

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY FOR THE XMAS SHOPPER

Owing to the backward season on all winter goods, we find ourselves greatly overstocked on all heavy merchandise, and for the balance of this month we are going to make a sacrifice on all our Men's and Boys' Suits and Overcoats, Ladies' and Misses' Coats and Skirts. YOU CAN BUY THEM AT ALMOST YOUR OWN PRICES.

FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE

Our Entire line of $18 Overcoats will go at

V. ZUCKER
Manager

WEeping WATER.
Republican.

Mrs. O. M. Lake of Fremont came in Wednesday night for an indefinite visit with her sister, Mrs. W. M. Elledge and family.

William Girardet of Delta, Colorado, came in last week for a visit with his uncle, S. F. Girardet and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Leyda and family left Monday morning for their home at Imperial, after several weeks' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Mary Pool went to Lincoln Monday, where she expects to stay a couple of weeks while she is having one of her ears treated.

George Carey went to Omaha Friday to meet his daughter, Mrs. R. Marlow, of Fullerton, who was coming home to be under her mother's care, as her health is poor.

Jim Harden, who has been working for Ole Olson and boarding at Nels Snell's, left sometime Wednesday night. Some clothes that belonged to Henry Christensen left also and Nels' money drawer was short fourteen or fifteen dollars.

Mrs. Lee Hammond and son, Howard, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Baty, and other relatives for several months while her husband has been moving from near Stockton, Kansas, to Coleridge, Neb., left Monday for their new home at Coleridge.

Miss Emma Clizbe of Omaha was home over Sunday for a farewell visit with her mother, Mrs. Amelia Clizbe, and her sister, Miss Edith, who left Tuesday morning for California. Miss Emma may join them in California a little later in the season, if it is possible to get a vacation from her duties in Omaha.

Dick Koester brought to the A. I. Ralston market today 26 hogs that brought him the nice sum of $754.14. This was probably as good a bunch of hogs as ever came to this market. It was not to Dick's good looks or winning ways that we attribute to the raising of these dollar bringers, it was probably due to the care and proper feeding done by Harry McGrady, who works on the farm for Mr. Koester.

Croup and Cough Remedy.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery, Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy, Dr. King's New Discovery, is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

First Mask Ball of the Season.

The first of the masked balls to be held in the city will be given Wednesday evening, December 31, on New Year's eve at Coates' hall by the Cosmopolitan club. A large number of cash prizes will be given for the best costumes shown and the event will start the season of masquerades out in full blast.

Stomach Troubles Disappear.

Stomach, liver and kidney troubles, weak nerves, lame back and female ills disappear when Electric Bitters are used. Thousands of women would not be without a bottle in their home. Eliza Pool of Depew, Okla., writes: "Electric Bitters raised me from a bed of sickness and suffering and has done me a world of good. I wish every suffering woman could use this excellent remedy and find out, as I did, just how good it is." As it has helped thousands of others, it surely will do the same for you. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c and $1.00. At all Druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Thoroughbred white Wyandotte cockrels for sale. Inquire of or 'phone Julius A. Pitz. 12-8-14twkly

NEHAWKA.
News.

Charley Kelberg came in Monday morning from Minnesota, where he had been for the past several months.

Mrs. David Sampson, who had been visiting her niece, Mrs. Charles Bates, for a week, returned to her home at Jackson, Nebraska, Monday.

Mrs. John L. Long and the two smallest children went to Red Oak, Iowa, Tuesday for a week's visit to Mrs. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray.

One of Hugh Warden's teams got loose at the stock yards Wednesday and ran up through town and down over the tracks before finally winding up against a tree.

Mrs. Seeley and her daughter left last week for their home in Mabel, Minn., after a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Seeley's sister, Mrs. Isaac Pollard.

Mrs. Robert Viall left yesterday morning for Blair, where she will assist in caring for her aged father, S. E. Case, who has been bedfast for some time and who is getting worse.

A Mr. and Mrs. Roseman were

Watches, Diamond Rings, La Vallieres, Cuff Links, Fancy Combs and Barretts, Silver, Cut Glass, Brass Goods and Novelties is larger than ever, and you can find just what you want at just the right price. You are invited to call early before the assortments are broken.

B. A. McElwain
Jeweler
On the Sunny Side of Main St.

Items For Xmas Shoppers

Ladies White Waists, Fancy Aprons Embroidered Velvet Collars, Lace Collars and Cuffs to match. Silk Raten Collar and Cuffs to match. McCallum Silk Hosiery. Phoenix Novelty in Hand Bags. Silver and Gold Coin purses. The newest Pattern in Cheeny Bros Foullard Fancy Embroidered Handkerchiefs. Fancy Lace Edge Handkerchiefs. Holly Boxes for Xmas.

Zuckweiler & Lutz

here Monday and Tuesday visiting at the Isaac Pollard home. Their home is in Syracuse, New York, and they were on their way to California, where they usually spend their winters.

John Rough shipped his last car of sheep, a double-decker, Monday. His shipment two weeks ago topped the market. He expresses himself as fairly well pleased with the venture, but insists that he did not make any great thing feeding.

Brand new boy babies are reported at the home of John Murdoch and Oscar Shrader, the happy events occurring during the past week. Later—the above item is all a mistake as far as John Murdoch is concerned. They have a GIRL, and as this is the first visit of the stork in thirteen years they are very much pleased. Their only other child is a boy.

Constipation Poisons You.

If you are constipated, your entire system is poisoned by the waste matter kept in the body—serious results often follow. Use Dr. King's New Life Pills and you will soon get rid of constipation, headache and other troubles. 25c at Druggists or by mail. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

LOUISVILLE.

Mrs. W. L. Ross is here from Maitland, Mo., visiting relatives, and will remain until after the holidays.

Mrs. Ed Taylor was called to Greenwood to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. E. P. Jones, Tuesday.

At the last meeting of the school board it was decided to have but one week vacation for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kilgore will leave this week for their former home in Columbus, Ohio, for a month's visit with relatives.

Frank Depuy, of Two Harbors, Minn., is in town visiting his mother, Mrs. I. Depuy, and his sister, Mrs. George Reichart.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Barker have returned from Two Harbors, Minn., where they have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Wade and family.

Mrs. Peter Mockenhaupt and little son arrived from near Alvo Tuesday for a short visit. Mrs. Mockenhaupt recently underwent a critical surgical operation in a Lincoln hospital.

Frederich Stohman took one of his daughters to Omaha Monday, where she underwent a very critical surgical operation at St. Joseph's hospital. Mr. Stohman returned home Wednesday evening and stated that she was getting along nicely.

Mrs. W. W. Valentine of Schlater, Missouri, a sister of the editor of the Courier, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in an Omaha hospital, is now considered out of danger. She will visit with her parents in this city for a short time before she returns to her home in Missouri.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin-soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia, but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

We will buy chickens December 29th and 30th. Watch for price. Zuckweiler & Lutz. 12-15-14-wkly

UNION.
Ledger.

W. B. Banning departed Sunday evening for Kansas City, where he spent a few days looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. May Wilkins came home Tuesday from La Platte, where she had been visiting her brother, Joe Childester and family.

John Hoback, jr., and wife have cause to rejoice because the good old stork visited their home on Thursday, December 4, and left in their care a fine little son.

Mrs. Mary Tucker of Strathmore, Canada, arrived Wednesday for an extended visit with her father, George Chappel, and other relatives in this part of the county.

Charles Hanson of Nehawka was here Monday, going to Omaha for the purpose of bringing home his wife, who has been in one of the hospitals there for several weeks.

Fritz Trow of Kingfisher, Okla., arrived here yesterday morning for a short visit with his many old-time friends, and goes from here to Louisville and Lincoln to make a visit with his daughters.

R. M. Weimer of Pawnee, Okla., gave his Union friends a pleasant surprise Tuesday, when he stopped off here to make two days' visit in the good old town, where he spent several years as a clerk and postmaster about 15 years ago.

Robert Banning, a jovial young man, who spent the past year in this town and vicinity, departed Wednesday evening for his home at Dillon, Montana, intending to remain there during the winter and will probably be with us again in a few months.

Dr. D. F. Huston received a telephone message about 10 o'clock Monday night that was indeed a "very severe shock"—the news that his mother had died

What to Give Where to Get It

You will find an immediate answer in Our Stock of Holiday Goods

WEEMING WATER.
Republican.

Mrs. O. M. Lake of Fremont came in Wednesday night for an indefinite visit with her sister, Mrs. W. M. Elledge and family.

William Girardet of Delta, Colorado, came in last week for a visit with his uncle, S. F. Girardet and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Leyda and family left Monday morning for their home at Imperial, after several weeks' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Mary Pool went to Lincoln Monday, where she expects to stay a couple of weeks while she is having one of her ears treated.

George Carey went to Omaha Friday to meet his daughter, Mrs. R. Marlow, of Fullerton, who was coming home to be under her mother's care, as her health is poor.

Jim Harden, who has been working for Ole Olson and boarding at Nels Snell's, left sometime Wednesday night. Some clothes that belonged to Henry Christensen left also and Nels' money drawer was short fourteen or fifteen dollars.

Mrs. Lee Hammond and son, Howard, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Baty, and other relatives for several months while her husband has been moving from near Stockton, Kansas, to Coleridge, Neb., left Monday for their new home at Coleridge.

Miss Emma Clizbe of Omaha was home over Sunday for a farewell visit with her mother, Mrs. Amelia Clizbe, and her sister, Miss Edith, who left Tuesday morning for California. Miss Emma may join them in California a little later in the season, if it is possible to get a vacation from her duties in Omaha.

Dick Koester brought to the A. I. Ralston market today 26 hogs that brought him the nice sum of $754.14. This was probably as good a bunch of hogs as ever came to this market. It was not to Dick's good looks or winning ways that we attribute to the raising of these dollar bringers, it was probably due to the care and proper feeding done by Harry McGrady, who works on the farm for Mr. Koester.

Croup and Cough Remedy.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery, Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy, Dr. King's New Discovery, is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Stomach Troubles Disappear.

Stomach, liver and kidney troubles, weak nerves, lame back and female ills disappear when Electric Bitters are used. Thousands of women would not be without a bottle in their home. Eliza Pool of Depew, Okla., writes: "Electric Bitters raised me from a bed of sickness and suffering and has done me a world of good. I wish every suffering woman could use this excellent remedy and find out, as I did, just how good it is." As it has helped thousands of others, it surely will do the same for you. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c and $1.00. At all Druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Thoroughbred white Wyandotte cockrels for sale. Inquire of or 'phone Julius A. Pitz. 12-8-14twkly

NEHAWKA.
News.

Charley Kelberg came in Monday morning from Minnesota, where he had been for the past several months.

Mrs. David Sampson, who had been visiting her niece, Mrs. Charles Bates, for a week, returned to her home at Jackson, Nebraska, Monday.

Mrs. John L. Long and the two smallest children went to Red Oak, Iowa, Tuesday for a week's visit to Mrs. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray.

One of Hugh Warden's teams got loose at the stock yards Wednesday and ran up through town and down over the tracks before finally winding up against a tree.

Mrs. Seeley and her daughter left last week for their home in Mabel, Minn., after a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Seeley's sister, Mrs. Isaac Pollard.

Mrs. Robert Viall left yesterday morning for Blair, where she will assist in caring for her aged father, S. E. Case, who has been bedfast for some time and who is getting worse.

A Mr. and Mrs. Roseman were

Watches, Diamond Rings, La Vallieres, Cuff Links, Fancy Combs and Barretts, Silver, Cut Glass, Brass Goods and Novelties is larger than ever, and you can find just what you want at just the right price. You are invited to call early before the assortments are broken.

B. A. McElwain
Jeweler
On the Sunny Side of Main St.

ELMWOOD.
Leader-Echo.

A bouncing baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Monroe Saturday morning.

Harmond Beck of Murray was in town between trains Tuesday. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Corbett.

Mrs. Ed Earnest departed Wednesday for West Point and Ft. Madison, Iowa, for a visit with her father at the former place and her aunt, Mrs. R. J. Sniff, at the latter place.

Mrs. J. L. Greeson and daughter, Vernia, until recently of York, but now of Fairbury, Neb., were the guests of Elmwood relatives and friends a couple of days this week.

Misses Norma West and Minnie Kaczmark went to Lincoln Monday for a visit with Mrs. Roy Jeffers. From there Miss West went to North Bend, Neb., to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Melvin.

Wm. Senf and family arrived Wednesday afternoon to again take up their abode here. They come from Hemmingford, Neb., where Mrs. Senf's health was not the best. We are glad to welcome them back. They will move onto the F. Hendricks' farm in the spring.

Neustiel & Son have sold their blacksmith and auto livery business to W. E. Palmeto, former owner of the blacksmith business. Mr. Palmeto takes over the agency also of the Empire touring car. It gives us pleasure again to wish Mr. Palmeto success upon re-entering the business field in Elmwood.

On Tuesday evening the K. of P. lodge elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: C. C. H. Brookman; L. C. W. C. Bartlett; prelate, M. H. Tyson; M. at A., Ed Earnest; M. of W., L. W. Roeltger; K. of R. and S., E. J. Jeary; I. G., Wm. Hullfish; O. G., Wm. Deles-Dernier; trustee for 3 years, A. G. Reid.

W. H. H. Cassel, who recently underwent a special treatment for cancer of the eye at Mound Valley, Kansas, is very much encouraged, according to his statements at this office Wednesday. This we were pleased to learn and the many friends of Mr. Cassel rejoice with him in the hope that he will soon be divested of his troublesome affliction.

Constipation Poisons You.

If you are constipated, your entire system is poisoned by the waste matter kept in the body—serious results often follow. Use Dr. King's New Life Pills and you will soon get rid of constipation, headache and other troubles. 25c at Druggists or by mail. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

LOUISVILLE.

Mrs. W. L. Ross is here from Maitland, Mo., visiting relatives, and will remain until after the holidays.

Mrs. Ed Taylor was called to Greenwood to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. E. P. Jones, Tuesday.

At the last meeting of the school board it was decided to have but one week vacation for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kilgore will leave this week for their former home in Columbus, Ohio, for a month's visit with relatives.

Frank Depuy, of Two Harbors, Minn., is in town visiting his mother, Mrs. I. Depuy, and his sister, Mrs. George Reichart.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Barker have returned from Two Harbors, Minn., where they have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Wade and family.

Mrs. Peter Mockenhaupt and little son arrived from near Alvo Tuesday for a short visit. Mrs. Mockenhaupt recently underwent a critical surgical operation in a Lincoln hospital.

Frederich Stohman took one of his daughters to Omaha Monday, where she underwent a very critical surgical operation at St. Joseph's hospital. Mr. Stohman returned home Wednesday evening and stated that she was getting along nicely.

Mrs. W. W. Valentine of Schlater, Missouri, a sister of the editor of the Courier, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in an Omaha hospital, is now considered out of danger. She will visit with her parents in this city for a short time before she returns to her home in Missouri.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin-soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia, but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

We will buy chickens December 29th and 30th. Watch for price. Zuckweiler & Lutz. 12-15-14-wkly

UNION.
Ledger.

W. B. Banning departed Sunday evening for Kansas City, where he spent a few days looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. May Wilkins came home Tuesday from La Platte, where she had been visiting her brother, Joe Childester and family.

John Hoback, jr., and wife have cause to rejoice because the good old stork visited their home on Thursday, December 4, and left in their care a fine little son.

Mrs. Mary Tucker of Strathmore, Canada, arrived Wednesday for an extended visit with her father, George Chappel, and other relatives in this part of the county.

Charles Hanson of Nehawka was here Monday, going to Omaha for the purpose of bringing home his wife, who has been in one of the hospitals there for several weeks.

Fritz Trow of Kingfisher, Okla., arrived here yesterday morning for a short visit with his many old-time friends, and goes from here to Louisville and Lincoln to make a visit with his daughters.

R. M. Weimer of Pawnee, Okla., gave his Union friends a pleasant surprise Tuesday, when he stopped off here to make two days' visit in the good old town, where he spent several years as a clerk and postmaster about 15 years ago.

Robert Banning, a jovial young man, who spent the past year in this town and vicinity, departed Wednesday evening for his home at Dillon, Montana, intending to remain there during the winter and will probably be with us again in a few months.

Dr. D. F. Huston received a telephone message about 10 o'clock Monday night that was indeed a "very severe shock"—the news that his mother had died

WEEMING WATER.
Republican.

Mrs. O. M. Lake of Fremont came in Wednesday night for an indefinite visit with her sister, Mrs. W. M. Elledge and family.

William Girardet of Delta, Colorado, came in last week for a visit with his uncle, S. F. Girardet and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Leyda and family left Monday morning for their home at Imperial, after several weeks' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Mary Pool went to Lincoln Monday, where she expects to stay a couple of weeks while she is having one of her ears treated.

George Carey went to Omaha Friday to meet his daughter, Mrs. R. Marlow, of Fullerton, who was coming home to be under her mother's care, as her health is poor.

Jim Harden, who has been working for Ole Olson and boarding at Nels Snell's, left sometime Wednesday night. Some clothes that belonged to Henry Christensen left also and Nels' money drawer was short fourteen or fifteen dollars.

Mrs. Lee Hammond and son, Howard, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Baty, and other relatives for several months while her husband has been moving from near Stockton, Kansas, to Coleridge, Neb., left Monday for their new home at Coleridge.

Miss Emma Clizbe of Omaha was home over Sunday for a farewell visit with her mother, Mrs. Amelia Clizbe, and her sister, Miss Edith, who left Tuesday morning for California. Miss Emma may join them in California a little later in the season, if it is possible to get a vacation from her duties in Omaha.

Dick Koester brought to the A. I. Ralston market today 26 hogs that brought him the nice sum of $754.14. This was probably as good a bunch of hogs as ever came to this market. It was not to Dick's good looks or winning ways that we attribute to the raising of these dollar bringers, it was probably due to the care and proper feeding done by Harry McGrady, who works on the farm for Mr. Koester.

Croup and Cough Remedy.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery, Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy, Dr. King's New Discovery, is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Stomach Troubles Disappear.

Stomach, liver and kidney troubles, weak nerves, lame back and female ills disappear when Electric Bitters are used. Thousands of women would not be without a bottle in their home. Eliza Pool of Depew, Okla., writes: "Electric Bitters raised me from a bed of sickness and suffering and has done me a world of good. I wish every suffering woman could use this excellent remedy and find out, as I did, just how good it is." As it has helped thousands of others, it surely will do the same for you. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c and $1.00. At all Druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Thoroughbred white Wyandotte cockrels for sale. Inquire of or 'phone Julius A. Pitz. 12-8-14twkly

NEHAWKA.
News.

Charley Kelberg came in Monday morning from Minnesota, where he had been for the past several months.

Mrs. David Sampson, who had been visiting her niece, Mrs. Charles Bates, for a week, returned to her home at Jackson, Nebraska, Monday.

Mrs. John L. Long and the two smallest children went to Red Oak, Iowa, Tuesday for a week's visit to Mrs. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray.

One of Hugh Warden's teams got loose at the stock yards Wednesday and ran up through town and down over the tracks before finally winding up against a tree.

Mrs. Seeley and her daughter left last week for their home in Mabel, Minn., after a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Seeley's sister, Mrs. Isaac Pollard.

Mrs. Robert Viall left yesterday morning for Blair, where she will assist in caring for her aged father, S. E. Case, who has been bedfast for some time and who is getting worse.

A Mr. and Mrs. Roseman were

Watches, Diamond Rings, La Vallieres, Cuff Links, Fancy Combs and Barretts, Silver, Cut Glass, Brass Goods and Novelties is larger than ever, and you can find just what you want at just the right price. You are invited to call early before the assortments are broken.

B. A. McElwain
Jeweler
On the Sunny Side of Main St.

EAGLE.
Beacon.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Nick Becker, Tuesday, December 2, a ten-pound boy.

Mr. Patsey O'Halloran went to Minneapolis, Minn., where he will remain until spring.

Mrs. Agnes Carper fell down the cellar steps last week, receiving several bad bruises. She is recovering rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Allen are rejoicing over the arrival of a 7-pound girl at their home Thursday morning.

Mrs. C. E. Barrett, who has been at the St. Elizabeth's hospital at Lincoln for the past three weeks, was brought home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Leon Burdick went to Lincoln last Thursday to take care of her mother, Mrs. S. D. Archer, who fell down stairs one day last week and injured her spine. She is mending slowly.

Roy Jones arrived from Verdun, Neb., last Saturday to take up the duties of station agent for the Missouri Pacific at this place. Mrs. Jones and their two children arrived Wednesday evening. They are now occupying the Guy Adams property.

Arlene, the 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McManis, caught the index finger of her left hand in the cog wheel on the Beacon job press today (Friday) tearing an ugly gash in it. A doctor was called and several stitches were required to close the injured member.

A meeting was held last Thursday night for the purpose of organizing a gun club. The following officers were elected: C. O. Wright, president; W. P. Yoho, secretary; E. P. Betts, treasurer; E. F. Oelschlagler and Ed Wachter, field men. Members: Melvin Turner, W. P. Yoho, C. O. Wright, E. P. Betts, A. M. Trumble, Ed Wachter, D. B. Thorpe, Ed Oelschlagler and P. F. Vermer.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin-soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia, but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

We will buy chickens December 29th and 30th. Watch for price. Zuckweiler & Lutz. 12-15-14-wkly

UNION.
Ledger.

W. B. Banning departed Sunday evening for Kansas City, where he spent a few days looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. May Wilkins came home Tuesday from La Platte, where she had been visiting her brother, Joe Childester and family.

John Hoback, jr., and wife have cause to rejoice because the good old stork visited their home on Thursday, December 4, and left in their care a fine little son.

Mrs. Mary Tucker of Strathmore, Canada, arrived Wednesday for an extended visit with her father, George Chappel, and other relatives in this part of the county.

Charles Hanson of Nehawka was here Monday, going to Omaha for the purpose of bringing home his wife, who has been in one of the hospitals there for several weeks.

Fritz Trow of Kingfisher, Okla., arrived here yesterday morning for a short visit with his many old-time friends, and goes from here to Louisville and Lincoln to make a visit with his daughters.

R. M. Weimer of Pawnee, Okla., gave his Union friends a pleasant surprise Tuesday, when he stopped off here to make two days' visit in the good old town, where he spent several years as a clerk and postmaster about 15 years ago.

Robert Banning, a jovial young man, who spent the past year in this town and vicinity, departed Wednesday evening for his home at Dillon, Montana, intending to remain there during the winter and will probably be with us again in a few months.

Dr. D. F. Huston received a telephone message about 10 o'clock Monday night that was indeed a "very severe shock"—the news that his mother had died

WEEMING WATER.
Republican.

Mrs. O. M. Lake of Fremont came in Wednesday night for an indefinite visit with her sister, Mrs. W. M. Elledge and family.

William Girardet of Delta, Colorado, came in last week for a visit with his uncle, S. F. Girardet and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Leyda and family left Monday morning for their home at Imperial, after several weeks' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Mary Pool went to Lincoln Monday, where she expects to stay a couple of weeks while she is having one of her ears treated.

George Carey went to Omaha Friday to meet his daughter, Mrs. R. Marlow, of Fullerton, who was coming home to be under her mother's care, as her health is poor.

Jim Harden, who has been working for Ole Olson and boarding at Nels Snell's, left sometime Wednesday night. Some clothes that belonged to Henry Christensen left also and Nels' money drawer was short fourteen or fifteen dollars.

Mrs. Lee Hammond and son, Howard, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Baty, and other relatives for several months while her husband has been moving from near Stockton, Kansas, to Coleridge, Neb., left Monday for their new home at Coleridge.

Miss Emma Clizbe of Omaha was home over Sunday for a farewell visit with her mother, Mrs. Amelia Clizbe, and her sister, Miss Edith, who left Tuesday morning for California. Miss Emma may join them in California a little later in the season, if it is possible to get a vacation from her duties in Omaha.

Dick Koester brought to the A. I. Ralston market today 26 hogs that brought him the nice sum of $754.14. This was probably as good a bunch of hogs as ever came to this market. It was not to Dick's good looks or winning ways that we attribute to the raising of these dollar bringers, it was probably due to the care and proper feeding done by Harry McGrady, who works on the farm for Mr. Koester.

Croup and Cough Remedy.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery, Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy, Dr. King's New Discovery, is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Stomach Troubles Disappear.

Stomach, liver and kidney troubles, weak nerves, lame back and female ills disappear when Electric Bitters are used. Thousands of women would not be without a bottle in their home. Eliza Pool of Depew, Okla., writes: "Electric Bitters raised me from a bed of sickness and suffering and has done me a world of good. I wish every suffering woman could use this excellent remedy and find out, as I did, just how good it is." As it has helped thousands of others, it surely will do the same for you. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c and $1.00. At all Druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Thoroughbred white Wyandotte cockrels for sale. Inquire of or 'phone Julius A. Pitz. 12-8-14twkly

NEHAWKA.
News.

Charley Kelberg came in Monday morning from Minnesota, where he had been for the past several months.

Mrs. David Sampson, who had been visiting her niece, Mrs. Charles Bates, for a week, returned to her home at Jackson, Nebraska, Monday.

Mrs. John L. Long and the two smallest children went to Red Oak, Iowa, Tuesday for a week's visit to Mrs. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray.

One of Hugh Warden's teams got loose at the stock yards Wednesday and ran up through town and down over the tracks before finally winding up against a tree.

Mrs. Seeley and her daughter left last week for their home in Mabel, Minn., after a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Seeley's sister, Mrs. Isaac Pollard.

Mrs. Robert Viall left yesterday morning for Blair, where she will assist in caring for her aged father, S. E. Case, who has been bedfast for some time and who is getting worse.

A Mr. and Mrs. Roseman were

Watches, Diamond Rings, La Vallieres, Cuff Links, Fancy Combs and Barretts, Silver, Cut Glass, Brass Goods and Novelties is larger than ever, and you can find just what you want at just the right price. You are invited to call early before the assortments are broken.

B. A. McElwain
Jeweler
On the Sunny Side of Main St.

ORANGES

The crops this year are better than ever. See the display in our window.

We have a large supply of Xmas Trees and Apples of every description.

Our china department is complete and we are offering some bargains in fancy handpainted china that are hummers and will make fine presents for Xmas.

In eatables we have anything the market affords.

In our dry goods window we have a curtain made out of Eucalyptus Buds—which was imported from California and would make a nice Xmas present for someone.

We can help you select a Xmas present for every member of the family; come in and look them over. We believe you can find something to suit taste as well as price.

H. M. SOENNICHSEN

suddenly and without any previous illness at her home in Crawfordville, Iowa. Dr. Huston and wife started for that place on the first train Tuesday morning to attend the funeral.

For Rent.
A farm in Southern Alberta, close to town. See S. O. Cole, My-nard, Neb. 12-15-2wks-w

MYNARD.
(Special Correspondent.)

Excellent weather for winter months, and everybody seems to enjoy the beautiful sunlight of the past week.

Albert and Willie Wetenkamp are sojourning in the southern part of Kansas, where they have a large tract of land in the vicinity of the oil and gas district.

Miss Minnie Wans of Albany, N. Y., is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. W. B. Porter.

W. P. Kiser of Central City, Neb., is visiting relatives and friends in the precinct.

District No. 3, Elmer Frans, teacher, gave a box social Thursday evening, and a nice little sum of money was realized from the sale of boxes.

J. A. Kiser is spending a few days at Lincoln, visiting with his family.

Miss Eva Porter spent the week end in the metropolis doing shopping.

The Ladies' Aid gave a supper in the Woodmen hall Saturday evening. And to say that it was greatly enjoyed by all would be putting it very mildly. Among those from the county seat were Mr. and Mrs. John Beeson, Ethel Tritsch and Catherine Schraek.

Martin Thacker and R. L. Propst visited in Nebraska City Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw are visiting at the home of Mrs. William