

The "New Idea" Manure Spreader

Does More and Better Work.

It thoroughly pulverizes all kinds of manure. Spreads more manure in less time than any other machine of like capacity. The manure is spread wider and more evenly. Simple construction makes the New Idea the ideal spreader for busy farmers. Substantially made from the best material. Every part is inspected many times from start to finish. No complicated gears to get out of order. Has a steady, non-jerking feed and a perfect, endless conveyor that positively cannot slip.

Here Are a Few More Features of This 100-Point Spreader:

Two cylinders (instead of one). Pointed cylinder teeth that never pull out. Cannot choke or clog. Unique and patented distributor spreads manure 5 to 7 feet wide. Low down. Direct chain drive and simplest of all feeding mechanisms. Strong Wheels, lightest draft. Look at the "New Idea" Spreaders the next time you are near our store.

"Uncle Al" Dickson, we are sorry to learn, does not gain any. He now lies very near death's door at his home in Lincoln.

The country residence of J. W. Mendenhall looks very attractive in a new dress of paint, the hand-work of H. A. Bragg.

A. E. Woods and wife of Burwell, Neb., came in Tuesday for a visit of a few days at the home of the latter's brother, J. E. McGrew.

Mrs. Frank Cook and daughter, Alice, of near Alvo, took the train here Monday for Weeping Water, where they went to visit relatives.

J. D. Britell returned Wednesday from Neligh, Neb., where he attended the funeral of his youngest daughter, Mrs. Max White. Mrs. White leaves a husband and two children.

Wm. Harley returned Monday from a visit with his stepfather, A. J. Young, of Firth, Neb., who is very low with facial cancer. Mr. Harley also had a visit while there with John Patton, who he says is also in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tolhurst returned Wednesday from their honeymoon trip and immediately started to supply themselves with the necessities for housekeeping. They will reside in the commodious Backemeyer residence.

Floyd L. Wolcott came in the first of the week from Ansley, Nebraska, for a few days' business and pleasure visit among his old friends. Floyd is prospering well as agent for the Guaranty Fund Life Insurance company of Omaha.

Joseph Mullen of this place and J. G. Adams of Eagle appear in the list of names drawn at Lincoln for service on the petit jury of the United States district court, presided over by Judge T. C. Munger. The court will convene on January 26.

UNION.

Mrs. Grace Barker of Villisca, Iowa, arrived here yesterday and is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Thede Frans, south of town.

Mrs. William Folden of Lead, S. D., arrived here last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Daniel Lynn, and other relatives.

Mrs. Viola Walker of Council Bluffs came yesterday and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sherwood, east of town.

Everett Hunt suffered an attack of inflammatory rheumatism last Sunday and since that time he has been "tied up" for repairs, which is no pleasant pastime for him.

Thede Frans departed Monday for Kingfisher, Okla., having received a message informing him of the serious illness of his mother, and stated that there was but slight chance for her recovery.

This town can and ought to have a lighting plant and water-works, a reading room, a band and orchestra and a blamed sight less gossip and back-biting. Those things can be had by proper action, and there's no doubt as to the benefits being worth the trouble and expense.

Exa Frans was taken to Omaha Wednesday morning by his father, Charles W. Frans, to undergo an operation for appendicitis. The intention was to have the operation performed yesterday morning, but we had no information from the hospital at time of going to press.

About fifteen men, directed by the new owner, Davie Blair Porter, made short work of wrecking the old livery barn Monday, and soon had the site cleared for the foundation men to begin work. Porter's new barn will be 50x50, framed and boxed, then finished throughout with heavy galvanized iron, making it practically fire-proof.

George Johnson of Elgin, Neb., arrived Monday night and visited a few days with his sister, Mrs. M. H. Shoemaker, and other relatives and friends. George brought two cars of sheep to the South Omaha market, and being so near the old home town he had to come down for a few days' visit with "we'ns."

ENJOYABLE MEETING OF THE HIGH SCHOOL GERMAN CLASS

From Friday's Daily.
The German club of the junior class of the High school held a most enjoyable meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hild, being the guests of their classmates, Emil and Miss Sophia Hild, and the event proved one of the most pleasant of the school year and was thoroughly enjoyed by the jolly party of young folks. A program of recitations and songs in German served to pass the time most pleasantly until an appropriate luncheon was served, to which the young people did ample justice, and the occasion will long be remembered most pleasantly by all who were fortunate enough to be present. After several hours of the rarest enjoyment the jolly gathering broke up and departed for their homes, voting their host and hostess most royal entertainers in the fullest sense of the word.

Mrs. Harry Patterson nee Anna Davis, who has been so seriously ill for the past two months in a hospital at Galesburg, Ill., is reported as being some better.

Mrs. Charles Conrad and little daughter were passengers for Omaha Monday evening, where Mrs. Conrad will consult a specialist in regard to her health, which has been poor lately.

William Waldo has rented the Mary Ketch farm south of town and Mrs. Dora McConnell and daughter, Shirley, will make their home with them. Harry expects to take up some kind of mechanical work in Omaha, and Frank will work for someone on a farm around here.

I want a man with a rig or auto in each county in Nebraska to look after a well established business in small towns and on rural routes. $20.00 a week and liberal commission paid right from the start. Farmers who are able to give this work their attention make desirable representatives, while experienced agents cannot help but succeed. Representatives must be high-grade in every respect and stand well in their home community. Inquire at or address the Journal office 1-19-24fwkly

The news of the death of Dorothy, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ward, on Tuesday evening, January 13, came as a shock to the many friends of the family in this vicinity. Only the Saturday before she had been in town and was as happy and cheerful as ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Masters are erecting a neat little cottage on their lot just west of the school house. During the cyclone of 1908 they lost their household effects and at that time Mrs. Masters' father, J. M. Hoover, presented them with the lot upon which they are building their new home.

COLDS TO BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY.

Intelligent people realize that common colds should be treated promptly. If there is sneezing and chilliness, with hoarseness, tickling throat and coughing, begin promptly the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It is effective, pleasant to take, checks a cold, and stops the cough which causes loss of sleep and lowers the vital resistance. For sale by all druggists.
