While the electric light matter is being discussed, a prominent business man suggests that they arrange to have the line run from the Plattsmouth plant down here. That could be done. But another one suggests they may have to wait too long; that the plant is having all they can do in supplying Plattsmouth with proper lighting. They may be able to supply Murray at a reasonable cost when the line is completed from Red Oak.

A Very Slick Scheme.

Our friend, Charles Hanson, living nine miles southwest of town, made a horse deal last week whereby he was loser $160 in cold cash, by a couple of men from South Omaha. Charley was fairly well acquainted with a man by the name of Miller, who represented himself as a horse salesman. He made arrangements to bring a buyer for a carload of good horses belonging to Hanson. Last Tuesday the buyer and salesman appeared at his farm. In a short time a deal for the horses was consummated, and a check for $2,185 given, only $15 less than Mr. Hanson asked for the horses. Mr. Miller was given a personal check for $160, his commission for the sale. Mr. Hanson's check for $2,185 was returned for want of funds. He went to South Omaha to find his men. Miller could not be located and his friend had taken a trip into Iowa for an indefinite time. There are many crooked methods of obtaining money, but this one has the most curves in it.

A Modern Home.

Mark White, who is remodeling his house on his farm, east of Murray, hauled out 4,800 pounds of hot water radiators Wednesday. Heat, light, water and every modern convenience will be installed in the old White home. Mark intends to spend his remaining days below King Hill, and intends to have everything comfortable and convenient.

Strikes Oil in Oklahoma.

In speaking of oil fields in Oklahoma, the Newkirk (Oklahoma) Republican has the following: The Englekemier mentioned is a former resident of Cass county, and has numerous relatives living here, who will rejoice to learn of his good luck: "Within the next few days it is confidently expected several more paying wells will be brought in. The McGraw company's rich gas find on the Englekemier place was a good luck strike. It solved the company's fuel problem and furnishes the gas to other companies drilling in the same locality."

Stage Coach Trip to Eatingville.

An entertainment out of the ordinary occurred at the Farris home, near Murray, last Friday night. It was termed a "Stage Coach Trip to Eatingville," with A. L. Baker as teamster. Each one present represented some section of a coach, with six horses attached. Glenn Boedecker, George Nickels, Lee Nickels and Steve Copenhagen composed four of the horses, and the names of the other two were unable to learn. About the time for lunch the party lined up and the stage coach was pulled in the direction of the lunch room, where all were served with plenty of good things to eat. The balance of the time was whiled away in playing games and conversation. Everyone present speaks of the affair as one of the most pleasant events they ever attended.

Fred Ohm and his brother, Charles Ohm and wife, and his brother-in-law, Carl Neal and wife, of Oak Harbor, Ohio, who have been here for a few days visiting at the home of Mr. Ohm, departed this morning for Plainview, Nebraska, where they will visit for a few days with relatives.

Entertains in Honor of Sister.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Ray entertained a few of their friends and relatives Sunday, October 26, in honor of Mr. Ray's sister, Maude Ray, of Portland, Oregon, who has been visiting her parents in Missouri, and who stopped over to visit with her brother and family for a few days, leaving for the coast Monday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lynde, Mrs. Roy Upton and children, Vera and Sarah; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Young, Mr. George Shrader, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhoden, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wiley and daughter, Sarah Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gopen and son, Oliver; Mr. and Mrs. Mark White, Mrs. Ivan White, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Good, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shrader and children, Forest and May.

Library Meeting.

Twenty braved the storm Tuesday evening and attended the library meeting. The association was divided into six groups. These groups have charge of the regular meeting on the fourth Tuesday evening in the month. They furnish the program, refreshments and have all the responsibility of the evening. The outlook for good programs this winter is very promising. The new books were sent for two weeks ago and will soon be here. Every effort will be made to have regular hours to have the library open from 2 to 5:30 on Wednesdays, from 2 to 5:30 on Saturdays and from 7 to 8:30 on Saturday evenings. New lamps are being put in this week. The library association is indebted to Lloyd Gopen for a load of cobs and to Mrs. O. A. Davis for dishes. If at any time you wish to ask a question regarding the library feel at liberty to phone.

Librarians for the month of November are: Mrs. O. A. Davis, November 1; Mrs. Charles Long, November 5; Mrs. T. J. Brendel, November 8; Mrs. Glenn Boedecker, November 12; Miss Clara Young, November 15; Mrs. E. Tuttle, November 19; Mrs. Frank Marler, November 22; Miss Fay Oldham, November 26; Mrs. Fred Ramge, November 29. If for any reason any of the above named ladies cannot act as librarians on the dates assigned, please notify Pauline Oldham in time to make a change.

Irvin Barnard was severely hurt by being thrown from a horse he undertook to ride some days ago. Consequently he is forced to take an indefinite lay-off from duty.

Corn husking is in full blast among the farmers, and a better yield is realized than expected. Wonderful what our state can do in the way of producing without moisture.

William Gillispie, the elevator man, has been very busy during the past few days. A large number of farmers have disposed of their 1912 corn crop, and in connection with the elevator a large number of hogs and cattle have been marketed.

Conditions of the weather are somewhat different from last summer and we are now put in mind of what has become of our summer's wages. No overcoat or mittens to protect us from the wintry blasts.

George Henner and son, Virgil, are hauling material for the Nebraska Construction company of Lincoln. This company is doing the bridge work for this county, and the county commissioners are to be commended for the step they have taken in erecting bridges that will not have to be rebuilt in a few years. Let the good work continue until all of our bridges are made of concrete.

And now comes the good road proposition with our congenial foreman, and in a little time we
