

We Are Thankful

—not boastful, for the increased business that has come to us during the past year. We are thankful we live in a LIVE town among LIVE people who appreciate a LIVE store. It shall continue to be our constant aim to make this store "Everybody's Store" where everybody can find EVERYTHING in men's-wear and at the right price EVERY TIME. We wish you a joyous Thanksgiving

Watch for Our BIG OVERCOAT WEEK!

C. E. WESCOTT'S SONS
EVERYBODY'S STORE

MYNARD.
(Special Correspondent.)

S. O. Cole and son boarded the early M. P. train for Omaha this morning.

Miss Lela Lair of Plattsmouth is visiting at the home of W. B. Porter and family.

Hazel Cowels and Myra Stenner visited in the home of R. L. Propst Sunday evening.

Oscar Gopen transacted business in town last Tuesday. Always glad to see Oscar.

W. T. Richardson has improved his store building by having a new shingled roof.

Baxter Smith, from the county seat, was in this village transacting business last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox of Nebraska City visited friends over Sunday, coming up in their automobile.

Frank Marler and family came in from the precinct and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Marler.

Several carloads of live stock has been shipped from this point to the South Omaha market during the past week.

Miss Martha Barker has accepted a very responsible position in Omaha and will at once leave for the metropolis.

Grace Ficht, Dorris Vallery, Glenna Barker and Miss Giverson returned to Plattsmouth Sunday evening to attend to their school duties.

A large congregation attended the services at Liberty chapel Sunday and listened to a very able discourse delivered by Rev. Eads.

William Gillispie took a spin to Auburn in his Ford automobile Sunday, and you can imagine he went some, as Uncle Bill never does things by halves.

Harry Benton took a ride on his motorcycle Sunday, going some eight miles west of our neighboring town, Murray. You may guess why he went.

R. L. Propst shipped a large car of nice hedge posts to M. Meisinger of Madison, Neb. Posts of this kind are getting scarce and hard to get at any price.

Mrs. Manola Lang, nee Miss Perry, and husband departed last Thursday for Panama, where Mr. Lang has a position in school work, and is a very efficient instructor along that line.

Swank and Sons have contracted to gather and crib 130 acres of corn for Robert Propst, Mr. Swank, with his force, will soon complete the job, as the entire force are in line with that kind of work.

Strictly modern and up-to-date has been the weather for the past few weeks, rain and sunshine just when most in need of it. A continuation will be very much appreciated by everybody except the ice man.

Jessie Brown, the congenial carpenter, is doing the carpenter work on the fine machine house being built by George Snyder on his farm one and one-half miles west of town. Jesse knows how to do the work.

Notice has been sent to patrons of the Bell Telephone company that they will not discount advance payment on telephone rent, and the consequence is that most all patrons are very indignant about the matter.

Poorer service and advance in the price will not stand amongst the farmers. There is strong talk of having a meeting, inviting all interested in having a telephone, to see if by some means they can have a telephone system conducted on a cheaper plan and secure better service. A few of the farmers have a private system installed in their home, which is giving good satisfaction. Why not more do likewise and have a good farmer line?

Amos McNamee had his Union relatives and friends farewell and left Monday night for his new home at Hall City, Florida. He already owns a small tract of good land there and expects to be in view in more. Amos has been a resident of this vicinity since the day of his birth, and all his acquaintances regret that he decided to locate elsewhere. He is known to be "true blue" and deserves success.

Frank G. Kendall suffered some slight injury Wednesday afternoon by falling off the sidewalk in front of Moss McCarrroll's store. Uncle Frank's health has not been of the best for some time and his failing eyesight caused him to tumble off the sidewalk. Parties seeing him fall went to his aid and an automobile was called to take him to his home. Fortunately his injuries were not serious and we hope to see him out again in a short time.

The makers of Foley Kidney Pills know that they have absolutely the best combination of curative and healing medicines for kidney and bladder ailments and urinary irregularities that it is possible to produce. That is why Foley Kidney Pills are the best you can buy. For sale by all druggists.

Don't wait until spring to order your incubator, as the factory will be rushed with orders. Call at Oscar Wilson's barber shop, on South Sixth street, and see the Rayo, the latest improved machine made.

Notice.

NEHAWKA.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Pollard gave a family dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wills, who left for their home in Seattle, Wash., Wednesday.

L. H. Young and wife left Tuesday for Alva, Oklahoma, where they will visit for a few weeks. Mrs. Charles Troop of Plattsmouth, a sister of Mr. Young, accompanied them.

Dr. J. W. Thomas and Miss Ruth Murdoch, of Nehawka, were united in marriage at noon Sunday at the Methodist church at Memphis, Neb., Rev. Shike, pastor of the church, officiating.

Miss Margaret Schomaker left Tuesday for Thomas county, Kansas, where she will visit her grandparents for a time. She was accompanied as far as Lincoln by her father, Herman Schomaker.

Frank Schlichtemeier, who drives a Cartecar, is proud of the record his car has made for him this summer. He has driven it over 4,000 miles and has never had a wrench on the engine, except to clean his spark plugs.

D. Switzer and wife, Emmor Marshall and wife of Weeping Water, and a brother and sister of Mr. Marshall, who live in Ohio, visited at the George Switzer home Saturday. Mr. Marshall ran a hardware store here twenty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick expect to leave today for St. Joseph, Mo., where they will visit a few days before going on to San Antonio, Texas, where they expect to spend the winter. The News will keep them posted on local events during their absence.

John Whiteman had ten acres of corn that made the biggest yield we have heard reported so far, making 60 bushels in the acre. And his hired man, Frank Stuleville husked 134 bushels in this field last Saturday. If anybody can beat this yield or record for a day's husking we would like to have them speak up.

Josh Sutphin's store was bur-

UNION.

John Ervin and wife departed Tuesday evening for Wausa, Nebraska, to spend a few weeks with Joseph Lynn and family.

Charles Strong of Lawrence, Kas., arrived here Wednesday evening and is making a visit with his sister, Miss Moss McCarrroll.

Jacob Garreans, who has been visiting here the past few weeks, left yesterday for a visit with relatives in Fremont county, Iowa.

Mrs. Albert Clarence arrived on the yesterday forenoon train from Coleridge for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pickering.

George Comer departed Tuesday for St. Louis to make a visit with his uncle, Edward Grimes and wife, and will also visit with relatives in other parts of Missouri.

Sant W. True and family departed Wednesday for Cedar county and will make their home on a farm near Coleridge. They have many friends in Union and vicinity who hope they may be happy and prosperous in their new location.

Cheese is getting to be a popular pastime in this town, and occasionally there are warm battles on the board, the "fans" being Dr. Huston, Banker Patterson, Druggist Keedy, Elevator McCarthy and the Ledger man, Farmer Fred Clark threatens to come in some rainy day and swat the whole bunch.

Amos McNamee had his Union relatives and friends farewell and left Monday night for his new home at Hall City, Florida. He already owns a small tract of good land there and expects to be in view in more. Amos has been a resident of this vicinity since the day of his birth, and all his acquaintances regret that he decided to locate elsewhere. He is known to be "true blue" and deserves success.

Frank G. Kendall suffered some slight injury Wednesday afternoon by falling off the sidewalk in front of Moss McCarrroll's store. Uncle Frank's health has not been of the best for some time and his failing eyesight caused him to tumble off the sidewalk. Parties seeing him fall went to his aid and an automobile was called to take him to his home. Fortunately his injuries were not serious and we hope to see him out again in a short time.

NEHAWKA.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Pollard gave a family dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wills, who left for their home in Seattle, Wash., Wednesday.

L. H. Young and wife left Tuesday for Alva, Oklahoma, where they will visit for a few weeks. Mrs. Charles Troop of Plattsmouth, a sister of Mr. Young, accompanied them.

Dr. J. W. Thomas and Miss Ruth Murdoch, of Nehawka, were united in marriage at noon Sunday at the Methodist church at Memphis, Neb., Rev. Shike, pastor of the church, officiating.

Miss Margaret Schomaker left Tuesday for Thomas county, Kansas, where she will visit her grandparents for a time. She was accompanied as far as Lincoln by her father, Herman Schomaker.

Frank Schlichtemeier, who drives a Cartecar, is proud of the record his car has made for him this summer. He has driven it over 4,000 miles and has never had a wrench on the engine, except to clean his spark plugs.

D. Switzer and wife, Emmor Marshall and wife of Weeping Water, and a brother and sister of Mr. Marshall, who live in Ohio, visited at the George Switzer home Saturday. Mr. Marshall ran a hardware store here twenty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick expect to leave today for St. Joseph, Mo., where they will visit a few days before going on to San Antonio, Texas, where they expect to spend the winter. The News will keep them posted on local events during their absence.

John Whiteman had ten acres of corn that made the biggest yield we have heard reported so far, making 60 bushels in the acre. And his hired man, Frank Stuleville husked 134 bushels in this field last Saturday. If anybody can beat this yield or record for a day's husking we would like to have them speak up.

Josh Sutphin's store was bur-

THANKSGIVING SUPPLIES

We are demonstrating our supremacy as headquarters for Thanksgiving Supplies. For weeks we have been quietly gathering from far and near every article associated with Thanksgiving and the Holidays.

Cheese Our cheese counter is complete, containing such as— Imported Swiss Domestic Swiss Imported Roquefort Imperial Cheese Pimento Cheese Cream Cheese Limberger Cheese Kaiser Wilhelm Brick Cheese	In Evaporated Fruits we have Logan Berries Raspberries Pears Whole Figs Pitted Dates Whole Dates Pressed Figs We also carry Mrs. Kuhn's famous Candied Grape Fruit Peel.	In the Fruit and Vegetable Line Genuine Sweet Pumpkin Crook-neck Squash Celery Leaf Lettuce Sweet Potatoes Cranberries Large Grape Fruit Florida Oranges NUTS English walnuts, almonds, filo nuts, Missouri Hickory nuts, soft shelled pecans, brazils and black walnuts.	Gurtice Brothers' Mince Meat Sweet Pickle Peaches Preserves Vegetables Plum Pudding Boned Chicken Maple Syrup Our sardine and herring stock is complete and our imported genuine Franforters are elegant.
--	---	---	---

H. M. SOENNICHSEN

TELEPHONE EITHER 54 OR 322 FOR "QUALITY"

glarized some time Sunday night and in addition to 83 in pennies the thieves took some underwear, cigars and a few other light articles. They gained entrance through the cellar and were evidently amateur cracksmen, as they made no effort to molest the safe. Mr. Sulphin has no clue, but is inclined to think it was the work of local talent.

chestra, which furnishes music for the dances at the Philpot hall, remained over until Saturday afternoon as the guest of Mrs. B. L. Philpot.

H. G. Race has been having a serious time with blood poison in his right hand, which was caused by running a nail in the back of the hand about an inch deep. He has a bad looking hand, although it is much better than it was.

The man on the motorcycle who ran into Link Record's buggy a week ago last Saturday on Eldora avenue and smashed the buggy up, throwing Link out and badly bruising him up, has not been located yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Arthur Wiles and family autoed to Plattsmouth Monday evening. They took supper with Mr. Smith's parents, where the ladies spent the evening while the men attended a Masonic initiation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGeary returned Sunday night from a four weeks' stay at Norman, Okla., where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. McGeary's father, Jas. Bartholmev, who is very low, and at his age, 84, there is very little hope of his recovery.

V. E. Perry of Eight Mile Grove in company with his brother, Glen, was in town Tuesday morning to meet their sister, Mrs. W. A. Cook, of Elmwood, who was coming to make them a visit. Mr. Perry reports that his hog sale, which was advertised in the paper, was very satisfactory. His pigs averaged 832 per head.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Burris and daughter of Worthington, Ind., are here visiting J. M. Jackman and family.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. Robert Juneau, who is suffering from an attack of la grippe.

"Uncle" George Schoeman was up from Plattsmouth this week visiting with relatives and old-time friends.

The Louisville merchants have decided to close their places of business on Thanksgiving day from 10 to 4 o'clock.

Joe Kelly arrived in Louisville the fore part of the week after an absence of a couple of months which he spent in western Canada.

Mrs. R. C. Yant, who was called to Piper City, Ill., last week on account of her mother's illness, will accompany the latter to Chicago, where she will undergo a serious operation.

James Terryberry and T. E.

Parmele left Saturday for a little hunting trip in the vicinity of the Parmele ranch near Broken Bow, "Sport," the bird dog owned by Will Ossenkop, accompanied them.

Ole Ward shipped the finest bunch of stockers to the Omaha market Monday that has been shipped out of Plattsmouth in a long time. He also sent in a car of hogs, and followed them up with a mixed load on Tuesday.

Andrew Stohlman, wife and little son returned home on Thursday of last week from a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends in Wisconsin. Mr. Stohlman says the weather was very cold while they were there, but that they had a very pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lloyd and Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Royer, from near Murray, were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday, driving up from their home to spend a few hours with county seat friends.

The Journal acknowledges a pleasant call from both gentlemen, Mr. Lloyd renewing the subscription of his mother, Mrs. D. M. Lloyd.

Adnan Schafer and John Urish of Mt. Pleasant, precinct, were visiting with county seat friends last Saturday. Mr. Schafer was a pleasant caller at the Journal office, renewing for his paper for another year.

J. B. Vallery was another one of those valued readers of the Journal who was looking after some business matters in the county seat last Saturday, calling at the Journal office and renewing his subscription for the Semi-Weekly.

H. G. Todd, from near Murray, was a Plattsmouth visitor last Saturday, and paid his office a pleasant visit, renewing for his paper for another year.

Albert Satchell, from near Murray, was in the city a few hours last Saturday, and while here was a brief caller at the Journal office, renewing his subscription for another year. Albert tells us that he will move from Cass county next spring, moving to the northern part of the state. He expects to make this change about the first of March.

Horses and Mules for Sale.

Just received, 15 head of good horses and mules, unbranded and mostly broke, that are for sale at prices that are plumb right.

Frank Vallery.

PARMELE THEATRE

Thanksgiving Attraction

Thursday, Nov. 27th

The Season's One Big Event in Musical Comedy—

McCarty's Mishaps

The Brightest, the Breeziest, the Best, the Jolliest, the Gayest, the Greatest, the Success of all Successful Successes

Funny Comedians, Pretty Girls, Gorgeous Costumes, Catchy Music, New Novelties

UP TO THE MINUTE

A Perfect Deluge of Fun. Enjoy yourself after enjoying your Thanksgiving Dinner.

A Good Time at a Bargain.

Don't forget the day and date and don't forget the prices. Never before at such prices.

25c, 35c, 50c, and a few at 75c

Seats at Weyrich & Hadraba's, Tuesday