THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1913

A PERSON OF SOME IMPORTANCE LLOYD OSBOURNE Copyright, 1911, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

PROLOGUE.

Here's a story you will like. It tra $15. tells of mystery under the dreamy The days that followed in the Y. M. moon of the Pacific islands and of love in the shady lanes of New sisted of nothing but the Y. M. C. A. England-and what more can a at one end and Mrs. Sattane's at the story reader want? The mystery, other, with a mile of streets between of course, is introduced early in Yet Matt was not unhappy. You need the tale, and the-love-follows the moreover, by a determination close after. Together they go to succeed. That he was doing so was hand in hand through the pages indubitable, and Mr. Cummins was of the story, never parting com- friendliness itself. pany until the-final chapter. There the mystery departs, but good reason to be satisfied and might the love remains.

You know, of course, about the would not overreach himself, however. author, Lloyd Osbourne. He by asking for it prematurely. He was learned how to write in a worthy school, for he is a stepson of Robert Louis Stevenson. And no felt he had no time to spare. greater story teller than the latter ever lived.

> CHAPTER XI. Discharged.

E sought out Mr. Doty insteadlittle, flattered, easy Mr. Doty. who certainly must have concealed angels' wings under his threadbare coat. Mr. Doty was sympathetic; Mr. Doty understood. In Matt's case nothing could be simpler; pression almost as woobegone as self to be useful, if only it were to the sea for the sailor, of course, and Matt's. "it's none of my doing, they would go right off to his good Broughton." he explained. "You are friend, Captain Jim Bain, who owned half the coasting craft out of-

Oh, but Matt wished to stay in Manaswan! Oh, the old story-I see, think, let Mr. Doty think!

Half an hour afterward Matt was formally engaged as physical instructor to the Young Men's Christian as- know," he replied at last. "I couldn't sociation at a salary of $60 a month. get a reason out of one of them. But Unlike its sisters elsewhere, the Man- somehow they are prejudiced against that in all truch set nor in papa's sense and with a heart like lead at leaving you Don't blame me too much, for I love him too, you know, better than anything in the world except you. Try not to feel too badly, and remember I shall be thinking of you every minute of the time. I dread to stop, as I have said everything so badly, but it is not the you I love if you do not understand. You will, won't you? And love me better than ever, and don't CHRIS. forget that I will come.

Matt reread the letter many times and his first sensation of utter abandonment imperceptibly altered to a more sanguine view. They were both saved at least the shame of a clandestine affair, with its unavoidable and mortifying discovery. Better to tell the general than to let him find out. Chris had been right there-bravely right. Three months would give Matt time to solidify his position in the Y. M. C. A. and apply leverage to that $60 a month. The world that loved a lover surely included Mr. Cummins. Besides, a helping out, cheerful in-Lovers of Romance, attention ! structor would soon be worth that ex-

> C. A. were like the first, and by degrees the world contracted till it conleisure to be unhappy, and he was susvou say that. They call me a cranky old nigger, and it may be I am, but I am most awful cranky in liking youand if you are willing, sure I am."

> The generosity of the offer overcame Altogether, the new instructor had Matt, but he could not bring himself look forward to a raise in salary as small as it was, represented the savsomething he had well earned. He > ngs of years; and to appropriate half and give nothing but his unskilled services in return was simply impossible too wary for that and was playing for It was finally arranged, however, that too big a stake. With only three he was to be engaged at $75 a month weeks gone from the three months he One morning Mr. Cummins called him into the office and, fidgeting with some papers in his hand, regarded Matt with considerable embarrassment.

"I'm afraid I have bad news for you." he said in his very low voice. "I have been told to let you go." "Discharge me?" exclaimed Matt.

erable questions. Occasionally cars unable to believe his ears. "You don' mean that I am-fired?" Mr. Cummins nodded, with an exchanged-and then Matt bestirred him-pump till he was crimson, or laged tools to Mack and Loney, Degraneourt's the best man I have ever had in that workmen department, and it came like a thunderclap to me. It's worse than unjust, and I said so flat out. But or-I see-a young lady, and all the rest ders are orders, and I am only the of it! Well, well, well! Let Mr. Doty paid superintendent under the board." "But what do they complain of?" Mr. Cummins hesitated.

"The funny thing is that I don't

Items of Interest to Old and New Residents of City Which Were

New Forty Years Ago.

Calvin Taylor of Weeping Wa- ficulties in getting teams "goter hunted us up and paid ahead ing right," etc. We made slow on his paper. Good boy!

A sister of Mrs. Burgess is not even the second night. However, xpected to live, and Miss Dooley we reached that bright, enterprising town, Hastings, the forenoon has gone east.

Miss Kale Hobbs and Miss 2d of May, we rolled into Lowell. Louisa Shryock showed their miling faces in our office yester. place, shooting and gambling on day.

Billy Darrah and his fair bride arrived here last Thursday, See marriage notice in another column.

Monday, as the slippery sidewalk 9th, having been fourteen and to take advantage of it. The garage, struck them, ston's saloon there. Somebody two oxen "alkalied," one stamgot a mansard roof over the eye pade (because of storm), and a kin of said minors and all per- the mini of fi Victor had recently acquired the little slow in L. igency for this vehicle. Mait's in-by the Rev. Father Bobal, on the eastern states. We found our Sunday, the 26th inst., Mr. claims even better than we had ran in that required gasoline or wa- Michael Meissinger and Miss before thought them. We have county and state.

> We are sorry to learn that Mrs. wood in drifts, etc., sufficient for of January, 1914. Geo. Fairfield met with gaite a four or five years' fuel. Deer serious accident last week, fall- creek is also well lined with ing down a flight of stairs and springs and rock quarries. As injuring herself badly.

Geo. Fairfield has come home rom his surveying expedition on he North Loup, and looks hearly. Decentising more from L romain. from his surveying expedition on on sod, and say they can prove it. + the North Loup, and looks hearty. promising more anon, I remain,

Fred Black went out of luck last Saturday night, losing a here we are, and as I can reach For Sale. more of our mutual friends by A number of good Plymouth one letter through your columns Rock cockerels. Mrs. L. H. In January, than by any other means, I the Young, Nehawka, Neh.

more willingly comply with your request, i. e., to let you hear rom us. On the 22d of April our In the District Court in and for Case County, Nebraska. colony, consisting of five fam-In Re Estate of Orin P. Monrow,

Vou are hereby metal ilies, seventeen persons in all, started from Glendale, Cass netlified that or

You are hereby method that on Procember 3, 1912, Anna Amelia Mon-row filed her petition in The County Court of Cass County, Nebraska, re-questing the appointment of N. K. Peoples as administrator of the estate of Orin P. Monroe, decensed, and al-leging that said decensed, and al-leging that said decensed had inte-state. A hearing will be had upon said petition at the office of the Coun-ty Judge, Court House, Plattsmooth, Case County, Nebraska, on January 3 county, Nehraska. We had four horse leams and one ox team, also a small herd of loose cattle and colts, having heavy loads and encountering the usual diflass County, Nebraska, on Januar 19134. Dt miner progress for a few days-some of must be filed. our friends camping with us By the Cour ALLEN J. BEESON.

County Judge, RAWLS & ROBERTSON, Attorneys, of May 1st, and Saturday, eve, the In District Court, Cass County, which I must say is a "hard" the Sabbath, and stores open and Schuldice, Minors; doing business, still they have Now on this 30th day of No-one Sunday school and meeting vember, 1913, this cause came on Lean and Bu every other Sabhath. While at to be heard upon the petition of in black 4, in Standinarso Lowell there was a heavy storm Albert Schuldice, guardian, pray- the Cirr of Plattementh of wind and rain, that tried tents ing for license to sell each of page 672, said minors one-twelfth interest of Deeds in the following lands, fo-wit: In its third and covers severely. We left Lowell on the 5th of May, arriv-"B-less the ice!" we heard ing on our homesteads, in Gas-more than one person utter last per and Frontier counties on the seven (7). Township twelve (12). Range fourteen (14), in Platts- that portion of one-half days traveling 275 mouth, Nebraska, for the purpose which lies no miles, almost 19 miles per day, of reinvesting the proceeds timed easterly

Quite a row is reported at Total casualties of the trip, one thereof to a better advantage for Stadelmann's Addition to Plattsmouth, Case County Louisville last week, in Living- broken wheel, one broken tongue, said minors, It is ordered that the next of

he was to be engaged at $75 a month as "demonstrator" of the Jonesmobile, with a percentage on all sales he might an liganse. Better as you go a vise the year. Ligad he was an information of the District of foreclose a mortgage give a license. Better as you go a little slow in L. A vise the very limid people who fear Indians so very much to Cass County, Nebraska, on the little slow in L. come out here, without delay, as 30th day of January, 1914, at 9 1 in Streitwieser's Sub-Meissinger-Bergman-At the there seems to be far less danger o'clock a. m. to show cause why then Catholic church in Plattsmouth, here than in eastern Nebraska, or a license should not be granted to of the att

ter, or a small adjustment, or a tire Teresia Bergman, both of this abundance of good growing tim- publishing a copy of this order in therein ber, trees some of them over four the Plaitsmouth Journal for min. feet in diameter, besides dry three weeks prior to the 36th day p Falter and Mary Fr for soil, of course we know nothing. Settlers tell of raising 30 as ever.

E. S. Child. We are very sorry to record the fact that our townsman, Mr.

event for the faithful Bids will be opened the Court of Case County

BOGINTION. Leusia 23. Tielde 31. DADA BARAOWA.

Mary Faiter, als wife To Louis D. Tolle, H E.

true actual are and Livingaton Cancellitions on the capes, at page legister of De scatter. In the Matter of the Guardianship to takes and interest, ing of George Schuldice and Harry interest thereon at the rat said guardian as above set forth, mortgage appears That notice of the time and office of the place of said hearing be given by County, Sebras 12,16 104 merry cannot mortgage woord in Bask 12-4-3wks record in Bnok 22 or page 636, in the office of Deeds of Case Cou and the sum of gether cent from Novem in its sixth cause of the Last Will and restances in to faractors a most Jane A. Dovey, Decembed. Notice is hereby given that on the 22d day of December, A. D. 1913, at the bour of ten o'clock a m. at the office of the County Judge, in the Court House, Platismouth Chase County, Ne-braska, the following matters will be book 22 of morig hoves and George Oliver Isovey to Case County admit to probate the last will and the sum of testament of Jane A. Dovey, deceased thereon at from the 12th day of ate of the City of Plattsmouth, in Case Jounty, Nebraska, and for Letters of n its seventh Administration with will annexed to Frank E. Schlatter, and Horatic A. D. 1912. inse a mortgage Livingston Loss and Bu in out to want of wieser's Sub-division of lot III SW & of the SW & of Section IS ship 12. N. Range 14, E. in the Plattsmouth: norm lots 7, 2, 4, ALLEN J. BEESON. RAWLS & ROBERTSON. Attorneys. lition to the City of Platten 12-1-2 that portion of lat Stadelmann's Ad NOTICE TO CREDITORS. north of the north line of lo and line is continued eastering In the County Court in and for Cass County, Nebraska. County, Nebraska. In the Matter of the Estate of Harvey D. Travis, Decensed. To the Creditors of the Above Estate: You are hereby notified that hear-ings upon all claims against said in railint me. before the 5th day of Januar 1914, and in failing so to do fault will be duly entered th takens as praced BILLIN'S PETITION. RE LIVINGETON LOAN BUILDING ASSOCIATION. By the Court. ALLEN J. BEESON. By A. L. TIDD. Its Attorney, 11-26-Inches RAWLS & ROBERTSON. Attorneys:

PAGE 3

12-11-3t-whiy In the District

ubjections fimme

Nebraska.

JAMES T. BEGLEY,

NOTICE.

NOTICE.

District Judge.

he Livingston Long and B

Terrellants in the uplift.

Mr. Cummins, the superintendent, a fuse." "help out." That had been the trouble | end of it." with the previous instructors-they "A very Christian way to take it, out cheerfully? Matt promptly rely to prove it, inquired for a more you at the desk." precise definition of helping out.

the gymnasium floor, drying the bathing suits, cleansing the swimming farther away than ever. tank, checking the towels, doing whatever painting or varnishing was revolunteering-cheerfully-for any further services that might be needed. Matt's answers were so satisfactory that he soon found himself on the roof. in a suit of borrowed overalls, assisting a deaf and dumb Swede in reshingling it. In this work and others he passed the day, and in the evening he taught in the gymnasium. By 10 the gymnasium was clear, and he was free to return home, the tiredest man in Manaswan, and the happiest. He had got a job; he had already won praise; he foresaw promotion and Chris! He sat down and scratched off a glad little note; the good news was too big to keep; Chris should learn by the morning's mail that he had been unexpectedly-gloriously-successful.

At breakfast there was one from her. which he tore open and read with a sickening, deadly disappointment. It TED:

Dearest-It did not seem right not to tell papa, and now all that is left of me is cross-1 could have stood that-but he took it dreadfully, more than I can ever bring myself to tell you. I have promised not to see you for three whole months and not to write to you again except this, and I promised for you, too, to do the same. Please, please don't blame me too much or reproach me. I had no choicereally I had not-and even the three months was a tremendous concession. He insisted I would forget you in three months, and it seemed wiser to take it as a sort of challenge, specially when he said I would be grateful to him all the days of ton?" my life. I must just show him that three months won't make the least, tiny difference-and then say, papa, I can't help it, doubt it or my heart will break. He has you say that." a right to know that it is serious, hasn't he? That's what he said over and over again till I gave way. I am determined not to wait a minute longer than that, papa or no para, and said, indicating the starage. "It don't what you must do is to work hard and be able to support us when the time pay like mules-but if you care to come comes. I have to take your answer for in as a partner, you can have half of granted, as I solemnly promised you what there is." would not write to me. Please don't, my "But I haven't a cent, Victor, I darling, for otherwise you will add to my didn't mean anything like that. I diagrace and make papa think I have no didn't mean anything like that. I influence with you

We're going to Washington today, so "I didn't expect of the "Haps."

aswan Y. M. C. A. was poorly sup- you-have instructed me to dismiss ported, either by the moneyed peo- you at once. Your only means of getple of the town or the horde of illiter- ting back at them is to demand a full ate foreigners whom it was intended to month's salary, and if I were you 1 would do it and sue them if they re-

very low volced young man with eye | Matt's lip curied. "Give me what I work. glasses, laid less stress on Matt's have earned," he said. "To take more capabilities as a physical instructor would be like robbing the poor box. than whether he would be prepared to If I'm out, I'm out, and that's the wouldn't "help out." Would Matt help | Broughton-a very Christian and praiseworthy way to take it. Get your plied that he would, and smiling broad- things, and Mr. Phelps will settle with Matt left the building with a check

This, it seemed, included washing for $47 and within his breast a beavy the gymnasium windows, scrubbing and anxious heart. The world was before him again and that $75 was Forlorn and discouraged, Matt sought out the only man in Manaswan quired in the building, ofling and clean- that he could rely on. He needed ing a dozen typewriter machines, and more than a job; he needed a friend, and where else was he more likely to fine one than in Victor's garage?

Daggancourt was working over a car, and it was not until he had been nudged by a helper that he straightened himself and recognized Matt. He tried to look unconcerned, but there was a telltale quiver of the cheek and a startled, constrained air about him which showed his agitation. He grasped Matt's extended hand in both his own and bent his gray old head to hide his emotion.

Thursday evening, December 11. "We've both been fools. Victor," said Matt. "I was ashamed to tell you that they had stolen my money-yes, got of the concert work in Peru. clean away with it in San Franciscoand then you took it all wrong and froze up like a silly old iceberg. I wasn't very considerate, I'll admit, and I'm sorry, and"- a poor, limp little coward in the blackest gentleman can't say more than hes day or night. 'Phone 255. . The Watchman pitches into Streight, pretty plenty of mate, me mighty giad and thankful. I + Office 606 Main. didn't understand, that's all-I didn't vies anienienie nienienienie nienienienienie nienienienie understand." "I'm pretty hard pushed, Victor. Can you find me anything here?"

"Find you anything here, sir?" "Yes, a job. It needn't be anything much to begin with. Let me wash cars-anything."

"Is it as bad as that, Marse Brough-Daggancourt was shocked, and slowly took in Matt's shabby appearance but I love him more than ever. My dar- and his tanned, careworn face. "Well. ling, I will, I will, I will. And do not if that doesn't break me all up to hear

> "Can you make room for me?" The mulatto reflected.

"It isn't much of a business," he

"I didn't expect any money, Marse" that I may be "distanced." I shall * Broughton. You misjudge me when

The Metropolitan Grand Opera pocketbook containing $23. Quarter furnished the third num-Juo, H. L. Williams of Omaha ber of the lecture | course Wedaesday evening. December 3, called on us yesterday and left Each number on the program a V to be credited on his subshowed the high quality of their scription. Call again, John.

Friday afternoon occurred the George Stinchcomb, a "comp" second series of interclass bas- on the Daily Republican of Omaset bail games. The first game ha, but formerly of this place, esulted in a victory for the called into our office yesterday. the injuries very severe, seniors, who played the fresh- He looks hearly, and says the nen, the score being 18 to 17. In Republican always "looms up." the second game the juniors de- He's a "brick."

feated the sophemores, 28 to 24. The final game will be played off The Brooks house is being male with whom he was engaged

The Nebraska Weslyan Glee

lub, directed by George Aller, will give a concert in the chapel

You may rely upon your sales being properly looked after by

AMOS ISKE

AUCTIONEER

who has had many years experience in the ring, and has always maintained the reputation of securing the high-dollar for all goods and stock placed in his care. Numerous sales have been successfully conducted in this county.

Dates can be made at this of-

A. G. ISKE, LaPlatte, Neb.

fice or by writingurn on Monday.

"Can you make room for me?"

structions began at once, and very delightful and inspiring it was, too, as he hung over Daggancourt, encidating mysteries, and asking a pupil's innum-

(To Be Continued.)

CASS COUNTY ITEMS,

PERU, NEB.

next Friday, December 12, be- thoroughly overhauled and re- in squabbling, got a shotgun ween the juniors and seniors. paired, and Mr. Fitzgerald is and went for him. The boy re-Peru Stale Normal was rep- about to run it himself.

resented at the Schoolmasters' lub by President Hayes and Pro- We are very much pleased to lessor E. L. Rouse, R. D. Over- hear that some of our enterpris- ing the boy and the rest riddling holt, C. F. Beck, M. C. Leffer and ing grain men in the Plattsmouth W. N. Delzell. This meeting was Grain Co, have made a handsome The wounded boy is doing well. held Safurday, December 6, at the thing on barley in Chicago lately. Lindell hotel in Lincoln.

Connor & Thatcher were ferred himself, bag and baggage. The Christmas vacation begins December 20 and closes Satur- awarded the contract for 20,000 across the way to the large and day, January 3. School work will be resumed Taesday, January 6. thus enabling the students to re-turn on Monday. to town.

ever for business. Mr. L. has

"That's all right, Marse Broughton," interrupted the mulatto, lapsing into a broader accent than was his wont. "A gentleman can't say more than he's broader accent than was his wont. "A gentleman can't say more than he's man would ever look a moment up even, etc., for when it ain't question, they are obliged to do

Call Papillion Exchange, Chestnut 1201

T. W. Shryock, received a bad injury last Tuesday forenoon, admit to probate the last will and the sum He was going down the back stairs for a pail of water, when his feet, slipped on the sleetcovered steps, and he fell, severely cutting his head and m-juring his side. Dr. Livingston By the Court. attended him, and pronounced

A son of W. T. Clark of Bellevue, becoming enraged at a play-and went for him. The boy re-treated into a house and shut the door, but not before young Clark had fired, some of the shot strik-ing the boy and the rest riddling the door. Clark was arrested. The wounded how is doing well forever harred.

Billy Neville has fairly trans-and new acquaintances. New the year 1914: CLASS A-BOOKS. billiard tables, fine room and No. 1-8 quire Chattel Mortgage Record. V. V. Leonard, our well known photographic artist, has just re-turned from the burnt city, un-scorched by the fire, and ready as

Prof. Aller formerly had charge scorched by the fire, and ready as mately. So Billy says. Lands (printed head)

1-8 quire med. leafy.

voted for by the county commis- our Hank is the man that does at the statutes of his state he fish, it's something we wish, and

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. STATE OF NEBRASKA.

Matter of the Estate of Iran S te Decembed, ce is hereby given to the crudce is hereby a autil deemaned TRAT Destriction * nteen claims filed against min hefare me. County Judge o unty, Nebraska, at the County HSTREEN. County, room m in Plattamouth the 13th day of on the 15th day 914. MI 9 0 MONTH B. HE.

All claims must be filed in said court on or before said last hour of ben Witness my hand and seal of County Court, at Pintismouth. Deed Record Cinner

George Cator, Mrs. George Cutor, Srat real name unknown, et al., Teal name unknown, et al.,

To the Above Named Defendants You and each of you are bereby t field that on September 4. A 7. I plaintif field his petition in the Dis Court of Case County, Nebraska object and purpose of which is to f object and purpose of which is is inte-cine a mortgage gives by Jacob P. Falter and Mary Falter to the above named plantiff, dated May 15. A. P. 1907, on lot five (5., in block one Bun-drod seventy-two sills, in the City of Plattementh. Nebraska, and to mave each of the defendants in said putt, in-cluding yourseives, foreclined of all equity of relemption in and to said suit suit promises. remises mut be sold according to in ad out of the properts thereof plain if he paid the sum of three hundre

Attorneys 11-34-599 28

so, and they have made such a remark on the number of geese Esterbrook's No. 75 pens, per gross, So, and they have made such a remark on the number of geese Congress Tie envelopes, No. 10-1, 1-2 petition, and it is on file in the near Mr. W. Eikenbary's farm. Congress Tie envelopes, No. 10-1, 1-2 county clerk's office, and the Since that time we learn from Congress Tie envelopes, No. 10-1, 1-2 if may be a city some day, who knows? Just remember Lincoln's humble commencement. Yes, camera. J. Asch, Murray, Neb. To reject any or all bide. Bids will be addressed to Countr Bids will be addressed to Countr Clerk and marked and Stationery Bidders must file good and sufficient county clerk's office, and the Bince that time we learn from Herald is credibly informed that most of the pelitioners are democrats.

Afton, Frontier Co., Neh. May 13th, 1873.
"Tip-Top" Friend:—By the only arrived at our destination, hut have also christened our new city (? Well, if may he a city some day, who knows? Just remember Lincoln's graphic outfit for sale cheap; 4x5 the "coal bonds" proposed to be voted for hy the county commis-our Hank is the man that does "Patent Back, per quire. hend). sioners this fall. If the Watch- all he can to divide nature's gifts Index per book All records to be extra bound of No. 1 Linen Ledger paper, Byron Wes-ton's Ledger Paper or Whiting

at the statutes of his state he would find that whenever ten freeholders petition the commis-sioners to call for a vote on that question, they are obliged to do Last week we had occasion to Congress Tis envelopes, thick, per 100

