the young people, who were treated to the most lavish hospitality so characteristic of the Briggs home. One of the chief features of the amusement of the evening was the question box, and the subject discussed was that of " house cleaning," and some very useful ideas were gained by the young people that will later be put to the test. Misses Myra Stenner and Florence Dunkleberger, both accomplished pianists, gave a number of very pleasing numbers, and the company were very delightfully treated to a reading by Mrs. Allen J. Beeson in her usual delightful manner, which was greatly enjoyed by everyone fortunate enough to be in attendance. There were several other offerings on the informal program from the different members of the party that were most pleasing to all of the large crowd. At an appropriate hour delicious refreshments were served that brought the happy evening to a close and the guests departed feeling very much indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Briggs for the grand good time.

YOUNG LADIES OF THE JUNIOR GUILD WERE THERE WITH THE GOODS

From Friday's Daily.

The oyster supper given last evening at the Hotel Riley by the Junior Guild of St. Luke's church was one of the most pleasant affairs of its kind ever given in the city and the young ladies can feel very proud of the delightful manner in which the supper was conducted, as well as the tempting and delicious oyster stews that were served to the hungry public that filled the dning room from 5 until 8 o'clock. The tables were decorated very tastefully with roses and asters and shaded candles, which added greatly to the handsome appearance of the room. The viands served to the public by the bevy of handsome and courteous waitresses were most tempting and greatly enjoyed. During the course of the supper delightful music was furnished by E. H. Schulhof, the Victrola agent, upon one of his fine machines. The ladies realized a neat sum from their efforts and it is to be hoped they will repeat the occasion in the near future.

The occasion throughout was most enjoyable, and, as one of the patrons expressed it, they had received a 75-cent supper for 25 cents. The ladies realized some $35 as a result of their efforts and feel very much indebted to Mr. Schulhof for his kindness in assisting them, and for the use of his Victrola.

DID NOT EXCEED THE NUMBER TO BE KILLED ACCORDING TO LAW

From Friday's Daily.

Yesterday County Judge A. J. Beeson and Cashier H. N. Dovey of the First National bank decided to take a few hours off from their duties, and arming themselves with rifles and a large amount of ammunition they proceeded to the vicinity of Rock Bluffs to hunt the festive squirrel, and spent several hours most pleasantly at this sport, and it is stated that they did not exceed the limit of the law on the number of squirrels shot and did not secure over thirty apiece. They enjoyed the outing very much and felt greatly improved by the few hours they spent out in the pure fresh fall air of the country. The stories of their expedition have greatly stirred up their friends and several other hunting parties are being planned for the near future.

Cass County Girl to Marry.

From Friday's Daily.

The county judge this morning received an application for a license to wed from Harry J. Lawson of Kalamazoo, Michigan, who desires to be united with Miss Claire F. Andrus of Manley, this county. The bride is a member of one of the leading families of that locality and her friends will be greatly pleased to learn of her marriage to Mr. Lawson, who is a young man of excellent character and standing and the young people will have the best wishes of their many friends for their future happiness and welfare.

PLATTSMOUTH MAN TO DECORATE IOWA STATE INSTITUTE AT GLENWOOD

From Friday's Daily.

The state institute buildings at Glenwood, which have been erected during the past summer months by Peters & Richards, the contractors, of this city, will now be turned over to another Plattsmouth man in the person of Frank Gobelman, who has received the contract for the decorating and painting of these buildings from the Iowa board of control, and he will start on the contract that means the paying out of several thousand dollars for the work of having the new building painted and placed in shape to be turned over to the state board of control of Iowa. The reputation of Mr. Gobelman as an artist and of the splendid results given by his work has made him in demand in all the neighboring territory, and wherever he has done work it has proven to be most satisfactory and he is eminently fitted to give the Iowa people the best job of the kind they have had.

MISSES GLADYS AND GOLDIE KAFFENBERGER CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

From Friday's Daily.

A very pleasant gathering of little folks occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kaffenberger in this city on Monday afternoon and evening in honor of the twelfth birthday anniversary of their twin daughters, Gladys and Goldie, and the guests, twelve girl friends, represented each year of their life. The young folks spent the time most pleasantly in games of various kinds, including a peanut hunt, which furnished much amusement to the happy crowd of young people. The guests were then invited into the dining room, where, on the tables decorated with flowers of the autumn season and candles, a most tempting and delicious three-course luncheon was served, to which the young folks did ample justice, and at a late hour they departed homeward, wishing the Misses Kaffenberger many happy returns of the day. The guests for the delightful event were: Misses Esther Hawkenberry, Grace Beeson, Nellie Cowles, Helen Egenberger, Jeanette Weber, Lillian McCarty, Elizabeth Wynn, Janet Bajeck, Mable Lee Copenhaver, Fay Cobb, Ethel Bobbitt and Pauline Bajeck.

LADIES AID SOCIETY OF THE METHODIST CHURCH MEET AT THE PERKINS

From Friday's Daily.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church was entertained yesterday afternoon at the Perkins house by Mrs. John Cory, and the ladies of the society had a most delightful time in visiting and in the discussion of matters of business in the interest of the society. At an appropriate hour the ladies were invited to the dining room of the hotel, where most delicious refreshmetns were served to the gathering, which aided greatly in making the afternoon a most enjoyable one, and the ladies were loud in their praise of the pleasant manner in which they had been entertained.

SOUTH FOURTH STREET IN VERY POOR CONDITION

From Friday's Daily.

If there is a street in the city of Plattsmouth that needs to be looked after it is Fourth street from Main south to Pearl, as whenever there is a little rain this street becomes a regular bog in spots, and while used a great deal, not only by the delivery teams of the different merchants, but also by farmers in driving to the hitching racks, its condition is something awful at times, and driving through it becomes a task quite difficult, as the water and mud stands there for days after every other place has dried up, and those who are compelled to drive through there every day will appreciate very much any steps that may be taken to place that thoroughfare in the shape it should be. This is one of the pricipally traveled streets outside of Main street, and is also without a doubt one of the poorest kept up of any of them and it seems that some steps should be taken to have it graded and fixed up before cold weather sets in, so that next spring it will not resemble a frog pond, as it is certain to do if the proper steps are not taken this fall. Let the city council get busy and try and have this eyesore fixed up as soon as possible.

W. B. DAVIS OF UNION CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

From Friday's Daily.

William B. Davis reached the age of 86 years on Tuesday, but he was not inclined to have the event celebrated in a noisy manner, preferring to spend the day quietly in his own way. He invited Rev. Haynes and wife and his friend, Jasper Barger, of Shoshone, Idaho, to take dinner with him, and the time was spent very pleasantly. Mr. Davis was born in the state of Tennessee, but has been a resident of this precinct since 1857, having spent many years on a farm a short distance northeast of this village. Several years ago he purchased a comfortable home here in town, where he enjoys the opportunity of meeting many of his friends every day. He is quite jovial and "young for his age," and his many friends are pleased to notice that he will probably bea ble to celebrate several more anniversaries.—Union Ledger.

Glee Club Gives Reception.

From Friday's Daily.

Last evening, after the close of the regular weekly practice of the Young Men's Glee club, the members tendered an informal reception to Mr. Jennings Seivers and wife, as Mr. Sievers was formerly president of the club and one of its most valued members. A general social time was enjoyed by the members with musical selections from the different talented guests, which numbered, besides the young men, the wives of those who are fortunate enough to be married. Light refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, which aided in making the occasion one of much pleasure. The young men extended to their benedict member their hearty good wishes for a long and happy married life and much joy.

Mysterious Document.

From Friday's Daily.

Phillip Harrison yesterday received through the mail a letter, and on taking it home was greatly surprised to find in it his marriage license, issued in 1876, in this city. Who sent it or where it came from is a deep mystery, and Mr. Harrison would like very much to know who got hold of the document to send it to him, and would feel greatly obliged if the parties would let him know.

Sues for a Divorce in Omaha.

From Friday's Daily.

Among the court notes in the Omaha papers we note the fact that a suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Albert A. Harkins against Ella Myrtle Harkins. Both of these parties are well known here, where they resided for many years, prior to their removal to South Omaha. The defendant is charged with cruelty against the plaintiff. Mrs. Harkins was formerly Myrtle Jones of this city.

Glenn E. Smith of Lincoln, the county bridge contractor, came down this morning to interview the county commissioners.

Mrs. William Barclay Ill.

From Friday's Daily.

It will be a matter of general regret to the friends of Mrs. William Barclay to learn that she has been confined to her home for the past few days by sickness and her condition seems quite serious and has occasioned much alarm to her family. The sickness, which is in the nature of a kind of blindness and dizziness, has been so painful that she has been confined to her bed for the last two days. It is to be hoped that this worthy lady will soon be able to be up and around again.

YOUNG MAN OF WEEPING WATER IS ACCIDENTALLY SHOT NEAR SPRINGFIELD

From Friday's Daily.

The following from the Omaha Evening News of last night gives the account of the death in that city of a Cass county young man, the victim of a hunting expedition near Springfield, Nebraska:

"Fred O'Connell, aged 18, of Weeping Water, Neb., died at the Methodist hospital here at 3:30 o'clock this morning of a gunshot wound suffered while hunting near Springfield, Neb., Tuesday. His body will be removed to Weeping Water today for burial. O'Connell was hunting on the farm of his sister, Mrs. Bert Dill, southeast of Springfield, and one of his companions, while shooting at a muskrat, accidentally shot the youth. The charge of shot tore away a part of his skull.

A Bigger and Better Union.

(Union Ledger.)

By reference to Ordinance No. 47 published in another column of this issue, it will be noticed that the village has "expanded" to some extent in the matter of territory covered by the corporate lines, the "expansion" dating from this the first publication of the ordinance. These lines were established by the decree of the district court about two weeks ago, and while the added territory does not cover all the land petitioned for, it adds some very desirable tracts that will be advantageous to the village as well as a lasting benefit to the tracts of land. At first it was intended to include a large tract of land belonging to Mrs. Agnes Peterson of Balch, Wash., but she contested the matter, and it seems that the court struck a "happy medium" that is satisfactory to her as well as the village.

With this added territory the village assumes more responsibility as well as more importance, and it is necessary for all the citizens to pull together in all matters of public interest and for the benefit of the town and people of this vicinity, and not allow petty grievances work injury to the public welfare. If you have a "grudge" against some other fellow, and allow that to interfere with any good that both might do you are simply classifying yourself as a narrow-minded individual who puts his selfish motives above the public welfare—worthless ballast that drags along and impedes progress. If you are in that class, get out of it; if you are not in that class, don't get in it. The town needs the push and energy of all citizens. Grab the tow-line and yell, "come on," instead of standing still or holding back and saying "what's the use?"

Oysters Now on Hand.

The lunch room in the rear of the Geise saloon will be found in the future well supplied with all kinds of oysters in any style you may desire, and all parties desiring anything in this line will do well to drop in there.
