MANY CHANGES IN THE BURLINGTON'S NEW SCHEDULE

The new changes in time on the Burlington, which have been announced for January 1, have attracted a great deal of attention and several have requested that we publish the official notice of the changes proposed which may affect travelers from this city, and a number of the more important of these are:

Passengers from the Schuyler line for points east of Ashland may transfer to No. 4. Passengers on No. 4 from west of Ashland going to Plattsmouth and beyond, should transfer at Ashland to No. 34.

No. 16 for Sioux City will leave Lincoln at 1:35 p. m., instead of 1:40. Agents should take note of this earlier departure and give it the requisite publicity.

No. 2 will leave Lincoln at 1:50 p. m., instead of 2 p. m., arriving in Omaha at 3:30 p. m. It will leave Omaha at 3:45 p. m. instead of 4:20 p. m.

MOST ENJOYABLE EVENT IN HONOR OF MR. AND MRS. FRANK COOK

From Saturday's Daily. The pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cook, south of this city, was the scene of a very happy social event Saturday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Cook entertained a number of friends in a most delightful manner in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook, of Havelock, Neb., who have been visiting relatives in this city during the holidays. The evening hours were made to pass all too rapidly, as the guests participated in an enjoyable social time, interspersed with dancing and other amusements calculated to

FARMERS' INSTITUTE WAS A BIG SUCCESS

(From the Union Ledger). The annual meeting of the local organization was held here on Thursday of last week, too late for a report in The Ledger that week. The attendance was very good, and an unusual feature was the fact that the program was carried out according to previous announcement, with some good additions thereto. The first session was called to order at 1:30 p. m. by Elmer B. Chapman, president, and the first address was on "Better Fruits for the Farm," by J. R. Cooper of Lincoln, who gave a very interesting and instructive lecture. E. P. Brown of Davey, Neb., talked upon "Hogs, Corn and Alfalfa," an address that was appreciated for its real worth. A novel feature of the program was the special session for the ladies, at which Miss Florence Secor of Melbourne, Iowa, gave a very excellent talk on "Problems in Home Nursing," and taking a lady as a patient, she gave a demonstration of many things connected with her subject, much to the benefit of all who had the pleasure of attending the session.

At the evening session Mr. Cooper, Mr. Brown and Miss Secor delivered addresses that were very interesting. So well had President Elmer Chapman and Secretary G. W. Cheney attended to their duties that they were re-elected for another year. The Ladies Auxiliary also elected officers as follows: President, Mrs. Edward Young; secretary, Miss Elsie Taylor; treasurer, Mrs. Louis Anderson.

COUGHS THAT PREVENT SLEEP
These coughs are wearing and if they "hang on," can run one down physically and lower the vital resistance to disease. Mr. Bob Ferguson, 349 Pine St., Green Bay, Wis., writes: "I was greatly troubled with a bad cough that kept me awake nights. Two small bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured me." For sale by all druggists.

$100 Reward, $100
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they will pay One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address P. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE J. W. VALLERY

Last Sad Rites Over the Deceased Occurred From the Home of His Brother.

The funeral of the late Jacob W. Vallery was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his brother, Peter J. Vallery, on South Twelfth street, and was attended by a large number of the sorrowing friends and relatives, who gathered to pay their last tributes of respect to one whom they had known for so many years and whose friendship they had valued greatly in life. The services were in charge of Rev. D. L. Dunkleberger of the Christian church, who preached a beautiful sermon full of comfort to the family and friends gathered there. A quartet sang several of the old familiar hymns during the service, at the close of which the body was borne to its last earthly resting place in Oak Hill cemetery by the pallbearers, consisting of Edward Donat, William Weber, H. M. Soennichsen, J. C. York, Henry Jess and John Cory, all old friends of the deceased. The two daughters of Mr. Vallery, Mrs. Lula Finley, of Bayard, Nebraska, and Mrs. Nellie Foot, of Sioux City, Iowa, were present at the last sad rites.

THE GEORGIA MINSTRELS A GREAT SHOW

From Friday's Daily. The presentation last evening at the Parmele theater of the famous Georgia minstrels of Richards & Pringle was one that greatly pleased the large audience that filled the theater, and the excellent company served amusement most pleasantly to pass two hours' time in the different parts assigned to them. Earl Terry and William Nash, the end men, were the chief fun-provokers of the evening, although Doc Ford and Robert Hampton assisted ably in the driving of dull care away by their jokes and songs. The company has an excellent singing chorus and one that furnishes a sweet and pleasing tone, while the soloists with the company were all first-class and the selections given, most of which were of the swaying rag-time variety, were warmly applauded by the delighted auditors. The company carries an excellent orchestra, which adds greatly to the pleasure of the offering of the show.

Following the feast of music of the first part several pleasing single and double acts were put on by different members of the company. The Drows, who appear in a magician act, were very good and the different articles produced by Mr. Drew from hats, baskets and cones were truly bewildering to the eye. William Nash appears in a monologue role, in addition to his fun-provoking stunts in the first part of the show, and his part was one that pleased everyone, as he is one of the best comedians that has been here this season, and well deserves his title—some comedian. Another very pleasing feature was the musical act of Mr. Terry and Miss Henderson, introducing a number of popular songs, which were received with the warmest approval by everyone present. The Alabama quartet was also a great hit on the program and the sweet voices of the singers charmed the audience to such an extent that they were encored several times. The minstrel closed with a rip-roaring act introducing singing and dancing.

DISAPPEARANCE OF JOHN A. JOHNSON IS STILL A DEEP MYSTERY

There is still a deep mystery surrounding the disappearance of John Johnson from this city, and his friends here have almost given up all hopes of finding him alive, as there has been no word of his whereabouts given to them or the authorities, who have been trying to locate him, and the general opinion is that in a despondent mood, the young man made away with himself by drowning in the river. A reward of $25 for any information as to his whereabouts has been offered, and the sheriff has sent out postcards with a description of the young man to different localities where it might be possible he could have gone or where his body might have been secured from the river. Mr. Johnson was about five feet, nine inches in height, weighing 210 pounds; was smooth shaven and dark haired, and when last seen was dressed in a dark suit with small gray stripe and wore a pair of Florsheim shoes, which had recently been half-soled, and he also carried an open-face gold watch with Elgin movement. The reward will be given for any information as to his whereabouts wired to Sheriff Quinton in this city.
