"I have been somewhat covetous, but Doan's Regulets give just the results I desire. They act rapidly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—Geo. B. Krause, Altoona, Pa.

FOREST ROSE—Best flour on the market. Sold by all leading dealers.

I Have Decided On Account of the Mild Weather

To sell all Ladies and Childrens Coats, Suits and Furs, Boys Suits and Overcoats at 20% discount. This means more to you than the so-called half price Sales in the metropolitan papers, as I sell all my goods on a small margin in the first place. I also have a fine line of Toys and Dolls and many other items too numerous to mention that would make a nice Christmas Gift.

HON. MATTHEW GERING ADDRESSES THE ELKS OF FRANKLIN, PENNSYLVANIA

We have just had the pleasure of reading a copy of the Franklin (Pa.) Evening News of Monday, December 8, containing the address delivered by Hon. Matthew Gering of this city at the memorial exercises of the Elks' lodge of that city. The address is a fine oratorical effort, and the beautiful language used to express the impressive spirit of the occasion is that which this talented and gifted orator and attorney is so noted for throughout the country, and the News pays a very pleasing tribute, both to the orator and the address. The address is quite lengthy and space forbids us from giving it in full, as we greatly would be pleased to do, as there are few speeches that are more powerful and eloquent than the one delivered on this solemn occasion of paying tribute to the departed members of this great order.

A Delightful Scene.
A rich vineyard surrounded by hills and woods delights the eye of every lover of nature. The juicy fruit of European and American vineyards presented by lively maidens is both a delicacy and a nourishment. The hills and woods supply aromatic medicinal herbs and roots, which the skillful hand of the chemist combines with wine into Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, the well known family remedy. This is shown in Triner's Wall Calendar for 1914. A copy mailed to any address upon receipt of ten cents, sent to Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Shriners Go to Lincoln.
From Wednesday's Daily. Quite a number of the prominent Masons and members of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine were in the capital city today to attend the annual fall ceremonial of this order and to eat salt with their brother Shriners, in keeping with the Arabic custom. A business session will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock and at 6 o'clock the members will partake of the traditional salt. The journey across the desert will start at 8 o'clock and at the close the members will be entertained at a buffet luncheon. There are quite a number here who are members of Sesostri's temple at Lincoln, and they will be present in force to assist in the journey across the desert sands.

CHRISTMAS CARDS.
For the past few days the Journal job department has been busy preparing our line of Christmas Cards. These cards are printed on a very high grade correspondence card, with an envelope of the same stock, and make a very handsome card to send to your friends. We are preparing a great many different styles, with an assortment of greetings, and we are confident that you can find just what you want in this line. Before you buy novelties of this sort stop into the Journal office and let us show the line we have. Should you have a greeting of your own we are in a position to print it for you at a very reasonable price, as we are making a specialty of this work this season. Look after this line of work now.

A household remedy in America for 25 years—Dr. Thomas' Eucletic Oil. For cuts, sprains, burns, scalds, bruises, 25c and 50c. At all drug stores.

D. C. Howard and wife departed this afternoon for Omaha, where they will visit for a few days and then go to Arkansas, where they expect to visit for the winter with relatives.

OUR CHRISTMAS LINE IS NOW READY FOR YOU and we want to tell you that we have one of the greatest lines of stationery and fancy box papers ever brought to Plattsmouth. The popular Whiting line, the people who make the best paper to be found on the market. They are among the leaders, and when we buy their line, we know we have the best that we have for Christmas this year will be found to be the finest number that we have ever had. The initial letter is long and narrow, highly embossed in blue and gold, and will make a handsome present for any member of the family. Come in and see them.

Christmas Cards, Seals and Tags

In this line we have the very best to be found in the city, the Dennison line, conceded the world over to be the very best, and we have a nice assortment this season. You make no mistake in buying the Dennison goods.

Paper Napkins

Several very neat and attractive Christmas designs, also plain white. The Dennison Christmas Lunch Sets, large table cover, platters and doilies.

Crepe Paper

In all colors and shades, also all the Christmas numbers for all kinds of decorations. In fact, if there is anything in the paper and card line you want for your Christmas decorating, try the Journal office before going to Omaha as you have been doing. We are the Cass County Paper House, and we have the goods.

Printed Greeting Cards For Christmas

For the past few years we have been printing a limited supply of Christmas Greeting Cards, and as they have been in such great demand that we have given this department a great deal of attention this year. We have prepared a large number of these cards, all neatly enclosed in envelopes of the same stock. If you have sent these cards on former occasions you will want them again, and if you have never used them, try them this Christmas.
