C. E. WESCOTT'S SONS Everybody's Store

C. E. WESCOTT'S SONS RECEIVE A DRAFT OF $25

From the Larnard Co. of Detroit as First Prize on Window Display of Their Goods.

This morning the firm of C. E. Wescott's Sons received a draft from the firm of Larnard Carter company of Detroit, Michigan, the manufacturers of the celebrated Headlight brand of overalls, as the first prize in the window display of these overalls in the United States.

It will be remembered that the Wescott firm in the early part of September had in their west show window the model of a modern locomotive some fourteen feet long and four and a half feet high, of the latest twentieth century type and equipped with a large massive boiler, short smokestack and stem dome and vertical cylinder, pilot trucks and drivers, all of which were made in exact proportion to the real locomotive.

near the track were the words, "Take the Headlight route to satisfaction."

The window set forth to the fullest the advantages of the celebrated $1.00 brand of overalls and it attracted a great deal of attention from everyone passing along the street, as at night the bright electric headlight of the locomotive shown forth carrying its message. The locomotive was erected and placed in the window by C. E. Wescott, assisted by his son, Mason, who is some locomotive fancier, and the work was such as to attract much attention, as it was complete in every detail.

The firm feels very proud of the prize, as they were in competition with the stores throughout the United States, and the reward, which was made by the Green Advertising agents of Detroit, was made after a thorough examination of the different displays made by the various stores.

MAY STEWART IN "AS YOU LIKE IT" SATURDAY NIGHT

The May Stewart company Saturday evening closed their two nights' engagement in this city by the presentation of William Shakespeare's delightful comedy, "As You Like It," and all who were present at the Parmele were more than delighted with the beautiful manner in which this play was presented by the capable company of actors, headed by the brilliant young star. While the attendance was not as large as it should have been considering the excellence of the company, all who were present greatly appreciated the splendid efforts of the actors who are supporting Miss Stewart in her repertoire of classic plays that she is offering to the amusement-loving public this season.

THE T. J. SOKOL MASK BALL WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

There was an immense crowd present Saturday evening at the T. J. Sokol hall on the occasion of their twenty-second grand mask ball, and everyone in attendance felt that they were well repaid for their presence by the delightful sociability that prevailed throughout the evening. The bad weather did not seem to deter the dancers from gathering at an early hour in the evening, and by 9:30 the dance floor was crowded by the merry dancers in costumes, and it was a difficult matter for the judges to pick out the winners of the prizes, but they finally based their decision on Mrs. Emmons Plak, who was garbed as a Spanish lady, as the first prize winner, while Frank Plack carried off the second ladies prize, being dressed as a colored girl. The first gentleman's prize was awarded to Brody Crist as the dignified dude, while George Gobelman was given the second prize, as a comic old rube, and these characters were all first-class and well worth the prizes given them.
