IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO

Items of Interest to Old and New Residents of City Which Were New Forty Years Ago.

The annual hunt of the Plattsmouth Sporting club took place on Tuesday last. Agreeable to custom the club met on Monday evening and elected Hon. Sam M. Chapman as leader of one division and Dr. R. R. Livingston leader of the rest of the Plattsmouth Salamanders. By special permit Mr. Geo. Holdrege was allowed to hunt on Monday and have his game counted by proper authority. He made 165 points. Pretty good for a Massachusetts man. Mr. Vivian, also, being subject to chills every Tuesday, was allowed to hunt on Monday, and returned 190 points. Tuesday morning long before the sun even thought of rising, the valiant sons of guns assembled to the number of—: Read slow: Chapman—"Hit 'em Quick," Dick Straight, A. Cunningham, Alex Schlegel, F. M. Darrington, Ed Ruffner, Wiley Black, Wm. Jones, H. J. Straight, John Christiansen, E. V. Matthews, W. A. Donelan, Harvey Sage, Jno. Marthis, Dr. Livingston—"Blaze Aways," L. D. Bennett, Geo. Holdrege, Jason Straight, M. B. Cutler, R. Vivian, W. L. Hobbs, Geo. Leving, Jno. Shannon, Peter Petersen, Billy, Neville, Ben Hempel, —: Agnew, Gilbert Hobbs, Geo. Smith. Each couple started out singly and alone, armed and equipped, as the law directs, with a pocket full of crackers and cheese, a small black bottle, 1 qt. of salt, and a dollar and fifty cents in currency—to hire small boys with, you know. About noon it commenced raining and the boys commenced s— shooting under cover we mean; along towards night it began to get dark, and a good many "hit 'em quicks" came staggering in under a heavy pressure of game. As the sun declined to shine (on this part of the world) more and more, the "blaze aways" commenced to drop down, one by one, singly and in pairs, and the game dropped in, too, only not so fast as the hunters. When they all got good and wet, and tired and hungry, they counted the game and found the "hit 'em quicks" (Chapman) had 945 points, and the "blaze aways" (Livingston) tallied 1,035. It is only fair to state that Chapman's men shot the most game on the day of the hunt. Mr. Holdrege and Mr. Vivian had a clear day to hunt in, and did exceedingly well, but it was not Tuesday's hunt. Doc. Jones made 199 points, the best tally made on Tuesday. Chapman was heavy on geese, Doc. Livingston went his length on ducks. Rabbits and squirrels had the field.

M. has kindly agreed to give the boys passes to Omaha and return, for which he will accept their thanks.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Laura Davis met with a very painful accident on Thursday evening. She was canning fruit when she upset a cup of boiling beeswax on her hand, scalding it severely.

Dan McKinnon, dear Dan, has returned from Salt Lake safe, sound and hearty with lots of whiskers on his face. He says he has gained twenty pounds of new flesh, but it is very expensive, meat costing about $15 a pound. Ann Eliza inquired of Dan after the good people of Cass county and Brigham sent his regards to Judge Haines, the city authorities and Dr. Miller of the Omaha Herald.

Wm. Stadelman, esq., and Dr. Geo. H. Black, who have just returned from Bloomington, Franklin, and that section of the Republican valley, bring home rather cheering reports. Franklin is represented as being on its feet and fair prospects of making a nice town one of these days, while in regard to Bloomington they are enthusiastic. This town is now the county seat and also the place where the U. S. land office is permanently located. It has a number of stores, good hotels, a newspaper, mill, and lots of good land around it. They report the inhabitants as not dismayed by grasshopper mania, but of cheerful heart and good courage and although their county has been injured severely and the business of the town somewhat crippled, temporarily, there are no starving or absolutely destitute persons, they hope to hold out manfully until another crop and livelier times sets them on their feet once more. Hurrah for Franklin and Bloomington and that's the way to talk it.

They do say Billy Hobbs went cown hunting all day. Uncle Straight caught his by putting line snaps on their toes. Cutler served a writ of man dam us on his game and brought them in on execution. John Shannon used Cherry Bounce, and Ben Hempel Switzer Kase to catch their birds.

Amongst the "hit 'em quicks" Lou Cunningham ate all his crackers up at home, Alex Schlegel used up all the salt out at Louisville, Fred Darrington threw stones at his, Bill Jones set the dog on them and brought them in, by hound; Hank Straight put salt on their tails, too; Matthews sat down and whistled so melodiously, birds fell into his trap at once, and Parker Wise coaxed his game in with a duplicate tax-list and future promises, Geo. Smith got his by habeas corpus. Altogether it was a jolly day, and the stiff, sore, and hoarse chaps, who gaily hunted Tuesday, will set down to a magnificent supper tonight, judging by the glorious pile of game that lay in Sam Chapman's office yesterday morning.

Stephen Hobson, Mt. Pleasant, sent four very handsome apples to the B. & M. collections. Wm. Stadelman furnished some handsome pears.

At the meeting of firemen last Saturday evening an invitation was read from the Omaha fire department, asking the fire boys of Plattsmouth to join with them in their annual parade on the 30th inst. The invitation was accepted, and about twenty of our boys will go to Omaha to assist in the parade. Col. Morse of the B. &

ATTEMPT TO ENTER THE TELEPHONE EXCHANGE LAST NIGHT

From Friday's Daily.

The police were summoned to the telephone exchange last evening about 11 o'clock by a message announcing that some party was trying to force an entrance into the building and greatly alarming the operator. The police failed to find anyone there when they arrived, as the party had become alarmed and made his getaway. The person had come up the outside stairway and was trying to force an entrance into the building when the noise attracted the attention of the operator, who summoned the police. It is reported that a similar attempt was made to gain an entrance to the building Wednesday night, which was equally unsuccessful. Whoever the party is they should be very careful or they will be carrying themselves home filled with shot, as the police instructed the operator to shoot at whoever it was through the door in the future if another attempt to gain an entrance is made.

Old Lady Injured by Fall.

From Friday's Daily.

Mrs. Lewis Bird met with a very painful accident Monday evening at the E. J. Mougery home, northwest of town. In attempting to walk up the steps she fell and sustained a fracture of the right hip, which is of a very serious nature. As she is 83 years of age the accident will no doubt cause her many days of suffering, but it is hoped that she may recover without any permanent disability, although the physicians are not yet able to give assurance of such favorable results.—Union Ledger.

BIG SALE OF DUROC-JESSEY GRADED HOGS TUESDAY, NOV. 11TH

Verner E. Perry, the boss Duroc-Jersey hog raiser, is pretty busy these days preparing for his big fall sale, which will be held at his farm on Tuesday, November 11th. The mere announcement of Mr. Perry's sale is sufficient guarantee that it will be a success, for he has always had the reputation, even from the first, of offering nothing but the very best blood known to the Duroc stock, this also being the secret for his sales being well attended, and all stock bringing a good price. The Journal has just completed Mr. Perry's catalogue, and while we are willing to admit that we have not had a great deal of experience is one of the best offerings that he in fine hogs, we do know that this has ever made. If you are a lover of the Duroc-Jersey swine and in need of something to enrich and strengthen the strains of your herd, we believe that it will be to your interest to attend this sale. Send for a catalogue, and remember the date—Tuesday, November 11th.

FUNERAL OF LITTLE SON OF MR. AND MRS. A. F. MOORE

From Friday's Daily.

The funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Moore was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home of the grandparents of little Raymond Floy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ward, on Wintersteen Hill, and was attended by a large number of the friends of the family, who all feel keenly the death of this lovable little boy, whose lifetime had filled only the space of seven months and twenty-eight days, and his death is a very severe blow to the parents and grandparents, and in this, their hour of grief, they will receive the deepest sympathy of the entire community. The services were conducted by Rev. D. L. Dunkleberger of the Christian church, who delivered a very touching sermon of the little one, who had been called home to his maker before the sorrow and troubles of the world had come to him, and of the great love that the Master had shown for the innocent babe in his lifetime on earth. The choir of the Methodist church, under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Westcott, sang very sweetly two of the well loved old hymns, whose melodies fell as balm on the hearts of the sorrowing relatives and friends as the form of the little babe was born away to its final resting place in Oak Hill cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors and the K. & L. of S.
