THE BANQUET OF THE YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE CLASS DECEMBER 4

The final arrangements for the holding of the young men's banquet to be held in the parlors of the Methodist church have been all completed and the affair promises to be even more successful than the previous one given by the Young Men's Bible class. The principal address of the banquet will be given by Attorney J. Dean Ringer of South Omaha, one of the leaders of the bar there, and his talk to the young men on "The Triangle" will be well worth hearing. A number of local speakers will also be on the toast list and add their contributions to the evening of pleasure and profit. The Holly orchestra will play during the course of the banquet a number of their excellent selections, and the whole event promises much pleasure for those who attend.

On this occasion Rev. F. M. Druliner will be heard for the first time outside of his pulpit, and there will be a great deal of interest felt in hearing this gentleman, as he is one of the most pleasing speakers in the city and his remarks are sure to please his auditors. It is unnecessary to mention the menu, which will compose the chief feature of the banquet, as the ladies of the Methodist church have this in charge, and their reputations for the excellence of their cooking are too well known to those who have attended the banquets in the past to need more than a mention for everyone to realize that this feature is in excellent hands. The tickets are limited to 145 and are one sale at Crabbill's, Jesse Perry's and Wescott's.

PLATTSMOUTH BOYS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

The Contest Ended in a Victory for the Home Boys by a Score of 25 to 0.

From Friday's Daily.

In a brilliant and spectacular foot ball game, in which the championship of Omaha was involved, Plattsmouth yesterday defeated the Spauldings of Omaha by the score of 25 to 0.

Coffee played the same dashing game that he exhibited in the last contest. Around the ends and through the lines he went for good gains and formed superb interference for his winning mates in the backfield. With B. Arries throwing and Noble and Coffee receiving, the locals worked some pretty forward passes that the visitors were unable to successfully block. The local line should be commended on its powerful attack on the defensive; in the last half the Spauldings did not make a gain through them. Colton, quarter of the visitors, played brilliant foot ball and his punting was the best seen here this season.

Coffee kicked off to the visitors and Omaha returned 10 yards. The Boosters soon secured the ball, the Spauldings being forced to kick on being forced up the field by steady marches. Omaha held at the danger point and the ball was severed back and forth for the rest of the quarter, when the score stood at the close 0 to 0.

It looked like a battle royal for a time, but the Omaha line soon wavered before the onrushes of Plattsmouth's back field and on a series of plunges Coffee went over for a touchdown, but the locals failed to kick goal. Plattsmouth kicked off, but the line held in grand shape and Omaha was forced to punt. Again the locals started to rush Omaha off their feet, and as the half ended Coffee went over for a touchdown, making the score 13 to 0 in favor of Plattsmouth.

The Spauldings kicked off and the locals started on that same steady march that characterized their attack in the previous quarter. Omaha held for downs, but were forced to kick. The punt was blocked and B. Arries picked it up and went over for the third touchdown of the game, which brought the score up to 19 to 0 in favor of Plattsmouth.

Another touchdown was secured in the final quarter on line plunges by Coffee and Herold, Coffee going over the line with the ball. This brought the game to a close with the score 25 to 0 and again the locals had not been scored upon.

THE JUDGE LET THE BOY OFF WITH THE PROMISE TO BE GOOD

Yesterday Wendell Hartman, a 14-year-old lad, was brought before Judge Beeson on the charge of being incorrigible and not attending school as he should. The lad, it is claimed, has gotten into trouble several times and it was thought to have something done with him. The court, after hearing the matter, and on the promise of the mother of the boy to take him and look after him, decided to give him another chance to be good. He has been making his home with his father for the past few months.

UNION SCHOOL BUILDING IS DEDICATED

Exercises Were Conducted in a Manner Worthy of the Grand Educational Structure.

Last Friday afternoon "High School Hill" was the scene of great activity, the cause thereof being the dedication exercises and formal opening of the new $20,000 school building erected in this village by the school district. We were met at the door by a merry crowd of young people, who seemed to be there for the purpose of extending a welcome to visitors, and they certainly did not neglect their duties. The play grounds were occupied by a large number, who were engaged in various sports, while on the inside the throng meandered through the various parts of the three floors, inspecting the interior arrangements from furnace room to the top, and all were surprised and pleased by the fine appearance.

The afternoon exercises were held in the gymnasium room, which was filled to the limit, and many could not find even space for standing. Prof. E. E. York had charge of the exercises, opening with the song, "America," by all who cared to join in the singing. A splendid recitation by Miss Zola Frans and an instrumental solo by Miss Ida Reynolds, were very pleasing, and were followed by a "fan drill" by the girls of the primary room, Miss Jessie Haught then sang a beautiful solo, and the intermediate room gave a play in which the boys and girls appeared as real "Injuns." Then came a song by sixteen boys of the primary room, and a splendid recitation by Mrs. Louis Anderson. The third grade then gave a nice exercise, followed by a vocal solo by Miss Nettie McCarroll, and an instrumental solo by Miss Verna Harris. Mr. William Balfour, the well known violinist, then favored the audience with a nice selection, which so pleased his hearers that he was called back for another number. State Superintendent J. E. Delzell was then introduced, and although he had only a half hour in which to deliver his address and catch the train, he showed himself to be a real "rapid-fire" speaker and crowded a great deal of good things into the limited time he had. He congratulated the people upon the splendid building and what it stands for, and discussed the public schools in general. He also gave a very emphatic slap to the gossips and tale-bearers, and we are sure there were some who can profit by his suggestions if they heed them. Altogether this was a very successful affair and great credit is due to all those who planned it and those who helped to carry it through so well. The whole community should be proud of the splendid building that adorns the hill, and while it is especially creditable to a town the size of Union and Union people are proud of it, we must not forget that ALL the people of the district are entitled to a share of the credit, as they are all part of the whole and contribute their share to meet the cost.—Union Ledger.

FRED KAUFMAN HAS A NARROW ESCAPE WITH MULE TEAM

From Saturday's Daily.

Fred Kaufmann last night had a narrow escape from being killed, when his team of mules, which he was driving hitched to a wagon, got into the creek in the west part of the city, and had not he had the presence of mind to jump he would have been crushed beneath the weight of the mules and wagon. The accident occurred at the bridge near Fifteenth and Main streets and it was with great difficulty that the mules were gotten out of the creek without injuring them, and as it was it became necessary to cut the harness to pieces to get them out. The wagon is still there and will require considerable effort to get it out of the creek, which is over fifteen feet deep at this point.
