MISS HARRIET FORBES SURPRISED ON HER BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Yesterday was the birthday anniversary of Miss Harriet Forbes, and the young ladies who are employed at the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company's office in this city concluded to plan a surprise on her, and in order to make the surprise more complete planned it for Tuesday evening. Arming themselves with many good things to eat, they wended their way to her home, in the south part of the city, and invaded the Forbes home and took Miss Harriet by complete surprise, as she had not suspected anything of the kind. The young ladies had come prepared to have a good time and to show Miss Harriet how to celebrate her birthday anniversary in the proper manner. Games and conversation, interspersed with music, furnished plenty of amusement. During the course of the evening's entertainment a tempting luncheon was served, and at a late hour, after wishing Miss Harriet many more such happy birthdays, the invaders withdrew their forces, declaring they had had the time of their lives. Those in attendance were: Misses Marie Nesladek, Laura Meisinger, Mabel Brown, Anna Wurga, Anna Kopia, Marie Svoboda, Ruth Hetherington, Hermia Roetter and Mrs. A. Nesladek and little daughter, Margaret Anna.

REMAINS OF MRS. LOUISE J. FINCH TAKEN TO GLENWOOD FOR INTERMENT

The funeral of Mrs. Louise J. Finch, who passed away in this city Tuesday evening, was held this morning from the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Shafer, in the west part of the city, short services being conducted by Rev. D. L. Dunkleberger, who, in a few brief remarks, paid a tribute to the long and useful life of the departed lady and offered to the sorrowing family words of comfort for the loss they had sustained in the taking away of their mother. A choir composed of Jesse Perry, O. Sandin and Rev. Dunkleberger sang a number of the favorite and well loved hymns, after which the body was taken to the Burlington depot, where the funeral party departed for Glenwood, Iowa, where all that was mortal of this worthy lady was laid to rest in the cemetery in that city.

A stubborn, annoying, depressing cough hangs on, racks the body, weakens the lungs, and often leads to serious results. The first dose of Dr. King's New Discovery gives relief. Henry D. Sanders of Cavendish, Vt., was threatened with consumption, after having pneumonia. He writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery ought to be in every family; it is certainly the best of all medicines for coughs, colds or lung trouble." Good for children's coughs. Money back if not satisfied. Price 50c and $1.00. At all Druggists, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

SERIOUS CONFLAGRATION LAST NIGHT BARELY AVERTED IN TIME

The residence of E. B. Perry, in the west part of the city, had a very close call from being the scene of a very serious fire last evening and the members of the family are congratulating themselves on the narrow escape they had from what might have been a most serious conflagration. Jesse Perry came home last evening about 9 o'clock from town, and arriving home entered the house and struck a match to light the lamp and did not notice whether any sparks had flew over the room, but picking up the lamp walked on into the dining room, where he set the lamp on the table, but the cries of his sister caused him to rush back to the parlor, where he discovered the rope portier which hangs in the doorway connecting the two parlors, in a blaze and he at once grabbed the flaming curtain, and tearing it from its fastenings rushed to the stove and threw it in, but the blaze had already scorched the woodwork on the doorway quite badly. It is most fortunate that Miss Perry discovered the blaze and gave the alarm when she did, as the fire was making great headway, and to the coolness of the members of the family in taking the matter in hand is due the saving of their home.

Banning of Union would be a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor was the statement made by Sheriff Quinton of Cass county while here today. Mr. Banning was the introducer of the commission form of government law at the 1911 session of the legislature."

MRS. J. C. PETERS ENTERTAINS KENSINGTON CLUB QUITE ROYALLY

The Kensington club was entertained in a most charming manner yesterday after at the cozy home of Mrs. J. C. Peterson on lower Main street, and the ladies who compose the membership of the club passed the hours most pleasantly in their needlework, interspersed with social conversation, which made the time fly, and it was with the most profound regret that they saw the hour for departure draw near, so thoroughly were they pleased with the gracious hospitality shown by the hostess. At an appropriate hour a very tempting three-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Carl Kunsman, that proved a most delightful feature of the afternoon's entertainment, and the members of the club departed for their homes feeling deeply indebted to Mrs. Peterson for the pleasing time they had enjoyed as her guests.

M. Fanger of Missouri Valley came in this afternoon to look after his business interests in this city for a short time.

BANQUET FOR THE C. E. SOCIETY

Arrangements Have Been Made for Holding Same at Presbyterian Church Next Tuesday.

The members of the Christian Endeavor society of this city have arranged for holding an anniversary banquet on next Tuesday evening at the church parlors, and on this occasion the members of the society and the young people of the church will gather together for a genuine good time, which gives promise of being filled not only with the social pleasure, but also with much benefit to all who attend.

Addresses will be delivered by Attorney C. A. Rawls, Attorney A. G. Cole and Rev. J. H. Salsbury of Auburn, Neb., who was formerly pastor of the church here, and who was a great worker in the young people's society, and his visit here is being looked forward to with great interest by the members of the society. Several very pleasing musical numbers will be given on the program, in addition to the excellent list of speakers, that will prove added attraction to the banqueters.

The banquet itself will be in the nature of a chicken pie supper, and with the memories of the delicious feasts that have been served by the ladies of the church in mind there is little doubt that there will be a large attendance of the members of the society present, as the Presbyterian ladies are certainly right on the job when it comes to preparing and serving of the most tempting viands.

The members of the society are selling tickets for the feast at 25 cents per plate, which will be used to defray the actual expense of the banquet, as it is not the intention of the society to make it a money-making proposition, but an occasion in which they can all take part with mutual benefit to themselves and to the work of the Christian Endeavor society in which they have enlisted. The parlors of the church will be decorated very prettily in the colors of the society, red and white, for the occasion of the banquet and will make a fitting setting for the event.

If you have any trouble with your stomach Chamberlain's Tablets will do you good. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally.
