line of fancy ribbons of all kinds. These goods have been placed in profusion throughout the store and are such as to catch the eye of the early Christmas shopper, and are of such exceptional quality as to hold their complete attention. The store has already done a fine business and has been well filled with the good-natured crowd of shoppers seeking presents for their loved ones.

Always one of the attractive trading places of the city, the store of E. A. Wurl has added many attractive features for the holiday season in their different lines of goods that will be very much appreciated by the shoppers of the city. Large lines of dainty silk hosiery for both men and women have been added for the Christmas trade, as well as fancy mufflers in boxes, ties of all descriptions, handkerchiefs of all kinds from the cheapest to the most expensive, embroidered and fancy collars, and all the trimmings so much admired by the ladies, have been placed in the stock that is being offered to the public. The fine line of table linen which is carried by this firm is also the object of much admiration from everyone who has visited the store this season, and there is ample range for everyone to find something to suit them. The line of ornaments, such as burlins, combs and other fancy articles of like description almost baffles description, as there is almost everything that a person could possibly desire. The customers here are treated with the utmost courtesy and it is a great pleasure to visit this neat up-to-date establishment.

At the fine electrical establishment of Warga & Schuldice there is offered this year a most complete stock of fine portable electric table lamps, the giving of which as a present would insure perfect satisfaction, as they are objects of great beauty, and this line of articles is of such lasting quality as to make a present worth while. The firm also handles a number of other handsome and attractive electrical devices of different kinds, which go to make up a pleasant and modern home, and the gift of which would be much appreciated by any housewife.

MISS ANNIE ABBOTT THE STRONG WOMAN AT THE GRAND THEATRE

From Tuesday's Daily.

There was a packed house present last evening at the Grand theater to witness the appearance of Annie Abbott, the woman who defies anyone to lift her against her will, and her performances were truly baffling to those who were called on the stage to attempt to lift her. The persons selected were picked from among the audience at random and included several athletic young men, who pulled and pushed and strained in their attempts to lift Miss Abbott from her feet, but to no avail, as she stood firm and all their efforts were in vain. One of the chief features of the show was when the whole ten young men grasped a heavy upright pole and attempted to hold it down, when Miss Abbott grasped it with one hand, and despite the weight, carried it across the stage. The work of this lady is truly marvelous and it baffles one to tell the secret of her wonderful power, but there is no denying that she is without doubt a mystery to all those who were present last evening at the Grand.

Colonel Thrasher Down Town.

From Tuesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon Colonel J. H. Thrasher was able to be down town for the first time in almost three weeks, as he has been suffering from an attack of stomach trouble, but the colonel is feeling in very good shape and mighty glad to again be able to be up and around, and his numerous friends were more than delighted to be able to have him with them again. He was down this morning feeling better than ever and rejoicing in the bright, clear day.

STANDARD BEARERS ENTERTAIN THEIR MOTHERS

Methodist Church Parlors Scene of a Pleasant Gathering Last Night.

Last evening the Standard Bearers of the Methodist church, with their superintendent, Mrs. E. C. Hill, gave an entertainment in the church parlors in honor of their mothers, and the event proved one of the most delightful that this organization has ever held, and the beautifully decorated rooms, which displayed the colors of the society, blue and white, and a profusion of white carnations, was lighted by the sunshine of the many happy mother faces, who were there as the guests of honor for the occasion. The sumptuous banquet served by the young ladies of the society was most delicious and appetizing and each young lady had the pleasant task assigned her of serving her own mother with the delicious repast which had been prepared, and the scene was a very pleasing one, as the thirty-two members and guests gathered around the banquet board to enjoy the delicacies arranged for the occasion, which served to round out the perfect details of the banquet. The Young Men's Glee club was present and furnished three very pleasing numbers to the evening's entertainment, and their sweet voices were loudly encored by the delighted auditors. Mrs. William Baird gave one of her always enjoyable readings that added much to the value of the program, and as this talented lady has appeared several times before Plattsmouth audiences it is not necessary to state that her number was most thoroughly enjoyed. A very pleasing musical number of the program was given by Mrs. E. H. Wescott in her usual pleasing manner, which always pleases, and these numbers on the program made the evening's delight most complete and the mothers present felt that it was certainly a treat for them to be present with their daughters and enjoy the occasion.

At the banquet Miss May Glenn presided as toastmistress, and responses on behalf of the guests were made by Mrs. Handley and Mrs. F. M. Druliner, both of whom expressed their happiness at being able to be with the Standard Bearers on this joyful occasion.

AFTER ELEVEN YEARS ABSENCE N. C. MEYER VISITS CASS COUNTY

From Tuesday's Daily. Yesterday N. C. Meyer of Minco, Oklahoma, was in the city and while here called at the Journal office and added his name to the rapidly growing list of those who read the Old Reliable. Mr. Meyer was formerly a resident of this county, having been engaged in farming in Salt Creek precinct, near Alvo, and desires to keep in touch with what is going on in old Cass county. He left this county about eleven years ago, moving to Oklahoma, and has since been quite successful in farming in that state. He has been over several days looking over old scenes and visiting with acquaintances.

Arrival of a Fine New Son.

From Tuesday's Daily. The news has just been received here of the arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Truelson, in Omaha, of a fine new nine-pound son, who arrived on Sunday. The relatives here were greatly pleased to learn of the new addition to the family, and their happiness over the event is only surpassed by that of the parents. Mrs. Truelson was formerly Miss Harriett Murray, of Myard, and was very well known in this city.

The Senior Duetchen Klubb.

From Tuesday's Daily. The Senior Duetchen Klubb was entertained last evening by Misses Helen Egenberger and May Glenn at the home of the former. Various topics were discussed. One of the most enjoyable things of the evening was "War Die Duetchen Lieder," in which Master Stewart Egenberger accompanied the young people mit seinem trommel. At a late hour the hostesses served a delicious two-course luncheon and the young people departed declaring that the Senior Duetchen Klubb was the best organization of its kind in the city of Plattsmouth.

CITY COUNCIL TRANSACTED MUCH BUSINESS

to pay for the current used by these lights, as it was the system in vogue in several of the cities of the state. The mayor also stated that his attention had been called to a bad piece of sidewalk on the east side of the Marshall property on North Seventh street, and it was ordered repaired.

Councilman Lushinsky inquired how the shed to shelter the street sprinkler was coming on and was informed by the mayor that the work would be started at once, as the wet weather had kept the carpenters from getting busy, but they would get after it at once.

Councilman Buttery called the attention of the council to a bad place in Washington avenue, where water had been placed in the yard of N. K. Peoples, and he asked that the place be repaired, as it held the water from running off of the street and formed a dam there, making it a nuisance to those traveling along that thoroughfare.

The need of some piling at Twelfth and Main streets was brought to the attention of the council, as the water around the filling there had washed away the dirt and made a very dangerous place, and the work was ordered done at once.

Street Commissioner Lutz stated to the council, that the work on the culvert ordered near Second and Gold streets had not been carried out, as when he found it on private property and the owner objected strongly to his doing anything with it.

The finance committee reported favorably upon the following claims, and recommended their payment, which was accepted, with the amendment of Buttery to refer the claim of the Nebraska Lighting company to the claims committee for investigation: Frank Neumann, salary, $65; A. Schuldice, labor and material on drinking fountains, $3.75; W. B. Rishel, street sprinkling and sweeping, $19.60; Ray McBride, street work, $12.80; G. Rhode, work at city hall, $2; Charles McBride, street work, $26.60; William Hassler, repairs, $5.50; Mike Lutz, street commissioner, $27.90; Murl Parmele, street work, $3.60; Jesse Green, same, $1.80; William Egenberger, same, $2; R. A. Bates, printing, $39.20; Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company, rent and tolls, $5.40; M. E. Manspeaker, livery to city, $1.50; C. W. Baylor & Co., coal to city hall, $14; M. Archer, salary, $30; Ben Rainey, salary, $75; public library, expense for November, $2.16; C. C. Despain, salary and work at library, $6.50; Olive Jones, librarian, $35; John Fitzpatrick, salary, $20; I. N. Cummins, burying one dog, $0.50; J. V. Egenberger, coal and labor to city, $16; Nebraska Lighting Co., street lighting, $130; light at library, $3.16; light at city hall, 60 cents.

Just before the close of the meeting Councilman Richey was requested by his colleagues to make a few remarks, as he had just entered into married life, but he expressed his pleasure and the fact he had nothing to say, but received with a smiling face the congratulations of the other councilmen and city officials.

There being nothing further to engage the attention of the "dads" the council adjourned, and the members wended their way homeward.

EX-SENATOR THOMAS WRITES FROM CALIFORNIA

Senator S. L. Thomas, who is now a resident of Long Beach, California, and who formerly resided in this county, has written his nephew, Eddie Todd, of this vicinity, and he has turned the letter over to this office in order that we might publish portions of it, as Senator Thomas has a large circle of friends in this county who will be interested in knowing of his doings in his western home. He states:

"When I left my old home in Nebraska I thought that I would not get interested in elections again, but year by year I am becoming more and more interested in the future prospect of Long Beach, which now has a population of 35,000 people. Two of the candidates for city officials were from Nebraska—Hon. Geo. F. Kapp of Boyd county, Nebraska, and Lewis W. Shuman of Aurora, Neb. The Hon. George F. Kapp had been a very prominent member of the legislature in Nebraska before he chose Long Beach as his future home, and was running for city attorney, and I knew he would take the same deep interest in the affairs of our city that he did in assisting in the making of good laws for Nebraska. And Louis W. Shuman had served twenty-six years in Nebraska and had filled so many honorable positions in his locality. In the organization of our independent party I had been elected first vice president, so you see, my dear nephew, my coat had to come off. The election was held yesterday, December 2. I donated the use of my two autos and when the telephone rang and they told me the whole ticket was elected from top to bottom, I will not try to express my delight. You will have to guess it. Yours truly,

FRANK BESTOR ACCEPTS POSITION WITH THE G. P. EASTWOOD HARDWARE CO.

From Tuesday's Daily. Frank M. Bestor, who has been in the past year and a half in the employ of the Baner garage on Pearl street, has resigned his position there and has accepted one at the hardware store of G. P. Eastwood, where he will act as clerk at this large establishment. Mr. Bestor is a first-class salesman and thoroughly familiar with the hardware business, having for a number of years been connected with the hardware store of John Baner before that establishment was sold to Mr. Eastwood, and his friends can find him again at the old stand ready to serve the wishes of those who desire the best in the hardware line.

AN IOWA GENTLEMAN DEPOSITS $8 WITH JUDGE ARCHER

From Tuesday's Daily. Joseph Bowser, a resident of the state of Iowa, was a caller at the court of Judge M. Archer late Saturday afternoon, coming on invitation of Chief of Police Ben Rainey. Joe, it seems, had come to this city on that day, and with the usual weakness of the residents of that locality, had gotten considerable of the Nebraska brand of "bug juice" on board, and armed with a large-sized bottle of this, had wended his way to the Burlington station to board the train for home, when an unforeseen accident occurred when Joe dropped the bottle of "corn juice" on the hard unfeeling bricks of the platform and broke it. The police were notified and going to the scene of action hauled the victim of the loss to the police court, where the judge applied the customary $5 and, amounting to $8, and Joe being "flush" paid the fine and was escorted to the depot to board the train, feeling much rejoiced that he had escaped so lightly from the stern Nebraska law.

SOME ATTRACTIVE SHOW WINDOWS AT THE H. M. SOENNICHSEN STORE

From Tuesday's Daily. Two very attractive show windows which have been decorated for the holiday season are the ones in the H. M. Soennichsen store, where the artistic hands of the clerks have produced two very tasteful windows. In the west side of the store the dry goods line carried has been brought out nicely with appropriate displays of the different fabrics of the stock set off by decorations appropriate to the holiday season, and this makes a most pleasing combination of colors. Another very pleasing window is shown on the grocery side of the store, where the decorations consist wholly of bottles of olives, of which this store carries the largest stock in the city, and these bottles have been arranged most pleasingly to the eye and have attracted universal attention from everyone who has passed the store, and has resulted in the sale of many bottles of these delicious articles. Both of these windows the proprietor can well feel proud of and they appear most inviting to the passer-by.

Entertains Ladies' Auxiliary.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church were entertained in a most delightful manner at the home of Mrs. J. W. Johnson yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Agnes Chapman and Mrs. Johnson. Many of the ladies of the organization and church took advantage of the beautiful day and were in attendance, there being some forty ladies present. After a short business session the ladies devoted the afternoon hours in a most enjoyable social time; some of the ladies brought their fancy work and stitched on dainty needle work. The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. John Chapman, served a most delicious luncheon, which materially added to the pleasures of the afternoon.

CALIFORNIA'S BEST SEASON IS ALL THE YEAR 'ROUND

Season's have but little effect in the uniformly pleasing climate of California—every day is a day for out-day sports, and there are special attractions for every member of the family.

When you go to California is of little consequence, but how you go is of all importance.

There is one best way—the road that has proven its superiority for nearly half a century, the road whose service is as uniformly perfect as California's climate.
