SERIOUSLY INJURED IN FALLING FROM A SPRING WAGON

From Wednesday's Daily.
Yesterday about noon, as John Wiles, one of the prominent farmers of near Murray, was driving to the Beins' public sale, south of this city, in company with his son, Ben, he met with an accident that may result most seriously, if not fatally, for him. They were driving, along the road in a spring wagon, when, in striking a rough place in the road, the seat of the wagon was jarred loose and fell out, with the result that Mr. Wiles was thrown out also, alighting on his left side and injuring himself internally about the chest and lungs, and his condition is quite critical. The injured man was taken back home by Ed Wiles in an automobile, and Dr. G. H. Gilmore summoned out from Murray to attend the injured man and found him suffering greatly and in very bad shape. It is hoped that the injuries will not prove fatal, although at this time it is hard to tell just how serious his internal injuries are. The team which Mr. Wiles was driving was perfectly gentle and did not attempt to run away, stepped as soon as the accident occurred.

ROYAL TIME AT THE B. A. M'ELWAIN HOME

Meeting Well Attended and Royal Time Is Enjoyed by the Loyal Sons.

From Wednesday's Daily.
The Loyal Sons of the Christian church last evening held a very enjoyable meeting at the home of B. A. McElwain, and one of the most pleasant meetings of the season was thoroughly enjoyed by the members of the class and their friends. The main feature of the evening was the address delivered to the class by Attorney C. A. Rawls, who chose as his subject "Salt," and began his talk by an outline of the salt industry from the earliest times, and how this mineral had been one of the most valuable articles of trade among the ancients, and that several times nations had gone to war over the possession of this valuable necessity in those days. He also pointed out the saving power of salt and the amount of salt in the human system and pleaded with the young men to have more salt in their manhood and make a stand for the better things of life. Mr. Rawls is a very convincing speaker and his remarks were carefully followed by his auditors, who took a deep interest in the clear-cut statements of the speaker.

The members of the class enjoyed for a short time a debate on the subject of the effects labor unions had upon the making of a better civilization, and while the debaters on the negative side were of the opinion that they were on the wrong side of the fence, they presented their arguments in a forcible manner, but the sentiment of everyone was that the affirmative had won the debate, which was cut short by the sudden illness of Philip Blin, one of the debaters, who suddenly fainted during the course of the arguments, which stopped further discussion of the question.

Mrs. S. E. McElwain, assisted by Mrs. John Dutton and Mrs. A. L. Todd, served the company with some very delicious refreshments that made a great big hit with the young men present at the gathering and they were loud in their praise of the delightful manner which they had been entertained. George L. Farley and Mr. C. A. Rawls have promised the young men a subject for debate for the next meeting, which is being looked forward to with much interest.

DEMONSTRATES THE CHEAPNESS IN USE OF THE HENDERSON CAR

From Wednesday's Daily.
Monday morning T. H. Pollock, state agent for the Henderson automobile, which uses kerosene for furnishing power instead of gasoline, made the trip from this city to Omaha, and the amount of oil used was quite flattering to the reputation of the car and very pleasing to Mr. Pollock, as it demonstrates the cheapness with which a Henderson can be operated. The distance covered was nineteen and seven-tenths miles and one gallon and one pint of kerosene was used in making the trip, which makes the cost of fuel for the trip a little less than 8 cents, and the trip was made in forty-five minutes, which is a fine showing for the car and one that speaks well for its cheapness in operating. A few days ago a Henderson was driven from York to Omaha, a distance of 132 miles, and only seven gallons of kerosene was used, which, at 7 cents a gallon, is pretty cheap operating expenses.

THE GREAT NEED OF A CITY PRISON

The Need of a Proper Place to House City Prisoners Is Great.

The matter of turning the brick building on the grounds of the city hall into a police station and a headquarters for placing parties who are locked up overnight by the police for safe-keeping brings on the question of making a regular city jail out of the building, which would undoubtedly save the city considerable money in the long run, as there is quite an amount paid out to the county in the course of a year for the care of the city prisoners who are confined in the county jail, and this could be cut down materially if this building was used for the purposes of a jail, and as the city prisoners are never of a very dangerous character it would not be necessary to have the building as well fitted with cells as the county jail should be.

A very good idea in getting the building fixed up would be to have the different prisoners who are placed in jail and are unable to pay their fine work out their sentence in fixing up the brick building or the basement of the city hall, either of which would provide ample room for the delinquents who are gathered in by the police, and here the police station could be established and anyone who wanted the police would know just where to find them, where, under the present method, it is a hard matter to tell at night whether the officers are at one end of Main street or the other, and it sometimes requires some time before they can be located when needed, whereas if they had a headquarters they could promptly respond to any call for their services and without the loss of time which is necessary at present.

The present system of handling the bums at the shanty is very expensive, as it requires a great deal of fuel and the men get out and wander where they please and there is no telling what mischief they may do, and if they were locked up in the city jail over night the police could keep track of them. The proposition should be thoroughly investigated and if possible the matter put through and the city receive some benefit from the services of its guests.

CONDITION OF ANDREW BARRY IS NOT FLATTERING FOR HIS RECOVERY

From Wednesday's Daily.
The condition of Andrew Barry, who resides some six miles south of this city, and who was taken to Omaha last week to receive treatment for his right foot, which was apparently in a numb condition, is still very bad, and there is not a great deal of hope entertained for his recovery. He was taken to St. Catherine's hospital and an examination made of the foot and the surgeons discovered that blood poison had set in on the members and an operation was performed and the little toe of the right foot removed. This failed to check the spread of the poison through his system and as he was quite weak from the effects of the first operation it was decided not to attempt another operation, as he could not stand it. His daughter, Mrs. August Bach, of this city, and the other members of his family have been at his bedside constantly, hoping that a change for the better might take place, but his case seems almost hopeless.

H. M. SOENNICHSEN AND ADOLPH GEISE BUY CHOPIE ENGINE FACTORY

From Wednesday's Daily.
A matter transpired today that is filled with the promise of much good for the city, and that is the purchase of the Chopie Gasoline Engine factory by Messrs. H. M. Soennichsen and Adolph Geise, who bid the concern in at the sale to satisfy the creditors of the concern. Both Mr. Soennichsen and Mr. Geise are good, level-headed business men and it is understood that they will place the factory in the hands of Mr. Lee C. Sharp of Omaha, who will operate it as a foundry and machine shop, and if this proves true it is certainly a matter over which the people of the city can feel well pleased, as Mr. Sharp will make the plant a better proposition than it ever was under the Chopie management, and he will employ several men here to operate it for him. The factory is well situated and has an excellent building, and if it had ever had the proper men in charge would have been made a good paying proposition, and the new owners will be putting the right man in if they are able to secure Mr. Sharp to place a part of his extensive machine works here. Mr. Sharp several times has figured on taking over the plant, but satisfactory terms could not be made, but if the new owners succeed in interesting him in it there is no doubt that it will be a mighty good thing for all parties and the city in general. The Chopie factory was established here a number of years ago and the building was erected by subscriptions to stock for that purpose, but it never proved a success, owing to the poor methods used in running the business, but the change in owners makes the matter look mighty good to everyone.

Declare War on Colds.

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

- "Don't sit in a draughty car."
- "Don't sleep in hot rooms."
- "Don't avoid the fresh air."
- "Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Over-eating reduces your resistance."

To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers.
